Gameday Interviews

Delaware head coach Monté Ross holds a press conference outside the UD locker room approximately 10 minutes after the game following a cooling off period and his postgame show with the Blue Hen Basketball Radio Network.

Selected players will also be available outside the locker room as well, usually while Coach Ross is conducting his radio interview. The University of Delaware locker room is closed to members of the media during regular season competition.

Monté Ross will not be available immediately prior to games unless an interview is scheduled beforehand. Media wishing to conduct pregame interviews with him are encouraged to tape them prior to gameday or at a shootaround the day of the game. Pregame interview requests for players or assistant coaches should also be made prior to gameday. Approval is on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Gameday Interviews

All requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made through the Athletics Media Relations Office and at least one day in advance so that academic or athletic schedules are not disrupted.

CAA Media Teleconference

The CAA hosts a media teleconference each Tuesday beginning on January 8 and running through March 4. The teleconference, which features all 12 of the conference's coaches in 10-minute slots, is held on Tuesday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. This season Monté Ross is scheduled to take calls from 11:30 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. The phone number to take part in the call is (866) 809-6768. Members of the media should contact Rob Washburn (804-754-1616 x19) at the CAA office with any questions. Comments from the call will be available on www.caasports.com each Tuesday afternoon.

Up Next

Delaware begins a three-game road trip Wednesday with a 7:30 p.m. game at Virginia Commonwealth. The Blue Hens travel to Northeastern next Saturday for a 5 p.m. game with the Huskies.

Last Time Out

Delaware stormed back from a 19-point deficit in the second half to send the game into overtime and then buried 10 of 12 shots from the foul line in the extra session to down George Mason 73-68 Wednesday night at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Marc Egerson led three Blue Hens in double figures with a career-high 23 points and Herb Courtney added 19 points as Delaware won for the fifth time in the last six games.

George Mason got 20 points and 13 rebounds from Will Thomas and 18 points from John Vaughan but was hurt by 20 turnovers, including 13 after halftime. Louis Birdsong and Folarin Campbell added 10 points apiece for the Patriots.

Egerson also pulled a team-high eight rebounds for the Blue Hens while Alphonso Dawson added 13 points and six rebounds and Brian Johnson dished out six assists.

Delaware outscored Mason 22-10 from the foul line for the game, but struggled all night from the charity stripe until the overtime session. The Hens hit just 12 of 22 shots from the foul line before converting 10 of 12 in the extra session, including seven of eight over the final 1:24 to pull away.

The Patriots jumped out to a 33-24 halftime lead and took control early in the second stanza, using a 14-4 surge over the first four minutes of the stanza to go up by 19 points at 47-28 with 16:01 left after a Thomas jumper.

But Delaware slowly chipped away at the lead by holding the Patriots to just six points over the next eight and a half minutes. Mason went ice cold, committing 11 turnovers against the Blue Hen pressure and hitting just 3 of 12 shots from the field during the span.

Egerson converted a three-point play with 7:32 left in regulation to cut the lead to 53-51 and tied the game for the first time since the opening half at 55-55 on a jumper with 4:35 left. Thomas followed with a layup and added two free throws with 1:01 left to give the Patriots a 61-58 lead, but Delaware sent the game into overtime as Johnson buried a deep three-pointer with 51 seconds left.

Both teams missed opportunities to get the win in regulation as Jordan Carter missed a three-point attempt with 25 seconds left and Egerson misfired inside with just three ticks left.

The overtime session featured three ties in the first three minutes, the last with 1:52 left when Thomas converted one of two free throws to knot the score at 66-66. But Courtney, who missed 6 of 10 free throws in regulation, hit both ends of a two-shot foul with 1:24 left to give the Hens the lead for good at 68-66.

Dawson followed with two free throws to up the UD lead to 70-66 before a Vaughan jumper narrowed the gap to 70-68 with 25 seconds left and added one more at the seven second mark to ice the victory.

Delaware vs. Old Dominion Last Year

Delaware suffered its worst loss of the season as host Old Dominion built a 16-point halftime lead and scored the first 13 points of the second half to run away with an 83-48 victory over the Blue Hens at the Constant Convocation Center on January 10, 2007.

The loss was the Blue Hens' most lopsided margin since falling to Purdue 95-56 in the the NCAA Tournament on March 13, 1998. The defeat was also Delaware's worst in conference play since a 107-70 Middle Atlantic Conference setback to Lafayette Jan. 17, 1966

Sam McMahon posted his first career double-double with 12 points and a career-high 12 rebounds while Calvin Cannon added 10 points.

