Injury Report

Mike Slattery returned to the lineup at Towson last Wednesday after missing five straight games with a broken right thumb. Lebo Maepa underwent surgery on his left knee on December 16 to repair a small tear in his miniscus, and is still out of the lineup. Henry Olawoye has missed the first 14 games this season with compartmental syndrome, but should be back this month. Herb Courtney, who tore his ACL late last season, is out indefinitely and could redshirt this season. Chris Prothro needed surgery during the preseason to heal an ankle fracture, and will also redshirt this year. Delaware has missed 54 combined games this season by these five scholarship players.

Delaware Basketball on the Internet

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through <http://www.udel.edu/sportsinfo>

Box scores and game stories are usually posted within an hour of the conclusion of each UD basketball game, while cumulative statistics are also updated and posted after each contest. Media notes are available in a PDF format within 24 hours of the start of each game. In addition, livestats are available for all UD home games.

For more information, contact the UD sports information department.

Delaware on the Air

This season will be the first year that all University of Delaware men's basketball games will be carried on flagship station WRDX 94.7 FM. Also on the Blue Hen radio network are WDOV-AM 1410 (Dover) and WTGM-AM (Salisbury, MD). Mike Corey and Bill Komissaroff, who enter their sixth year on the network, return to call the action.

In addition, most UD basketball games are also broadcast on the university student station, WVUD-FM 91.3, and WVUD2, the station's internet radio network.

Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through UD's athletics website.

Delaware is scheduled to play five games on television this season. The Blue Hens' game at Hofstra on January 22 will be televised by Fox Sports Net-New York, while both the February 19 home game with the Pride and the February 22 game at Drexel will be broadcast by the Colonial Athletic Association Network. Each of those games are scheduled to be shown on both Comcast SportsNet-Philadelphia and Mid-Atlantic. Additionally, the home game against Towson on February 9 will be shown by CN8. Delaware's season-opener at Ohio State was broadcast by ESPN Plus.

Additionally, a majority of Delaware home games are shown on STN, the student television network that is shown on campus.

Delaware vs. George Mason

George Mason leads the all-time series with the Blue Hens, 6-3, and won two of the three meetings last season. Delaware won the first meeting last year, 74-65, at the Bob Carpenter Center behind 22 points from Mike Ames, but the Patriots answered with a 75-61 victory in Fairfax later in the season. The teams then met in the CAA Tournament Quarterfinals, with Mason pulling out a 65-58 overtime win.

Nana Named CAA Co-Player of the Week

Harding Nana was named the Colonial Athletic Association Men's Basketball Co-Player of the Week on Monday after posting a pair of double-doubles last week.

Nana recorded team-highs of 24 points and 10 rebounds in Delaware's 86-66 loss at Towson last Wednesday. He hit 10-of-18 shots from the field and was 4-of-5 from the foul line while adding two blocks and an assist.

In Saturday's 69-59 victory at William & Mary, Nana posted game-highs of 25 points and 10 rebounds, hitting 7-of-14 shots from the floor and 9-of-13 from the charity stripe. He also scored 11 of 13 points during a key 20-5 run that turned a 38-25 early second-half deficit into a 45-43 lead with 8:28 remaining. Nana, who also had an assist, a block, and a steal in the win, hit two free throws with 4:13 remaining to tie the game, and nailed a jumper with 1:02 left to put the Blue Hens up 63-59.

The award was the second of the season for Nana, who was also named the league's Co-Player of the Week on December 13.

Delaware Off To Slow Start

The Blue Hens are just 5-9 in their first 14 games this season, the worst start through 14 games since the 1981-82 team began its year 3-11. By winning Saturday at William & Mary Delaware snapped a six-game losing streak, the longest since the Blue Hens dropped six straight to start the season from November 24 to December 11, 1990.

However, UD played a tough non-conference schedule this season. Ohio State is currently 14-3 and has won seven of eight, including Saturday's 81-69 win over 14th-ranked Iowa. The Buckeyes' only loss in that stretch was at top-ranked Illinois. St. Mary's (CA) has won eight straight to improve to 14-4, and on Saturday knocked off No. 11 Gonzaga, 89-81. The Gaels are currently ranked second in the latest College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll. San Francisco is currently 9-6, while Auburn is now 9-5. Toledo is just 5-7 but was picked to win the West Division of the Mid-American Conference, while Middle Tennessee State is 11-4 and was picked to win the East Division of the Sun Belt Conference.

Blue Hens Struggling To Light Up Scoreboard

Delaware enters tonight's game averaging 62.6 points per game, ninth in the Colonial Athletic Association. The Blue Hens have gone nine straight games without scoring 70 points, the longest streak since a nine-game stretch from December 9, 1989 through January 13, 1990. Delaware has not gone at least 10 games without scoring 70 points since the final 15 games of the 1982-83 season.

