Game Notes

2009 UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE FOOTBALL

#23 Delaware (4-2, 2-2 CAA) vs. Towson (2-3, 1-1 CAA)
Saturday, October 17, 2009 • 3:30 p.m. • Towson, Md.
Johnny Unitas Stadium (11,198)

GAME PREVIEW

Two teams coming off high-scoring Colonial Athletic Association victories last weekend square off this Saturday afternoon as No. 23 ranked University of Delaware makes the quick hour drive south to take on host and rival Towson Saturday at 3:30 p.m. at Johnny Unitas Stadium.

The teams will meet for the sixth straight year and for the 11th time with Delaware holding a 6-4 advantage, including consecutive wins of 27-7 in 2007 at Towson and 31-21 last season at Delaware Stadium.

Delaware, which is ranked in the national Top 25 for the first time this season, will be on the road for the third time in four weeks after suffering a 30-20 loss to then No. 5 William & Mary Sept. 26 in Williamsburg, Va. and earning a big win with a 27-17 triumph at Maine in Orono on Oct. 3.

Following this week's game, the Hens will have a week off before returning to action Oct. 31 to take on rival James Madison at 12 noon for Homecoming.

The Hens (4-2, 2-2 CAA), who have won two straight, used a 20-point first quarter to propel them to the dominating 43-27 victory over No. 12 Massachusetts this past Saturday. Quarterback Pat Devlin threw for 284 yards and four touchdowns, including two to WR Mark Duncan, and the Blue Hen defense forced three turnovers, highlighted by a 42-yard fumble return for a touchdown by Marcus Burley in the first quarter.

Towson (2-3, 1-1 CAA) snapped a two-game losing streak Saturday with a 36-28 road win at Rhode Island in Kingston, R.I. The Tigers also used a 20-point first quarter to move them to the victory as QB Pete Athens threw for one touchdown and scored the eventual game-winner with 6:50 left to play.

Running back Tremayne Dameron added three touchdown runs for the Tigers, scoring on runs of five yards and three yards in the opening. The win also snapped a six-game CAA losing streak for the Tigers since last season.

LAST MEETING:

Delaware 31, Towson 21

Nov. 8, 2008 • Delaware Stadium

NEWARK, Del. -- Delaware got some unexpected, but much-needed, contributions and the Blue Hens returned to winning ways with a 31-21 CAA victory over Towson.

Redshirt freshman QB Lou Ritacco made his first career start and threw for 225 yards and a touchdown, Junior Jabbie ran for 141 yards and two touchdowns, Kervin Michaud returned from what was thought to be a season-ending clavicle injury back in September and added 58 yards on the ground, and Jerry Butler returned a kickoff for a touchdown for the second straight week as the Blue Hens (4-6, 2-4 CAA) snapped a two-game home losing streak.

Towson (3-7, 1-5 CAA) lost its third straight game as the Tigers managed just 282 total yards, allowed six sacks, and were hurt by several special teams miscues. QB Sean Schaefer recovered from a tough opening half and hit on 22 of 33 passes for 297 yards and three touchdowns and became just the 11th player in NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision history to surpass 11,000 career yards passing.

The Hens held Towson to just 29 total yards on the way to a 14-0 lead at halftime and Butler's 98-yard kickoff return, the second longest in school history behind a 99-yarder by Buck Thompson in 1946, sparked the Delaware early in the second half. Jabbie's four-yard scoring run with 5:43 left to play and Hens leading by just three points, capped a 75-yard drive and sealed the victory

QUICK NOTES

- Delaware (4-2, 2-2 CAA) won its second straight game Saturday with a dominating 43-27 upset victory over No. 12 Massachusetts before a sellout crowd of 22,034 at Delaware Stadium. The win snapped an eight-game losing streak to Top 25 opponents since 2007.

- Delaware's last three-game win streak of any kind came last season when the Hens defeated Delaware State, Northern Iowa, and Southern Illinois in succession in the playoffs.

- Delaware has already matched last year's win total for the entire season when the Hens went 4-8. A win over Towson would give Delaware at least five wins for the 24th time in the last 26 seasons since 1984.

- The Hens have now won consecutive CAA games for the first time since the 2007 season when Delaware won three straight on the way to a berth in the NCAA FCS national championship game.

- Blue Hen head coach K.C. Keeler is inching closer to an impressive coaching milestone. The eight-year mentor of the Blue Hens has a career record of 148-57-1, which includes nine seasons at NCAA III Rowan University and eight at Delaware. He needs just two wins to become just the 11th active NCAA FCS coach to reach the 150 mark for wins.

- After winning at Maine back on Oct. 3, Delaware takes to the road again this week. The Hens will be looking to win consecutive CAA road games for the first since opening the 2007 season with league road wins at William & Mary (49-31) and Towson (27-7).

- Delaware QB Pat Devlin has been named the CAA Offensive Player of the Week each of the last two games. He has thrown for over 200 yards in three straight games and will be looking to become only the third player in UD history to have four straight 200+ yard passing games. Devlin, who leads the CAA in passing yardage (256.0) and total offense (270.8), would join Joe Flacco (15 straight in 2006-07) and Matt Nagy (9 straight in 1998).

- Blue Hen wide receiver Mark Duncan has caught 11 passes for 245 yards and three touchdowns over the last two games, including snaring seven passes for 106 yards and two touchdowns against UMass. He has caught at least on pass in 30 straight games and this week will be looking to become the first UD receiver since Aaron Love (four straight in 2006) to gain over 100 yards through the air in three straight games.

- Towson snapped a two-game losing streak with the win over Rhode Island Saturday, a win that also snapped a six-game CAA losing streak that dated back to last season. The Tigers have not won consecutive CAA games since defeating Villanova and Delaware back to back in 2006. The Tigers are 10-32 (.238) in league play since joining the CAA in 2004.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

Delaware: Ranked No. 23 in The Sports Network Top 25 poll this week. Delaware earned votes in each of the first six polls of the season but not enough to earn a Top 25 ranking. The Top 25 ranking is the first for the Hens since being picked No. 24 in the Oct. 6, 2008 poll and it snapped a streak of 14 straight weeks out of the polls. The Hens also earned votes in the FCS Coaches Poll but not enough to rank in the Top 25. Both polls are announced each Monday throughout the season...Towson: Not ranked in either poll

HENS NO. 6 IN FIRST LAMBERT CUP EASTERN POLL

The Blue Hens earned a No. 6 ranking in the first ECAC Lambert Cup Meadowlands FCS Poll announced on Monday. Richmond was No. 1 with 160 points followed by New Hampshire (142), Villanova (126), William & Mary (110), Colgate (76), Delaware (62), Holy Cross (48), Massachusetts (42), James Madison (34), Lafayette (30), and Harvard (30). The poll ranks the top teams in the East. Cincinnati earned the top spot in the FBS poll while Bloomsburg was No. 1 at the Division II level and Dover, Del.-based Wesley was No. 1 at the Division III level.

