Injury Report

Ioannis Xenakis has a high ankle sprain and is out. He has not practiced with the team yet this season...Robin Wentt is out with a shoulder injury. Wentt has been suffering from multiple subluxations of his left shoulder, similar to the injury he suffered in his right shoulder. He is not expected to return to the line-up this season...Ryan Iversen suffered a back injury in the weight room on Monday. He underwent an MRI on Tuesday morning and was diagnosed with back spasms. He did not play vs. UNC Greensboro is listed as questionable for today's game.

You want numbers?

So you say you're a numbers freak? Try these numbers on for size.

2 - So much for "1" being the loneliest number. At Delaware this season, "2" is the loneliest number. Chris Prothro is the first Blue Hen to wear the No. 2. Of course, part of the reason for that is the No. 2 was illegal in college basketball from 1957-58 to 1999-2000 (as was wearing "1").

3 - The number of times Delaware has lost when leading with 2:00 left in regulation over the last six years. (incl. this year) Delaware is 93-3 during that span when leading at the two-minute mark.

3 (The sequel) - The number of times Delaware has lost consecutive home games since the BCC opened in December 1991. UD lost the last game in 1996-97 and the home opener in 1997-98, along with consec. home games in 1994-95 and last season.

32 - That's how many sellouts Delaware has had in the last four seasons at the 5,000-seat Bob Carpenter Center.

70 - Delaware has won 47 straight home games when scoring 70 or more points.

108 - The number of games that Delaware has won leading at the half over the last seven seasons (incl. this year). UD is 108-20 when leading at the half during that span.

112 - The number of games Delaware has won in the 10 seasons of the Bob Carpenter Center. UD is 112-28 (.800 pct) at "The Bob" since its opening back on Dec. 1, 1992. More recently, UD is 63-11 at "The Bob" over the last five seasons.

358 - UD has made at least one three-pointer in 358 consecutive games. The Blue Hens haven't been shutout from behind the arc since Nov. 28, 1990 at Bucknell.

2000 - Delaware could play its 2000th game this season. UD has to play two games in the CAA Tourn. to get the milestone.

On the Internet...

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through <http://www.udel.edu/sportsinfo>

... and on the Air

For the fourth consecutive year, the Blue Hen radio network's flagship station is WJBR-AM 1290. Also on the network are WDOV-AM 1410 (Dover) and WTGM-AM 960 (Salisbury, MD). Mike Corey and Bill Komissaroff call the action on the network. WRDX-FM 94.7 will also carry all road games beginning January 1.

In addition, UD basketball is also broadcast on the UD student station, WVUD-FM 91.3 and WVUD2, the station's internet radio network. Sean Greene is the regular play-by-play man.

Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through UD's athletics website.

Delaware will play four games on television this season... all four on different networks. The Dec. 3 game vs. Penn will be on CN 8 Television. The Jan. 23 game vs. Drexel will be on Comcast SportsNet Philadelphia. On Feb. 8, Delaware's game at UNC Wilmington will be televised by Time Warner Cable-Outer Banks. Also, the Feb. 22 game vs. Old Dominion will be on the CAA Network.

Each Monday, the David Henderson Show will come from the legendary Deer Park Tavern on Main Street in downtown Newark.

Coach Henderson is joined by the voice of the Blue Hens Mike Corey for a review of the past week's games, a preview of upcoming action, and a series of questions both from the restaurant audience and listeners via call-in.

During the 2002-03 season, live shows are scheduled for Nov. 18, Nov. 25, Dec. 2., Dec. 16, Dec. 30, Jan. 6, Jan. 13, Jan. 20, Jan. 27, Feb. 3, Feb. 10, Feb. 17, Feb. 24 and Mar. 3.

There will be no show on Dec. 9 because UD plays at Saint Joseph's that evening. The show will also break for the holidays on Dec. 23.

Come to the Light

Although they have been rare lately, Delaware hasn't had a relatively high amount of success in day games as of late.

Although the Blue Hens defeated LIU earlier this season in a day game, Delaware is just 8-12 in its last 20 day games. The Blue Hens are just 5-11 under David Henderson in matinees.

Who Packed the Road Map?

Delaware hits the road for one of its longest road trips.

The Fightin' Blue Hens leave the friendly confines of the Carpenter Center for nearly a month and play six consecutive games away from home beginning today.

Delaware flies back from Albany following tonight's game and takes a break for Christmas. However, the team flies to Green Bay for the Oneida Bingo and Casino Classic on December 26. Following that trip, Delaware begins the New Year and the CAA portion of the schedule with three consecutive road games.

