The Series

Delaware and Rider, who began their series in the 1969-70 season, have faced off in each of the last 11 seasons with Rider holding a 7-4 advantage over the last decade. The Broncs are 16-11 against the Blue Hens in Lawrenceville, and have won the last six meetings between the two schools in Alumni Gymnasium. Delaware's last victory over Rider in Lawrenceville was an 86-84 win on January 25, 1990.

Gameday Interviews

Delaware head coach Monté Ross holds a press conference outside the UD locker room approximately 10 minutes after the game following a cooling off period and his postgame show with the Blue Hen Basketball Radio Network.

Selected players will also be available outside the locker room as well, usually while Coach Ross is conducting his radio interview. The University of Delaware locker room is closed to members of the media during regular season competition.

Monté Ross will not be available immediately prior to games unless an interview is scheduled beforehand. Media wishing to conduct pregame interviews with him are encouraged to tape them prior to gameday or at a shootaround the day of the game. Pregame interview requests for players or assistant coaches should also be made prior to gameday. Approval is on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Gameday Interviews

All requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made through the Athletics Media Relations Office and at least one day in advance so that academic or athletic schedules are not disrupted.

CAA Media Teleconference

The CAA hosts a media teleconference each Tuesday beginning on January 8 and running through March 4. The teleconference, which features all 12 of the conference's coaches in 10-minute slots, is held on Tuesday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. This season Monté Ross is scheduled to take calls from 11:30 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. The phone number to take part in the call is (866) 809-6768. Members of the media should contact Rob Washburn (804-754-1616 x19) at the CAA office with any questions. Comments from the call will be available on www.caasports.com each Tuesday afternoon.

Delaware vs. Rider Last Year

Jason Thompson scored 27 points and grabbed nine rebounds to lead Rider to a 77-67 win over the Blue Hens at the Carpenter Center. Thompson hit 10 of 14 shots from the field as Rider shot 58 percent for the game and converted 7 of 11 three-point shots. Harris Mansell scored 19 points while Terrance Mouton added 18 for the Broncs.

Calvin Cannon scored a team-best 19 points for Delaware, while Herb Courtney added 12 points and six rebounds. Rider led 39-30 at the half, but the Blue Hens opened the second period on a 9-2 run to close within 41-39 with 17:46 left. However Rider answered with a 12-2 spurt and would lead by at least seven the rest of the way.

Up Next

Delaware will have a week and a half off following this game before the Blue Hens host Hampton at 7 p.m. on November 27 in UD's home opener. Three days later Delaware travels to Iona for a 7:30 p.m. game in the return contest of last season's BracketBusters game.

Uniforms Arrive

Because Delaware's new uniforms had not arrived last week, the four Blue Hen freshmen and Pau Geli wore different numbers for the opener at Marist. The uniforms arrived this past Thursday, and all five players will be in their correct numbers the rest of the season.

Newcomers Contribute in Debuts

All four Blue Hen freshmen contributed in their first collegiate games Sunday at Marist. Edwin Santiago scored 10 points and recorded a game-high three steals, while Marco Cooper also came off the bench to add four points and four rebounds in just eight minutes of action. Alphonso Dawson, who scored five points, and D.J. Boney, who contributed two points and two assists, each started for Delaware and played double-digit minutes.

Courtney Picks Up Where He Left Off

Herb Courtney, who led Delaware in scoring 17 times and in rebounding 20 times last season, picked up this season where he left off in 2006-07. Courtney scored just three points in the first half at Marist but responded with 21 in the second to finish with a game-high 24 points, and also tied for the team lead with Sam McMahon by pulling down seven rebounds. He also tied his career-high by draining four three-pointers in just six attempts.

Johnson Runs The Show For Hens

Sophomore Brian Johnson played all but two minutes in the Blue Hens' opener at Marist, scoring 23 points while dishing out five assists. Johnson reached the 20-point mark just twice last season but hit 7 of 14 shots against the Red Foxes including 2 of 3 from behind the arc, and nailed all seven of his free throw attempts.