LAST WEEK FOR DELAWARE

Quick Start Sends Hens to Dominating 43-27 Upset Win Over No. 12 Massachusetts

NEWARK, Del. (Oct. 10, 2009) -- Delaware came up with a huge performance for the second straight week as the Hens jumped out fast to a 20-0 lead and cruised to the CAA win over No. 12 Massachusetts Saturday night before a sold-out Delaware Stadium crowd.

Delaware QB Pat Devlin continued his spectacular play as he hit on 19 of 26 passes for 284 yards and four touchdowns - two to senior wideout Mark Duncan - and the UD defense stifled the UMass running game all night. Duncan caught seven passes for 107 yards on the night.

Delaware (4-2, 2-2 CAA) won its second straight game and snapped an eight-game losing streak to Top 25 opponents as the Hens dominated a Minutemen team (3-2, 1-1 CAA) that had won three straight games by an average of 28 points. The Hens' last win over a Top 25 opponent came in the 2007 NCAA FCS semifinals when Delaware knocked off No. 4 Southern Illinois 20-17 on the road.

The Hens, who scored 20 points in the opening quarter for the first time since 2007, held the CAA's third best rushing team to 143 yards under its average. CAA rushing leader Tony

Nelson, who entered the contest averaging 114 yards per game and who piled up 163 yards against the Hens in last season's 17-7 win, was held to just 33 yards on 15 carries.

Jon Striefsky booted field goals of 22, 24, and 23 yards to become Delaware's career field goal leader with 33 and CB Marcus Burley made the biggest defensive play of the night for the Hens when he returned a first-quarter Nelson fumble 42 yards for a touchdowns.

WR Mark Mackey made a spectacular one-handed touchdown catch from Devlin from 15 yards out to open the scoring seven minutes in and Delaware added a pair of touchdowns just 54 seconds apart. Devlin hit Duncan in stride down the left sideline on a 22-yard scored for a 14-0 lead and after Massachusetts got the ball back, Burley scooped up a fumble by Nelson and sprinted untouched down the sidelines for a 42-yard return with 4:17 left in the opening stanza. Mackey's touchdown was set up when LB Paul Worriow recovered a fumble by Havens on UMass' first drive of the day.

The lead ballooned to 23-3 at the half on a 22-yard field goal by Striefsky with 9:22 left before the break, and the Hens went up 37-6 with touchdowns 17 seconds apart late in the third quarter as Devlin tossed a four-yard scoring pass to TE Trevor Mooney and then found Duncan for the second time on a 27-yard strike. Duncan's scoring catch was set up when All-American Charles Graves intercepted a pass by Havens on the previous play.

HENS DOUBLE UP ON CAA PLAYERS OF THE WEEK HONORS ONCE AGAIN; DEVLIN ALSO HONORED AS ECAC EASTERN PLAYER OF THE WEEK

For the second straight week, two University of Delaware players have been honored by the Colonial Athletic Association for their efforts in last week's win.

Junior QB Pat Devlin (Downingtown, Pa.) was named CAA Offensive Player of the Week for the second straight week while redshirt freshman cornerback Marcus Burley (Richmond, Va.) was picked as CAA Rookie of the Week.

Last week, Devlin earned Offensive honors while running back David Hayes was selected as Rookie of the Week.

Devlin was also honored as the Eastern College Athletic Conference Eastern Offensive Player of the Week for his exploits. The ECAC covers all Eastern schools from Maine to Virginia.

Devlin had another outstanding effort as he led the Blue Hens' 43-27 upset win over No. 12 Massachusetts. He led an offense that piled up 411 total yards as he completed 19 of 26 passes for 284 yards and a season-high four touchdowns, hitting Mark Duncan on scoring throws of 22 and 27 yards while also hooking up on scoring tosses to Mark Mackey and Trevor Mooney.

Burley, who started his third straight game at cornerback for injured starter Tyrone Grant, recorded a team-high seven tackles, including six solo stops, and returned a fumble 42 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter.

Devlin is the first CAA player to earn Offensive Player of the Week honors in consecutive weeks since QB Rodney Landers of JMU was honored last Sept. 15-22 and the first Blue Hen to accomplish the feat since QB Andy Hall received the award in back-to-back weeks vs. Massachusetts and Villanova in 2003.

DAVIS, MORALES, TUNSTALL EARN TD CLUB MVP HONORS

Redshirt freshman OT Chad Davis, sophomore DE Chris Morales, and freshman DB Ricky Tunstall earned Blue Hen Touchdown Club MVP Awards for their play in the win over Massachusetts. Davis was honored as Offensive MVP, Morales was named Defensive MVP, and Tunstall was the Special Teams MVP. The three will be honored at the weekly Blue Hen Touchdown Club Luncheon this Friday, Oct. 9 at the Bob Carpenter Center Lounge.

Davis (Newark, Del.) stepped in for ill starter Shea Allard just hours before the game and made his first career start for the Hens. He led an offense that piled up 43 points and 411 total yards. Morales (Methuen, Mass.) was honored for the second time this season as he recorded three tackles, two for loss, and one sack and also forced a fumble that was returned 42 yards for a touchdown by Marcus Burley in the first quarter. Tunstall (Glassboro, N.J.) keyed a solid special teams performance as he posted one tackle and helped the Hens hold UMass to a 20.0 yard average on eight kickoff returns.

LAST TIME OUT FOR TOWSON

Tigers Pick Up First CAA Win of Season with 36-28 Road Win at Rhode Island

KINGSTON, R.I. (Oct. 10, 2009) - Freshman quarterback Peter Athens threw for one touchdown and ran for the game-winner while directing Towson to a 36-28 Colonial Athletic Association victory over Rhode Island Saturday afternoon in Meade Stadium.