The six-game road trip is Delaware's longest since 1998-99.

It Starts with Slattery

Mike Slattery took over the starting point guard slot the second half of last season. The move started paying dividends almost immediately.

Slattery, a native of Philadelphia and product of Germantown Academy, had 94 assists as a freshman, while playing just 19.7 minutes per game. In the final 12 games last season, Slattery had 58 assists and just 22 turnovers as the starting point guard.

Slattery has continued that play this season. He leads the CAA in assists per game at 7.7, and also leads the CAA in steals (1.8). He is also among the league leaders in the CAA in assist/turnover ratio (44 vs. 18 = 1.71).

He has five or more assists in 11 of his last 12 games. The last Blue Hen to put together a consistent string of assist numbers was Rob Garner (1995-96), who had five or more assists in 13 of his last 16 games (incl. 10 of his last 12) as a senior.

Against UNC Greensboro, Slattery had a career-high 15 assists. It was the most by a Blue Hen in 20 years and tied for the second-highest single-game total in school history. It was also a Bob Carpenter Center record.

In that game, Slattery played all 40 minutes and had 15 assists versus just one turnover. That boosted him to first in the CAA in ast./TO ratio (+ 2.44).

In UD's three wins, Slattery has 29 assists (9.7 app).

Slattery can score, too. He has scored in double-figures in each of the last three games. He had a career-high 18 points against Saint Joseph's earlier this month.

Of course, distributing the ball is nothing new to Slattery. When he was at Germantown Academy, a big part of his role was getting the ball to a couple of guys by the names of Matt Walsh, who is already making a name for himself as a freshman at University of Florida, Ted Skuchas, a freshman at Vanderbilt, and Lee Melchioni, who is in his freshman season at Duke.

Ironically, while at Germantown Academy, Slattery was also a wide receiver on the football team.

As Simple as Making Shots

Delaware's success has really just depended on making baskets lately.

In David Henderson's three-plus seasons, Delaware is 37-29. In that span, 18 of 29 losses have come with Delaware shooting under 40% from the field (4-18). In all three of Delaware's losses this season, Delaware has shot less than 40%.

At the other end of the spectrum, when UD shoots better than 50%, it is 14-1 under Henderson.

This season, UD has shot 44.9% in its three wins, but just 33.2% in its three losses.

Shoulder Sidelines Wentt

Robin Wentt is likely lost for the remainder of the season due to a left shoulder injury.

Wentt, a 6-7 junior from Silver Spring, MD, will undergo the identical surgery that he had on his right shoulder this past summer. Wentt suffered from multiple subluxations (partial dislocations) of his left shoulder over a period of several weeks, the same condition Wentt battled last season in his right shoulder.

Wentt had his surgery on Thursday morning, which went without a hitch. He was resting comfortably Thursday evening at a Wilmington, DE hospital after the 90-minute procedure.

Taking Care of the Rock

Delaware's 26 turnovers in the season-opener were uncharacteristic of the Blue Hens.

The Blue Hens bounced back against Long Island University, however. The Blue Hens had just eight turnovers in the win over LIU.

Turnovers keyed the win over Penn, as well. UD had 12 turnovers in the first 23 minutes and found itself trailing by eight. Over the next 16 minutes, Delaware turned the ball over just five times and rallied to take the lead, eventually holding the Quakers off in the final seconds.

Against UNC Greensboro, turnovers helped Delaware tremendously, as well. Delaware committed just seven turnovers for the game, and did not have a turnover in the first 11 minutes of the second half, which helped Delaware build a 10-point lead at that point.

The 26 turnovers versus La Salle were the most by Delaware during David Henderson's tenure. It was also the most since November 14, 1997 -- a 77-73 season-opening win over Siena.

In Delaware's three wins, it averaged 11.3 turnovers. In the three losses, UD averaged 18.3 turnovers.

Kanga-ROO

No wonder Rulon Washington's nickname is "Roo". It might be short for Kanga-ROO.

Washington, a native of Jacksonville, FL, comes to Delaware with a 40-inch vertical leap. He proved that with an ally-oop dunk in UD's exhibition win over a team from Ukraine.

Washington graduated from Edward White HS in the spring of 2001. However, he wasn't recruited by Division I schools (partially because he had four HS coaches in four years), so he chose to stay in Jacksonville and play in Grayson Marshall's midnight league. Marshall, a former Clemson player (1985-88), called Henderson and put him onto "Roo."