Turnovers Hurting Hens

With senior point guard Mike Slattery out of the lineup with a broken thumb, Delaware struggled with turnovers at the San Juan Shootout. The Blue Hens turned the ball over 26 times in the opening game against Auburn, and the following day committed 28 turnovers against Toledo, the most since Delaware also turned the ball over 28 times versus Delaware State on November 26, 1994. The Blue Hens then committed 19 turnovers against Middle Tennessee State, including two in the final 10 seconds of overtime. Delaware committed 18 turnovers in the loss to UMBC on December 29.

Delaware committed more or equal turnovers than its opponents in the first 11 games of the season before committing just 13 while American committed 18 on January 2. As of January 3, Delaware ranked 311 out of 326 teams in Division I with 19.0 turnovers committed per game. However, last week Slattery returned to the UD lineup, and the Blue Hens committed just 27 turnovers in the two games, including only 11 Saturday at William & Mary. Below are some Blue Hen statistics with and without Slattery.

	With Slattery (5-4)	Without Slattery (0-5)
PPG	65.6	57.4
Opponents PPG	67.8	71.6
Field Goal %	45.4	39.8
Opponents FG%	41.9	48.1
Assists/gm	14.0	10.4
Turnovers/gm	16.8	20.8

Controlling The Boards

Delaware out-rebounded its opponents in all three games at the San Juan Shootout, and has posted more rebounds than its opponents in nine of 14 games this season. The Blue Hens recorded a 41-27 rebounding edge against Auburn, had a 32-29 advantage over Toledo, and posted a 37-29 margin versus Middle Tennessee State, which entered the game with a +10 rebounding margin. Delaware currently ranks second in the CAA with a +1.2 rebounding margin and third with both 35.1 rebounds per game and 33.9 rebounds allowed per game.

Nana Continues Impressive Season

Junior Harding Nana has been a force for Delaware this season, leading the Blue Hens in scoring in 11 of the first 14 games this season and posting double-doubles in nine of the last 10 games.

Nana was 9-of-12 from the field against Mount St. Mary's, hitting his first six shots from the field. He also hit his final two shots at Ohio State, and his eight consecutive field goals made are the sixth-most in Delaware history.

Nana pulled down a career-high 14 rebounds at Loyola and hit two free throws with 20 seconds remaining to put Delaware up four.

In the game at St. Mary's (CA) Nana hit 9-of-13 shots from the field, and he posted his first double-double of the season with a 20-point, 10-rebound performance at San Francisco. He followed up that performance with game-highs of 21 points and 12 rebounds against Drexel. Nana tied for the team lead with 19 points, grabbed a game-high 12 rebounds, and scored the game-winning basket against Rider. His performances against Drexel and Rider earned him the CAA Co-Player of the Week award on December 13.

Nana scored a career-high 30 points on 10-of-13 shooting against Toledo while pulling down 11 rebounds, and posted 19 points and while tying his career-high with 14 rebounds versus Middle Tennessee State. He led the Blue Hens in rebounding in all three games in San Juan.

Against UMBC Nana scored 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and pulled down 11 rebounds, both team-highs. He again posted game-highs of 24 points and a career-best 16 rebounds in the loss to American, and had team-highs of 24 points and 10 boards at Towson.

Nana recorded game-highs of 25 points and 10 rebounds in the Blue Hens' 69-59 win at William & Mary on Saturday.

In the last six games Nana is averaging 24.5 points and 12.0 rebounds per game, and is shooting 56.0 percent (51-91) from the floor, 39.3 percent (11-28) from three point range, and 75.6 percent (34-45) from the foul line.

Nana currently leads the CAA with 10.2 rebounds per game and 19.9 points per game. As of January 3, Nana was one of 15 players in Division I to be averaging a double-double and one of just five to be averaging over 19 points and 10 rebounds per game, joining Paul Millsap of Louisiana Tech, Andrew Bogut of Utah, Michael Harris of Rice, and Ike Diogo of Arizona State.

Andrew Washington Contributes Immediately

Junior Andrew Washington, who played his first two seasons at Allen Community College in Kansas, has made an immediate impact in his first year with the Blue Hens. Washington, who has started all 14 games this season, currently ranks second on the team and 14th in the CAA with 12.6 points per game. Washington scored 10 points in his Delaware debut at Ohio State, and led the Blue Hens with 26 points in the 63-60 win at Loyola (MD) on November 29. He scored 14 points on 7-of-14 shooting and added a career-high six rebounds at San Francisco. Washington scored 15 points against Drexel, and added 17 points and a game-high four steals in the win over Rider.

Washington exploded for 25 points on 9-of-16 shooting against Middle Tennessee State, and hit a three-pointer at the regulation buzzer to send the game into overtime. He added 13 points, hitting all eight of his free throw attempts, in the loss to UMB.