The win snapped a 13-game, two-year-old road losing streak for the Tigers. It also ended a six-game slide for the Tigers against CAA opponents as Towson improved to 2-3 overall and 1-1 in the league.

Athens, who shrugged off two interceptions, was Towson's biggest offensive threat of the contest. He completed 11 of 21 attempts for 188 yards. He was also Towson's leading rusher in the game, rushing 74 yards on 13 carries including a 34-yard run that proved to be the winning points in the contest.

Running back Tremayne Dameron added three touchdowns for the Tigers, scoring on runs of five yards and three yards in the opening quarter and adding a six-yard scoring run late in the second quarter to extend the Towson lead to 26-14. Towson also took advantage of three Rhode Island turnovers to post the win.

The Tigers made an early statement with big plays on both sides of the ball to build to a 29-21 lead at halftime of their Colonial Athletic Association contest with Rhode Island.

A wild first quarter resulted in a 20-0 Towson lead before the Rams could get started.

The Tigers wasted no time in lighting up the scoreboard. On the second play from scrimmage Athens hit flanker Hakeem Moore with a flare pass that Moore turned into a 78 yard touchdown scamper.

Towson led 20-0 after the first quarter and 29-21 at the break, but Rhode Island rallied to narrow the margin to 29-28 when QB D.J. Stefkovich hit Joe Migliarese on a six-yard scoring toss with 9:31 left in the third quarter.

Athens provided the spark for Towson in the fourth and decisive quarter. After forcing a Rams punt, the Tigers took over on their own 47. Athens kept the drive alive to the URI 34. On a fourth-and-two he kept around right end and managed to run untouched into the end zone for the TD and a 36-28 lead with 6:50 left in the contest.

2008 RECORDS

Delaware: 4-8 Overall, 2-6 in Colonial Athletic Association (5th Place, South Division)

Towson: 3-9 Overall, 1-7 in Colonial Athletic Association (6th Place, South Division)

BLUE HEN TRUE FRESHMEN CONTINUE TO SHINE

True freshmen are playing a vital role in the success of the Blue Hens this fall. A total of nine true freshmen have seen action in the first six games, including WR Rob Jones who has started four games. Other true freshmen who have seen action are RB Leon Jackson, LB Mike Hirt, DB Kasseim Everett, LB Carl Smith, DB Ricky Tunstall, LB Cazavious Ray, K Jason Bilotti, CB Tim Breaker, and DT Irvin Titre. Jones is the Hens' second leading receivers with 16 catches for 180 yards (10.0 avg.) and two touchdowns, Jackson is No. 2 on the team in rushing with 220 yards (3.2 avg.) and a three touchdowns, Titre is in the two-deep mix on the defensive line, and Everett, Tunstall, Ray, and Breaker are all playing key roles on special teams. Tunstall also recorded his first career interception vs. Maine.

INJURY UPDATE

Senior linebacker/defensive end Matt Marcorelle, who has been beset by injuries throughout his career at Delaware, was dealt another setback recently. The three-time captain had successful surgery on his ankle Sept. 23 in Baltimore and will miss the rest of the season. He could be eligible for a sixth-year of competition should he apply to the NCAA due to his history of injuries, including missing all but two games of the 2006. Marcorelle, an All-American and two-time All-Colonial Athletic Association selection, has seen limited action in three games this season and recorded one tackle.

Junior cornerback Tyrone Grant (hamstring) has missed the last three weeks with a hamstring injury suffered vs. Delaware State Sept. 12 but could return vs. Towson. WR Mark Schenauer (leg vs. William A& Mary) and WR Rob Jones (hip vs. Maine) have also suffered injuries that have forced them to miss recent games and are not expected to play vs. Towson. TE Colin Naugle (knee) left the Massachusetts game Saturday and will miss the Towson game. His status for the remainder of the season will be determined later.

Senior TE Josh Baker (ankle) and junior DB Sean Scanlon (shoulder) are both out for the season with injuries. Baker, who missed the entire 2008 season due to a suspension, suffered a season-ending knee ligament injury in the first half of the season opener Sept. 4 vs. West Chester. Baker, who caught three passes for 33 yards, including a seven-yard touchdown reception in that West Chester game, is expected to apply to the NCAA for a sixth year of eligibility. Scanlon, who has played quarterback and safety at Delaware, played in the first two games this season but an existing shoulder injury needed surgery.

OWNERS OF NATION'S TWO TOUGHEST SCHEDULES SQUARE OFF THIS WEEK

Towson and Delaware own the two toughest schedules in the nation at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision according to the latest NCAA statistics this week.

Towson's 11 opponents this season currently own a combined winning pct. of .629, the highest mark of any team in the nation. Delaware, which has ranked in the top five all season in this category, has the No. 2 toughest schedule this week with opponents owning a combined winning pct. of .625.

DELAWARE FOOTBALL GAMES NOTES • DELAWARE VS. TOWSON • OCT. 17, 2009

7-7-7-7

Six Colonial Athletic Association teams are ranked in the Top 10, including No. 4 Northeastern (.592), No. 6 William & Mary (.580), No. 7 James Madison (.566), and No. 9 Villanova (.560).

SCORING STREAK REACHES 166...AND COUNTING

Delaware extended its streak of scoring a point to 166 straight games in Saturday's 43-27 win over No. 12 Massachusetts. Delaware has not been shutout in any game since falling at Villanova 27-0 back in 1996 and have not been held off the scoreboard at home at Delaware Stadium since suffering a 24-0 setback to Holy Cross way back on Nov. 12, 1983 (a streak of 171 straight games). The current scoring streak breaks the previous UD record of consecutive games scoring a point of 154 set in 1983-98. Delaware's streak of consecutive road games scoring a point now stands at 76 games. During the streak, the Hens have scored 30 or more points 74 times (44 percent of the time). The current streak ranks No. 2 among Colonial Athletic Association teams, trailing only Massachusetts (171) and tying New Hampshire (166). Below are the current scoring streaks for all 12 CAA team.

1. Massachusetts - 171; 2. Delaware & New Hampshire - 166; 4. William & Mary - 131; 5. James Madison - 78; 6. Villanova - 60; 7. Towson - 34; 8. Maine - 27; 9. Richmond - 18; 10. Northeastern - 10; 11. Rhode Island - 7; 12. Hofstra - 3.

A WORD ABOUT THE DEFENSE TOO

Despite allowing 30 points and 458 total yards in the 30-20 loss at No. 5 William & Mary on Sept. 26, the University of Delaware defense has been solid.

