Gameday Interviews

Delaware head coach Monté Ross holds a press conference outside the UD locker room approximately 10 minutes after the game following a cooling off period and his postgame show with the Blue Hen Basketball Radio Network.

Selected players will also be available outside the locker room as well, usually while Coach Ross is conducting his radio interview. The University of Delaware locker room is closed to members of the media during regular season competition.

Monté Ross will not be available immediately prior to games unless an interview is scheduled beforehand. Media wishing to conduct pregame interviews with him are encouraged to tape them prior to gameday or at a shootaround the day of the game. Pregame interview requests for players or assistant coaches should also be made prior to gameday. Approval is on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Gameday Interviews

All requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made through the Athletics Media Relations Office and at least one day in advance so that academic or athletic schedules are not disrupted.

CAA Media Teleconference

The CAA hosts a media teleconference each Tuesday beginning on January 8 and running through March 4. The teleconference, which features all 12 of the conference's coaches in 10-minute slots, is held on Tuesday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. This season Monté Ross is scheduled to take calls from 11:30 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. The phone number to take part in the call is (866) 809-6768. Members of the media should contact Rob Washburn (804-754-1616 x19) at the CAA office with any questions. Comments from the call will be available on www.caasports.com each Tuesday afternoon.

Up Next

Delaware remains home to host Albany on Wednesday at 7 p.m. before a 2 p.m. game on Saturday at Ohio University.

Last Time Out

Iona College used a late 11-0 run to defeat Delaware, 57-52, Friday night at the Hynes Center.

The Gaels trailed the Blue Hens 49-43 with 4:43 remaining, but Dexter Gray hit one free throw, Devon Clarke converted a three-point play, and Clarke hit two free throws to tie the game at 49-49 with 1:42 to play. After Clarke stole a Blue Hen pass, Kyle Camper drained a baseline three-pointer with 48 seconds left as the shot clock expired to give Iona a three-point lead. Brian Johnson then had his driving layup blocked out of bounds, and Edwin Santiago missed a three-pointer with 20 seconds remaining.

After the Gaels corralled the defensive rebound Iona's De'Shaune Griffin hit two free throws with 13 seconds remaining, but the Blue Hens finally stopped the run as Sam McMahon drained a three-pointer with seven seconds on the clock. However Camper sealed the win for the Gaels by nailing two free throws with five seconds to play.

Delaware got a team-high 11 points and five rebounds from freshman Alphonso Dawson, while four Blue Hens scored 10 points. Johnson and McMahon each recorded 10 points and four assists, while Santiago and D.J. Boney also finished with 10 points.

Iona, which had dropped 10 consecutive games since a 52-50 win at Delaware last February, got 11 points and nine rebounds from Gray. Milan Pradonovic added nine points and six rebounds for the Gaels, while John Kelly pulled down a game-high 11 boards.

Delaware hit 9 of 20 three-point attempts but was out-rebounded for the fourth straight game, as Iona held a 41-24 edge on the boards.

Delaware started slow, as after an opening basket by Dawson, Iona scored nine straight points to take an early 9-2 lead. The Gaels still led 19-11 at the 7:45 mark, but consecutive three-pointers by Johnson, Santiago and Boney gave the Blue Hens their first lead of the game at 21-20 with six minutes to play in the half.

However Iona's Andre Tarver answered with a three-pointer to put the Gaels back on top, and Iona carried a 31-29 lead into halftime. With the game tied at 37-37, Dawson drained an 18-foot jumper, and following a Herb Courtney block, Santiago went the length of the court for a layup to give the Blue Hens a 41-37 advantage with 10:46 to play.

A free throw by Clarke cut the lead to three, but Santiago nailed a three-pointer to make it a 44-38 game. Five consecutive points by Iona cut the Delaware lead to one, but Boney answered with a three-pointer to put the Hens ahead 47-43 with 7:02 to play. Dawson then converted a layup to put Delaware up six with 4:34 remaining, but the Gaels responded with 11 straight points to take the lead for good.

