Injury Report

Mike Slattery missed the three games in San Juan after suffering a broken right thumb against Rider, but could return in a limited role tonight. Lebo Maepa underwent surgery on his left knee on December 16 to repair a small tear in his miniscus, and will miss another one to two weeks. Henry Olawoye has missed the first 10 games this season with compartmental syndrome, but could be back as early as next week. Herb Courtney, who tore his ACL late last season, is out indefinitely and could redshirt this season. Chris Prothro needed surgery during the preseason to heal an ankle fracture, and will also redshirt this year.

Delaware Basketball on the Internet

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through <http://www.udel.edu/sportsinfo>

Box scores and game stories are usually posted within an hour of the conclusion of each UD basketball game, while cumulative statistics are also updated and posted after each contest. Media notes are available in a PDF format within 24 hours of the start of each game. In addition, livestats are available for all UD home games.

For more information, contact the UD sports information department.

Delaware on the Air

This season will be the first year that all University of Delaware men's basketball games will be carried on flagship station WRDX 94.7 FM. Also on the Blue Hen radio network are WDOV-AM 1410 (Dover) and WTGM-AM (Salisbury, MD). Mike Corey and Bill Komissaroff, who enter their sixth year on the network, return to call the action.

In addition, most UD basketball games are also broadcast on the university student station, WVUD-FM 91.3, and WVUD2, the station's internet radio network.

Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through UD's athletics website.

Delaware is scheduled to play four games on television this season. The Blue Hens' game at Hofstra on January 22 will be televised by Fox Sports Net-New York, while both the February 19 home game with the Pride and the February 22 game at Drexel will be broadcast by the Colonial Athletic Association Network. Each of those games are scheduled to be shown on both Comcast SportsNet-Philadelphia and Mid-Atlantic. Delaware's season-opener at Ohio State was broadcast by ESPN Plus.

Additionally, all Delaware home games are shown on STN, the student television network that is shown on campus.

Delaware vs. UMBC

Delaware has won seven of the eight all-time meetings between the two schools, including last season's 74-62 triumph in Catonsville, MD. Mike Ames scored a game-high 24 points in that contest, while Mike Slattery added 16 and Robin Wentt came off the bench to pull down a game-high nine rebounds.

Blue Hens Lose Three In San Juan

Playing with just eight scholarship players, Delaware lost all three of its games at the San Juan Shootout last week, falling to Auburn 74-46, Toledo 81-58, and Middle Tennessee State 73-69 in overtime. The first two losses marked the first time the Blue Hens had dropped consecutive games by at least 20 points since a 101-77 loss to Lafayette on January 18, 1985 and a 108-63 defeat to Navy two days later. The 46 points scored against Auburn were the fewest since a 50-44 loss at Pennsylvania on January 17, 2002.

However, after losing the first two games by wide margins, the Blue Hens responded against Middle Tennessee State, which was picked to win the East Division in the Sun Belt Conference.

Delaware led 31-24 at the half, just its second halftime lead of the season, and extended its advantage to 39-27 with 18:25 remaining before the Blue Raiders responded to take the lead. The Blue Hens forced overtime when Andrew Washington hit a three-pointer at the buzzer and led the extra session by one in the final minute, but MTSU's Mike Dean drained a three-pointer with 37 seconds left to put the Blue Raiders up for good.

Turnovers Hurt Hens At Shootout

With senior point guard Mike Slattery out of the lineup with a broken thumb, Delaware struggled with turnovers at the San Juan Shootout. The Blue Hens turned the ball over 26 times in the opening game against Auburn, and the following day committed 28 turnovers against Toledo, the most since Delaware also turned the ball over 28 times versus Delaware State on November 26, 1994. The Blue Hens then committed 19 turnovers against Middle Tennessee State, including two in the final 10 seconds of overtime. Delaware has committed more turnovers than its opponents in nine of 10 games this season, while the Blue Hens and St. Mary's (CA) each committed 16 in their game on December 2. As of December 20, Delaware ranked 311 out of 326 teams in Division I with 18.8 turnovers committed per game.

Controlling The Boards

Delaware out-rebounded its opponents in all three games at the San Juan Shootout, and has posted more rebounds than its opponents in eight of 10 games this season. The Blue Hens recorded a 41-27 rebounding edge against Auburn, had a 32-29 advantage over Toledo, and posted a 37-29 edge versus Middle Tennessee State. Delaware ranks fourth in the CAA with 36.1 rebounds per game and second with both 32.7 rebounds allowed per game and a +3.8 rebounding margin.

