The Series

Hofstra leads the all-time series with Delaware, 41-22, and is 27-5 against the Blue Hens in Hempstead. The Pride has won six of the last seven meetings between the two schools, but UD snapped a six-game losing streak to Hofstra last season with a 72-68 upset win at the Bob Carpenter Center. The Pride has won seven consecutive games over the Blue Hens in Hempstead, starting with the 68-55 victory in the 2001 America East Championship game.

Gameday Interviews

Delaware head coach Monté Ross holds a press conference outside the UD locker room approximately 10 minutes after the game following a cooling off period and his postgame show with the Blue Hen Basketball Radio Network.

Selected players will also be available outside the locker room as well, usually while Coach Ross is conducting his radio interview. The University of Delaware locker room is closed to members of the media during regular season competition.

Monté Ross will not be available immediately prior to games unless an interview is scheduled beforehand. Media wishing to conduct pregame interviews with him are encouraged to tape them prior to gameday or at a shootaround the day of the game. Pregame interview requests for players or assistant coaches should also be made prior to gameday. Approval is on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Gameday Interviews

All requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made through the Athletics Media Relations Office and at least one day in advance so that academic or athletic schedules are not disrupted.

CAA Media Teleconference

The CAA hosts a media teleconference each Tuesday beginning on January 8 and running through March 4. The teleconference, which features all 12 of the conference's coaches in 10-minute slots, is held on Tuesday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. This season Monté Ross is scheduled to take calls from 11:30 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. The phone number to take part in the call is (866) 809-6768. Members of the media should contact Rob Washburn (804-754-1616 x19) at the CAA office with any questions. Comments from the call will be available on www.caasports.com each Tuesday afternoon.

Up Next

The Blue Hens return home Wednesday to host UNC Wilmington at 9 p.m. in a game that will be televised by MASN. Delaware remains home Saturday to host league-leading Virginia Commonwealth at 2 p.m. on CN8.

Last Time Out

Delaware suffered a cold shooting night for the second straight outing and Northeastern got 13 points from Matt Janning and double-doubles from three other players as the Blue Hens dropped a 53-49 decision in CAA men's basketball action Wednesday night at the Bob Carpenter Center.

The Blue Hens (9-11, 6-4 CAA), coming off a 54-53 loss at home to Georgia State in which they shot just 35.2 percent from the field, could not find their shooting touch again Wednesday as they hit on just 19 of 56 shots (33.9 percent) in falling to the Huskies (8-12, 4-6 CAA) for the second time in 11 days and for the seventh straight time overall.

The Huskies overcame a tough shooting night of their own as they connected on just 18 of 52 shots (34.6 percent) but held a 14-5 advantage at the foul line, hitting on each of their final eight tries, and a 42-34 edge on the boards.

Janning led the Huskies with 13 points but it was a balanced effort as Chaison Allen added 11 points and 10 rebounds, Nkem Ojougboh had 10 points, including six straight free throws down the stretch, and a game-high 11 rebounds, and Manny Adako contributed 10 points and 10 rebounds.

Herb Courtney led the Blue Hens with a game-high 16 points, but no other Delaware player managed more than six as Jim Ledsome, Marc Egerson, Alphonso Dawson, Brian Johnson, and Edwin Santiago each scored six points. Ledsome pulled a team-high seven rebounds while Egerson dished out six assists.

Northeastern led the entire first half as Allen scored 11 of his 13 points in the stanza to lead the Huskies to a 31-23 lead at the break. Neither team was sharp offensively as the Hens hit on 9 of 25 shots from the field with Northeastern hitting only 12 of 32 attempts.

After Northeastern increased the lead to 10 on a basket by Adako 23 seconds into the second half, Delaware struck back and used a 15-3 run, including three dunks, to take its first lead at 38-37 with 12:26 left. Courtney followed with a layup and the Hens were up 40-37 with 12:10 remaining.

The Hens still led at 44-42 with 5:50 left, but a three-pointer by backup guard Baptiste Bataille seconds later gave the Huskies the lead for good at 45-44. Neither team scored again until Ojougboh hit two free throws with 2:30 left and two more with 15 second remaining to up the lead to 49-44.

Courtney hit a three-pointer with four seconds left to narrow the gap to 49-47, but Ojougboh connected twice more from the foul line and Janning hit two more with one second left to seal the win.

Delaware vs. Hofstra Last Year

Hofstra posted a 75-50 win over the Blue Hens on January 6, 2007 at the Mack Sports Complex. Antoine Agudio scored a game-high 23 points for the Pride, while Chris Gadley came off the bench to reach career-highs of 15 points and 13 rebounds. Zygis Sestokas had 12 points for the Pride, while Loren Stokes added 10. Herb Courtney led Delaware with 17 points, while Calvin Cannon contributed 13.

Hofstra took a 35-24 lead into halftime and opened the second half with a 9-1 run to go ahead by 19 points. Delaware was never closer than 16 points the rest of the way.

The Blue Hens snapped a six-game losing streak to the Pride by recording a stunning 72-68 victory over Hofstra on January 29 at the Carpenter Center. Brian Johnson scored 25 points while Courtney added 22 points and 11 rebounds for Delaware. UD led by just one at 67-66 in the final minute, but Sam McMahon knocked down a three-pointer from the left corner with 11 seconds left and Darrell Johnson sealed the upset with two free throws with four seconds to play.