Delaware vs. Towson Last Year

Towson posted a 75-68 victory over Delaware on January 8, 2007 at the Bob Carpenter Center as the Tigers set a BCC record by shooting 62.5 percent from the field (25 of 40). Delaware got a career-high 29 points from Herb Courtney, while Sam McMahon added 12 points and Calvin Cannon chipped in 11. Gary Neal scored a team-high 27 points for Towson, while Dennard Abraham had 13 points and 10 rebounds. Delaware led for most of the first half and took a 37-33 advantage into the break. Towson regained the lead by scoring the first 10 points of the second half, but the Blue Hens battled back to take a 63-62 margin with 5:44 left. However Abraham answered with a layup to put the Tigers up for good, and Delaware did not hit a field goal over the final 9:22 of the game.

Just over two weeks later, Towson coasted to an 85-63 victory over the Blue Hens at the Towson Center. The Tigers scored the first 13 points of the game and led by as many as 34 in the second half during the easy victory. Neal scored 36 points and surpassed the 2,000 career point mark, while Abraham added 17 points. Courtney had 19 points and 10 rebounds for the Blue Hens, while Sam McMahon posted 14 points.

Courtney Has Double-Figure Streak Snapped at Iona

Senior forward Herb Courtney finished with just one point at Iona, his fewest since going scoreless vs. Drexel in the 2006 CAA Tournament First Round. Courtney had scored in double figures in 18 straight games and in 26 of the last 27 contests.

Herb Courtney By Half

	1st Half FG/Points	2nd Half FG/Points
Marist	1-1 / 3	5-8 / 21
Rider	0-4 / 0	5-10 / 10
Hampton	2-5 / 5	5-6 / 12
Iona	0-4 / 1	0-3 / 0
Totals	3-14 / 9 points	15-27 / 43 points

Balanced Scoring Effort At Iona

Alphonso Dawson scored 11 points while Brian Johnson, D.J. Boney, Sam McMahon and Edwin Santiago each added 10 as the Blue Hens put five players in double figures at Iona. The last time Delaware put five players in double figures was during an 89-77 victory over UNC Greensboro on December 19, 2005. In that game Harding Nana scored 24 points, while Andrew Washington had 18, Sam McMahon scored 16, Herb Courtney added 13, and Calvin Cannon chipped in 10.

Hens Look To Snap Losing Streak

Delaware, which lost the final six games of last season, has now dropped 10 straight games after losing the first four games of this year. The Blue Hens also dropped the first nine games of last year. That streak was the longest since an 11-game losing streak from January 5 through February 7, 1979.

Newcomers Contribute Early in Season

All four Blue Hen freshmen contributed in their first collegiate games at Marist. Edwin Santiago scored 10 points and recorded a game-high three steals, while Marco Cooper also came off the bench to add four points and four rebounds in just eight minutes of action. Alphonso Dawson, who scored five points, and D.J. Boney, who contributed two points and two assists, each started for Delaware and played double-digit minutes.

Dawson scored 12 points in 32 minutes of action at Rider, while Santiago added nine points. Boney chipped in six while Cooper had five, including a key three-point play in the final minute.

D.J. Boney scored eight points in the loss to Hampton, while Edwin Santiago added six.

Dawson scored a team-high 11 points at Iona, while Boney and Santiago each added 10 points.

McMahon Extends Double-Figure Streak

Heading into the Blue Hens' game at George Mason last January 31, Sam McMahon had scored in double figures in just eight of his first 77 career games. However McMahon reached double digits in the final nine games of 2006-07 and has extended his streak to 13 games this season. McMahon scored 10 points at Marist, 16 points against Rider and Hampton, and 10 at Iona.

Johnson Runs The Show For Hens

Sophomore Brian Johnson played all but two minutes in the Blue Hens' opener at Marist, scoring 23 points while dishing out five assists. Johnson reached the 20-point mark just twice last season but hit 7 of 14 shots against the Red Foxes including 2 of 3 from behind the arc, and nailed all seven of his free throw attempts.

Johnson scored 13 points and handed out a team-high seven assists at Rider, playing all but three minutes. He played 36 minutes against Hampton, dishing out six assists while pulling down a career-high seven rebounds. Johnson played a season-high 39 minutes at Iona, scoring 10 points while handing out four assists.