Arnaud Dahi led the Monarchs with 17 points and seven rebounds while Valdas Vasylius and Brandon Johnson each chipped in with 10 point apiece. Old Dominion shot 55.7 percent from the field (34 of 61) for the game and held a 42-29 rebound advantage.

The Hens shot just 28.6 percent from the field (16 of 56), including just 5 of 22 from the three-point line, and managed to hit just 5 of 31 second half shots. Delaware went nine minutes before hitting its first field goal in the second stanza.

Delaware used an early 8-0 run to take a 10-5 lead in the first five minutes, but Old Dominion answered with a 25-4 run of its own to take a 30-16 lead with 8:30 left. The Monarchs extended the lead to 44-28 at the break and used the 13-0 run to open the second half to up the lead to 57-28. ODU led by at least 30 points for most of the final 10 minutes.

Streaks & Stuff

- Last Saturday Delaware won at the Daskalakis Center for the first time since a 69-65 triumph over Drexel on February 4, 2000.

- Delaware has won its first four league games for the first time in its seven seasons in the CAA and for the first time since the 1998-99 team opened 4-0 in the America East Conference. That was the last UD team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Delaware hasn't been 5-0 in league play since the 1991-92 Blue Hens went a perfect 14-0 in the North Atlantic Conference.

- The Blue Hens' 4-0 start in CAA play marks the third time in Delaware's seven years in the league that UD has won four consecutive CAA games. The other times were from February 20 through March 2, 2002 and from January 4 through January 15, 2003. Delaware has never won five straight CAA games.

- Delaware defeated William & Mary and Drexel on the road last week to win consecutive CAA road games for the first time since January 8 and January 15, 2003 when UD defeated William & Mary and Old Dominion.

- Delaware snapped a five-game losing streak to George Mason with the 73-68 overtime win Wednesday. The Blue Hens rallied from a 19-point second half deficit, the largest second half comeback win in school history.

- Delaware has won three straight games for the first time since January 8 through January 15, 2005 when the Blue Hens defeated William & Mary (69-59), George Mason (81-78 in OT), and James Madison (75-40). UD has not won four straight games since January 4 through January 15, 2003.

- Delaware has now won five of its last six games, with the only loss coming at Atlantic Coast Conference opponent Maryland. The last time the Blue Hens won five out of six contests was when the 2003-04 squad opened its season 5-1.

What A Comeback!

Delaware trailed George Mason 47-28 with 16:01 remaining on Wednesday, but exploded on a 27-8 run over the next 11 and a half minutes to tie the game at 55-55 with 4:35 left. The Patriots answered to take a three-point lead, but Brian Johnson drained a three-pointer to tie the game at 61-61 with 51 seconds left. After both teams missed in the final minute the game went into overtime, and the Blue Hens hit 10 of 12 free throws in the extra session to earn the 73-68 victory. The 19-point comeback represents the largest second half comeback victory in Delaware history.

Dawson CAA Rookie of the Week Again

Alphonso Dawson earned his third Colonial Athletic Association Men's Basketball Rookie of the Week award on Monday.

Dawson led the Blue Hens with 33 points and ranked third on the team with 13 rebounds while leading the Blue Hens to a pair of victories last week.

Dawson tied for the team lead with 15 points while adding six rebounds, an assist and a blocked shot in the Blue Hens' 58-51 win at William & Mary on January 2. He then led Delaware with a career-high tying 18 points, grabbed seven rebounds, and dished out an assist in the 67-63 win at Drexel on January 5. The Blue Hens held a slim 64-61 lead over the Dragons when Dawson hit a 19-foot jumper with just 19 seconds remaining to increase Delaware's lead from three points to five.

Dawson currently ranks third on Delaware with 10.6 points per game and 5.1 rebounds per game, and is second with an 81.3 free throw percentage. He has reached double figures in nine games this season, including five of the last six contests.

The Rookie of the Week award is the third in five weeks for Dawson, who also earned the honor on December 10 and December 24.

Freshmen Step Up vs. Drexel

Delaware got major contributions from three freshmen in last Saturday's 67-63 win over Drexel. Alphonso Dawson continued his outstanding play with a team-high 18 points and seven rebounds, while Edwin Santiago added eight points and hit a driving layup with 1:35 remaining to put the Blue Hens up four points.

Marco Cooper, who entered the game with just 11 points and 13 rebounds on the season, contributed 10 points and seven rebounds while also guarding Drexel senior Frank Elegar. Cooper's layup with 3:14 left gave UD a 60-58 lead and put the Hens up for good.