Blue Hens Struggling From The Field

Delaware, which ranks last in the CAA with a 39.6 field goal percentage, is shooting just 37.2 percent in its last five games. UD went just 19 of 54 (35.2) from the field in last Saturday's 54-53 loss to Georgia State and was 19 of 56 (33.9) in Saturday's 53-49 defeat to Northeastern.

UD Drops Pair of Low-Scoring Games

Delaware has lost two low-scoring games in a row, falling to Georgia State 54-53 last Saturday and dropping a 53-49 decision to Northeastern Wednesday. The last time the Blue Hens lost two games in a row despite not allowing more than 54 points in either contest was on February 20, 1946 (L 50-51 at Haverford) and on February 23, 1946 (L 41-43 at Pennsylvania Military College - now Widener).

Hens Record Dramatic Win at James Madison

Delaware trailed James Madison 57-47 with 6:51 remaining on January 23 in Harrisonburg, but five points from D.J. Boney and a layup by Brian Johnson pulled Delaware within 57-54 at the 4:35 mark.

The Blue Hens eventually got within one point, but two free throws by the Dukes' Pierre Curtis put JMU ahead 65-62 with 11.8 seconds remaining. However Herb Courtney was fouled while shooting a three-pointer with 2.4 seconds on the clock. Courtney made the first free throw but missed the second, prompting the Dukes to call a timeout.

Courtney intentionally missed the third free throw, and the Blue Hens retained possession when the ball went out of bounds off James Madison with 1.5 seconds left.

Following a Delaware timeout Brian Johnson found Marc Egerson, who quickly scored a layup while being fouled by the Dukes' Juwann James with five tenths of a second to play. Egerson then calmly hit the ensuing free throw to put Delaware ahead by a point, and James Madison could not get off a desperation shot at the buzzer.

Down To The Wire

Three of Delaware's last seven games have gone to overtime (including one that went double overtime), while two contests have been decided by one point and one by four points.

The stretch began with the Blue Hens' 73-68 overtime win over George Mason on January 9, and three days later Delaware recorded an 81-74 double overtime victory over Old Dominion.

After the Hens fell at Virginia Commonwealth 60-39, Northeastern edged Delaware in overtime, 73-68, on January 19. Last week UD played a pair of one-point games, including Wednesday's dramatic 66-65 win at James Madison in which Delaware scored four points in the final 2.4 seconds. Saturday Georgia State defeated the Hens, 54-53, although UD's Brian Johnson hit a three-pointer at the buzzer to cut the margin from four points to one.

Delaware has played three one-point games this season, the most since UD also played three in 1993-94. The Blue Hens played consecutive one-point games for the first time since January 22 and 25, 1986. UD dropped a 53-49 decision to Northeastern on Wednesday.

Dawson Averaging Double Figures

Blue Hen freshman guard Alphonso Dawson is currently averaging 10.7 points per game and could become the first Delaware freshman to average double figures since Brian Pearl averaged 10.5 points during the 1991-92 season. The UD freshman record is held by Tim Tompkins who averaged 11.9 points during the 1979-80 season.

Dawson Sets Season-High at Northeastern

Alphonso Dawson set his season-high by scoring 19 points in the 73-69 overtime loss at Northeastern on January 19. Dawson scored 16 points in the first half and added a three-pointer in the second, but missed the final 10 minutes of regulation and all of overtime with cramps.

Hens Working Overtime

From January 9 through January 19, Delaware played three overtime games in a four-game stretch, just the second time in UD history that the Blue Hens have gone the extra session three times in four games.

UD defeated George Mason, 73-68, on January 9 in overtime, and three days later posted an 81-74 double overtime victory over Old Dominion. After a 60-39 setback at Virginia Commonwealth, Delaware dropped a 73-69 overtime decision at Northeastern on January 19.

The only other time Delaware played three overtime games in four contests was in 1973: W at Bucknell, 91-83 (2OT); W at Rider, 77-66 (OT); L at Lehigh, 70-72; W at Gettysburg, 93-89 (OT).

Hens Strong From Foul Line At Northeastern

Delaware went 20 of 22 from the free throw line at Northeastern, a 90.9 percentage. The last time the Blue Hens' hit at least 90 percent of their free throws in a game when UD attempted at least 20 foul shots was on February 21, 1998 just a few miles from Northeastern at Boston University. Coincidentally Delaware also lost that game, 87-77, to the Terriers.

VCU Shuts Down Blue Hens

Virginia Commonwealth, which leads the CAA in scoring defense, held the Blue Hens to their fewest point total in nearly 25 years in the 60-39 win over the Blue Hens on January 16.

Delaware was held to its lowest point total since also scoring 39 points in a 46-39 setback to Rider on February 19, 1983.

The Blue Hens scored just 17 first half points, its fewest total in a first half since scoring 15 at Loyola (MD) on November 29, 2006.

Delaware's 13 field goals made were the fewest since the Blue Hens also made 13 at UNC Wilmington on February 9, 2006, while its 27.1 field goal percentage was the lowest since UD shot 26.9 percent in a 72-47 season-opening loss at seventh-ranked Alabama on November 24, 1990.

