Injury Report

Delaware has no injuries to report for this evening's game.

Shooting for 100

University of Delaware Head Coach Tina Martin shoots for the 100th victory of her career this evening as the Blue Hens take on the Hofstra University Pride. Martin would become the second women's coach and fourth basketball coach (men's or women's) to record 100 wins at Delaware. She would reach the century mark in 170 career-games, eight fewer the former women's basketball coach who reached the mark in the fewest games.

In its first attempt to get this historic win, Delaware takes on an opponent it has had a lot of success with, the Blue Hens have won 31 of the 36 times it has faced Hofstra. Earlier this season the University of Delaware got its first-ever CAA conference victory when it defeated the Pride, 71-66, at the Bob Carpenter Center. UD's Allison Trapp lead all scores with 22 points in that contest.

Hofstra is coming off a 70-67 victory over William & Mary on Sunday.

Last Time Out

Allison Trapp scored 12 of her game-high 18 points in the second half as Delaware overcame a nine-point deficit to defeat James Madison, 59-55, in Harrisonburg Sunday afternoon. It was the second time this season that the Blue Hens have rallied from a halftime deficit to beat James Madison.

Lindsay Davis banked in a jumper from the top of the key with to give Delaware a one point advantage, its first lead since the opening minutes within 1:46 remaining in the game. Megan Dellegrotti hit a tough circus shot with 55 seconds remaining then added a pair of free throws to clinch the UD victory.

Up Next

The University of Delaware travels to Norfolk, Virginia to participate in its first-ever CAA Conference Championship Tournament March 6-9. The Blue Hens will enter the tournament as the No. 2 seed and will play the winner of Wednesday's game between the No. 7 and No. 10 seeds on Thursday.

What a Ride

The 2001-02 Blue Hen seniors played their last game at the Bob Carpenter Center on February 21. The play of these young ladies have brought about a level of success that has never seen before in Newark. Their record of 84-29 is the best four-year record in the programs history. They have turned the BCC into one of the best home courts in the nation posting a record of 46-4 at home including a school-record 22-game home winning streak. They led the Blue Hens to its only America East Championship and the programs first trip into the NCAA Tournament in last season.

Seniors Lindsay Davis, Megan Dellegrotti and Christina Rible each scored in double figures to led the Blue Hens to a, 69-56, win over George Mason. Their classmates, Valerie Katsorhis added an assist and Kim Tingley finished with four points, a career-high.

The Next Challenge...

The New CAA

After going 30-6 in America East play over the last two seasons and bringing home its first conference championship, Delaware faces a new challenge, joining the retooled Colonial Athletic Association this season.

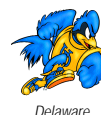

The New CAA features six institutions from its 2000-01 roster and adds four former America East programs; Delaware, Drexel, Towson and Hofstra.

Historically, CAA women's basketball has been dominated by Old Dominion. The Lady Monarchs have won the last ten conference championships and are considered among the nation's top programs.

Delaware opened up CAA action on Saturday, December 29, 2001, when it defeated Hofstra, 71-66, at the Bob Carpenter Center.

The Blue Hens were picked to finish fourth in the CAAPreseason Coaches' Poll.

Nine Straight

The University of Delaware ended a nine-game winning-streak when it lost at Old Dominion, 72-45, on February 10. This year's version of the season-high winning streak marks the third straight season that the Blue Hens have run a winning-streak to at least nine games. UD won nine straight in 1999-2000 before a season-ending loss to Maine in the America East semifinals. Last season the Blue Hens posted a record 17-game winning-streak before losing at Vermont.

The "D" is for Defense

Head coach Tina Martin has made a point to emphasize defense this season. In return, the "D" has played a major part in the Blue Hens success, holding opponents to just 59.0 ppg, the second lowest in the CAA. They have not allowed less than 60.0 ppg in a season since 1983-84, when the Blue Hens finished the season allowing opponents 57.6 ppg.

Delaware ranks among the CAA leaders in many areas of defensive play. UD is second in blocked shots, averaging 3.38 blocks per game. The opposition is shooting only .379 from the field, No. 3 in the CAA. Delaware is third in rebounding defense (35.8 rpg).

Scoring Quartet

Three Delaware players are currently averaging more than 10 ppg (Megan Dellegrotti, Allison Trapp, and Christina Ribble). Julie Sailer's scoring average dropped below 10 for the first time since the beginning of the season, she is currently averaging 9.8 ppg. The last time that four Delaware players finished the season averaging in double figures was in the 1997-1998 season.

Delaware is one the only team in the conference to have four players ranked among the top 25 conference scoring leaders. These players makeup 71.8% of the UD offense (48.3 ppg of 67.3 ppg).

New Places, New Faces

This season the University of Delaware faced eight teams that it has never played before. It is the most new teams on the schedule since the 1980-81 season when UD faced 12 new opponents. The Blue Hens were of 4-4 in these inaugural matchups this season.