Johnson Takes Care of the Rock

Brian Johnson currently leads the CAA with a 2.20 assist/turnover ratio. Johnson has handed out 22 assists this season (he is tied for the CAA lead with 5.50 assists per game), and has committed just 10 turnovers in 150 minutes on the floor so far this season.

Johnson also leads the CAA with a 92.3 free throw percentage and a 53.8 three-point field goal percentage.

Hens Need To Improve Rebounding

Delaware ranked 12th in the CAA by getting out-rebounded by an average of 6.0 boards per game last season, and Marist posted a commanding 44-30 edge in the Blue Hens' opener. Senior forward Spongy Benjamin posted his career-high with 17 rebounds against the Blue Hens, including six offensive boards. Delaware was again out-rebounded, 47-37, at Rider as forward Jason Thompson pulled down a school-record 21 rebounds.

Hampton posted a 39-23 rebounding advantage over the Blue Hens, as the Pirates corralled 13 offensive rebounds. Iona recorded a 41-24 edge on the boards, as the Gaels grabbed 16 offensive rebounds.

Delaware has been out-rebounded 110-72 this season, an average of 14.2 rebounds per game. The Blue Hens are currently last in the league with 28.5 rebounds per game, 42.8 rebounds allowed per game, and a -14.2 rebounding margin.

Not Shy From Deep

The Blue Hens have taken 85 three-pointers through just four games this season, while their opponents have only attempted 54. Delaware has averaged over 21 three-pointers per game so far this season, compared to 35.75 two-point attempts per game.

The Blue Hens currently rank eighth in the CAA with a 32.9 three-point percentage and lead the league by holding their opponents to just 24.1 percent shooting (13-54) from behind the arc.

A High-Scoring Affair

The 78 points scored by Delaware against Marist tied for the most under head coach Monté Ross, matching a 78-69 win over UNC Wilmington on February 7. Conversely, the Blue Hens' 89 points allowed to the Red Foxes also tied for the most under Ross, matching George Mason's 89 versus UD on January 31.

Delaware again scored over 70 points against Rider, marking the second straight game the Blue Hens reached the 70-point mark. UD scored over 70 points just four times in 31 games a year ago.

Conversely, in Delaware's last two games, neither the Blue Hens nor their opponents have reached the 60-point mark.

Blue Hens Facing Challenging Schedule

Delaware is facing a challenging schedule this season, as Delaware will face six NCAA Tournament teams and three NIT participants from last year. The Blue Hens opened the season by facing Marist, which advanced to the second round of the NIT last season. On Wednesday Delaware hosts Albany, which appeared in the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

The Hens travel to NCAA Tournament participant Central Connecticut on December 16, and three days later travel to Vermont, which played in the 2007 NIT. Delaware travels to Maryland, which advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament a year ago, on December 28.

UD will then face another tough CAA conference schedule, playing two games against Virginia Commonwealth, which defeated Duke and took Pittsburgh to overtime in last year's NCAA Tournament. Two games against rivals Hofstra and Drexel, which each appeared in the 2007 NIT, and a pair of contests with league favorite George Mason also await the Blue Hens.

Fresh Faces in Starting Lineup

Blue Hen freshmen D.J. Boney and Alphonso Dawson started Delaware's opener at Marist, marking the second consecutive season that a pair of UD freshmen started their first collegiate games.

Last season Brian Johnson and Darrell Johnson each started the season opener against Marist, the first time in 22 years that two freshmen started the first game of the season. Freshmen guards Jay Harris and Taurence Chisholm each started in Delaware's season opening loss to Washington College on November 27, 1984. Only two UD true freshmen started a season opener between that game and last season - Brian Pearl against Washington College on November 23, 1991 and Raphael Madera against Mount St. Mary's on November 21, 2003.

Blue Hens Feature Home-Grown Talent

The Blue Hens have four players on their roster that played high school basketball in the state of Delaware: Marc Egerson (Glasgow), Jawan Carter (Tatnall), D.J. Boney (Tatnall), and Edwin Santiago (Sanford). In fact, Carter is the leading scorer in Delaware history with 2,464 career points.