Courtney Records Double-Double vs. ODU

Herb Courtney led Delaware with season-highs of 27 points and 11 rebounds versus Old Dominion to record his first double-double of the season. Courtney now has 15 double-doubles in his career.

Courtney Named CAA Player of the Week

Herb Courtney was named the Colonial Athletic Association Men's Basketball Player of the Week, the conference announced on January 14. Courtney averaged 23 points and eight rebounds in a pair of thrilling overtime wins over George Mason and Old Dominion.

Courtney scored 19 points while adding five rebounds, three blocks, two steals and an assist in the Blue Hens' 73-68 overtime victory over George Mason on January 9. He then led Delaware by posting season-highs of 27 points and 11 rebounds in the 81-74 double overtime win over Old Dominion on January 12 to record his first double-double of the year.

Courtney drained a three-pointer with 1:18 remaining in the first overtime period to tie the game at 65-65, and after a Monarchs three-pointer, he hit another shot from behind the arc to knot the contest at 68-68 with 40 seconds left to force the second extra session.

Courtney currently leads the Blue Hens with 13.6 points per game, 5.9 rebounds per game, 33 blocked shots and 26 steals.

Streaks & Stuff

- Delaware won its first five league games for the first time in its seven seasons in the CAA and for the first time since the 1991-92 Blue Hens went a perfect 14-0 in the North Atlantic Conference.

- The Blue Hens' 5-0 start in CAA play was the first time in Delaware's seven years in the league that UD had won five consecutive CAA games. Delaware had won four straight league games twice.

- Delaware defeated William & Mary and Drexel on the road on January 2 and January 5 to win consecutive CAA road games for the first time since January 8 and January 15, 2003 when UD defeated William & Mary and Old Dominion.

- Delaware snapped a five-game losing streak to George Mason with the 73-68 overtime win on January 9. The Blue Hens rallied from a 19-point second half deficit, the largest second half comeback win in school history.

- Delaware also snapped a five-game losing streak to Old Dominion with the 81-74 double overtime win on January 12. Those two games marked the third time in Blue Hen history that Delaware has played consecutive overtime games. The other two times were February 19 and 22, 1966 and February 3 and 7, 1973.

Comeback Kids

Delaware trailed Drexel 35-28 at the half on January 5 and was down 42-32 with 17:34 remaining, but the Blue Hens pulled even at 52-52 with 10:01 left and went on to post the 67-63 victory.

Delaware trailed George Mason 47-28 with 16:01 remaining on January 9, but exploded on a 27-8 run over the next 11 and a half minutes to tie the game at 55-55 with 4:35 left. The Patriots answered to take a three-point lead, but Brian Johnson drained a three-pointer to tie the game at 61-61 with 51 seconds left. After both teams missed in the final minute the game went into overtime, and the Blue Hens hit 10 of 12 free throws in the extra session to earn the 73-68 victory. The 19-point comeback represents the largest second half comeback victory in Delaware history.

The Blue Hens were down 30-25 at the half to Old Dominion on January 12 and trailed by as much as seven early in the second period before battling back to tie the game at 46-46 at the 8:50 mark. The Monarchs were up three points in the final seconds, but Marc Egerson drained a three-pointer with four seconds left to force overtime.

This stretch is believed to be the first time in Delaware history that the Blue Hens have won three consecutive games after trailing at the half in all three.

Delaware trailed James Madison, 57-47, last Wednesday before rallying for a 66-65 win. After falling behind by double digits the Blue Hens scored seven straight points, and a free throw by Egerson made it a 59-58 game with 2:27 to play. UD was down 65-62 with 11.8 seconds to play but Herb Courtney was fouled shooting a three-pointer. He made the first but missed the next two free throws, the third intentionally, and Delaware got the ball back when it went out of bounds off James Madison. Egerson then scored while being fouled with five tenths of a second remaining.

Clutch Shots

Delaware has hit numerous clutch shots over its last three wins.

- Delaware led Drexel 62-60 when Edwin Santiago hit a driving layup to put the Blue Hens up four with 1:35 remaining.

Delaware Basketball on the Net

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through <http://www.udel.edu/sportsinfo>

Box scores and game stories are usually posted within an hour of the conclusion of each UD basketball game, while cumulative statistics are also updated and posted after each contest. Media notes are available in a PDF format within 24 hours of the start of each game. In addition, livestats are available for all UD home games.

Delaware Basketball on the Radio

For the fourth straight season all University of Delaware men's basketball games will be carried on FM radio. All games will be carried on The New 94.7 WDSB. Mike Corey and Bill Komisaroff, who are in their ninth year on the network, return to call the action.

Additionally, most Blue Hen men's basketball games are broadcast by the UD student radio station, WVUD 91.3 FM. Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through the UD athletics website.

Delaware Basketball on Television

The Blue Hens will have nine games televised this season. Delaware's game at Maryland on December 28 will be broadcast by Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic, while the home game against Georgia State on January 26 will be televised by Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic, Philadelphia, and Southeast. UD's game at Northeastern on January 19 and home games against Virginia Commonwealth on February 9 and Drexel on February 16 will be televised by CN8. The Blue Hens' home game against George Mason on January 9 will be broadcast by ESPN Regional and MASN, while the home game versus UNC Wilmington on February 6 will also be televised by MASN.