Sure-Handed Johnson Leads Hens At Drexel

Sophomore point guard Brian Johnson dished out a career-high 11 assists and did not commit a turnover in 39 minutes of action at Drexel. The game marked the second time that Johnson has reached double figures in assists, as he handed out 10 assists against William & Mary on January 13, 2007.

Johnson's 11 assists were the most by a Blue Hen since Mike Slattery dished out 15 assists versus William & Mary on February 1, 2003.

Hens Already Exceed Win Total of 2006-07

With its 7-7 record so far this season, Delaware has already exceeded its win total during 2006-07 when the Blue Hens went 5-26 and set the school record for losses in a season. Delaware finished last in the CAA a year ago with a 3-15 conference mark but is currently in first place with a 4-0 league record this season.

Delaware Continues Domination of Tribe

Delaware entered this season just 13-41 all-time in Colonial Athletic Association road games, including 6-30 over the previous four years. However the Blue Hens are already 2-0 on the road in the CAA this season after wins at William & Mary and Drexel last week. The Blue Hens have been especially successful in Williamsburg, as Delaware has won five straight at Kaplan Arena since a 59-53 defeat in the 2001-02 season.

With its win at William & Mary on January 2, Delaware snapped a nine-game CAA road losing streak; its last conference road win had been a 57-52 overtime victory at the Tribe on February 15, 2006, the Blue Hens' final CAA road game of that season.

Wins

Opening CAA Play on Postive Note

Delaware's 70-63 win over Towson was the Blue Hens' first in a Colonial Athletic Association opener since a 67-65 victory over Drexel during the 2004-05 season. UD is now 4-3 all-time in CAA openers.

Following Wednesday's win over George Mason the Blue Hens are now 4-0 in conference play for the first time since the 1998-99 Blue Hens opened 4-0 in the America East en route to UD's last NCAA Tournament appearance.

Terps Dominate Boards vs. Hens

Maryland posted a 57-25 rebounding advantage against Delaware on December 28, as the Terrapins nearly recorded as many offensive rebounds (22) as the Blue Hens had total rebounds.

The 57 rebounds were the most allowed by Delaware since giving up 59 to Virginia Tech on December 21, 1978.

Four Players Reach 14 Against Terriers

Delaware had four players score at least 14 points in the win over Boston University: Herb Courtney posted a game-high 18 points, Alphonso Dawson added 17, and Jim Ledsome and Marc Egerson each poured in 14.

The last time Delaware had four players score at least 14 points was in the 81-78 overtime win over George Mason on January 12, 2005. Harding Nana had 20 points in that contest, while Andrew Washington added 16, Mike Slattery had 15, and Rulon Washington chipped in 14.

Champions of the America East?

Delaware, which competed in the America East Conference from 1996-97 through 2000-01, defeated all three of its America East opponents this season. The Blue Hens posted a 71-60 home win over Albany, picked third in the America East Preseason Coaches Poll, on December 5. On December 19 Delaware recorded an identical 71-60 triumph at Vermont, picked second in the America East Preseason Poll. UD then defeated Boston University, which was picked to win the America East, on December 22 by a 73-55 score.

UD Regaining Home Court Advantage

After opening its home season with a 51-50 loss to Hampton, Delaware has reeled off four straight home wins against Towson (70-63), Albany (71-60), Boston University (73-55) and George Mason (73-68 in OT). That represents the Blue Hens' first four-game home winning streak in the same season was during a seven-game winning streak from January 3 through February 16, 2004.

A Tale of Two (First) Halves

Delaware trailed by 31 points at the half at Central Connecticut, as the Blue Devils took a 50-19 lead into the break. The deficit was Delaware's largest halftime margin since the Blue Hens trailed 11th-ranked Purdue 53-17 at the half in the first round of the NCAA

Delaware Basketball on the Net

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through <http://www.udel.edu/sportsinfo>

Box scores and game stories are usually posted within an hour of the conclusion of each UD basketball game, while cumulative statistics are also updated and posted after each contest. Media notes are available in a PDF format within 24 hours of the start of each game. In addition, livestats are available for all UD home games.

Delaware Basketball on the Radio

For the fourth straight season all University of Delaware men's basketball games will be carried on FM radio. All games will be carried on The New 94.7 WDSO. Mike Corey and Bill Komissaroff, who are in their ninth year on the network, return to call the action.

Additionally, most Blue Hen men's basketball games are broadcast by the UD student radio station, WVUD 91.3 FM. Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through the UD athletics website.

Delaware Basketball on Television

The Blue Hens will have eight games televised this season. Delaware's game at Maryland on December 28 will be broadcast by Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic, while the home game against Georgia State on January 26 will be televised by Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic, Philadelphia, and Southeast. UD's game at Northeastern on January 19 and home games against Virginia Commonwealth on February 9 and Drexel on February 16 will be televised by CN8. The Blue Hens' home game against George Mason on January 9 will be broadcast by ESPN Regional and MASN, while the home game versus UNC Wilmington on February 6 will also be televised by MASN.

