Hens Fourth at Blue Sky Classic

The Blue Hens dropped a pair of games last weekend in the 31st annual Blue Sky Classic, a four-team tourney hosted by Dartmouth. In their first-round game on Saturday, the Hens fell to No. 23 Arkansas 62-49 despite a career-high 12 points off the bench from freshman guard Tesia Harris. UD played tough against the undefeated Razorbacks, clawing to within eight points in the final five minutes. In Sunday's consolation round, Delaware allowed a 10-0 game-ending run by Dartmouth in a 48-41 setback. Senior guard Kyle DeHaven did it all for the Hens, posting her first career double-double with 10 points, 10 rebounds, and six steals. Sophomore guard Corinthia Benison reached double figures in both games for the Hens, who shot just 34-for-116 (.293) from the floor and 1-for-18 (.056) from three-point range during the tourney. Delaware has now lost a school-record 11 straight games and dropped 13 of its last 14 non-conference contests. DeHaven was named to the all-tournament team after averaging eight points, nine rebounds, and 4.5 steals over the weekend.

Merry January After December Chill

The Blue Hens opened the new year with a convincing victory over George Mason and are now 23-3 (.885) in January since the start of the 2004-05 season. Delaware struggled through the month of December at 0-5, the Hens' first winless month since November of 2002. UD had melted the December snow since joining the CAA in 2001, going 35-3 (.921) in the month through last season.

Benison Soars to New Heights

Sophomore guard Corinthia Benison has become a dangerous offensive weapon for the Blue Hens, and she proved it yet again in the win over GMU. She poured in a career-high 17 points to record her fifth double-figure performance in the Hens' last six games, adding four rebounds, an assist, and a steal in 34 minutes. Benison did most of her damage at the free-throw line, going 11-for-14 from the stripe. Benison has averaged a team-high 12.2 points in the last six games after putting up just 6.1 ppg in her previous seven outings.

DeHaven Stuffs the Stat Sheet

Senior guard Kyle DeHaven contributed six points, seven rebounds, four steals, and an assist in UD's victory over GMU. She now leads the Blue Hens in scoring (10.2 ppg), rebounds (5.0 rpg), assists (3.7 apg), steals (3.7 spg), free-throw percentage (.898), and minutes played (35.4 mpg). Suddenly a monster on the glass, DeHaven is averaging 7.3 ppg, 8.3 rpg, and 4.3 spg over her last three games.

For Starters

Freshman guard Gracie Palucis logged her first career start in Delaware's loss to Arkansas on Dec. 29 in the Blue Sky Classic, meaning that all 12 players on the Blue Hens' roster have started at least one game this season.

Count on Courtney

Senior forward Courtney Irving, who scored 13 points and grabbed eight rebounds in the Hens' 64-49 win at George Mason on Sunday, has amped up her production lately. She's scored at least six points and hauled in four or more boards in six consecutive games, averaging 8.5 ppg and 6.5 rpg in that span. Irving had managed only 5.0 ppg and 3.6 rpg in the Hens' first seven games of the season.

Stealing The Show

Senior guard Kyle DeHaven collected four steals in UD's 64-49 drubbing of George Mason to bring her career total to 358, fourth-best in CAA history. With a second-half steal against Bowling Green on Dec. 21, DeHaven passed UD alum Tyresa Smith for the fourth spot on the CAA list. The Herndon, VA native needs 25 more thefts to overtake Old Dominion legend Mery Andrade for third in league history. She has collected 41 steals this year for an average of 3.7 per game, best in the conference and ninth in all of Division I. The three-time CAA All-Defensive Team selection collected a league-high 99 steals last season and averaged 3.1 per game, good for 11th in the nation.

Home Sweet Home

The Blue Hens are 112-34 (.767) in the Bob Carpenter Center under head coach Tina Martin. UD went 77-11 (.875) at home from the start of the 2000-01 season through the end of last year.