The Blue Hens' home game against Old Dominion on January 12 will be broadcast by WSKY4 in Hampton Roads, VA.

Additionally, CN8 will televise all four CAA Tournament quarterfinal games and both semifinal games, while ESPN will broadcast the conference championship game.

- After Drexel closed to within 64-61, Aphonso hit a 19-foot jumper with 19 seconds left to increase the lead to five.

- Drexel was within 66-63 but Marc Egerson sealed the UD victory with a free throw with six seconds to play.

- UD trailed George Mason 61-58 in the final minute of regulation, but Brian Johnson hit a three-pointer with 51 seconds left to tie the game and force overtime.

- The Blue Hens led the Patriots 70-68 in overtime, but Egerson hit two free throws with 24 seconds left and added another with seven seconds to go to ice the win.

- Old Dominion led Delaware 62-59 at the end of regulation but Egerson drained a three-pointer from the left corner with four seconds remaining to force overtime.

- The Monarchs were up 65-62 in the first overtime period, but Courtney hit a three-pointer to tie the game with 1:18 to play.

- After an Old Dominion three-pointer, Courtney nailed another three-pointer with 40 seconds to go to knot the game at 68-68 and force double overtime.

- Delaware trailed James Madison by two points with 1.5 seconds remaining on January 23, but Marc Egerson converted a layup while being fouled and hit the subsequent free throw with five tenths of a second on the clock to give the Blue Hens a 66-65 win.

Dawson CAA Rookie of the Week Again

Alphonso Dawson earned his third Colonial Athletic Association Men's Basketball Rookie of the Week award on January 7.

Dawson led the Blue Hens with 33 points and ranked third on the team with 13 rebounds while leading the Blue Hens to a pair of victories that week.

Dawson tied for the team lead with 15 points while adding six rebounds, an assist and a blocked shot in the Blue Hens' 58-51 win at William & Mary on January 2. He then led Delaware with a career-high tying 18 points, grabbed seven rebounds, and dished out an assist in the 67-63 win at Drexel on January 5. The Blue Hens held a slim 64-61 lead over the Dragons when Dawson hit a 19-foot jumper with just 19 seconds remaining to increase Delaware's lead from three points to five.

Dawson currently ranks third on Delaware with 10.7 points per game and 5.0 rebounds per game, and leads the team with an 83.0 free throw percentage. He has reached double figures in 13 games this season, including nine of the last 12 contests.

The Rookie of the Week award was the third in five weeks for Dawson, who also earned the honor on December 10 and December 24.

Freshmen Step Up vs. Drexel

Delaware got major contributions from three freshmen in the 67-63 win over Drexel on January 5. Alphonso Dawson continued his outstanding play with a team-high 18 points and seven rebounds, while Edwin Santiago added eight points and hit a driving layup with 1:35 remaining to put the Blue Hens up four points.

Marco Cooper, who entered the game with just 11 points and 13 rebounds on the season, contributed 10 points and seven rebounds while also guarding Drexel senior Frank Elegar. Cooper's layup with 3:14 left gave UD a 60-58 lead and put the Hens up for good.

Sure-Handed Johnson Leads Hens At Drexel

Sophomore point guard Brian Johnson dished out a career-high 11 assists and did not commit a turnover in 39 minutes of action at Drexel. The game marked the second time that Johnson has reached double figures in assists, as he handed out 10 assists against William & Mary on January 13, 2007.

Johnson's 11 assists were the most by a Blue Hen since Mike Slattery dished out 15 assists versus William & Mary on February 1, 2003.

Hens Already Exceed Win Total of 2006-07

With its 9-11 record so far this season, Delaware has already exceeded its win total during 2006-07 when the Blue Hens went 5-26 and set the school record for losses in a season. Delaware finished last in the CAA a year ago with a 3-15 conference mark but is currently in fifth place with a 6-4 league record this season.

Delaware Continues Domination of Tribe

Delaware entered this season just 13-41 all-time in Colonial Athletic Association road games, including 6-30 over the previous four years. However the Blue Hens are already 3-2 on the road in the CAA this season after wins at William & Mary, Drexel and James Madison. The Blue Hens have been especially successful in Williamsburg, as Delaware has won five straight at Kaplan Arena since a 59-53 defeat in the 2001-02 season.

With its win at William & Mary on January 2, Delaware snapped a nine-game CAA road losing streak; its last conference road win had been a 57-52 overtime victory at the Tribe on February 15, 2006, the Blue Hens' final CAA road game of that season.

Terps Dominate Boards vs. Hens

Maryland posted a 57-25 rebounding advantage against Delaware on December 28, as the Terrapins nearly recorded as many offensive rebounds (22) as the Blue Hens had total rebounds.

The 57 rebounds were the most allowed by Delaware since giving up 59 to Virginia Tech on December 21, 1978.

Champions of the America East?

Delaware, which competed in the America East Conference from 1996-97 through 2000-01, defeated all three of its America East opponents this season. The Blue Hens posted a 71-60 home win over Albany, picked third in the America East Preseason Coaches Poll, on December 5. On December 19 Delaware recorded an identical 71-60 triumph at Vermont, picked second in the America East Preseason Poll. UD then defeated Boston University, which was picked to win the America East, on December 22 by a 73-55 score.