Madera Comes Up Big In San Juan

After starting the first seven games this season, Raphael Madera came off the bench at the San Juan Shootout, but the change did not seem to bother the big man. Madera scored 10 points and pulled down five rebounds against Auburn, and tied his career-high with 16 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the field versus Toledo.

Nana Starts With A Bang

Junior Harding Nana, who posted double-doubles in the final four regular season games last season, has started strong this year. Nana has led the Blue Hens in scoring in seven of the first 10 games this season, including double-doubles in five of the last six games.

Nana was 9-of-12 from the field against Mount St. Mary's, hitting his first six shots from the field. He also hit his final two shots at Ohio State, and his eighth consecutive field goals made are the sixth-most in Delaware history.

Nana pulled down a career-high 14 rebounds at Loyola and hit two free throws with 20 seconds remaining to put Delaware up four.

In the game at St. Mary's (CA) Nana hit 9-of-13 shots from the field, and posted his first double-double of the season with a 20-point, 10-rebound performance at San Francisco. He followed up that performance with game-highs of 21 points and 12 rebounds against Drexel. Nana tied for the team lead with 19 points, grabbed a game-high 12 rebounds, and scored the game-winning basket against Rider. His performances against Drexel and Rider earned him the CAA Co-Player of the Week award on December 13.

Nana scored a career-high 30 points on 10-of-13 shooting against Toledo while pulling down 11 rebounds, and posted 19 points and tied his career-high with 14 rebounds versus Middle Tennessee State. He led the Blue Hens in rebounding in all three games in San Juan.

Nana currently leads the CAA with 9.6 rebounds per game and is second with 18.1 points per game.

Nana Named CAA Co-Player of the Week

Harding Nana was named the Colonial Athletic Association Men's Basketball Co-Player of the Week on December 13 after posting a pair of double-doubles in the last two Blue Hen wins.

Nana recorded game-highs of 21 points and 12 rebounds in Delaware's 67-65 win over Drexel on December 8 in the conference opener for both teams, and added an assist and a steal. He also hit two free throws with 33 seconds remaining to give the Blue Hens a 65-62 lead, and Delaware hung on for the win when the Dragons' Bashir Mason missed a driving lay-up at the buzzer.

Nana, who was named the conference co-player of the week once last season, posted his third consecutive double-double with 19 points and a game-best 12 rebounds in the 68-66 victory over Rider on December 11. He also recorded two blocks, an assist and a steal in the all-around effort, and scored what proved to be the game-winning basket by converting a lay-up with 1:13 remaining and the score tied at 66-66.

Andrew Washington Contributes Immediately

Junior Andrew Washington, who played his first two seasons at Allen Community College in Kansas, has made an immediate impact in his first year with the Blue Hens. Washington, who has started all 10 games this season, currently ranks second on the team and 11th in the CAA with 13.1 points per game. Washington scored 10 points in his Delaware debut at Ohio State, and led the Blue Hens with 26 points in the 63-60 win at Loyola (MD) on November 29. He scored 14 points on 7-of-14 shooting and added a career-high six rebounds at San Francisco. Washington scored 15 points, second only to Nana's 21 points, against Drexel, and added 17 points and a game-high four steals in the win over Rider.

Washington exploded for 25 points on 9-of-16 shooting against Middle Tennessee State, and hit a three-pointer at the regulation buzzer to send the game into overtime.

Rulon Washington Makes His Point

With Mike Slattery injured, junior guard Rulon Washington made the first three starts of his career at the San Juan Shootout, averaging 34.7 minutes per game in the three contests. Washington played all 40 minutes against Auburn, and was on the court for 42 of the 45 minutes in the overtime loss to Middle Tennessee State. Washington scored a team-high 12 points against the Tigers and added 14 versus the Blue Raiders, including a 3-of-5 performance from three-point range.

Comeback Kids

Delaware has trailed at the half in eight of its 10 games this season (the Blue Hens have led only Mount St. Mary's and Middle Tennessee State at the break), but has rallied to overcome a deficit at the half three times. The Blue Hens trailed Loyola (MD) 35-27 at the half, but quickly scored the first eight points of the second half to tie the game. The Greyhounds regained the lead at 38-36, but Delaware responded with an 11-4 run and would not trail again.