...But Lately, Homesick

The Hens have lost five of six games at the BCC this year. Delaware has dropped five straight at home for the first time since a seven-game skid from Dec. 12, 1996 to Jan. 21, 1997.

Another Test From The Top 25

UD faced its second top-25 opponent of the season when the Hens took on Arkansas, ranked 23rd in the nation in the ESPN/USA Today poll, on Dec. 29 in the Blue Sky Classic. The Blue Hens, who defeated No. 20 Kentucky and No. 22 James Madison last year, suffered a 62-49 defeat to the unbeaten Razorbacks and fell to 2-28 all-time against top-25 teams. On Nov. 13, in just its second game of the year, Delaware dropped a 91-43 decision at No. 3 Maryland in the second round of the Preseason Women's National Invitation Tournament.

Banner Year

Last season was one to remember for the Blue Hens, who tied a school record with 26 wins, toppled two top-25 teams in the regular season, and earned an at-large berth in the NCAA Tournament, where they fell to Michigan State, 69-58, in a hard-fought game. Senior guard Tyresa Smith, who led the league with 19.8 points per game and finished a brilliant career as the Hens' No. 2 all-time scorer, was named CAA Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-CAA.

Playing The Percentages

Delaware graduated three senior leaders from last year in guards Tyresa Smith and Alena Koshansky and forward Chrissy Fisher. Numbers can't do justice to the impact those three stars had on the program, but they're a good place to start. Last year, they accounted for 58.7 percent of the Hens' points, 49.6 percent of their rebounds, and 53.8 percent of their assists.

Off the Mark Behind The Arc

Delaware went just 1-for-18 (.056) from three-point range in its two Blue Sky Classic losses last weekend. The Hens have connected on just 22 of their 127 tries from beyond the arc this year. The Blue Hens' .173 three-point field goal percentage ranks last in the CAA, and UD hasn't made five or more three-pointers in a game since March 1 of last year. Senior guard Kyle DeHaven is the team's leader in three-pointers made at 8-for-49 (.163).

Ballhawks...or Ball-Hens?

Delaware collected 10 steals and forced 17 turnovers in its win over George Mason on Sunday. The Hens have forced 20.1 turnovers and made 10.2 steals per game this season, picking up where they left off last year. Delaware's '06-'07 success began with its defense, as the Hens forced more turnovers (22.3 per game) than any other CAA team and made a league-high 424 steals. Three Blue Hens - Kyle DeHaven, Tyresa Smith, and Alena Koshansky - placed among the league's top six in steals, as all three tallied at least 80. This year, DeHaven leads the CAA with 3.7 spg, good for ninth nationally.

Around And Out

Although they poured in a season-high 64 points in their win over George Mason on Sunday, the Blue Hens have struggled to find the basket this season, averaging a CAA-low 49.1 points per game. The school record for lowest-scoring season was set in the experimental year of 1970-71, when the Blue Hens averaged 44.7 ppg. in their first year as a varsity program. UD's season high of 64 points is lower than the average scoring output of seven other CAA teams.

New Faces

The Blue Hens welcome four true freshmen - guards Tesia Harris, Vanessa Kabongo, and Gracie Palucis and center Eva Riddick - to the fold. Redshirt freshman Ariene Jenkins also joins the Hens, who boast the CAA's youngest roster with five freshmen and three sophomores. Kabongo has averaged 5.8 points this season to lead the newcomers, reaching double figures four times, while Harris poured in a career-high 12 points off the bench in the Hens' loss to Arkansas on Dec. 29. Jenkins has logged four starts and torched GMU for a career-high 15 points on Sunday, while Palucis netted six points on two three-pointers in Delaware's loss to Quinnipiac on Dec. 18. Riddick, meanwhile, has made two starts and is pulling down 2.6 rebounds per contest. Together, the five newcomers are contributing 12.7 ppg, 8.2 rpg, and 1.1 apg.

Haven't I Seen You Somewhere?