The Blue Hens' home game against Old Dominion on January 12 will be broadcast by WSKY4 in Hampton Roads, VA.

Additionally, CN8 will televise all four CAA Tournament quarterfinal games and both semifinal games, while ESPN will broadcast the conference championship game.

Tournament on March 13, 1998.

Delaware's 33-point defeat to Central Connecticut was its worst since an 83-48 setback at Old Dominion on January 10, 2007.

The Blue Hens completely reversed their fortunes at Vermont three days later, exploding to a 33-15 halftime lead. The 18-point advantage was the Blue Hens' largest at halftime since leading Drexel 38-19 on February 11, 2006. The 15 points allowed were the fewest in a first half since Delaware also allowed 15 to William & Mary on February 5, 2005.

Johnson Perfect From The Foul Line

Brian Johnson went a perfect 10 of 10 from the free throw line at Vermont, the most free throw attempts without a miss since Mike Ames also went 10 for 10 from the charity stripe against Hofstra on January 3, 2004.

Johnson currently ranks eighth in the CAA with a 78.8 free throw percentage.

UD Guards Excellent At Line

Delaware's three starting guards are all shooting well from the foul line this season. Brian Johnson currently ranks eighth in the CAA with a 78.8 free throw percentage, while Marc Egerson has hit 29 of his 34 free throws so far, an 85.3 clip. Alphonso Dawson's 81.3 percent, 26 of 32, is the second highest percentage on the team.

UD's free throw shooting has paid off down the stretch of the Blue Hens' last three road victories. Delaware did not hit a field goal in the final 8:06 at Vermont but went 16 of 20 from the foul line down the stretch to ice the win. Johnson was 8 of 8 during that stretch, while Dawson went 4 of 4 to score the Blue Hens' final four points.

Delaware was clinging to a 48-44 lead over William & Mary on January 2, but the Blue Hens went 10 of 12 from the charity stripe over the final 2:30 to clinch the win. Johnson was 7 of 8 from the line during that stretch, while Herb Courtney went 3 of 4.

The Blue Hens led by three over Drexel with six seconds remaining when Egerson hit his second free throw attempt to ice the win.

Delaware struggled from the foul line early against George Mason on Wednesday, but the Blue Hens went 10 of 12 from the charity stripe in overtime to clinch the 73-68 win over the Patriots.

Egerson Gives Hens Scoring Punch

Junior Marc Egerson has provided instant offense for the Blue Hens since becoming eligible on December 16 at Central Connecticut. Egerson, who has started all seven games, leads the team with 14.3 points per game and has led or tied for the team lead in scoring in four of his first seven games. In the six games Egerson leads the Blue Hens with 100 points, 49 rebounds, nine three-pointers made, and 29 free throws made.

Egerson led UD with 14 points and also pulled down two rebounds in a team-high 34 minutes of action at CCSU, and scored eight points while tying for the team lead with eight rebounds at Vermont. He had 14 points and eight rebounds in the victory over Boston University, and led the Blue Hens with 17 points at Maryland. Egerson tied for the team lead with 15 points and led UD with nine rebounds at William & Mary. He set his career-high in rebounds for the second straight game by pulling down a team-high 10 boards at Drexel and narrowly missed a double-double with nine points.

Egerson was the catalyst in Delaware's comeback win at George Mason, as he led the Blue Hens with a career-high 23 points and eight rebounds while tying for the team lead with three steals in 44 minutes of action.

Ledsome Provides Blue Hens Inside Presence

Like Marc Egerson, junior transfer Jim Ledsome has also made an immediate impact for the Blue Hens, starting his first seven contests. He scored nine points, grabbed three rebounds and dished out a team-high three assists in his debut at Central Connecticut, and contributed four points, two rebounds and a block at Vermont. Ledsome scored a career-high 14 points while adding four rebounds and three blocks against Boston University, and led the team with eight rebounds and blocked seven shots, two shy of the school record, at Maryland. He had six rebounds and four points at William & Mary, and added four points, four boards and two blocks against George Mason.

Dawson Ties Career-High At Drexel

Alphonso Dawson tied his career-high by leading the Blue Hens with 18 points during last Saturday's win at Drexel. Dawson, who has reached double figures nine times this season including five of the last six contests, also scored 18 points in the Blue Hens' win over Albany on December 5.