The Blue Hens trailed Drexel 38-36 at the break, but after the teams were ted at 57-57 with 6:23 remaining, Delaware scored six straight points and held the lead the rest of the way.

UD was down to Rider 40-30 at the half in its last home game, but scored 13 of the first 16 points of the second period to quickly draw even. The Blue Hens did not trail in the final three minutes to post their third comeback win of the season.

Don't Leave Early

Last season Delaware finished 3-5 in games decided by two points or less, while 13 of its 28 games were decided by five points or fewer (UD went 7-6 in those games). Additionally the Blue Hens, who won three of their five overtime contests, played 11 games when the outcome was decided in the final five seconds of regulation and/or overtime, posting a 6-5 mark in those games.

That trend has continued this season, as four games have been decided at the buzzer or in overtime. The Blue Hens held off Loyola (MD), 63-60, when the Greyhounds' Charlie Bell missed a three-pointer from the top of the key at the buzzer.

Delaware didn't clinch its 67-65 win over Drexel until the final horn, as the Dragons' Bashir Mason had his driving lay-up roll off the rim. With the Blue Hens up 68-66 over Rider in the final seconds, Calvin Smith blocked a three-point attempt by the Broncos' Jerry Johnson out of bounds with 1.9 seconds remaining, and Terrance Mouton's fallaway three-pointer at the buzzer fell short.

The Blue Hens trailed Middle Tennessee State 61-58 with four seconds remaining, but Andrew Washington took the inbounds pass and buried a three-pointer at the buzzer to force overtime. Delaware led 69-68 in the extra session after a steal and breakout lay-up by Harding Nana, but the Blue Raiders' Mike Dean buried a three-pointer with 37 seconds left to put MTSU up for good.

On The Road Again

Delaware has certainly racked up the frequent flier miles early this season, playing seven of its first 10 games away from the Carpenter Center. The Blue Hens traveled 770 round trip miles to Columbus, OH for their season-opener at Ohio State, and in early December flew 2503 miles to and from San Francisco, CA. Delaware flew 1575 miles to and from San Juan, Puerto Rico just before the holidays. Add in a 104-mile round trip bus ride to Loyola (MD), and the Blue Hens have already traveled 9030 miles and made three plane trips this season.

Hot From Inside, Cold From Outside

The Blue Hens shot 36.7 percent from three-point range last season, but currently are last in the league with a 29.1 three-point field goal percentage and 4.3 three-pointers made per game. Delaware entered the San Francisco game just 10-of-59 (16.9 percent) from long distance, but has gone 33-of-89 (37.1 percent) in the last seven games.

However, the Blue Hens are shooting 51.6 percent from inside the arc this season, and overall are shooting 45.3 percent from the field, third in the conference. In the home opener against Mount St. Mary's, the Blue Hens shot close to 70 percent through the first 30 minutes of the game and finished 28-of-39 from inside the arc (71.8 percent). In fact, Delaware, which shot 58.5 percent for the game despite hitting just 3-of-14 three-point attempts, missed the same number of two-point shots as three-point attempts.

The Blue Hens were 20-of-40 against Drexel and 17-of-33 versus Rider from two-point range, and have shot 65-of-112 (58.0 percent) from inside the arc in their three home games this year.

Slattery, Nana Among NCAA Leaders

Through games of December 20, Mike Slattery ranked 20th in Division I with 6.4 assists per game, while Harding Nana was 50th with 8.9 rebounds per game.

Blue Hens Compete In 100th Year of Basketball

The 2004-05 season marks the 100th year for the Delaware men's basketball program. Including this season, the Blue Hens have posted an overall record of 993-1051-2 in their first century of basketball, have made four trips to the NCAA Tournament and one to the Postseason NIT, and have won 20 games six times, the last coming during David Henderson's first season in 2000-01 when UD went 20-10.

Mister Assister

Mike Slattery took over the starting point guard spot during the second half of his freshman year, and finished the season with 94 assists.

He led the CAA and ranked 18th in Division I with 6.2 assists per game as a sophomore, while playing 35.7 minutes per game.

Last season Slattery again led the league while ranking 21st in the nation with 5.9 assists per game, and also led the conference with a 2.34 assist/turnover ratio.