Experience and excellent credentials may not be the only requirements needed to coach at Delaware. Having a twin in the family may also be a prerequisite. Head coach Tina Martin and associate head coach Jeanine Radice are both twins. Martin has an identical twin sister, Teresa, while Radice has a fraternal twin sister, Julie.

Mean Streak is History

With its 64-49 defeat of George Mason on Sunday, UD snapped its school-record losing streak at 11 games. Delaware had previously dropped eight straight games three times - from Jan. 8-29, 1998, from Feb. 17 to Nov. 28 of 1995, and from March 7, 1981 to Jan. 5, 1982. The Blue Hens' 1-11 start was the worst in program history.

Rimmed Out

The Blue Hens are shooting just .306 from the floor this year, worst in the CAA and 324th among 326 Division I teams. They connected on just 17 of 49 shots (.347) in their win over GMU despite going 11-for-25 (.440) in the first half. UD has shot below 35 percent in 11 of 13 games this season.

We'll Miss Ya, 'Resa!

Delaware said goodbye to the most decorated player in school history in guard Tyresa Smith, who graduated last year and was selected by the Phoenix Mercury in the second round of the WNBA Draft. Smith, a two-time CAA Defensive Player of the Year and first team All-CAA pick, finished her Blue Hen career at No. 2 on UD's all-time scoring list (1,635 points) and as the school's all-time leader in steals (342). She ranks among the top 11 in UD history in points, rebounds, assists, steals, blocks, field goals made, and free throws made.

Irving's No Long Shot

Senior forward Courtney Irving, who scored 13 points on 3-for-7 shooting against the Patriots on Sunday, ranks No. 1 on UD's all-time list with a .512 career field goal percentage. She connected on 98 of 170 shots last year (.576) to break a 15-year-old single-season school record. Irving also ranks third in Delaware history with a .827 career free-throw percentage. This season, she's made 27 of her 59 field goal attempts (.458) and 32 of 38 free throws (.842).

Twenty-Something

Delaware has won 20 or more games in seven of its last eight seasons, amassing a 184-59 record in that span. The Hens had recorded just four 20-win years in the previous 28.

All Aboard

Delaware crashed the glass in its win over GMU on Sunday, outrebounding the Patriots 46-30, the third time this season that the Hens have won the battle of the boards. They've been outrebounded by an average of 4.6 per night on the year. Delaware outmuscled other teams by 1.9 rebounds per game last season.

Out of Their Element

Until this season, the Hens had fared very well in non-conference games in recent years. Delaware is 33-20 (.623) outside the CAA since the start of the 2003-04 season, but the Hens have lost 13 of their last 14 games against teams from other leagues.

National Power to Power Outage

Last season, UD ranked fourth in the country in steals per game (13.3), tenth in turnovers per game (13.6), 18th in scoring defense (55.9 ppg), 19th in scoring margin (12.9 ppg), 19th in winning percentage (81.3%), and 50th in free throw percentage (73.7%). This year, the young Hens have struggled against top-quality competition early, and their numbers aren't quite as impressive. UD ranks last in the CAA in scoring offense (49.1 ppg), scoring margin (-12.5 ppg), field goal percentage (30.6%), three-point field goal percentage (17.1%), assists (6.3 apg), assist-to-turnover ratio (0.32), and three-point field goals made (1.7 per game). Delaware ranks in the bottom half of the CAA in 15 of the 19 team categories kept by the league, but the Hens are third in free-throw percentage at 73.9%, fifth in steals at 10.2 spg, fifth in scoring defense at 61.5 ppg, and sixth in field goal percentage defense at 40.1%. Nationally, the numbers don't look any better. As of Jan. 6, Delaware ranked 321st of 326 Division I teams in scoring, 324th in field goal percentage, 322nd in field goal percentage, 326th in three-pointers made, 326th in assists per game, and 325th in assist-to-turnover ratio. On a more promising note, the Hens are 42nd nationwide in free throw percentage and 73rd in steals.