McMahon Extends Double-Figure Streak

Heading into the Blue Hens' game at George Mason last January 31, Sam McMahon had scored in double figures in just eight of his first 77 career games. However McMahon reached double digits in the final nine games of 2006-07 and extended his streak to 10 after scoring 10 points, all in the first half, Sunday at Marist. McMahon also tied Herb Courtney for the team lead with seven rebounds.

Hens Need To Improve Rebounding

Delaware ranked 12th in the CAA by getting out-rebounded by an average of 6.0 boards per game last season, and Marist posted a commanding 44-30 edge in rebounding Sunday. Senior forward Spongy Benjamin posted his career-high with 17 rebounds against the Blue Hens, including six offensive boards.

A High-Scoring Affair

The 78 points scored by Delaware against Marist tied for the most under head coach Monté Ross, matching a 78-69 win over UNC Wilmington on February 7. Conversely, the Blue Hens' 89 points allowed to the Red Foxes also tied for the most under Ross, matching George Mason's 89 versus UD on January 31.

Blue Hens Facing Challenging Schedule

Delaware is facing a challenging schedule this season, as Delaware will face six NCAA Tournament teams and three NIT participants from last year. The Blue Hens opened the season Sunday by facing Marist, which advanced to the second round of the NIT last season. On December 5 Delaware hosts Albany, which appeared in the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

The Hens travel to NCAA Tournament participant Central Connecticut on December 16, and three days later travel to Vermont, which played in the 2007 NIT. Delaware travels to Maryland, which advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament a year ago, on December 28.

UD will then face another tough CAA conference schedule, playing two games against Virginia Commonwealth, which defeated Duke and took Pittsburgh to overtime in last year's NCAA Tournament. Two games against rivals Hofstra and Drexel, which each appeared in the 2007 NIT, and a pair of contests with league favorite George Mason also await the Blue Hens.

Fresh Faces in Starting Lineup

Blue Hen freshmen Edwin Santiago and Alphonso Dawson started Delaware's opener at Marist, marking the second consecutive season that a pair of UD freshman started their first collegiate games.

Last season Brian Johnson and Darrell Johnson each started the season opener against Marist, the first time in 22 years that two freshmen started the first game of the season. Freshmen guards Jay Harris and Taurence Chisholm each started in Delaware's season opening loss to Washington College on November 27, 1984. Only two UD true freshmen started a season opener between that game and last season - Brian Pearl against Washington College on November 23, 1991 and Raphael Madera against Mount St. Mary's on November 21, 2003.

Blue Hens Feature Home-Grown Talent

The Blue Hens have four players on their roster that played high school basketball in the state of Delaware: Marc Egerson (Glasgow), Jawan Carter (Tatnall), D.J. Boney (Tatnall), and Edwin Santiago (Sanford). In fact, Carter is the leading scorer in Delaware history with 2,464 career points.

The last time a UD team featured four players who played high school basketball in Delaware was in 1985-86. Three of those players were Donald Dutton, a junior from Wilmington, DE (Howard Career HS), Steve Jennings, a sophomore from Claymont, DE (Claymont HS), and Oscar Jones, a senior from Wilmington, DE (A.I. duPont HS). The fourth, freshman Stan Waterman from Wilmington, DE (Howard Career HS), is currently the head coach at Sanford School where Edwin Santiago played.

Young Out Indefinitely After Preseason Surgery

Delaware junior Brian Young will be out indefinitely after undergoing emergency surgery for acute compartment syndrome in his upper left arm during the preseason.

Young, who sat out the 2006-07 season after transferring from Lafayette, had surgery on October 13 after participating in the Blue Hens' practice earlier in the day. No timetable has been set for his return.