UD Regaining Home Court Advantage

After opening its home season with a 51-50 loss to Hampton, Delaware reeled off five straight home wins against Towson (70-63), Albany (71-60), Boston University (73-55), George Mason (73-68 in OT) and Old Dominion (81-74 in 2OT). That represented the Blue Hens' first five-game home winning streak in the same season since a seven-game winning streak from January 3 through February 16, 2004.

A Tale of Two (First) Halves

Delaware trailed by 31 points at the half at Central Connecticut, as the Blue Devils took a 50-19 lead into the break. The deficit was Delaware's largest halftime margin since the Blue Hens trailed 11th-ranked Purdue 53-17 at the half in the first round of the NCAA Tournament on March 13, 1998.

Delaware's 33-point defeat to Central Connecticut was its worst since an 83-48 setback at Old Dominion on January 10, 2007.

The Blue Hens completely reversed their fortunes at Vermont three days later, exploding to a 33-15 halftime lead. The 18-point advantage was the Blue Hens' largest at halftime since leading Drexel 38-19 on February 11, 2006. The 15 points allowed were the fewest in a first half since Delaware also allowed 15 to William & Mary on February 5, 2005.

Egerson Gives Hens Scoring Punch

Junior Marc Egerson has provided instant offense for the Blue Hens since becoming eligible on December 16 at Central Connecticut. Egerson, who has started all 13 games, ranks second on the team with 12.7 points per game and has led or tied for the team lead in scoring in six of his first 13 games.

Egerson led UD with 14 points and also pulled down two rebounds in a team-high 34 minutes of action at CCSU, and scored eight points while tying for the team lead with eight rebounds at Vermont. He had 14 points and eight rebounds in the victory over Boston University, and led the Blue Hens with 17 points at Maryland. Egerson tied for the team lead with 15 points and led UD with nine rebounds at William & Mary. He set his career-high in rebounds for the second straight game by pulling down a team-high 10 boards at Drexel and narrowly missed a double-double with nine points.

Egerson was the catalyst in Delaware's comeback win over George Mason, as he led the Blue Hens with a career-high 23 points and eight rebounds while tying for the team lead with three steals in 44 minutes of action. He scored 11 points in the victory over Old Dominion, and tied the game by hitting a three-pointer with four seconds remaining in regulation.

Egerson tied for the team lead with 11 points at VCU on January 16. He then scored 15 points at James Madison and converted a game-winning three-point play with five tenths of a second remaining. He led the Blue Hens with 12 points against Georgia State.

Ledsome Provides Blue Hens Inside Presence

Like Marc Egerson, junior transfer Jim Ledsome has also made an immediate impact for the Blue Hens, starting his first 13 contests. He scored nine points, grabbed three rebounds and dished out a team-high three assists in his debut at Central Connecticut, and contributed four points, two rebounds and a block at Vermont. Ledsome scored a career-high 14 points while adding four rebounds and three blocks against Boston University, and led the team with eight rebounds and blocked seven shots, two shy of the school record, at Maryland. He had six rebounds and four points at William & Mary, and added four points, four boards and two blocks against George Mason.

Ledsome had eight points and seven rebounds in the win over Old Dominion, and punctuated the victory with a free throw and slam dunk with nine seconds remaining in the second overtime period. He scored four points while leading the team with seven rebounds at Northeastern, and again led the team with seven boards while adding six points in the home game against the Huskies.

Accepting Charity

Delaware went 30 of 47 from the free throw line against Albany, its most free throw attempts since the Blue Hens went to the line a school-record 56 times against UMBC on January 6, 1993.

Hens Snap Losing Streak vs. Towson

Delaware, which lost the final six games of last season, had dropped 10 straight games after losing the first four games of this year. However the Blue Hens snapped their 10-game losing streak by defeating Towson, 70-63, in their CAA opener. The losing streak was the longest since an 11-game losing streak from January 5 through February 7, 1979.

Newcomers Contribute in Rookie Seasons

Delaware is getting solid contributions from its freshmen this season. Alphonso Dawson is averaging 10.7 points and ranks second on the team with 214 points and 100 rebounds in 31.6 minutes per contest. D.J. Boney is averaging 20.3 minutes per game and scoring 4.3 points per contest. Edwin Santiago is averaging 5.4 points in 17.1 minutes per game and is fourth on the team with 19 steals, while Marco Cooper has posted 24 points and 26 rebounds in 94 minutes off the bench.

The four UD freshmen are contributing 34.7 percent of Delaware's points and 28.9 percent of the Blue Hens' rebounds.

Johnson Takes Care of the Rock

Brian Johnson currently ranks second in the CAA and 37th in Division I with a 2.37 assist/turnover ratio. Johnson has handed out 109 assists this season (he leads the league with 5.45 assists per game), and has committed just 46 turnovers in 37.5 minutes played per game. On January 5 Johnson dished out a career-high 11 assists while not committing a turnover in the victory at Drexel.

Johnson is currently 34th in Division I with 5.6 assists per game.