Slattery currently ranks first in the conference and 20th in Division I with 6.43 assists per game.

Since taking over the starting spot, in 76 starts Slattery has 442 assists and just 191 turnovers for a 2.31 assist/turnover ratio. In those 76 starts, he has had more turnovers than assists just six times, and has seven games with 10 or more assists in his career.

Slattery is the fourth player in UD history to record 400 career assists, and only the second to do it before his senior season. He currently ranks third at Delaware with 484 career assists.

Against UNC Greensboro during his sophomore year Slattery posted a career-high 15 assists, the most by a Blue Hen in 20 years, tied for the second-highest single-game total in UD history, and a Carpenter Center record. In that game, Slattery played all 40 minutes and had 15 assists versus just one turnover. The 15 assists were also one shy of the CAA record. He duplicated that performance in UD's home win over William & Mary, making Slattery one of two players in the nation to record multiple 15-assist games.

Delaware Bench-Marks

David Henderson has used his bench a lot during his tenure at Delaware.

During Henderson's five seasons at UD, the Blue Hen bench has scored in double figures in 118 of 127 games. Delaware's bench had scored in double figures in 71 straight games until being held to just eight points in the Blue Hens' 80-66 win over James Madison on January 12, 2004.

In the 2001-02 season, UD's bench averaged 28.3 points per game and scored 20 or more points in 27 of 30 games, while in 2002-03 Delaware's bench averaged 25.1 points per game, 8.4 more than the opposition.

Last season Delaware got 20 or more points from its bench in 18 games. This season the UD bench has scored in double figures in eight of 10 games and is averaging 14.9 points per game, while the Blue Hens' opponents are averaging 18.3 points per game.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 418 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made one three-pointer in all but five games (528 of 533) since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87. Delaware's streak has been in jeopardy this season, as the Blue Hens hit just 1-of-13 three-point attempts against Loyola (MD), went just 2-of-11 from behind the arc against St. Mary's (CA), and was 1-of-14 versus Auburn.

Reaching No. 10

Delaware has won at least 10 games in 22 straight seasons, dating back to 1981-82. Drexel, which has won 10 or more games in 30 consecutive years, is the only CAA school with a longer streak.

Slattery Moving Up UD Career Charts

Mike Slattery had appeared in his first 94 games at Delaware and had started 76 consecutive contests, just six shy of the Delaware record of 82 set by Taurence Chisholm from 1984 through 1988 and Mike Ames from 2000 through 2004, before missing the three games at the San Juan Shootout with a broken right thumb. Slattery, who could return tonight, ranks third on the UD list with 484 career assists and is in eighth place on the CAA all-time chart. He also ranks 12th in Delaware history with 294 career three-pointers attempted and 14th with 103 made, is 13th with 2,821 career minutes played, and 37th with 832 career points. Slattery currently ranks ninth at UD with 138 career steals.

Not Just Basketball Smart

In addition to earning recognition for his outstanding play on the court, Mike Slattery has also been recognized for his academic accomplishments. Last season Slattery was named to the Verizon/CoSIDA District II All-Academic First Team, and has earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic Team honors in each of the last two years. Slattery, a sports management major, will be a candidate for both teams again this season.

The David Henderson Show

The David Henderson Show airs each Monday from 7-7:30 p.m. on the Ticket 1290 AM and The River 94.7-FM. Real Audio links are available at www.udel.edu/sportsinfo/mens_basketball.

Each Monday, the David Henderson show will come from legendary Deer Park Tavern on Main Street in downtown Newark.

Coach Henderson is joined by the voice of the Blue Hens Mike Corey for a review of the past week's games, a preview of upcoming action, and a series of questions both from the restaurant audience and listeners via call-in.

Home Sweet Home

Delaware has enjoyed tremendous success at the Bob Carpenter Center since the building opened prior to the 1992-93 season.

The Blue Hens have won 78 of their last 94 games on their home floor and are 131-35 (.789) at home in the BCC's 12 seasons.

That success has continued under David Henderson, as Delaware is 42-14 (.750) at home during Henderson's tenure.

UD has lost consecutive home games just four times since the BCC opened in December 1992 and has never lost three straight at home at the BCC.

Delaware has now won 13 of its last 14 games at the Carpenter Center, with the lone loss coming in double overtime to Virginia Commonwealth, 71-69, on February 25.