Accepting Charity

Delaware is taking full advantage of the free throw line, shooting .776 from the charity stripe this season, No. 5 in the nation in Tuesday's NCAArankings. The Blue Hens'535 points from the line are the most in the country, as they averages 20.6 ppg from the line.

Leading the way are four players in the conference's top FT Pct. Freshman Julie Sailer missed her first free throw in the eighth game of the season after netting her first 27 attempts. She was just four free throws shy of Delaware's consecutive FT streak of 31, held by Linda Cyborski, who shot .937 (74-79) from the line in 1991 to lead the nation. While shooting a conference best .895 (94-105) from the line she was is No. 5 in the nation on Tuesday.

Megan Dellegrotti's .856 FT Pct. (149-174), No. 3 in the CAA. Her career .844 FT Pct. is the second-best career FTPct. by a Blue Hen and her 149 points from the line this season is second most ever by a Delaware player and the sixth most CAAhistory.

Christina Rible joined her teammates in the conference top ten after shooting 4-4 from the line against JMU last Sunday. She is now shooting .827 (43-52) which is sixth in the conference.

Lastly, Allison Trapp is shooting .810 (68-84) from the charity stripe which is good for seventh in the CAA.

Its is possible that the Blue Hens may add a fifth player to the conference top 10. Tiara Malcom is shooting .712 (74-104) from the line this season, No. 13 in the CAA

The Key is 70

Delaware has only allowed an opponent to score 70 points in a game four times this season. Despite winning two of the four contests, keeping teams below 70 is a key to UD's success. Over the past five seasons the Blue Hens are 74-10 when holding opponents under 70 points. Overall, during coach Martin's tenure (now in her sixth season), 86 of Delaware's 99 wins have come when holding the opponent under 70 points.

On the other side of the coin over the past five seasons UD is 8-37 when giving up 70 plus.

The Blue Hens may be even more tough when scoring 70 points. This season Delaware is 11-0 when hitting the mark. Over the last three seasons it is 60-5 and has a 29-game winning streak when scoring at least 70. Its last loss when scoring 70 plus was a 70-71 loss at the University of Maryland on November 26, 2000.

What a Streak It was

The University of Delaware women's basketball team held the third longest home winning streak in Division I (22 games) for six days. Tennessee's loss to Connecticut on January 5, made Delaware's two-year old streak the third-longest in the nation and placed the Hens among very prestigious company. At the time, Connecticut was No. 1 in both the AP and the USA Today/ESPN and Notre Dame is the defending NCAANational Champion.

The streak came to an end when the Blue Hens lost to No. 25 Old Dominion, 82-55. Prior to that game, Delaware had not lost a game at the Bob Carpenter Center since January 4, 2000, when it fell to Maine, 73-58. Delaware has still has not lost to a non-conference opponent at home since losing to Pennsylvania, 64-65, in 1996, a span of 15 games.

Finishing Up

The University of Delaware seniors know how to keep a lead. In the last four seasons the Blue Hens are 68-7 when leading at the half. This season the Hens are a perfect 17-0 when leading after the first 20 minutes. The last time that UD lost after leading at the break was a 68-58 loss at Vermont on February 24, 2001. Delaware held a two-point half-time lead in that contest.

The Backcourt

The Delaware backcourt ranks as one of the best in the CAA as either Megan Dellegrotti or Allison Trapp rank among the conference leaders in many categories. The two combine to average 26.5 ppg, the second best guard tandem in the CAA. In addition the duo is averaging 5.7 assists and 3.4 steals while shooting .841 from the foul line.

Dellegrotti is currently tied for seventh in the CAA in scoring (13.6) as she holds four of the top five Blue Hen scoring performances this season. She is also ninth in the conference in assists (3.50) and sixth from behind the three-point arc (.370).

Trapp is No. 11 in the CAA with 12.9 ppg. The junior is the only Blue Hen to score 20 points in back-to-back games this season and leads the team shooting .425 (110-259) from the field. In addition, she is fifth in the CAA in steals (2.22).

Rible's Return

Blue Hen forward Christina Rible returned to action January 11 after missing five games with a fractured finger. She sustained the injury in practice on December 13 and missed the next four weeks of action.

Rible has been a force since her return, recording double-doubles in five of her first seven games back. Currently, she is leading the CAA in rebounding with 9.6 rpg while being tied for seventh in offensive rebounding (3.10) and second in defensive rebounding (6.48).

Prior to this season, Rible had missed only three collegiate games. She missed the first three contests of the 1999-2000 season with a torn knee ligament then went on to play the 26 remaining games that season with the injury, choosing to delay surgery till after the season.

Immediate Impact

Freshman Julie Sailer did not spend much time "paying her dues" on the bench as many first yearers do. The former high school All-American saw her first collegiate action less than one minute into the season, entering the Hens' opener at the UNC Greensboro Tournament after Allison Trapp went down with an ankle injury. Sailer went on to play 33 minutes in the contest, scoring 14 points with five rebounds and four assists. She followed that performance by netting a game-high 16 points against UNCG and being selected to the all-tournament team.