Washington scored 24 points at William & Mary on Saturday, including 11 straight UD points from the 9:18 to the 4:30 mark of the second half. With the Blue Hens up six, his steal and breakaway dunk with 15 seconds remaining put the game away for Delaware.

Rulon Washington Makes His Point

With Mike Slattery injured, junior guard Rulon Washington made his first five career starts prior to the Towson game, averaging 35.4 minutes per game in the five contests. Washington played all 40 minutes against Auburn, and was on the court for 42 of the 45 minutes in the overtime loss to Middle Tennessee State. Washington scored a team-high 12 points against the Tigers and added 14 versus the Blue Raiders, including a 3-of-5 performance from three-point range. He played 39 minutes against American on January 2, scoring 14 points, posting four assists and four steals, and tying the school record with 13 three-point attempts. Last Wednesday at Towson he came off the bench to score 14 points, second on the team, in 33 minutes of action.

Rulon was back in the starting lineup at William & Mary, scoring six points on a pair of huge three-pointers and tying his season-high with four assists. The Tribe led 55-53, but Washington nailed a three-pointer to put Delaware up 56-55 with 3:09 to play. William & Mary went back up 57-56, but Washington hit another triple to put UD ahead for good at 59-57 with 2:28 left, igniting a 13-2 Blue Hen run to end the game.

Madera Comes Up Big In San Juan

After starting the first seven games this season, Raphael Madera came off the bench at the San Juan Shootout, but the change did not seem to bother the big man. Madera scored 10 points and pulled down five rebounds against Auburn, and tied his career-high with 16 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the field versus Toledo.

Comeback Kids

Delaware has trailed at the half in 11 of its 14 games this season (the Blue Hens have led only Mount St. Mary's, Middle Tennessee State, and American at the break), but has rallied to overcome a deficit at the half four times. The Blue Hens trailed Loyola (MD) 35-27 at the half, but quickly scored the first eight points of the second half to tie the game. The Greyhounds regained the lead at 38-36, but Delaware responded with an 11-4 run and would not trail again.

The Blue Hens trailed Drexel 38-36 at the break, but after the teams were tied at 57-57 with 6:23 remaining, Delaware scored six straight points and held the lead the rest of the way.

UD was down to Rider 40-30 at the half on December 11, but scored 13 of the first 16 points of the second period to quickly draw even. The Blue Hens did not trail in the final three minutes to post their third comeback win of the season.

The Blue Hens were down at William & Mary 30-23 at the half, and the Tribe extended their advantage to 38-25 with 16:02 remaining. However, Delaware responded with a 20-5 run to take a 45-43 lead with 8:28 to play. William & Mary led 57-56 with 2:40 on the clock, but the Blue Hens closed the game with a 13-2 run to secure the victory.

Don't Leave Early

Last season Delaware finished 3-5 in games decided by two points or less, while 13 of its 28 games were decided by five points or fewer (UD went 7-6 in those games). Additionally the Blue Hens, who won three of their five overtime contests, played 11 games when the outcome was decided in the final five seconds of regulation and/or overtime, posting a 6-5 mark in those games.

That trend has continued this season, as four games have been decided at the buzzer or in overtime. The Blue Hens held off Loyola (MD), 63-60, when the Greyhounds' Charlie Bell missed a three-pointer from the top of the key at the buzzer.

Delaware didn't clinch its 67-65 win over Drexel until the final horn, as the Dragons' Bashir Mason had his driving lay-up roll off the rim. With the Blue Hens up 68-66 over Rider in the final seconds, Calvin Smith blocked a three-point attempt by the Broncs' Jerry Johnson out of bounds with 1.9 seconds remaining, and Terrance Mounon's fallaway three-pointer at the buzzer fell short.

The Blue Hens trailed Middle Tennessee State 61-58 with four seconds remaining, but Andrew Washington took the inbounds pass and buried a three-pointer at the buzzer to force overtime. Delaware led 69-68 in the extra session after a steal and breakaway lay-up by Harding Nana, but the Blue Raiders' Mike Dean buried a three-pointer with 37 seconds left to put MTSU up for good.

On The Road Again

Delaware certainly racked up the frequent flier miles early this season, playing seven of its first 10 games away from the Carpenter Center. The Blue Hens traveled 770 round trip miles to Columbus, OH for their season-opener at Ohio State, and in early December flew 2503 miles to and from San Francisco, CA. Delaware flew 1575 miles to and from San Juan, Puerto Rico just before the holidays. Add in a 104-mile round trip bus ride to Loyola, and the Blue Hens traveled 9030 miles and made three plane trips prior to the holidays.

Hot From Inside, Cold From Outside

The Blue Hens shot 36.7 percent from three-point range last season, but currently are last in the league with a 29.2 three-point field goal percentage and 4.93 three-pointers made per game.