Protecting the Basketball

Delaware committed just six turnovers in the win over Albany, the fewest since the Blue Hens committed five versus James Madison on February 13, 2003. UD forced the Great Danes into 16 turnovers, leading to a 22-4 advantage in points off turnovers.

Accepting Charity

Delaware went 30 of 47 from the free throw line against Albany, its most free throw attempts since the Blue Hens went to the line a school-record 56 times against UMBC on January 6, 1993.

Hens Snap Losing Streak vs. Towson

Delaware, which lost the final six games of last season, had dropped 10 straight games after losing the first four games of this year. However the Blue Hens snapped their 10-game losing streak by defeating Towson, 70-63, in their CAA opener. The losing streak was the longest since an 11-game losing streak from January 5 through February 7, 1979.

Balanced Scoring Effort At Iona

Alphonso Dawson scored 11 points while Brian Johnson, D.J. Boney, Sam McMahon and Edwin Santiago each added 10 as the Blue Hens put five players in double figures at Iona. The last time Delaware put five players in double figures was during an 89-77 victory over UNC Greensboro on December 19, 2005. In that game Harding Nana scored 24 points, while Andrew Washington had 18, Sam McMahon scored 16, Herb Courtney added 13, and Calvin Cannon chipped in 10.

Newcomers Contribute Early in Season

Delaware is getting solid contributions from its freshmen early in the season. Alphonso Dawson is averaging 10.6 points and ranks second on the team with 148 points and 71 rebounds in 30.8 minutes per contest. D.J. Boney is averaging 23.8 minutes per game and scoring 5.1 points per contest. Edwin Santiago is averaging 5.8 points in 18.3 minutes per game and is third on the team with 15 steals, while Marco Cooper has posted 21 points and 21 rebounds in 73 minutes off the bench.

The four UD freshmen are contributing 36.1 percent of Delaware's points and 32.1 percent of the Blue Hens' rebounds.

McMahon Has Double-Figure Streak Snapped

Heading into the Blue Hens' game at George Mason last January 31, Sam McMahon had scored in double figures in just eight of his first 77 career games. However McMahon reached double digits in the final nine games of 2006-07 and extended his streak to 16 games this season. McMahon scored 10 points at Marist, 16 points against Rider and Hampton, and 10 at Iona. He scored 11 points the win over Towson. McMahon's streak was in serious jeopardy against Albany, but he was fouled after grabbing a defensive rebound with 0.8 seconds remaining, and he hit two free throws to finish with 11 points. He then scored 12 points at Ohio University.

McMahon had his streak stopped at Central Connecticut as he scored just two points against the Blue Devils.

Johnson Takes Care of the Rock

Brian Johnson currently leads in the CAA and ranks 37th in Division I with a 2.55 assist/turnover ratio. Johnson has handed out 79 assists this season (he also leads the league with 5.64 assists per game), and has committed just 31 turnovers in 36.79 minutes played. Last Saturday Johnson dished out a career-high 11 assists while not committing a turnover in the victory at Drexel.

Johnson is currently 36th in Division I with 5.6 assists per game.

Johnson Runs The Show For Hens

Sophomore Brian Johnson played all but two minutes in the Blue Hens' opener at Marist, scoring 23 points while dishing out five assists. Johnson reached the 20-point mark just twice last season but hit 7 of 14 shots against the Red Foxes including 2 of 3 from behind the arc, and nailed all seven of his free throw attempts.

Johnson scored 13 points and handed out a team-high seven assists at Rider, playing all but three minutes. He played 36 minutes against Hampton, dishing out six assists while pulling down a career-high seven rebounds. Johnson played a season-high 39 minutes at Iona, scoring 10 points while handing out four assists. He had his best game of the season in the win over Towson, posting 11 points, nine assists and six rebounds against the Tigers.

He scored nine points, tied for the team lead with six rebounds, and dished out five assists against Albany, and posted a game-high six assists at Ohio University. Johnson scored a team-high 17 points in the win at Vermont, going 10-of-10 from the free throw line while adding a game-high eight assists.

Johnson was again clutch at the foul line down the stretch at William & Mary, going 7 of 8 from the line versus the Tribe and dishing out a game-high four assists.

He dished out 11 assists while not committing a turnover in 39 minutes on the floor during Delaware's win at Drexel.

Wednesday against George Mason Johnson hit a three-pointer to put Delaware ahead 58-57 with 2:45 remaining, and after the Patriots scored four straight points, he drained another three-pointer with 51 seconds left to force overtime.

Hens Improving On Boards

Delaware was out-rebounded in each of its first eight games this season, but has recorded more rebounds than its opponents in four of the last six games.