The last time a UD team featured four players who played high school basketball in Delaware was in 1985-86. Three of those players were Donald Dutton, a junior from Wilmington, DE (Howard Career HS), Steve Jennings, a sophomore from Claymont, DE (Claymont HS), and Oscar Jones, a senior from Wilmington, DE (A.I. duPont HS). The fourth, freshman Stan Waterman from Wilmington, DE (Howard Career HS), is currently the head coach at Sanford School where Edwin Santiago played.

Young Out Indefinitely After Preseason Surgery

Delaware junior Brian Young will be out indefinitely after undergoing emergency surgery for acute compartment syndrome in his upper left arm during the preseason.

Young, who sat out the 2006-07 season after transferring from Lafayette, had surgery on October 13 after participating in the Blue Hens' practice earlier in the day. No timetable has been set for his return.

Young enrolled at Lafayette in the fall of 2005 but missed the entire season after undergoing open heart surgery prior to his freshman year. He then transferred to Delaware during the summer of 2006.

Young's injury is the same one suffered by then Blue Hen assistant coach Ryan Iversen, who suffered acute compartment syndrome in his leg during a practice last December. Ironically, Young was the player that bumped into Iversen during that practice.

A Rough Year

Delaware head coach Monté Ross and the Blue Hens suffered through a tumultuous season in 2006-07 when Delaware set the school record for losses in a season:

November 6 • Senior guard Calvin Cannon is suspended for the Blue Hens' first two regular season games for a violation of team policy

Courtney, Johnson Among CAA Returning Stat Leaders

Herb Courtney is the Colonial Athletic Association's leading returning rebounder with 8.0 rebounds per game, ahead of Vladimir Kuljanin of UNC Wilmington with 7.1 rebounds per game. Courtney ranks second among CAA returners with 18.1 points per game (behind only Antoine Agudio of Hofstra - 20.2), 1.5 steals per game (behind only Brandon Johnson of Old Dominion - 2.1), and 1.7 blocked shots per game (behind only Tommy Breaux of Towson - 2.1).

Brian Johnson ranks second among CAA returners with 4.2 assists per game, behind only Virginia Commonwealth's Eric Maynor, the CAA Preseason Player of the Year, at 6.4 assists per game.

Courtney Returns To Lead Hens

Senior forward Herb Courtney will look to pick up where he left off last season when he had a stellar junior year. A second team All-CAA selection, Courtney led the Blue Hens with 18.1 points, 8.0 rebounds, 54 blocks and 45 steals. Courtney led the CAA with 10 double-doubles, scored in double figures in 28 of the 31 games, and reached the 20-point mark 13 times. He ranked second in a single season at Delaware with 1,139 minutes played, fifth with 54 blocks, and seventh with 562 points. Delaware Names Captains

Seniors Herb Courtney, Sam McMahon, and Henry Olawoye are serving as team captains for the University of Delaware basketball team this season. Courtney and Olawoye also served as captains last year.

Hens Look To Improve Non-Conference Mark

Delaware had dropped 11 consecutive non-conference road games before the 58-56 win at La Salle on December 29, 2006. Following the losses at Marist and Rider, UD is now 1-14 in its last 15 non-conference road games. The Blue Hens also went 0-5 at home against non-conference opponents last year, the most home defeats to non-league teams in a season since 1970-71. After Tuesday's loss to Hampton, Delaware has now lost seven consecutive home non-league games.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 505 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made one three-pointer in all but five games (615 of 620) since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87.

Blue Hens Look To Avoid 20 Losses

Delaware went 5-26 last season to set a school record for most losses in a season, while its 15 conference losses were also a school record. Delaware had just one 20-loss season (5-22 in 1978-79) in its first 99 years, but has lost at least 20 games in three consecutive years: 11-20 in 2004-05, 9-21 in 2005-06 and 5-26 last season. The Blue Hens are one of just 10 Division I teams to lose at least 20 games in each of the last three seasons along with Centenary, Howard, Maryland Eastern Shore, Northern Colorado, James Madison, Prairie View A&M, Longwood, San Jose State, and Idaho.