The Hens opened the season with a 35-0 shutout win over West Chester and followed with a 16-15 setback to No. 1 Richmond Sept. 12 and a 27-17 win over Delaware State Sept. 19.

Prior to William & Mary, the Hen defense had allowed just three touchdowns all year with opponents scoring just five times in 34 drives (.147 success rate).

Delaware still ranks No. 3 in the CAA in rushing defense (88.5), No. 4 in pass efficiency defense (120.58), and No. 5 in scoring defense (17.8). Opposing runners are averaging just 2.7 yards per carry and have scored just four touchdowns.

The shutout over West Chester was the Hens' first at Delaware Stadium since defeating Northeastern 42-0 on Sept. 30, 2000 and the first opening-day blanking since a 28-0 win over West Chester in 1991.

QUICK MILESTONES

- Senior WR Mark Duncan has caught at least one pass in 30 straight games over three seasons, tied for the second longest streak in school history (record is 38 by Eddie Conti in 1996-98). Duncan ranks No. 6 on UD career reception list with 154 (4 shy of No. 5 all-time - 158 by Jamin Elliott in 198-2001) and ranks No. 7 on receiving yardage list with 1,894 (16 shy of No. 6 all-time - 1,910 by Justin Long in 2002-04 and 106 shy of 2,000). His 79-yard pass reception from Pat Devlin vs. Main on Oct. 3 marked the 10th longest pass play in school history and his second longest after an 84-yard reception from Joe Flacco vs. Richmond in 2007.
- Junior OT Kevin Uhl is slated to make his team-best 22nd straight start this week vs. Towson.
- Delaware has gone 198 straight punt attempts without having a kick blocked since 2005 (William & Mary).
- Kicker Jon Striefsky has connected on 33 career field goals, breaking the UD career record of 32 previously set by Brad Shushman in 2002-04 and Sean Leach in 1994-97
- Delaware Assistant Director of Athletics and Sports Information Director Scott Selheimer will cover his 220th straight UD football game this week. He has staffed every game - home and away - since the 1993 opener.

BLUE HENS AMONG ACTIVE NCAA STATISTICS LEADERS

Several current Blue Hen players rank among the active career leaders among all NCAA FCS players in several statistics. Below are the top Hens.

K Jon Striefsky - No. 1 in field goal pct. (.767); No. 11 in field goals (33)

LB Matt Marcorelle - 5th in forced fumbles (7); 17th in sacks (15.5)

FS Charles Graves - 11th in career interceptions (9)

WR Mark Duncan - 14th in career receptions (154)

KR Jerry Butler - 15th in career kickoff return avg. (24.9)

CB Anthony Walters - 16th in career interceptions (8)

NOT MANY FLAGS AGAINST US

The Blue Hens are certainly playing a clean game this season. Delaware has committed just 23 penalties for 229 yards in six games, good for averages of 3.83 penalties and 38.17 yards per game.

Delaware ranks among the national leaders for fewest penalties and enter this week's game at Towson ranked No. 5 in penalties (Penn leads at 3.5) and No. 8 in penalty yardage (Dartmouth leads at 27.0).

HOME SWEET HOME

Delaware boasts one of the top home-field advantages in all of college football. Not only do Blue Hen fans pack Delaware Stadium each week - helping UD become the only NCAA FCS team in the nation to average 20,000 or more fans per regular season home game each of the last 10 seasons - they see consistently winning football. Delaware has posted an impressive record of 40-13 (.755) in eight seasons under K.C. Keeler at Delaware Stadium - among the top marks at any division of college football.

Of the 13 losses, six have come by six points or less. The Hens have scored more than 20 points in all but seven of those 53 games. Delaware has won 12 of its last 17 home games and is 269-85-4 (.758) in 58 seasons all-time at Delaware Stadium, including a mark of 17-5 with five straight wins in the post-season.

NEW LOOK AT DELAWARE STADIUM

The main (west) entrance to Delaware Stadium got a face-lift this season as fans coming to the Delaware State game Sept. 19 witnessed the addition of seven new banners that fly from the top of the stadium. Large action shots of former Blue Hen greats Chuck Hall, Conway Hayman, Rich Gannon, Daryl Brown, Eddie Conti, and Joe Flacco as well as a banner listing all of the Blue Hen national championships, Lambert Cup titles, and ECAC Team of the Year crowns dominate the facade.

Additional banners and other updates are expected later this season and into the future. The banners were produced by Sports Graphics Inc. in Indianapolis. Ind.

FIVE BLUE HENS IN THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE THIS FALL

Delaware football has three former standouts competing on the field and two on practice squads in the National Football League this fall. In addition to QB Joe Flacco, now in his second season as the Ravens' starting quarterback after leading the team to the AFC title game, TE Ben Patrick is in his third season as a backup with the Super Bowl runner-up Arizona Cardinals, and DB Mike Adams is now in his sixth NFL season as a part-time starting safety, including his third year with the Cleveland Browns.

K.C. KEELER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Three-year standout linebacker at UD...led Blue Hens to NCAA II national title in 1979 and national runner-up finish in 1978...three-year mark of 32-7 under Hall of Fame coach Tubby Raymond...six career interceptions

- Led Rowan to seven trips to NCAA Division III playoffs in nine seasons...team advanced to championship game five times...team won four conference titles...two-time N.J. Athletic Conference Coach of the Year (1995, 1997)

- Has led Delaware to three NCAA I-AA (now FCS) playoff appearances in six seasons, including leading 2003 team to NCAA I-AA national title with a 15-1 record...2007 team went 11-4 and advanced to the FCS national championship game...team won two Atlantic 10 Conference (now Colonial Athletic Association) titles (2003, 2004)...named 2003 and 2007 Maxwell Club Tri-State Coach of the Year...signed 10-year contract extension in June, 2007 that keeps him at UD through the 2017 season.

9-9-9-9

In addition to those three, TE Robbie Agnone (New England Patriots) and DE Ronald Talley (Green Bay Packers) are members of practice squads.

Flacco enjoyed an outstanding rookie season in 2008 when he was named the Diet Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year in fan voting after throwing for 2,971 yards and 14 touchdowns in leading the Ravens to an 11-5 record and a berth in the AFC title game.