Delaware won the rebounding battle for the first time this season at Vermont, posting a 33-30 edge on the boards. The Blue Hens posted more rebounds than their opponents for the second straight game by recording a 35-33 edge on the boards versus Boston University. However the Blue Hens were out-rebounded by 32 boards, 57-25, at Maryland on December 28

But Delaware bounced back at William & Mary by recording a 38-34 rebounding edge, and held a 42-33 advantage on the boards at Drexel. Delaware still ranks last in the league with 30.3 rebounds per game, 38.9 rebounds allowed per game, and a -8.6 rebounding margin.

Not Shy From Deep

Delaware is currently averaging 18.2 three-point field goal attempts per game this season, as seven players have taken at least 29 three-pointers so far this season.

The Blue Hens currently rank ninth in the CAA with a 32.9 three-point percentage and rank second in the CAA by holding their opponents to just 28.1 percent shooting from behind the arc.

Courtney Among CAA Active Leaders

Herb Courtney currently ranks third in career rebounds and sixth in career points among active CAA players.

A High-Scoring Affair

The 78 points scored by Delaware against Marist tied for the most under head coach Monté Ross, matching a 78-69 win over UNC Wilmington on February 7. Conversely, the Blue Hens' 89 points allowed to the Red Foxes also tied for the most under Ross, matching George Mason's 89 versus UD on January 31.

Delaware again scored over 70 points against Rider, marking the second straight game the Blue Hens reached the 70-point mark. After scoring 70 points in the wins over Towson and Albany, Delaware posted 71 points against Vermont and 73 versus Boston University and has reached the 70-point mark in seven of the first 14 games of the year. UD scored over 70 points just four times in 31 games a year ago.

Blue Hens Facing Challenging Schedule

Delaware is facing a challenging schedule this season, as Delaware will face six NCAA Tournament teams and three NIT participants from last year. The Blue Hens opened the season by facing Marist, which advanced to the second round of the NIT last season and hosted Albany on December 5, which appeared in the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

The Hens travelled to NCAA Tournament participant Central Connecticut on December 16, and three days later visited Vermont, which played in the 2007 NIT. Delaware travelled to Maryland, which advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament a year ago, on December 28.

UD will now face another tough CAA conference schedule, playing two games against Virginia Commonwealth, which defeated Duke and took Pittsburgh to overtime in last year's NCAA Tournament. Two games against rivals Hofstra and Drexel, which each appeared in the 2007 NIT, and a pair of contests with league favorite George Mason also await the Blue Hens.

Fresh Faces in Starting Lineup

Blue Hen freshmen D.J. Boney and Alphonso Dawson started Delaware's opener at Marist, marking the second consecutive season that a pair of UD freshmen started their first collegiate games.

Last season Brian Johnson and Darrell Johnson each started the season opener against Marist, the first time in 22 years that two freshmen started the first game of the season. Freshmen guards Jay Harris and Taurence Chisholm each started in Delaware's season opening loss to Washington College on November 27, 1984. Only two UD true freshmen started a season opener between that game and last season - Brian Pearl against Washington College on November 23, 1991 and Raphael Madera against Mount St. Mary's on November 21, 2003.

Blue Hens Feature Home-Grown Talent

The Blue Hens have four players on their roster that played high school basketball in the state of Delaware: Marc Egerson (Glasgow), Jawan Carter (Tatnall), D.J. Boney (Tatnall), and Edwin Santiago (Sanford). In fact, Carter is the leading scorer in Delaware history with 2,464 career points.

The last time a UD team featured four players who played high school basketball in Delaware was in 1985-86. Three of those players were Donald Dutton, a junior from Wilmington, DE (Howard Career HS), Steve Jennings, a sophomore from Claymont, DE (Claymont HS), and Oscar Jones, a senior from Wilmington, DE (A.I. duPont HS). The fourth, freshman Stan Waterman from Wilmington, DE (Howard Career HS), is currently the head coach at Sanford School where Edwin Santiago played.

Young Out Indefinitely After Preseason Surgery

Delaware junior Brian Young will be out indefinitely after undergoing emergency surgery for acute compartment syndrome in his upper left arm during the preseason.

Young, who sat out the 2006-07 season after transferring from Lafayette, had surgery on October 13 after participating in the Blue Hens' practice earlier in the day. No timetable has been set for his return.

Young enrolled at Lafayette in the fall of 2005 but missed the entire season after undergoing open heart surgery prior to his freshman year. He then transferred to Delaware during the summer of 2006.

Young's injury is the same one suffered by then Blue Hen assistant coach Ryan Iversen, who suffered acute compartment syndrome in his leg during a practice last December. Ironically, Young was the player that bumped into Iversen during that practice.