Help Is On The Way

The Blue Hens will receive a major boost in mid-December when junior transfers Marc Egerson and Jim Ledsome become eligible. Both players, who have been practicing with the team, transferred to Delaware following the end of the 2006 fall semester and will become eligible on December 16 for UD's game at Central Connecticut.

Egerson, a 6-6 guard/forward, appeared in the first 13 games while starting three for the Hoyas last season. He averaged 7.5 points and 4.0 rebounds per game while ranking fifth on the team with 24.1 minutes played. Egerson, a native of Wilmington, DE, who played at nearby Glasgow High School, led Georgetown in rebounds twice. He recorded his first career double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds against Old Dominion, and scored a career-high 13 points while posting seven rebounds against eventual Elite Eight participant Oregon.

Egerson averaged 1.6 points and 1.7 rebounds in 21 games as a freshman for a Hoyas squad that finished 23-10 and reached the NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen.

Egerson was a two-time first team all-state selection at Glasgow, led Glasgow to the state championship as a junior, and was twice named the Delaware State Player of the Year.

Ledsome, a 6-9 forward, appeared in the first 14 games while starting four for the Cornhuskers last season. He averaged 2.4 points and 2.5 rebounds while playing 10.6 minutes per game. Ledsome also shot 13 of 22 (59.1 percent) from the field for the Huskers and tied for second on the team with five blocked shots.

Ledsome appeared in 17 games last season as a freshman, recording 20 rebounds, nine points and four blocked shots on the year. He redshirted the 2004-05 season for the Cornhuskers.

St. Joseph's Transfer Jawan Carter Redshirts

Sophomore guard Jawan Carter transferred to Delaware from Saint Joseph's during the offseason and will sit out this season due to NCAA transfer regulations. Carter will redshirt this season and will have three years of eligibility remaining beginning in the 2008-09 season.

Carter appeared in 32 games while starting 26 for the Hawks last season and was named to Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team. He ranked fourth on the team with 7.6 points per game, was second with 74 assists, and ranked third on the team with 38 three-pointers made and a 35.8 three-point field goal percentage. Carter, who averaged 25.7 minutes per game for Saint Joseph's, scored a career-high 20 points in a win over Xavier on January 21 and added 18 in a victory over Lafayette on November 17. He scored in double figures in three consecutive games in late December and hit a career-high five three-pointers against Ohio University.

Carter was named the 2006 Delaware State Player of the Year while playing at the Tatnall School, and is the state's all-time leading scorer with 2,464 career points. An all-state selection in 2005 and 2006, Carter averaged 29.4 points, 5.0 rebounds and 7.0 assists as a senior. Carter, an EA Sports Second Team All-American as a senior, led Tatnall to the 2006 state championship, scoring 31 points in the title game. He was named high honorable mention on Street & Smith's All-America Team four times.

Newark's Foreign Connection

Junior forward Pau Geli, a native of Girona, Spain, continues a trend of foreign-born players on the Delaware basketball team. The Blue Hens have had at least one foreign player on the roster in all but two years since the 1987-88 season. Delaware had four foreign players on the 1998-99 team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament while Spencer Dunkley, Delaware's career rebounding leader and an NBA second round draft pick in 1992, is a native of Wolverhampton, England.

HEAD COACH MONTÉ ROSS

Winston-Salem State '92
Second Season at Delaware
5-30 Overall and at Delaware

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his second season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2007-08. He guided Delaware to a 5-26 record in 2006-07 and led the Blue Hens to a 72-68 win over preseason league favorite Hofstra on January 29.

Prior to coming to Delaware Ross, 37, had served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University the previous 10 seasons, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Things are going pretty fast now, but I am prepared to handle it. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. My first priority will be to the players we have coming back. They all came here to the University of Delaware with a dream and they all have goals. I want to make sure that their experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture."

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players. We are confident that he will bring the University of Delaware men's basketball program to prominence in the CAA."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herrion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Phil Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season. Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West. Nelson currently plays for the Orlando Magic while West and Dwayne Jones are members of the Boston Celtics. Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross and assistant coach Stephen Stewart visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, PA with their son Justin, 8, and daughter Lauren, 6.