Young enrolled at Lafayette in the fall of 2005 but missed the entire season after undergoing open heart surgery prior to his freshman year. He then transferred to Delaware during the summer of 2006.

Young's injury is the same one suffered by then Blue Hen assistant coach Ryan Iversen, who suffered acute compartment syndrome in his leg during a practice last December. Ironically, Young was the player that bumped into Iversen during that practice.

A Rough Year

Delaware head coach Monté Ross and the Blue Hens suffered through a tumultuous season in 2006-07 when Delaware set the school record for losses in a season:

November 6 • Senior guard Calvin Cannon is suspended for the Blue Hens' first two regular season games for a violation of team policy

November 30 • Sophomore center Matt Hewson withdraws from basketball team; Raphael Madera is suspended indefinitely (he would not return to the team)

December 27 • Assistant coach Ryan Iversen undergoes emergency surgery for compartment syndrome in his right leg after getting bumped by Brian Young in the Blue Hens' practice. Iversen undergoes a few additional surgeries and misses the rest of the season

January 8 • Sophomore DeSean White, who was sitting out the season as a transfer, was dismissed from the University after being declared academically ineligible; sophomore guard Zaire Taylor takes a leave of absence from the team (he would not return)

January 9 • Ross announces that sophomore forward Pau Geli will miss the remainder of the season with a lung ailment

February 7 • Calvin Cannon is suspended for academic reasons and misses the remainder of the season. Cannon's departure leaves the Blue Hens with just seven players for the final seven games of the year

Courtney, Johnson Among CAA Returning Stat Leaders

Herb Courtney is the Colonial Athletic Association's leading returning rebounder with 8.0 rebounds per game, ahead of Vladimir Kuljanin of UNC Wilmington with 7.1 rebounds per game. Courtney ranks second among CAA returners with 18.1 points per game (behind only Antoine Agudio of Hofstra - 20.2), 1.5 steals per game (behind only Brandon Johnson of Old Dominion - 2.1), and 1.7 blocked shots per game (behind only Tommy Breaux of Towson - 2.1).

Brian Johnson ranks second among CAA returners with 4.2 assists per game, behind only Virginia Commonwealth's Eric Maynor, the CAA Preseason Player of the Year, at 6.4 assists per game.

Courtney Returns To Lead Hens

Senior forward Herb Courtney will look to pick up where he left off last season when he had a stellar junior year. A second team All-CAA selection, Courtney led the Blue Hens with 18.1 points, 8.0 rebounds, 54 blocks and 45 steals. Courtney led the CAA with 10 double-doubles, scored in double figures in 28 of the 31 games, and reached the 20-point mark 13 times. He ranked second in a single season at Delaware with 1,139 minutes played, fifth with 54 blocks, and seventh with 562 points. He finished the season ranked 61st in Division I with 18.1 points per game, 66th with 1.7 blocked shots per game, and 67th with 8.0 rebounds per game.

McMahon Looks To Build On Junior Season

Senior Sam McMahon had a breakthrough year in 2006-07, ranking second on the team with 10.4 points and third with 4.5 rebounds per game. He led Delaware with 50 three-pointers, while his 43.9 three-point field goal percentage ranked third in the CAA and sixth in a UD single season. He was also third in the CAA with an 84.0 free throw percentage and 13th with 3.68 defensive rebounds per game.

McMahon scored 26 points, hitting 9 of 12 shots from the field, in a win over UNC Wilmington on February 7 and added a career-high 27 points on 8 of 12 shooting three days later at Drexel.

The Iron Man

Sophomore point guard Brian Johnson is coming off an outstanding freshman season in which he was named to the CAA All-Rookie Team. Johnson started all 31 games, tying the Delaware freshman record for games played in a season, and led the team with 130 assists and a UD single season record 1,192 minutes played.

He ranked second in the CAA with 38.10 minutes played per game, fourth with 4.19 assists per game, eighth with a 1.53 assist/turnover ratio, and 11th with a 73.7 free throw percentage.