Blue Hens in National Rankings

Colonial Dominance

The Blue Hens have posted an 86-23 record (.790) in CAA play since they joined the league in 2001-02. Only perennial power Old Dominion (99-9) has won more conference games in that span.

Tough Slate

In 2007-08, Delaware will face at least seven teams – Delaware State, Maryland, Louisville, Texas Christian, Bowling Green, James Madison, and Old Dominion – that made the NCAA Tournament last year. Four of the Hens' first five opponents went to the Big Dance a year ago.

Talking Turkey

In June, head coach Tina Martin, associate head coach Jeanine Radice, former player Alena Koshansky, and current players Courtney Irving and Kyle DeHaven ventured to Turkey along with members of the UD sports management department. For eight days, the Blue Hen representatives conducted clinics for coaches and players as part of FIBA Europe's Year of Women's Basketball campaign.

It Runs In The Family

Freshman guard Tesia Harris, a Street & Smith All-American as a high school senior last year, has basketball in her blood. She is a cousin of Channing Frye, a forward with the Portland Trailblazers.

COLLEGE PARK, MD -- The strength and balance of Maryland was too much for short-handed Delaware as the Blue Hens suffered their worst loss in a decade...the No. 3 ranked Terrapins (3-0), the 2006 NCAA national champions, placed four scorers in double figures and never trailed as the Hens (1-1) suffered their biggest losing margin since a 102-54 setback to Maine Feb. 13, 1997 during head coach Tina Martin's rookie campaign...freshman Vanessa Kabongo led the Blue Hens with 11 points...Delaware played without senior point guard Kyle DeHaven, who sat out with a broken hand suffered in a season-opening win over Delaware State in which she scored 24 points...despite the absence of DeHaven, the Hens committed just 14 turnovers, four less than the Terrapins...Kristi Toliver led the Terps with 19 points and 10 assists, Jade Perry had 11 points and 15 rebounds, Ashleigh Newman registered 18 points, and Marissa Coleman added 16 points...Maryland held a commanding 57-27 rebounding advantage and also converted 25 of 27 free throws...Maryland's 91 points were the most allowed by the Hens since a 91-85 overtime loss to Hofstra Feb. 12, 2006...Courtney Irving had nine points and a team-high six rebounds and Mundy contributed nine points to pace Delaware, which shot just 24.2 percent (16 of 66) from the field...Delaware stayed close early, tying the game at 8-8 six minutes into the contest...after Maryland's Toliver hit a three-pointer, the Hens pulled to within 14-12 on a jumper by Kabongo...that would be as close as the Hens would get the rest of the night as Maryland reeled off seven straight points to take control at 21-12 and used a 34-11 run that resulted in a 46-21 halftime advantage...Delaware never got closer than 23 the entire second half with Maryland pushing the lead to as much as 49 points at 91-42 in the closing minutes.

Goldsberry converted the four-point play, and freshman guard Lauren Prochaska netted a three from the opposite corner on the Falcons' next possession to stretch her team's lead to 49-42 at the under-12 time-out...UD went cold from the floor at that point, making just two of 11 field goal attempts over the final 12-plus minutes...the Falcons, usually a perimeter-oriented squad, repeatedly pounded the ball into Breske, who accounted for 10 of her team's final 15 points...DeHaven finished with 12 points and five assists to go along with her six steals, while junior guard Ethlynnne Thomas returned to the line-up after a two-game absence with seven points... "We just have to learn how to finish," said twelfth-year UD head coach Tina Martin, whose team fell to 1-9 on the season...Delaware limited Achter, BGSU's leading scorer coming into the contest at 16.4 ppg., to five points, but she made up for it with 10 assists...UD continued to have success with its pressure defense, forcing 19 turnovers and making 11 steals, but the Hens coughed it up 18 times and shot below 35 percent for the eighth time in ten games.