Johnson Runs The Show For Hens

Sophomore Brian Johnson played all but two minutes in the Blue Hens' opener at Marist, scoring 23 points while dishing out five assists. Johnson reached the 20-point mark just twice last season but hit 7 of 14 shots against the Red Foxes including 2 of 3 from behind the arc, and nailed all seven of his free throw attempts.

Johnson scored 13 points and handed out a team-high seven assists at Rider, playing all but three minutes. He played 36 minutes against Hampton, dishing out six assists while pulling down a career-high seven rebounds. Johnson played a season-high 39 minutes at Iona, scoring 10 points while handing out four assists. He had his best game of the season in the win over Towson, posting 11 points, nine assists and six rebounds against the Tigers.

He scored nine points, tied for the team lead with six rebounds, and dished out five assists against Albany, and posted a game-high six assists at Ohio University. Johnson scored a team-high 17 points in the win at Vermont, going 10-of-10 from the free throw line while adding a game-high eight assists.

Johnson was again clutch at the foul line down the stretch at William & Mary, going 7 of 8 from the line versus the Tribe and dishing out a game-high four assists.

He dished out 11 assists while not committing a turnover in 39 minutes on the floor during Delaware's win at Drexel.

Against George Mason Johnson hit a three-pointer to put Delaware ahead 58-57 with 2:45 remaining, and after the Patriots scored four straight points, he drained another three-pointer with 51 seconds left to force overtime. Johnson had 11 points and six assists in the double overtime victory over Old Dominion.

Johnson scored 11 points at Northeastern and converted a three-point play with 35 seconds left in regulation to force overtime.

Not Shy From Deep

Delaware is currently averaging 18.5 three-point field goal attempts per game this season, as seven players have taken at least 42 three-pointers so far this season. On January 12 against Old Dominion the Blue Hens went 11 of 30 from behind the arc, the most three-pointers a UD team had attempted since Delaware went 13 of 32 from long range at Loyola (MD) on December 31, 2005.

The Blue Hens currently rank ninth in the CAA with a 32.2 three-point percentage and rank second in the CAA by holding their opponents to just 28.2 percent shooting from behind the arc.

A High-Scoring Affair

The 78 points scored by Delaware against Marist tied for the most under head coach Monté Ross, matching a 78-69 win over UNC Wilmington on February 7. Conversely, the Blue Hens' 89 points allowed to the Red Foxes also tied for the most under Ross, matching George Mason's 89 versus UD on January 31.

Delaware scored a season-high 81 points in the double overtime victory over Old Dominion and has reached the 70-point mark in eight of the first 20 games of the year. UD scored over 70 points just four times in 31 games a year ago.

Young Out Indefinitely After Preseason Surgery

Delaware junior Brian Young will be out indefinitely after undergoing emergency surgery for acute compartment syndrome in his upper left arm during the preseason.

Young, who sat out the 2006-07 season after transferring from Lafayette, had surgery on October 13 after participating in the Blue Hens' practice earlier in the day. No timetable has been set for his return.

Young enrolled at Lafayette in the fall of 2005 but missed the entire season after undergoing open heart surgery prior to his freshman year. He then transferred to Delaware during the summer of 2006.

Young's injury is the same one suffered by then Blue Hen assistant coach Ryan Iversen, who suffered acute compartment syndrome in his leg during a practice last December. Ironically, Young was the player that bumped into Iversen during that practice.

Blue Hens Facing Challenging Schedule

Delaware is facing a challenging schedule this season, as Delaware will face six NCAA Tournament teams and three NIT participants from last year. The Blue Hens opened the season by facing Marist, which advanced to the second round of the NIT last season and hosted Albany on December 5, which appeared in the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

The Hens travelled to NCAA Tournament participant Central Connecticut on December 16, and three days later visited Vermont, which played in the 2007 NIT. Delaware travelled to Maryland, which advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament a year ago, on December 28.

Blue Hens Feature Home-Grown Talent

The Blue Hens have four players on their roster that played high school basketball in the state of Delaware: Marc Egerson (Glasgow), Jawan Carter (Tatnall), D.J. Boney (Tatnall), and Edwin Santiago (Sanford). In fact, Carter is the leading scorer in Delaware history with 2,464 career points.

The last time a UD team featured four players who played high school basketball in Delaware was in 1985-86. Three of those players were Donald Dutton, a junior from Wilmington, DE (Howard Career HS), Steve Jennings, a sophomore from Claymont, DE (Claymont HS), and Oscar Jones, a senior from Wilmington, DE (A.I. duPont HS). The fourth, freshman Stan Waterman from Wilmington, DE (Howard Career HS), is currently the head coach at Sanford School where Edwin Santiago played.

A Rough Year

Delaware head coach Monté Ross and the Blue Hens suffered through a tumultuous season in 2006-07 when Delaware set the school record for losses in a season:

November 6 • Senior guard Calvin Cannon is suspended for the Blue Hens' first two regular season games for a violation of team policy

November 30 • Sophomore center Matt Hewson withdraws from basketball team; Raphael Madera is suspended indefinitely (he would not return to the team)

December 27 • Assistant coach Ryan Iversen undergoes emergency surgery for compartment syndrome in his right leg after getting bumped by Brian Young in the Blue Hens' practice. Iversen undergoes a few additional surgeries and misses the rest of the season

January 8 • Sophomore DeSean White, who was sitting out the season as a transfer, was dismissed from the University after being declared academically ineligible; sophomore guard Zaire Taylor takes a leave of absence from the team (he would not return)

January 9 • Ross announces that sophomore forward Pau Geli will miss the remainder of the season with a lung ailment

February 7 • Calvin Cannon is suspended for academic reasons and misses the remainder of the season. Cannon's departure leaves the Blue Hens with just seven players for the final seven games of the year

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 520 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made one three-pointer in all but five games (630 of 635) since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87.