Johnson, who played the entire game 10 times, scored a career-high 26 points at UNC Wilmington while hitting 5 of 6 shots from the three-point line, tied for the second most points by a UD freshman in a game in school history. Additionally he scored 25 points in the Blue Hens' upset win over Hofstra on January 29.

Delaware Names Captains

Seniors Herb Courtney, Sam McMahon, and Henry Olawoye will serve as team captains for the University of Delaware basketball team this season. Courtney and Olawoye also served as captains last year.

Blue Hens Look To Increase Scoring

Delaware averaged just 60.5 points per game last season, last in the Colonial Athletic Association. That average was the lowest in a season since the 1982-83 Blue Hens averaged 58.4 points per game.

The Blue Hens reached 78 points in this year's season opener at Marist, tying for the most points UD scored in any game last season.

Hens Look To Improve Non-Conference Mark

Delaware had dropped 11 consecutive non-conference road games before the 58-56 win at La Salle on December 29, 2006. Following the loss at Marist, UD is now 1-12 in its last 13 non-conference road games. The Blue Hens also went 0-5 at home against non-conference opponents last year, the most home defeats to non-league teams in a season since 1970-71.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 502 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made one three-pointer in all but five games (612 of 617) since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87.

UD Picked 10th in CAA Preseason Poll

Delaware was picked 10th in the Colonial Athletic Association Preseason Poll announced October 17 at the league's Media Day at the ESPN Zone in Washington, DC

CAA Men's Basketball Predicted Order of Finish

1. George Mason
2. Virginia Commonwealth
3. Old Dominion
4. Drexel

Delaware Basketball on the Net

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through <http://www.udel.edu/sportsinfo>

Box scores and game stories are usually posted within an hour of the conclusion of each UD basketball game, while cumulative statistics are also updated and posted after each contest. Media notes are available in a PDF format within 24 hours of the start of each game. In addition, livestats are available for all UD home games.

Delaware Basketball on the Radio

For the fourth straight season all University of Delaware men's basketball games will be carried on FM radio. All games will be carried on The New 94.7 WDSB. Mike Corey and Bill Komisaroff, who are in their ninth year on the network, return to call the action.

Additionally, most Blue Hen men's basketball games are broadcast by the UD student radio station, WVUD 91.3 FM. Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through the UD athletics website.

Delaware Basketball on Television

The Blue Hens will have seven games televised this season. Delaware's game at Maryland on December 28 will be broadcast by Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic, while the home game against Georgia State on January 26 will be televised by Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic, Philadelphia, and Southeast. UD's game at Northeastern on January 19 and home games against Virginia Commonwealth on February 9 and Drexel on February 16 will be televised by CN8. The Blue Hens' home game against George Mason on January 9 will be broadcast by ESPN Regional and MASN, while the home game versus UNC Wilmington on February 6 will also be televised by MASN. Additionally, CN8 will televise all four CAA Tournament quarterfinal games and both semifinal games, while ESPN will broadcast the conference championship game.

Blue Hens Look To Avoid 20 Losses

Delaware went 5-26 last season to set a school record for most losses in a season, while its 15 conference losses were also a school record. Delaware had just one 20-loss season (5-22 in 1978-79) in its first 99 years, but has lost at least 20 games in three consecutive years: 11-20 in 2004-05, 9-21 in 2005-06 and 5-26 last season. The Blue Hens are one of just 10 Division I teams to lose at least 20 games in each of the last three seasons along with Centenary, Howard, Maryland Eastern Shore, Northern Colorado, James Madison, Prairie View A&M, Longwood, San Jose State, and Idaho.

Help Is On The Way

The Blue Hens will receive a major boost in mid-December when junior transfers Marc Egerson and Jim Ledsome become eligible. Both players, who have been practicing with the team, transferred to Delaware following the end of the 2006 fall semester and will become eligible on December 16 for UD's game at Central Connecticut.