Patrick, who will miss the first five games of the 2009 season due to a suspension, caught 11 passes for 104 yards during the regular season and added a touchdown catch in the Super Bowl last season.

Adams posted 44 tackles and two interceptions for the Browns a year ago and has now appeared in 69 career games.

NFL Updates:

Joe Flacco (Baltimore/at left) - Led Ravens (3-2) in a 17-14 loss to Cincinnati on Sunday...completed 22 of 31 passes for 186 yards, two interceptions, and one touchdown...has thrown for 1,289 yards and nine TDs in five games...had season-high 341 yards passing vs. Cleveland on Sept. 27...Ravens travel to Minnesota Sunday at 1 p.m.

Mike Adams (Cleveland) - Browns (1-4) won their first game of the season on Sunday with a 6-3 win over Buffalo...had three tackles vs. Buffalo...has 15 tackles for the season...Cleveland travels to Pittsburgh Sunday at 1 p.m.

Ben Patrick (Arizona) - Has not played this season due to a suspension. Arizona (22) defeated Houston 28-21 on Sunday ...Arizona travels to Seattle this Sunday at 4:05 p.m.

FORMER STANDOUT IVORY SULLY AMONG SELECTIONS FOR 2009 UD ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Ivory Sully, a standout running back for powerhouse University of Delaware football teams in 1976-78 under Tubby Raymond and a nine-year veteran of the National Football League, is one of eight selections into the UD Athletics Hall of Fame. Sully will join a cast of greats during the induction ceremony on Nov. 6 at the Bob Carpenter Center. The group will also be recognized at halftime of Delaware vs. Hofstra football game No. 7 at Delaware Stadium.

Sully (at right) will be joined by all-time leading soccer goal-scorer Mike Biggs, All-American field hockey standout Jodi Byrd, record-setting softball pitcher Patty Freeman, the first UD women's soccer Hall of Fame inductee in high-scoring forward Beth Hatt, former UD baseball slugger and current head coach Jim Sherman, long-time men's cross country and track and field head coach Dr. Ken Steers, and former golf and track and field standout Ron Watson. Steers and Watson will be honored posthumously.

A native of Leonia, N.J., Sully followed a spectacular college career at UD with a solid nine-year tenure in the NFL that included playing in Super Bowl XIX. He helped lead UD teams to a combined mark of 24-10-2, two ECAC Team of the Year Awards, and a runner-up finish at the 1978 NCAA Division I championship game. He led that 1978 team in rushing with 730 yards and four touchdowns and finished his career ranked among the school's all-time leaders with 1,359 yards.

He signed as a free agent with the NFL and played nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and Detroit Lions.

He became the first UD football player to participate in the Super Bowl when the Rams played the Steelers in 1980. He currently resides in Anaheim, Calif with his wife Sylvia, daughters Amber and Megan, and son Jacob. He has served as Vice-President of Licensing and International Business for Pelle Pelle, Inc., a clothing manufacturer, since 2001.

TOUGH ROAD AHEAD FOR HENS IN CAA

If there was ever any question that the Colonial Athletic Association is the strongest conference in the country, there can be no doubt this season. The road ahead will certainly be a tough one for the Blue Hens as CAA teams are not only dominating the NCAA Division I FCS competition, but stepping up a level and consistently defeating NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision opponents.

CAA teams have posted a record of 22-12 (.647) in non-league action, including wins by William & Mary over Virginia (26-14 on Sept. 5), by Villanova over Temple (27-24 on Sept. 3), by Richmond over Duke (24-16 on Sept. 5), and by New Hampshire over Ball State (23-16 on Sept. 12). Among the close calls was James Madison's 38-35 overtime loss to Maryland (Sept. 12) and Massachusetts' 21-17 setback at Kansas State (Sept. 5).

Still not convinced? Check out the latest The Sports Network Top 25 poll.

Richmond remains at the No. 1 spot and is joined by fellow CAA teams in No. 2 Villanova, No. 6 New Hampshire, No. 8 William & Mary, No. 12 Massachusetts, and No. 13 James Madison. Delaware and Maine also earned votes in the poll from a list of 146 voters nationwide. The Hens have already played Richmond (a 16-15 loss), William & Mary (a 30-20 loss), and Massachusetts (43-27 win) and Villanova and James Madison later.

BLUE HENS PICK 2009 CAPTAINS

University of Delaware head coach K.C. Keeler went a different route this season when selecting his team captains for the 2009 season. In the past, the team would vote for captains at the end of spring practice. This season, however, Keeler waited until the final week of pre-season drills to have his team make the choice. A trio of seniors in offensive lineman Corey Nicholson, senior safety Charles Graves, and senior linebacker Matt Marcorelle were selected from a vote of the team on Saturday. Marcorelle, from Fort Pierce, Fla., becomes the first three-time team captain in school history. Graves (Raleigh, N.C.) and Marcorelle have each earned All-American honors during their careers while Nicholson (Frederick, Md.) is a third-year starter this fall.

SEASON TICKET COUNT IMPRESSIVE ONCE AGAIN

University of Delaware football fans continued to show their loyalty during the off-season as they once again surpassed the 10,000 mark by purchasing 10,121 season ticket packages. Delaware Stadium has drawn an average of 20,000 fans per regular season home game each of the last 10 seasons (capacity is 22,000), becoming the only NCAA FCS school to accomplish that feat. Delaware drew a sellout crowd of 22,006, including over 6,000 students, to the season opening win over West Chester at Delaware Stadium. The Blue Hens have now drawn 20,000 or more fans in 43 straight regular season game since the 2002 campaign.

HENS RANK NO. 3 IN NCAA DIVISION I FCS ATTENDANCE:

After four home games at Delaware Stadium this season, Delaware is averaging 21,356 fans per game, tops among all Colonial Athletic Association schools and No. 3 nationally in the FCS. Montana leads the nation at 25,706 followed by Appalachian State (25,023), and Delaware. The next highest CAA team is James Madison at No. 8 (16,025). This week's opponent, Towson, ranks No. 49 at 7,827. Delaware has had two sellouts so far this season, drawing 22,006 for the season opener vs. West Chester on Sept. 4 and a season-high 22,034 this past Saturday vs. Massachusetts.

TURNING THINGS AROUND

The 2008 season was an uncharacteristic down year for the Blue Hens, who suffered through a 4-8 campaign that saw the Blue Hens struggle throughout the season on the offensive side of the ball.