Not the First from the Island

Anwar Rohan earned a walk-on spot with the squad in pre-season practice.

Rohan, a 6-2 freshman guard, is from St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. However, he is NOT the first UD basketball player from the American Territory. Elsworth Bowers, who lettered three seasons at UD (1986-89), hailed from St. Croix, VI.

No Slow Starts

Delaware's win over LIU averted a rare 0-2 start for the Blue Hens.

Delaware has not started a season with back-to-back losses since 1990-91. Delaware began that season 0-6 under then-coach Steve Steinwedel, but rebounded to finish 16-13.

Gotta' Score 60

With the CAA known as one of the top defensive leagues around, points are at a premium.

With that said, Delaware is 2-18 over the last four seasons (including 0-2 this season) when held to less than 60 points.

Three-point Facts

As mentioned previously, Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 358 games dating back to Nov. 28, 1990. Bucknell was the last team to hold Delaware without a three-pointer. The Bison held Delaware to 0-for-2 in a 71-62 Bucknell win in East Coast Conference play.

Putting that into proper perspective, sophomore Mike Slattery was age 7 when UD last had a game without a three-point field goal.

In all, Delaware has made at least one three-pointer in all but five games (468 out of 473 games) since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87. (Some conferences had an experimental line before that.)

One of the five games that Delaware failed to make a three-point field goal was the very first game the rule was in effect. It wasn't until Delaware's second game against Washington College (MD) that Brad Heckert made the first-ever 3-pt. field goal by a Blue Hen. (It came on Dec. 3 with 13:43 left in the first half).

The current streak of 358 games was started by Mark Haughton on Dec. 5, 1990 against St. Francis (PA). He hit a three-pointer from the left wing with 4:22 remaining in the first half. UD lost the game, 72-70. That shot, however, began UD's current string.

Furthermore, Delaware has connected on 200 or more three-pointers in each of the last four seasons. The Blue Hens hit for 251 in 2000-01, breaking the record of 243 from the season before. When they hit 243 trifectas in 1999-2000, that broke the team record of 207 set in 1998-99. Last year, UD connected from behind the arc 214 times.

UD has made 10 or more 34 times since the rule was implemented, including four times last year.

In fact, UD has made five or more three-pointers in 86 of its last 97 games, including 12 straight dating back to last season.

Second Half "D"

In Delaware's three wins, it allowed an average of 32.7 points in the second half. In the three losses, the number jumps to 43.3 points.

No Place Like Home

The Blue Hens certainly love to play at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Nicknamed "The Bob" by the UD student body, Delaware has won 60 of its last 69 games on its home floor and is 112-28 at home in "The Bob's" 10-plus seasons.

That success has continued under David Henderson. Delaware is 23-7 at home during Henderson's tenure.

For the first time in four years, Delaware lost consecutive home games last season.

UD hadn't lost consecutive home games since the last home game of the 1996-97 season and the 1997-98 home opener (a loss to Virginia on Nov. 25, 1997). UD has lost consecutive home games just three times since the BCC opened in December 1992.

While a member of America East, UD was 72-18 against America East members at home. In its first CAA season, UD was 6-3 against conference foes.

However, The Fightin' Blue Hens are successful out of the league, too. UD is 34-7 against non-conference foes at "The Bob", including 20 of the last 23 going back to December 1995 (the losses coming in the aforementioned game with Virginia, nationally-ranked Saint Joseph's last year and Rider this season).

UD has won 47 straight home games when it scores 70 points or more dating back to Jan. 16, 1998.

Not Just Any 6th Man

Today's probable starting line-up has Ryan Iversen coming off of the bench. If he's healthy today, though, that doesn't mean Iversen won't play a lot of minutes.

Iversen had appeared in all 65 games of his UD career before missing Thursday's game with back spasms. In that span, Iversen has only started seven games... much of that because of his diversity as a guard, and comfort level coming off of the bench.

However, Iversen has never played less than 14 minutes in those 58 games off of the bench and has played 20 or more minutes in 44 of those 58 games.

Iversen's coming off the bench made his performance against LIU that much more impressive. The 6-3 former linebacker recorded a triple-double - the second in UD history - in the win over LIU. He finished with 12 points and career-highs with 17 rebounds and 11 assists in 28 minutes. He actually got the triple-double with 5:14 left... meaning he actually got the trifecta in 23 minutes.

Iversen is second in the CAA in assist/TO ratio, fourth in rebounding and assists, and third in three-point FG percentage. He is the top defensive rebounder in the CAA with 6.6 per game.