Egerson, a 6-6 guard/forward, appeared in the first 13 games while starting three for the Hoyas last season. He averaged 7.5 points and 4.0 rebounds per game while ranking fifth on the team with 24.1 minutes played. Egerson, a native of Wilmington, DE, who played at nearby Glasgow High School, led Georgetown in rebounds twice. He recorded his first career double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds against Old Dominion, and scored a career-high 13 points while posting seven rebounds against eventual Elite Eight participant Oregon.

Egerson averaged 1.6 points and 1.7 rebounds in 21 games as a freshman for a Hoyas squad that finished 23-10 and reached the NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen.

Egerson was a two-time first team all-state selection at Glasgow, led Glasgow to the state championship as a junior, and was twice named the Delaware State Player of the Year.

Ledsome, a 6-9 forward, appeared in the first 14 games while starting four for the Cornhuskers last season. He averaged 2.4 points and 2.5 rebounds while playing 10.6 minutes per game. Ledsome also shot 13 of 22 (59.1 percent) from the field for the Huskers and tied for second on the team with five blocked shots.

Ledsome appeared in 17 games last season as a freshman, recording 20 rebounds, nine points and four blocked shots on the year. He redshirted the 2004-05 season for the Cornhuskers.

St. Joseph's Transfer Jawan Carter Redshirts

Sophomore guard Jawan Carter transferred to Delaware from Saint Joseph's during the offseason and will sit out this season due to NCAA transfer regulations. Carter will redshirt this season and will have three years of eligibility remaining beginning in the 2008-09 season.

Carter appeared in 32 games while starting 26 for the Hawks last season and was named to Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team. He ranked fourth on the team with 7.6 points per game, was second with 74 assists, and ranked third on the team with 38 three-pointers made and a 35.8 three-point field goal percentage. Carter, who averaged 25.7 minutes per game for Saint Joseph's, scored a career-high 20 points in a win over Xavier on January 21 and added 18 in a victory over Lafayette on November 17. He scored in double figures in three consecutive games in late December and hit a career-high five three-pointers against Ohio University.

Carter was named the 2006 Delaware State Player of the Year while playing at the Tatnall School, and is the state's all-time leading scorer with 2,464 career points. An all-state selection in 2005 and 2006, Carter averaged 29.4 points, 5.0 rebounds and 7.0 assists as a senior. Carter, an EA Sports Second Team All-American as a senior, led Tatnall to the 2006 state championship, scoring 31 points in the title game. He was named high honorable mention on Street & Smith's All-America Team four times.

Newark's Foreign Connection

Junior forward Pau Geli, a native of Girona, Spain, continues a trend of foreign-born players on the Delaware basketball team. The Blue Hens have had at least one foreign player on the roster in all but two years since the 1987-88 season. Delaware had four foreign players on the 1998-99 team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament while Spencer Dunkley, Delaware's career rebounding leader and an NBA second round draft pick in 1992, is a native of Wolverhampton, England.

HEAD COACH MONTÉ ROSS

Winston-Salem State '92
Second Season at Delaware
5-27 Overall and at Delaware

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his second season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2007-08. He guided Delaware to a 5-26 record in 2006-07 and led the Blue Hens to a 72-68 win over preseason league favorite Hofstra on January 29.

Prior to coming to Delaware Ross, 37, had served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University the previous 10 seasons, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Things are going pretty fast now, but I am prepared to handle it. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. My first priority will be to the players we have coming back. They all came here to the University of Delaware with a dream and they all have goals. I want to make sure that their experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture."

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players. We are confident that he will bring the University of Delaware men's basketball program to prominence in the CAA."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herrion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Phil Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season. Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West. Nelson currently plays for the Orlando Magic while West and Dwayne Jones are members of the Boston Celtics. Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross and assistant coach Stephen Stewart visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, PA with their son Justin, 8, and daughter Lauren, 6.