A Rough Year

Delaware head coach Monté Ross and the Blue Hens suffered through a tumultuous season in 2006-07 when Delaware set the school record for losses in a season:

November 6 • Senior guard Calvin Cannon is suspended for the Blue Hens' first two regular season games for a violation of team policy

November 30 • Sophomore center Matt Hewson withdraws from basketball team; Raphael Madera is suspended indefinitely (he would not return to the team)

December 27 • Assistant coach Ryan Iversen undergoes emergency surgery for compartment syndrome in his right leg after getting bumped by Brian Young in the Blue Hens' practice. Iversen undergoes a few additional surgeries and misses the rest of the season

January 8 • Sophomore DeSean White, who was sitting out the season as a transfer, was dismissed from the University after being declared academically ineligible; sophomore guard Zaire Taylor takes a leave of absence from the team (he would not return)

January 9 • Ross announces that sophomore forward Pau Geli will miss the remainder of the season with a lung ailment

February 7 • Calvin Cannon is suspended for academic reasons and misses the remainder of the season. Cannon's departure leaves the Blue Hens with just seven players for the final seven games of the year

Delaware Names Captains

Seniors Herb Courtney, Sam McMahon, and Henry Olawoye are serving as team captains for the University of Delaware basketball team this season. Courtney and Olawoye also served as captains last year.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 514 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made one three-pointer in all but five games (624 of 629) since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87.

Blue Hens Look To Avoid 20 Losses

Delaware went 5-26 last season to set a school record for most losses in a season, while its 15 conference losses were also a school record. Delaware had just one 20-loss season (5-22 in 1978-79) in its first 99 years, but has lost at least 20 games in three consecutive years: 11-20 in 2004-05, 9-21 in 2005-06 and 5-26 last season. The Blue Hens are one of just 10 Division I teams to lose at least 20 games in each of the last three seasons along with Centenary, Howard, Maryland Eastern Shore, Northern Colorado, James Madison, Prairie View A&M, Longwood, San Jose State, and Idaho.

Courtney Reaches Milestones

Herb Courtney pulled down eight rebounds against Vermont to become the 27th player in UD history to reach the 500-rebound plateau. On December 22 Courtney scored 18 points against Boston University, as he became the 25th player in UD history to reach the 1,000-point plateau.

Courtney is now one of 12 players in Delaware history to record at least 1,000 points and 500 rebounds.

St. Joseph's Transfer Jawan Carter Redshirts

Sophomore guard Jawan Carter transferred to Delaware from Saint Joseph's during the offseason and will sit out this season due to NCAA transfer regulations. Carter will redshirt this season and will have three years of eligibility remaining beginning in the 2008-09 season.

Carter appeared in 32 games while starting 26 for the Hawks last season and was named to Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team. He ranked fourth on the team with 7.6 points per game, was second with 74 assists, and ranked third on the team with 38 three-pointers made and a 35.8 three-point field goal percentage. Carter, who averaged 25.7 minutes per game for Saint Joseph's, scored a career-high 20 points in a win over Xavier on January 21 and added 18 in a victory over Lafayette on November 17. He scored in double figures in three consecutive games in late December and hit a career-high five three-pointers against Ohio University.

Carter was named the 2006 Delaware State Player of the Year while playing at the Tatnall School, and is the state's all-time leading scorer with 2,464 career points. An all-state selection in 2005 and 2006, Carter averaged 29.4 points, 5.0 rebounds and 7.0 assists as a senior. Carter, an EA Sports Second Team All-American as a senior, led Tatnall to the 2006 state championship, scoring 31 points in the title game. He was named high honorable mention on Street & Smith's All-America Team four times.

Blue Hens Sign Adam Pegg

University of Delaware second-year men's basketball head coach Monté Ross has announced the signing of high school standout Adam Pegg, who will enroll at UD in the fall and begin playing for the Blue Hens in the 2008-09 season.

Pegg signed his National Letter of Intent in November, making him UD's first player from the Class of 2008.

Pegg, a 6-9, 235-pound forward, is currently a senior at Clearwater High School in Florida. He averaged 17 points and 12 rebounds per game as a junior at Palm Harbor University High School. Pegg transferred to Clearwater from Palm Harbor University prior to his senior season.

Newark's Foreign Connection

Junior forward Pau Geli, a native of Girona, Spain, continues a trend of foreign-born players on the Delaware basketball team. The Blue Hens have had at least one foreign player on the roster in all but two years since the 1987-88 season. Delaware had four foreign players on the 1998-99 team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament while Spencer Dunkley, Delaware's career rebounding leader and an NBA second round draft pick in 1992, is a native of Wolverhampton, England.