Ready, Ames... Fire!

Mike Ames led the CAA in three-point field goal shooting last season. Ames hit 73 of 160 from behind the arc (45.6%).

Although he missed several weeks during the pre-season due to a torn meniscus, which has contributed to his slow start this season (9-35 from three-point range in the first five games), Ames had a streak of 18 straight games with at least one three-point field goal before being shutout by Rider on Dec. 14. The 18-game string tied for the third-longest in UD history.

He also began last season by hitting at least one three-point field goal in 14 straight games.

Ames, who looked like he was coming around in a 26-point night against UNC Greensboro on Thursday, has gone through a shooting slump before. Last year, during a six-game span that included the end of his 14-game three-pointer streak, he shot 11-50 from the field, including 6-28 from three-point range (Jan. 12-26).

In Delaware's loss at Saint Joseph's, Ames hit his 100th career three-pointer, making him the 12th Blue Hen to achieve the milestone. He achieved the milestone in his 61st career game.

Ames shot 7-for-11 from three-point range in two CAA Tournament games last March. Over the final 10 games last season, Ames was 36-for-66 (54.5%) from beyond the three-point line.

He is now 105-250 from 3-pt. range in 62 career games at Delaware (42.0%), which would rank No. 2 in three-point field goal percentage in school history. His 105 career three-pointers already rank him No. 11 in UD history.

UD Inks Four to NLI's Early

UD head coach David Henderson announced the signing of four student-athletes during the early NLI signing period.

The Blue Hens have signed NLI commitments from 6-8 F Henry Olawoye (pronounced Oh-luh-way) (St. Mark's Prep [MA]/Woonsocket, RI), 6-7 F Octavius Flowers (Community Christian Academy/Wilson, NC), 6-7 F Herb Courtney (Hatboro-Horsham HS/Horsham, PA), and 6-9 F Lebo (pronounced Lay-bo) Maepa (Durban HS/Johannesburg, South Africa).

Maepa, having graduated from Durban last December, will enroll at UD in January.

Olawoye is a Woonsocket, RI native who enrolled two years ago at St. Mark's Prep School in Southborough, MA, a suburb of Boston. Last season, he earned All-Independent School League honors at St. Mark's, averaging 14.8 and 9.3 rpg. He also earned all-tournament honors at the Boys Club of New York Holiday Classic. He is also a member of St. Mark's baseball squad.

Flowers transferred to Community Christian Academy in Wilson, NC this season after spending the last three seasons at Wayne Country Day School. At Wayne Country Day, he averaged 20.2 points, 11.4 rebounds, 5.9 blocks and 3.1 assists per game as a junior. Last season, playing on the top-ranked high school team in North Carolina with a 22-3 mark, he earned all-conference honors and honorable mention all-state accolades.

Flowers, a native of Goldsboro, NC, also earned all-conference honors as a sophomore, averaging 14.6 ppg, 9.8 rpg and 3.8 bpg as his team was ranked No. 4 in the state. He is ranked as one of the Top 35 players in the Carolinas by HoopScoop Online.

Courtney is a native of Hatboro, PA and product of Hatboro-Horsham HS. He averaged 16 points and 10 rebounds per contest and All-Suburban One League honors last season at Hatboro-Horsham. He is ranked as one of the Top 20 players in the Delaware Valley by HoopScoop Online.

No Splinters on this Squad

David Henderson has used his bench a lot during his first two seasons at Delaware.

During Henderson's tenure, the UD bench has scored in double-figures in 61 of 66 games. Currently, Delaware's bench has scored in double-figures in 36 consecutive games. Delaware's bench was last held to less than 10 points on March 10, 2001 by Hofstra (8) in the America East title game.

In Delaware's two wins, the Blue Hens have outscored the opposition 79-34 off the bench, scoring 40 and 39 points, respectively.

Last season, UD's bench averaged 28.3 ppg and scored 20 or more points in 27 of 30 games.

Daddy's Little Girl

UD assistant coach Billy Martin's daughter, Chantel, is a key member of the Campbell University women's basketball team this season.

Chantel, a sophomore guard, is the Camels' first player off the bench, averaging 5.4 ppg and 3.0 rpg through the first five games of the season.

The Camels' played at Western Carolina last night (Friday).

40-minute Men

In recent seasons, Delaware has been a tough team to beat when it has a halftime lead.

Delaware is 97-13 over the last six seasons (including this one) when leading at the half, including a 28-5 mark during head coach David Henderson's tenure.