The eight losses was the most in a single season in 117 seasons of UD football since 1889 and the four wins were the lowest total since the 2001 squad went 4-6. Delaware, which captured the NCAA I-AA national title in 2003 and advanced to the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision national title game in 2007, looks to rebound this season thanks to a stingy defense that ranks among the best in the Colonial Athletic Association and a much-improved offense.

History shows that the Blue Hens should be back. Delaware has not posted consecutive losing seasons since before World War II when the Hens suffered through five straight losing seasons between 1935 and 1939 under head coaches Lyal Clark and Stephen Grenda. Each of the other 11 CAA teams have suffered consecutive losing seasons at least once since the 1983 season.

With a current record of 4-2, the Hens have already matched last year's win total.

BEEN AROUND THE BLOCK A FEW TIMES

Few college teams in the country can boast the vast coaching experience of Delaware's offensive and defensive coordinators. Blue Hen defensive leader Nick Rapone and first year offensive head man Jim Hoffer have combined for an incredible 56 years of college coaching experience - each with 28 campaigns under their belts - including 20 years as coordinators. Hoffer served as head coach at his alma mater, Cornell, in 1990-97 and at Buffalo in 2001-05. Together they have coached over 600 games on the college level. If you include the entire UD coaching staff, including head coach K.C. Keeler, the group has 203 years of college coaching experience.

GETTING THE JOB DONE IN THE CLASSROOM TOO

The 2009 University of Delaware roster not only features some talented athletes, but also some accomplished students. Seventeen members of this year's squad carry a 3.0 or better grade point index with defensive back Josh Ulrich, deep snapper Zack Reed, tight end Trevor Mooney, wide receiver Mark Mackey, and linebacker Andrew Harrison all potential candidates for CoSIDA Academic All-American honors.

A DARN GOOD DECADE

Delaware has posted an overall record of 76-44 (.633) this decade, including a mark of 46-34 (.575) in conference play under coaches Tubby Raymond (2000-01) and K.C. Keeler (2002-Present). During the decade, the Hens have captured three Atlantic 10 titles (2000, 2003, 2004), three Lambert Cup titles (2000, 2003, 2007), three ECAC Team of the Year Awards (2000, 2003, 2007), made four trips to the NCAA I-AA (now FCS) Tournament (11-3 record), advanced to the NCAA I FCS championship game twice, and captured the 2003 NCAA I-AA national title.

CONFERENCE SUCCESS

The name of the Blue Hens' conference affiliation changed to the Colonial Athletic Association from the Atlantic 10 prior to the 2007 season, but the 12 teams stayed the same. Delaware is maintaining its outstanding success in league play just the same. Delaware is currently playing its 24th season in the CAA (originally the Yankee Conference before becoming the Atlantic 10 in 1997) this fall.

Delaware has been the pride of the CAA since joining the league in 1986, capturing its 100th conference victory in 2003 with a 51-45 overtime win over UMass. The Blue Hens, who are now 122-66 (.649) overall in league play since joining the conference in 1986, have won eight CAA/A-10 titles (1986-88-91-92-95-2000-2003-2004).

The .651 winning percentage is tops among the 12 league schools with Massachusetts (.641) the only other team that has won more than 60 percent of its league games all-time.

A BLUE HEN IN THE WHITE HOUSE

When U.S. President Barack Obama and running mate, former Delaware Senator Joe Biden, won the 2008 presidential election last November, it was big news. And even bigger news for the citizens of Delaware and those affiliated with the University of Delaware.

Biden is a 1965 graduate of the University of Delaware with degrees in history and political science and played on the Blue Hen freshman football team in 1961 under head coach Scotty Duncan. Biden, a member of the UD Wall of Fame and an ardent Delaware football fan, considered himself "a half-baked halfback" during his brief UD football career.

Biden met with head coach K.C. Keeler and members of the team last Sept. 19 when Biden's plane was parked on the same tarmac as the Delaware charter at New Castle County (Del.) prior to its trip to Furman. Biden later made an appearance at the Blue Hens' game vs. Maine at Delaware Stadium on Oct. 11 and received a rousing applause while being mobbed by well-wishers.

And a visit to Delaware Stadium for a Blue Hen football game this season by the Vice-President is always a possibility.

2009 UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE FOOTBALL GAME RECAPS

DELAWARE35
#17 (D2) West Chester0
 September 4, 2009 • Delaware Stadium (22,006)

NEWARK, Del. -- The major stories surrounding the pre-season for the University of Delaware football team revolved around the anticipation of watching highly-touted transfer quarterback Pat Devlin and the much-heralded Blue Hen defense.

So it came as little surprise that both stole the show in the Blue Hens' 2009 season-opening 35-0 victory over West Chester Friday night at Delaware Stadium before a sellout crowd.

Devlin, playing his first game after serving as backup at Penn State the last two seasons, completed 12 of 15 passes for 227 yards and two touchdowns and ran for a third score and the UD defense held the Rams to just 176 total yards in pitching its first home shutout since 2000.

The Hens (1-0) won their home opener for the fifth straight season while downing their local rival West Chester for the 16th straight time. The Rams (1-1), ranked No. 17 in NCAA Division II and coming off five straight NCAA playoff appearances, didn't pick up their first down until midway through the second quarter and never got closer than the Delaware 16-yard line.

The Blue Hens, who posted their first shutout since a 42-0 win over Northeastern back on Sept. 30, 2000, allowed just 10 first downs total for the game and held the Rams to just 92 yards on the ground and 84 yards through the air.

Devlin was the difference on the offensive end of the field as he completed 12 of 15 passes for 227 yards and hooked up with tight end Josh Baker on a seven-yard slant for a touchdown to open the scoring six minutes into the game, added a one-yard dive early in the second quarter, and hooked up with Tommy Crosby on a 31-yard bomb down the left sideline with 5:41 left in the second quarter to send the Hens into intermission up 21-0.

The Hens built the lead in the second half as David Hayes scored on a six-yard burst up the middle less than two minutes into the second half and junior running back Phillip Thaxton capped the scoring on a 29-yard run around the left end with 8:12 to go in that same stanza.

Delaware, which scored at home for the 169th straight time at home since 1983, posted its highest single game scoring output since a 38-7 win over Albany last September. The 35-point, 403-total yard was nice to see for the Hens, whose 17.5 points and 275.8 yards per game averages last season where the lowest for the program since the early 1960's.