The Blue Hens' streak was in serious jeopardy last Wednesday at Virginia Commonwealth, but Marc Egerson banked home a three-pointer in the final seconds to extend the streak.

Blue Hens Look To Avoid 20 Losses

Delaware went 5-26 last season to set a school record for most losses in a season, while its 15 conference losses were also a school record. Delaware had just one 20-loss season (5-22 in 1978-79) in its first 99 years, but has lost at least 20 games in three consecutive years: 11-20 in 2004-05, 9-21 in 2005-06 and 5-26 last season. The Blue Hens are one of just 10 Division I teams to lose at least 20 games in each of the last three seasons along with Centenary, Howard, Maryland Eastern Shore, Northern Colorado, James Madison, Prairie View A&M, Longwood, San Jose State, and Idaho.

Courtney Reaches Milestones

Herb Courtney pulled down eight rebounds against Vermont to become the 27th player in UD history to reach the 500-rebound plateau. On December 22 Courtney scored 18 points against Boston University, as he became the 25th player in UD history to reach the 1,000-point plateau.

Courtney is now one of 12 players in Delaware history to record at least 1,000 points and 500 rebounds.

St. Joseph's Transfer Jawan Carter Redshirts

Sophomore guard Jawan Carter transferred to UD from Saint Joseph's during the offseason and will sit out this season due to NCAA transfer regulations. Carter will redshirt this season and will have three years of eligibility remaining beginning in the 2008-09 season.

Carter appeared in 32 games while starting 26 for the Hawks last season and was named to Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team. He ranked fourth on the team with 7.6 points per game, was second with 74 assists, and ranked third on the team with 38 three-pointers made and a 35.8 three-point field goal percentage. Carter, who averaged 25.7 minutes per game for Saint Joseph's, scored a career-high 20 points in a win over Xavier on January 21 and added 18 in a victory over Lafayette on November 17. He scored in double figures in three consecutive games in late December and hit a career-high five three-pointers against Ohio University.

Carter was named the 2006 Delaware State Player of the Year while playing at the Tatnall School, and is the state's all-time leading scorer with 2,464 career points. An all-state selection in 2005 and 2006, Carter averaged 29.4 points, 5.0 rebounds and 7.0 assists as a senior. Carter, an EA Sports Second Team All-American as a senior, led Tatnall to the 2006 state championship, scoring 31 points in the title game. He was named high honorable mention on Street & Smith's All-America Team four times.

Blue Hens Sign Adam Pegg

University of Delaware second-year men's basketball head coach Monté Ross has announced the signing of high school standout Adam Pegg, who will enroll at UD in the fall and begin playing for the Blue Hens in the 2008-09 season.

Pegg signed his National Letter of Intent in November, making him UD's first player from the Class of 2008.

Pegg, a 6-9, 235-pound forward, is currently a senior at Clearwater High School in Florida. He averaged 17 points and 12 rebounds per game as a junior at Palm Harbor University High School. Pegg transferred to Clearwater from Palm Harbor University prior to his senior season.

Newark's Foreign Connection

Junior forward Pau Geli, a native of Girona, Spain, continues a trend of foreign-born players on the Delaware basketball team. The Blue Hens have had at least one foreign player on the roster in all but two years since the 1987-88 season. Delaware had four foreign players on the 1998-99 team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament while Spencer Dunkley, Delaware's career rebounding leader and an NBA second round draft pick in 1992, is a native of Wolverhampton, England.

HEAD COACH MONTÉ ROSS

Winston-Salem State '92
Second Season at Delaware
14-37 Overall and at Delaware

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his second season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2007-08. He guided Delaware to a 5-26 record in 2006-07 and led the Blue Hens to a 72-68 win over preseason league favorite Hofstra on January 29.

Prior to coming to Delaware Ross, 37, had served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University the previous 10 seasons, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Things are going pretty fast now, but I am prepared to handle it. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. My first priority will be to the players we have coming back. They all came here to the University of Delaware with a dream and they all have goals. I want to make sure that their experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture."

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players. We are confident that he will bring the University of Delaware men's basketball program to prominence in the CAA."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herrion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Phil Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season. Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West. Nelson currently plays for the Orlando Magic while West and Dwayne Jones are members of the Boston Celtics. Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross and assistant coach Stephen Stewart visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, PA with their son Justin, 8, and daughter Lauren, 6.