HEAD COACH MONTÉ ROSS

Winston-Salem State '92
Second Season at Delaware
12-33 Overall and at Delaware

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his second season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2007-08. He guided Delaware to a 5-26 record in 2006-07 and led the Blue Hens to a 72-68 win over preseason league favorite Hofstra on January 29.

Prior to coming to Delaware Ross, 37, had served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University the previous 10 seasons, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Things are going pretty fast now, but I am prepared to handle it. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. My first priority will be to the players we have coming back. They all came here to the University of Delaware with a dream and they all have goals. I want to make sure that their experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture."

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players. We are confident that he will bring the University of Delaware men's basketball program to prominence in the CAA."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herrion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Phil Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season. Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West. Nelson currently plays for the Orlando Magic while West and Dwayne Jones are members of the Boston Celtics. Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross and assistant coach Stephen Stewart visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, PA with their son Justin, 8, and daughter Lauren, 6.

LAWRENCEVILLE, NJ -- Delaware was down by as many as 16 points and still trailed Rider by eight points with a minute and a half remaining before mounting a furious rally, but the Blue Hens fell just short...Rider (1-1) led by as many as 16 points four times in the second half, the final time at 62-46 with 8:04 remaining, and was still up 70-59 when Harris Mansell nailed a jumper at the 3:18 mark...However the Blue Hens (0-2) got two free throws from Edwin Santiago and one from Brian Johnson to close within 70-62 with 2:56 left...it was still an eight-point game with 1:30 remaining, but Brian Johnson ignited the UD run with a pair of free throws with 1:24 to play...Herb Courtney added a layup with 1:02 to go to cut the lead to four, and after Lamar Johnson missed a layup, Marco Cooper converted a three-point play to make it a 72-71 game with 52 seconds left...Delaware had a chance to take the lead after Jason Thompson hit one of two free throws with 26 seconds left to put Rider up two, but D.J. Boney's three-pointer with 18 seconds left would not fall, and Mansell pulled down the rebound for the Broncos and hit two free throws to make it a two-possession game...After a missed three-pointer by Courtney, Jason Thompson added a free throw with three seconds on the clock to account for the final margin...Thompson posted game-highs of 23 points and 21 rebounds for the Broncos, who defeated Delaware for the third straight season and for the sixth time in the last seven meetings...Sam McMahon scored a team-best 16 points for the Blue Hens, while Brian Johnson added 13 points and a team-high seven assists...Alphonso Dawson posted 12 points and six assists for Delaware while Courtney scored 10 points and pulled down a team-high eight rebounds...Mansell scored 16 points while Johnson added 14 for the Broncos, who held a 47-37 rebounding advantage and shot 51.8 percent from the field.

NEW ROCHELLE, NY -- Iona used a late 11-0 run to defeat Delaware, 57-52, at the Hynes Center...the Gaels trailed the Blue Hens 49-43 with 4:43 remaining, but Dexter Gray hit one free throw, Devon Clarke converted a three-point play, and Clarke hit two free throws to tie the game at 49-49 with 1:42 to play...after Clarke stole a Blue Hen pass, Kyle Camper drained a baseline three-pointer with 48 seconds left as the shot clock expired to give Iona a three-point lead. Brian Johnson then had his driving layup blocked out of bounds, and Edwin Santiago missed a three-pointer with 20 seconds remaining...while the Gaels corralled the defensive rebound De'Shaune Griffin hit two free throws with 13 seconds remaining, but the Blue Hens finally stopped the run as Sam McMahon drained a three-pointer with five seconds on the clock...however Camper sealed the win for the Gaels by nailing two free throws with five seconds to play...Delaware got a team-high 11 points and five rebounds from freshman Alphonso Dawson, while four Blue Hens scored 10 points. Johnson and McMahon each recorded 10 points and four assists, while Santiago and D.J. Boney also finished with 10 points...Iona, which had dropped 10 consecutive games since a 52-50 win at Delaware last February, got 11 points and nine rebounds from Dexter Gray. Milan Prodanovic added nine points and six rebounds for the Gaels, while John Kelly pulled down a game-high 11 boards...Delaware but was out-rebounded for the fourth straight game, as Iona held a 41-24 edge on the boards...Iona jumped out to a 9-2 advantage and still led 19-11 at the 7:45 mark, but consecutive three-pointers by Johnson, Santiago and Boney gave the Blue Hens their first lead of the game at 21-20 with six minutes to play in the half...the game was tied 37-37, but Delaware scored six straight points to take the lead and held the advantage until Iona's late run.