#1 Richmond16
DELAWARE15
 September 12, 2009 • Delaware Stadium (20,800)

NEWARK, Del. -- Delaware had No. 1 ranked and defending national champion Richmond on the ropes in the team's Colonial Athletic Association football battle. The Blue Hens led the entire game until the final minutes, but when they had the opportunity to regain the lead and capture the victory in the final minute, a hand on short field goal attempt proved to be the difference.

Delaware (1-1, 0-1 CAA) had the chance to post the upset win, but Richmond's 6-3 wide receiver Kevin Grayson leaped high to block a 23-yard field goal attempt by the Hens' Jon Striefsky with 38 seconds left to send the Spiders (2-0, 1-0 CAA) to their 11th straight victory.

Richmond, which captured the national title a year ago and opened its 2009 season with a 24-16 win at Duke last week, rallied from a 15-7 fourth-quarter deficit as quarterback Eric Ward scored on a one-yard burst with 12:27 left and Andrew Howard kicked what proved to be the game-winning field goal with a 23-yard kick with 5:54 left to play.

Delaware went three plays and out following Howard's field goal, but the Blue Hens hung tough and forced the Spiders to punt on their next possession. An 18-yard punt by Richmond's Brian Radford handed Delaware the ball on the Spider 42-yard line with 2:15 remaining, and UD quarterback Pat Devlin wasted little time, hitting Mark Schenauer down the middle for a 33-yard gain. The Hens then rushed three times to set up Striefsky's attempt.

Delaware jumped out to an 8-0 lead as the Hens opened the scoring eight minutes into the game with a safety and later added field goals of 33 and 28 yards by Striefsky, the second set up when All-American Charles Graves intercepted the first of two passes on the day when he snared an attempt by Richmond wide receiver Donte Boston on a trick play.

The Hens recorded the safety - the team's first since 2005 - when Richmond's Colin Pehanick sailed the punt snap over the head of Radford, who caught up to the ball in the end zone and wisely kicked it out of play. Richmond then cut the margin to 8-7 at the half when Ward found a wide-open Tre Gray on a six-yard slant in the end zone. with just 23 seconds left before intermission to cap a 12-play, 63-yard drive.

Richmond's score marked the first point allowed by the Hens this season as Delaware had opened the season last week with a 35-0 win over West Chester. The points snapped a streak of 108 minutes without allowing a score by UD dating back to third quarter of last season's final game vs. Villanova.

September 19, 2009 • Delaware Stadium (20,585)

NEWARK, Del. -- Delaware holds football bragging rights in the state after posting the victory over Delaware State in the inaugural First State Cup matchup. But it wasn't easy.

Delaware QB Pat Devlin ran for two scores and threw for 227 yards, including a fourth quarter touchdown to Rob Jones, and the stingy Blue Hen defense held the Delaware State offense to just one touchdown on the day as the Hens (2-1) outlasted the Hornets (0-2) in the first-ever regular season matchup between the two teams.

Dubbed The First State Cup in a state-wide naming contest, the game featured the state's only NCAA Division I football programs. The schools met for only the second time following Delaware's 44-7 NCAA first round playoff win over Delaware State in 2007. Delaware was awarded the trophy in a post-game ceremony and will keep possession of the cup until the rivalry resumes in 2012.

This time the game was much closer as the Hens came away with a hard-earned win against the Hornets. Delaware increased its lead to 21-3 after Devlin's 17-yard scoring strike to Jones with 10:56 left to play, but the Hornets kept it close by scoring two touchdowns in the final 5:01. A three-yard touchdown run by Leon Jackson with 3:36 left gave the Blue Hens some much-needed insurance.

Devlin completed 19 of 29 passes for 227 yards and scored on one-yard sneaks with 7:41 left in the first quarter to open the scoring and again with 1:26 left in the third quarter to increase the lead to 14-3. He completed all five of his pass attempts for 47 yards in leading a 59-yard march that culminated with his 17-yard scoring toss to Jones in the back of the left end zone early in the fourth quarter to increase the lead to 21-7.

Both teams struggled all day to mount long drives and each finished with 343 total yards. The game also featured 10 punts, 13 penalties, and three turnovers, including a crucial interception by Delaware safety Anthony Bratton at the Blue Hen 22-yard line with 7:56 left in the third quarter as Delaware was clinging to a 7-3 lead.

Another Delaware State turnover, a fumble by running back Jason Randall that was forced by Siddiq Haynes and picked up by Michael Atunrase at the 41-yard line, set up Devlin's scoring toss to Jones.

Randall led all runners on the day with a career-high 93 yards on 20 carries while Delaware Statequarterback Anthony Glaud connected on 23 of 40 passes for 208 yards. Darius Jackson, who caught seven pass in the Hornet's season-opening 21-12 loss at Florida A&M two weeks ago, caught eight passes for 81 yards on this day.

Delaware's defense, which has allowed just two offensive touchdowns in three games this season, posted three quarterback sacks and six other tackles for loss while also breaking up four passes.

DELAWARE20

September 26, 2009 • Zable Stadium (12,259)

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. -- William & Mary started the night's scoring with a school-record pass play and Delaware could never quite recover as the Blue Hens fell to the No. 5 ranked Tribe.

The Hens (2-2, 0-2 CAA) managed to move the ball through the air behind Pat Devlin's 302 yards passing and three touchdowns, but Delaware could never find its way on the ground and remained winless in conference play. The Hens rushed 18 times but lost -2 yards on the night, marking the second lowest rushing total in school history.

William & Mary (4-0, 1-0 CAA), which moved to 4-0 for the first time since the 1994 season and defeated the Hens at home for the first time since the 2004 NCAA playoffs, used two big plays from QB R.J. Archer to Chase Hill, including a school-record 91-yard touchdown pass midway through the first quarter, and two rushing touchdowns from Jonathan Grimes to post the win in its CAA opener.

Devlin completed 33 of 49 passes for 302 yards and three touchdowns - all career-highs - while freshman Rob Jones caught 10 passes for 113 yards, Tommy Crosby hauled in eight passes for 63 yards, and Mark Mackey added seven catches for 33 yards. Jones' 10 receptions set a UD single game record for a freshman, surpassing the nine by Justin Long twice in 2002.

Devlin hit Phillip Thaxton in the back of the end zone with a 30-yard scoring strike late in the first half to cut the William & Mary lead to 17-7 at the break and added scoring tosses of 25 yards to Jones and two-yards to Nihja White in the final three minutes but it wasn't enough.