NEW ROCHELLE, NY -- Iona used a late 11-0 run to defeat Delaware, 57-52, at the Hynes Center...the Gaels trailed the Blue Hens 49-43 with 4:43 remaining, but Dexter Gray hit one free throw, Devon Clarke converted a three-point play, and Clarke hit two free throws to tie the game at 49-49 with 1:42 to play...after Clarke stole a Blue Hen pass, Kyle Camper drained a baseline three-pointer with 48 seconds left as the shot clock expired to give Iona a three-point lead. Brian Johnson then had his driving layup blocked out of bounds, and Edwin Santiago missed a three-pointer with 20 seconds remaining...while the Gaels corralled the defensive rebound De'Shaune Griffin hit two free throws with 13 seconds remaining, but the Blue Hens finally stopped the run as Sam McMahon drained a three-pointer with five seconds on the clock...however Camper sealed the win for the Gaels by nailing two free throws with five seconds to play...Delaware got a team-high 11 points and five rebounds from freshman Alphonso Dawson, while four Blue Hens scored 10 points. Johnson and McMahon each recorded 10 points and four assists, while Santiago and D.J. Boney also finished with 10 points...Iona, which had dropped 10 consecutive games since a 52-50 win at Delaware last February, got 11 points and nine rebounds from Dexter Gray. Milan Prodanovic added nine points and six rebounds for the Gaels, while John Kelly pulled down a game-high 11 boards...Delaware but was out-rebounded for the fourth straight game, as Iona held a 41-24 edge on the boards...Iona jumped out to a 9-2 advantage and still led 19-11 at the 7:45 mark, but consecutive three-pointers by Johnson, Santiago and Boney gave the Blue Hens their first lead of the game at 21-20 with six minutes to play in the half...the game was tied 37-37, but Delaware scored six straight points to take the lead and held the advantage until Iona's late run.

NEWARK, DE -- Delaware put four players in double figures and the Blue Hens used key runs late in the first half and early in the second to cruise to a 73-55 victory over Boston University...UD (4-6) got a game-high 18 points from Herb Courtney, who became the 25th player in Delaware history to reach the 1,000-point plateau with his final basket of the game...Alphonso Dawson added 17 points and led the Hens with a career-best nine rebounds, while Marc Egerson added 14 points, eight boards and four assists...Jim Ledsome, like Egerson playing his first career game at the BCC, also scored 14 points on 6 of 7 shooting from the field and grabbed four rebounds...The Terriers (3-7) were led by Corey Lowe who scored a team-high 13 points. Scott Brittain added 11 points and five rebounds for BU, while Carlos Strong contributed eight points off the bench...UD, which shot a season-high 58.0 percent from the field (29 of 50) and held a 35-33 rebounding advantage, won its third straight home game for the first time since the first three home contests of 2004-05...UD held a 21-18 advantage with five minutes to play in the first half before closing the half on a 12-3 run to go up 33-21...After Brittain opened the second half scoring with a tip-in, UD answered with 10 consecutive points, going up 43-23 with 16:11 remaining on a layup by Courtney...Marques Johnson ended the run with a layup for the Terriers, but the Blue Hens responded by scoring 12 of the next 14 points to take their largest lead of the night at 55-27 on a jumper by Brian Johnson with 12:16 to play...The Terriers answered with a 15-5 run to pull within 60-42 with 7:20 to go, but Ledsome and Egerson converted layups and Dawson hit a three-pointer to extend the UD lead back to 25 points... Courtney, who reached the 500-rebound plateau in the win over Vermont, went 8 of 12 from the field to become the 12th player in UD history to record at least 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds. Dawson was 6 of 13 from the field with three three-pointers while Egerson finished 4 for 5 from the floor with a pair of three-pointers and hit all four of his free throw attempts.

NEWARK, DE -- Delaware let a 10-point second half lead slip away and missed on several opportunities in the closing minutes to take it back as the Blue Hens dropped a 54-53 decision to Georgia State at the BCC...Georgia State (5-14, 2-7 CAA), which snapped both a six-game losing streak and a six game road losing streak, got a game-high 19 points from guard Leonard Mendez...Delaware (9-10, 6-3 CAA), which shot just 35.2 percent from the field for the game and connected on just 8 of 25 three-pointers, got 12 points from Marc Egerson and 11 each from Alphonso Dawson and Brian Johnson...Herb Courtney pulled a game-high seven rebounds for the Hens but was held to just five points, nine below his average, on just 2 of 10 shooting from the field...The Hens had a five-game home winning streak snapped as the Panthers won at the BCC for the second straight time...Delaware, which trailed by as much as seven points in the first half, slimmed the margin to 22-20 at halftime and came out strong in the second stanza to take a 10-point lead at 38-28 on a Courtney three-pointer with 14:08 remaining...But the Panthers regained the lead with a 16-2 run over the next eight minutes as Delaware misfired on 8 of its next 9 shots...A three-pointer by the Hens' D.J. Boney with 6:18 left ended the drought and cut the Panthers' lead to 44-43...Delaware's Dawson and GSU's Mendez traded three-pointers and the Hens took their last lead at 48-47 on a Ledsome putback with 4:19 left...Georgia State came right back 23 seconds later to take the lead for good on a layup by D.J. Jones...The Hens could never regain the lead as they turned the ball over twice, misfired on three straight three-point attempts, and Egerson missed the front end of a one and one foul opportunity twice the rest of the way...Georgia State clinched the win as Deven Dickerson hit two free throws with 49 seconds left and Mendez hit one with 12 seconds remaining...A three-pointer by Delaware's Johnson just before the final buzzer was too little too late for the Hens.