That mark gets better when UD is at home. At the BCC, the Fightin' Blue Hens are 70-7 when leading at the half since the arena opened. Delaware has won 59 of the last 63 at home when leading at intermission.

Under David Henderson, Delaware is 18-2 when leading at the half at home.

Working Overtime

• All-time, the Fightin' Blue Hens are 37-30 in overtime games, 23-9 in Newark. (A complete list can be found in the UD media guide.)

• Delaware is 6-1 in overtime games all-time at the BCC.

• Under David Henderson, Delaware is 2-1 in overtime games.

• The Blue Hens have not had consecutive overtime games since Feb. 3 & 7, 1973.

In-season Birthdays

• Asst. Coach John Moseley turned 26 on Nov. 20

• Ryan Iversen turned 23 on Nov. 21

• Mike Ames turns 21 on Dec. 23

• Mike Slattery turns 20 on Dec. 27

• Maurice Sessoms turns 24 on Dec. 28

• Rulon Washington turns 20 on Feb. 1

• Chris Prothro turns 19 on Feb. 24

• Machiel de Man turns 20 on March 3

Telling Stats

• So much of last season's 14-16 mark came down to just making baskets, which hurts when you consider seven losses last year were by six points or less.

In Delaware's 14 wins last season, UD held the opponent to 39.8% from the field, including 32.2% from three-point range. Meanwhile, Delaware shot 44.1% from the field, including 37.8% from three-point range.

On the other side of the ledger, in UD's 16 losses, the opposition shot 45.2% from the field, including 38.2% from behind the three-point line. Meanwhile, UD shot just 38.4% from the field and just 30% from three-point range in losses.

• UD was 3-11 last season when it shot under 40% from the field. Under Henderson, UD is 4-18 when shooting 40% or less from the field (incl. 0-3 this season).

• Last season, Delaware averaged 73.8 ppg in its 14 wins, but just 60.6 ppg in its 16 losses.

• UD was 10-3 when it scored 70 or more points last season.

• UD averaged just 11.9 turnovers in its 14 wins. That number, however, jumped to 14.6 per game in its 16 losses.

Another road opener

Delaware opened its 98th season of men's basketball... and once again it was on the road.

The Blue Hens have not played a season opener at home since the 1996-97 season (a 91-63 win over Delaware St. on Nov. 22, 1996).

All-time, the Blue Hens are 48-50 in season openers. The Blue Hens defeated Wichita State, 66-49, last year in Fairbanks, AK at the BP Top of the World Classic to open the regular season.

In the last 10 season openers, the Fightin' Blue Hens are 7-3.

It was the second time in three seasons that a David Henderson team has opened in Philadelphia. The Blue Hens lost to Temple in Henderson's first game as Delaware's coach, 56-49.

In fact, the Blue Hens have opened the season in Philadelphia seven times, but the City of Brotherly Love hasn't been so friendly. UD is now 0-7 in season-openers in Philadelphia.

With the win over Wichita State, UD avoided losing consecutive season openers. Delaware last lost consecutive season openers in 1992-93 and 1993-94 (a loss at Seton Hall in the Pre-season NIT in Nov. 1992 and a loss at Monmouth in Nov. 1993).

UD blows out Ukraine

Senior forward Maurice Sessoms exploded for 15 of his team-high 26 points in the first half and pulled nine rebounds and guard Ryan Iversen and Mike Slattery combined for 31 points in the backcourt as Delaware defeated Nikolaev, Ukraine 83-63 in a men's basketball pre-season exhibition game November 6.

Sessoms connected on 8 of 14 shots from the field and was 10 of 12 from the foul line, including a perfect seven for seven in the opening 20 minutes, for his 26 points. He also pulled nine rebounds and blocked one shot in 30 minutes of action.

Sessoms was one of four UD players in double figures as Iversen added 16 points and nine rebounds, Slattery chipped in with 15 points and seven assists, and Dave Hindenlang came off the bench to score 10 points. Forward Robin Wentt led all rebounders with 10 as the Hens outrebounded the taller Ukraine team, 43-29.

UD never led by more than eight points in a hard-fought first half and went into intermission up 37-34 thanks to Sessoms' 15 points.

But the Hens came out strong in the second half, scoring the first eight points of the stanza to go up 45-34. The Hens later built the lead to as much as 21 points at 67-46 with 9:49 left to play. Nikolaev did cut the lead to 12 points at 73-61 with 3:41 left but the Hens outscored them 8-1 to finish off the game.