Archer, who led the Tribe to a season-opening 26-14 win over Virginia on Sept. was sharp all night, hitting 23 of 37 passes for 313 yards and two scores while Hill caught six passes for 148 yards and two scores and Grimes led all runners with 98 yards and two scores. The Tribe defense held Delaware to 18 first downs, only two on the ground, sacked Devlin five times for 28 yards, allowed the Hens to convert just 5 of 15 third down opportunities.

After Delaware cut the William & Mary lead to 17-7 at the half, the Tribe controlled the action in the second half, putting together consecutive drives of 70 yards and 52 yards that used up over 11 minutes in the third quarter. Grimes' nine-yard slashing dive into the end zone with 10:03 left in the third quarter capped a 70-yard drive and gave the Tribe the 23-7 cushion.

The Blue Hens battled back, cutting the lead to 23-13 with 2:37 left as Devlin drove Delaware 71 yards on seven plays and hit Jones with a 25-yard scoring toss down the right sidelines.

William & Mary recovered the ensuing on-side kick by the Blue Hens and added some insurance as Grimes scored from four yards out to push the Tribe lead to 30-13. Devlin's last minute two-yard scoring toss to White - the first catch of the redshirt freshman's career - capped the scoring with 31 seconds left but it came too late.

ORONO, Maine -- Delaware finally revived its struggling running game and in the process picked up its first CAA victory as the Blue Hens ran past host Maine in the rain.

The Hens, who had rushed for negative two yards in a 30-20 loss at William & Mary a week ago and entered the game last in the CAA in rushing offense, picked things up in a big way against Maine as Delaware churned out season-highs of 512 total yards, including 183 on the ground, to improve to 3-2 (1-2 CAA) and move back into the conference race.

Maine (2-3, 1-1 CAA), who had defeated Delaware each of the last two meetings, including the Hens' last trip to Orono in 2005, lost its third straight game as the Black Bears managed just 326 total yards and the Hens picked off QB Warren Smith twice.

David Hayes ignited the running game for the Hens as he ran for a career-high 106 yards and clinched the win with a 25-yard dash for a touchdown on a fourth-down play with 3:57 left to play. Leon Jackson ran for 61 yards and scored two touchdowns.

QB Pat Devlin guided the Hens to their highest yardage total of the year and most since the 2007 season as he completed 21 of 31 passes for 329 yards for his second straight 300-yard effort. The big play was a 79-yard scoring toss to Mark Duncan that opened the scoring midway through the first quarter. Duncan finished the night with four catches for 145 yards.

Delaware put in a solid defensive effort as well as the Blue Hens held Maine to just 326 total yards - 68 on the ground - and allowed 18 first downs. The Black Bears managed just 100 total yards in the second half when they converted only one of six third down attempts. Brandon Gilbeau led the Hens with eight tackles and Anthony Bratton and Ricky Tunstall each recorded interceptions.

Smith completed 23 of 36 passes for 258 yards and two touchdowns with Landis Williams pulling in 10 passes for 104 yards. Derek Session led the Black Bear ground game with 57 yards on 14 carries, well under his average of 88 yards per game entering the game.

After Maine took its only lead of the night at 17-14 on a 35-yard field goal by Jordan Waxman with 9:14 left in the third quarter, Delaware took over and raced to the victory. The Hens went ahead for good at 21-17 when Jackson capped a 71-yard drive with his second score of the night, a two-yard dive with 2:27 remaining in the third quarter.

Delaware then iced the win when Hayes' stormed up the middle on a fourth down play, scoring on a 25-yard jaunt with 3:57 left to play to push the lead to 27-17. A 48-yard pass play from Devlin to Duncan down to the Maine 23-yard line started the drive.

Bratton ended any comeback hopes by the Black Bears on the next possession as he posted his second interception of the season at the Maine 45-yard line. The Hens then ran out the clock, keeping it on the ground with Hayes gaining 16 yards in the drive.

NEWARK, Del. -- Delaware came up with a huge performance for the second straight week as the Hens jumped out fast to a 20-0 lead and cruised to the CAA win over No. 12 Massachusetts.

Delaware QB Pat Devlin continued his spectacular play as he hit on 19 of 26 passes for 284 yards and four touchdowns - two to senior wideout Mark Duncan - and the UD defense stifled the UMass running game all night. Duncan caught seven passes for 107 yards on the night.

Delaware (4-2, 2-2 CAA) won its second straight game and snapped an eight-game losing streak to Top 25 opponents as the Hens dominated a Minutemen team (3-2, 1-1 CAA) that had won three straight games by an average of 28 points. The Hens' last win over a Top 25 opponent came in the 2007 NCAA FCS semifinals when Delaware knocked off No. 4 Southern Illinois 20-17 on the road.

The Hens, who scored 20 points in the opening quarter for the first time since 2007, held the CAA's third best rushing team to 143 yards under its average. CAA rushing leader Tony Nelson, who entered the contest averaging 114 yards per game and who piled up 163 yards against the Hens in last season's 17-7 win, was held to just 33 yards on 15 carries.

Jon Striefsky booted field goals of 22, 24, and 23 yards to become Delaware's career field goal leader with 33 and CB Marcus Burley made the biggest defensive play of the night for the Hens when he returned a first-quarter Nelson fumble 42 yards for a touchdown.

WR Mark Mackey made a spectacular one-handed touchdown catch from Devlin from 15 yards out to open the scoring seven minutes in and Delaware added a pair of touchdowns just 54 seconds apart. Devlin hit Duncan in stride down the left sideline on a 22-yard scored for a 14-0 lead and after Massachusetts got the ball back, Burley scooped up a fumble by Nelson and sprinted untouched down the sidelines for a 42-yard return with 4:17 left in the opening stanza. Mackey's touchdown was set up when LB Paul Worriow recovered a fumble by Havens on UMass' first drive of the day.

The lead ballooned to 23-3 at the half on a 22-yard field goal by Striefsky with 9:22 left before the break, and the Hens went up 37-6 with touchdowns 17 seconds apart late in the third quarter as Devlin tossed a four-yard scoring pass to TE Trevor Mooney and then found Duncan for the second time on a 27-yard strike. Duncan's scoring catch was set up when All-American Charles Graves intercepted a pass by Havens on the previous play.