However, the Blue Hens are shooting 50.2 percent from inside the arc this season, and overall are shooting 43.6 percent from the field, third in the conference. In the home opener against Mount St. Mary's, the Blue Hens shot close to 70 percent through the first 30 minutes of the game and finished 28-of-39 from inside the arc (71.8 percent). In fact, Delaware, which shot 58.5 percent for the game despite hitting just 3-of-14 three-point attempts, missed the same number of two-point shots as three-point attempts.

Nana Among NCAA Leaders

Through games of January 3, Harding Nana was tied for 14th in Division I with 10.3 rebounds per game and tied for 32nd with 19.2 points per game.

Blue Hens Compete In 100th Year of Basketball

The 2004-05 season marks the 100th year for the Delaware men's basketball program. Including this season, the Blue Hens have posted an overall record of 994-1054-2 in their first century of basketball, have made four trips to the NCAA Tournament and one to the Postseason NIT, and have won 20 games six times, the last coming during David Henderson's first season in 2000-01 when UD went 20-10.

Mister Assister

Mike Slattery took over the starting point guard spot during the second half of his freshman year, and finished the season with 94 assists.

He led the CAA and ranked 18th in Division I with 6.2 assists per game as a sophomore, while playing 35.7 minutes per game.

Last season Slattery again led the league while ranking 21st in the nation with 5.9 assists per game, and also led the conference with a 2.34 assist/turnover ratio.

Since taking over the starting spot, in 78 starts Slattery has 459 assists and just 195 turnovers for a 2.35 assist/turnover ratio. In those 78 starts, he has had more turnovers than assists just six times, and has seven games with 10 or more assists in his career.

Slattery is the third player in UD history to record 500 career assists, and was just the second Blue Hen to reach the 400-assist plateau before his senior season. He currently is tied for second at Delaware with 501 career assists.

Against UNC Greensboro during his sophomore year Slattery posted a career-high 15 assists, the most by a Blue Hen in 20 years, tied for the second-highest single-game total in UD history, and a Carpenter Center record. In that game, Slattery played all 40 minutes and had 15 assists versus just one turnover. The 15 assists were also one shy of the CAA record. He duplicated that performance in UD's home win over William & Mary, making Slattery one of two players in the nation to record multiple 15-assist games.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 422 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made one three-pointer in all but five games (532 of 537) since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87. Delaware's streak has been in jeopardy this season, as the Blue Hens hit just 1-of-13 three-point attempts against Loyola (MD), went just 2-of-11 from behind the arc against St. Mary's (CA), and were 1-of-14 versus Auburn.

Reaching No. 10

Delaware has won at least 10 games in 22 straight seasons, dating back to 1981-82. Drexel, which has won 10 or more games in 30 consecutive years, is the only CAA school with a longer streak.

Slattery Moving Up UD Career Charts

Mike Slattery had appeared in his first 94 games at Delaware and had started 76 consecutive contests, just six shy of the Delaware record of 82 set by Taurence Chisholm from 1984 through 1988 and Mike Ames from 2000 through 2004, before missing five games with a broken right thumb. Slattery, currently is tied for second on the UD list with 501 career assists and is in eighth place on the CAA all-time chart. He also ranks ninth at UD with 144 career steals, 12th with 298 career three-pointers attempted and tied for 13th with 104 made, is 11th with 2,882 career minutes played, and 36th with 843 career points.

Not Just Basketball Smart

In addition to earning recognition for his outstanding play on the court, Mike Slattery has also been recognized for his academic accomplishments. Last season Slattery was named to the Verizon/CoSIDA District II All-Academic First Team, and has earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic Team honors in each of the last two years. Slattery, a sports management major, will be a candidate for both teams again this season.

The David Henderson Show

The David Henderson Show airs each Monday from 7-7:30 p.m. on the Ticket 1290 AM and The River 94.7-FM. Real Audio links are available at www.udel.edu/sportsinfo/mens_basketball.

Each Monday, the David Henderson show will come from legendary Deer Park Tavern on Main Street in downtown Newark.

Coach Henderson is joined by the voice of the Blue Hens Mike Corey for a review of the past week's games, a preview of upcoming action, and a series of questions both from the restaurant audience and listeners via call-in.

Home Sweet Home

Delaware has enjoyed tremendous success at the Bob Carpenter Center since the building opened prior to the 1992-93 season.

The Blue Hens have won 78 of their last 96 games on their home floor and are 131-37 (.780) at home in the BCC's 12 seasons.

That success has continued under David Henderson, as Delaware is 42-16 (.724) at home during Henderson's tenure.

UD has lost consecutive home games just five times since the BCC opened in December 1992 and has never lost three straight at home at the BCC.

Delaware had won 13 of its last 14 games at the Carpenter Center before falling to UMBC and American in its last two home games.