After finishing with 16 points against Bucknell, Sailer became the first Blue Hen since 1991 to net double-digit point totals in the first three games of her career.

Sailer scored the 100th point of her career at UNC Wilmington on January 4. Reaching the total in 10 games, she became the fastest Blue Hen to reach the century mark since Danielle Leyfert hit the mark in her first six games in 1997-98.

Its Her Time

After playing a role off the bench the last two seasons, senior Lindsay Davis is making the most of her new role as a starter. The forward has been a consistent force on both sides of the court for the Blue Hens. Her 7.1 ppg is good for fifth on the team and she is fourth with 4.9 rpg, both career-highs. Defensively, Davis second on the team with 38 steals and is tied for second with 99 defensive rebounds.

Davis recorded her 600th career point earlier this season against Drexel and recorded her first collegiate double-double (11 pts, 11 rbs) versus UNC Wilmington on January 4.

Stepping Up Underneath Part 1

The injury to Christina Rible forced a couple of players to increase their roles. Last year's Wilmington News Journal Co-Player of the Year Tiara Malcom was posting bench highs in points and rebounds before the loss of Rible. Thrust into a starting role, Malcom posted her first career double-double in her first start on December 18, 2001, vs. La Salle. The freshman went on to average 7.6 ppg and 8.6 rpg in the five games she started.

Stepping Up Underneath Part 2

Always considered a big factor in the success of Delaware's defense, Christine Cole had to expand her game offensively when Rible went down. Cole answered the challenge by doubling her scoring output (from 3.3 ppg to 8.0) and her rebounding (2.7 rpg to 6.4) in the five game span. The center posted a career high 14 points against La Salle, Delaware's first game without Rible.

When #11 Scores Ten...

...you can forget about it. The University of Delaware has won 35 of the last 37 games that senior guard Megan Dellegrotti has scored 10 points or more. Before the Hens fell at VCU, on January 6, Delaware had a 25-game winning streak dating back to the 1999-2000 season when the guard hit for double-figures. Since Dellegrotti's sophomore season, Delaware is 35-4 when she scores at least 10. UD is 18-2 this year when No. 11 scores 10 or more.

Player of the Week

Freshman Julie Sailer became the first UD women's basketball player to be named Colonial Athletic Association's Player of the Week, when she received the honor for the week of January 20th.

On January 20, Sailer came off the bench to score a game-high 15 points, 10 of which came during a 19-2 run that rallied the Blue Hens from a 13-point deficit. Delaware upset James Madison, 58-50, at the Bob Carpenter Center. Sailer also hit for a team-high 18 points in a 72-62 victory over host George Mason on Thursday, January 17.

For the week, Sailer averaged 16.5 points 3.5 rebounds, and 1.5 steals while shooting 13 for 24 (.542) from the field and 3 of 6 (.500) behind the three-point arc.

Naming the Gym After Her

Senior forward Lindsay Davis had arguably the best game of her career on November 28, against Bucknell. Playing in a building ironically named Davis Gymnasium, Davis scored a career-high 26 points with eight rebounds. She scored 24 points in the second half alone, as Delaware overcame a six-point halftime deficit to win the game, 86-66.

A Roller Coaster of a Week

Megan Dellegrotti had a very interesting first week of December. On December 1, the senior tied her school record for treys in a game by hitting six of them as she put up a career-high 29 points in the Blue Hens' 85-57 victory over Princeton.

Six days later, Dellegrotti had one of her most forgettable performances while taking on Coppin State at the Cornell Tournament. Despite finishing with eight points, she shot just 1-11 from the field. The trend was popular that evening as the team shot a season-low .226 from the floor and committed 30 turnovers in the, 52-44, loss.

But the tri-captain bounced back from that performance in a very big way the next day against Centenary. Dellegrotti posted her second best career scoring performance (26 points) with three treys and five assists in the Delaware victory.

Dellegrotti finished the roller coaster of a week by being selected as Wilmington Trust Best of Blue Hen Player of the Week and the only Delaware player named to the Cornell All-Tournament Team.

Playing by the Rules

When Delaware point guard Megan Dellegrotti fouled out of UD's game with William & Mary on January 27, it was the first time in her 93-game career she had been disqualified from a contest.

Do Not Foul Them

Delaware made 32 of 34 (.941) free throw attempts in its January 27 win at George Mason, the best team shooting performance from the line in the CAA this season. After netting its two lone first half attempts from the line, the Blue Hens hit 30 of 32 attempts in the second. It took 26 shoots before Delaware finally missed a FT. After making the last five FTs against Towson on January 13 and the first 25 at George Mason, UD connected on 30 straight FTs.

Seven Blue Hens hit free throws in the contest; Megan Dellegrotti and Allison Trapp each finished 7-8 from the line, Christina Rible went 6-6, Christine Cole and Julie Sailer each went 4-4, and Lindsay Davis and Tiara Malcom made both of their FT attempts.

Double Impact

The Blue Hens have recorded 12 double-double performances this season, nine of which have come from senior forward Christina Rible. Coming off a 2000-01 campaign in which she posted 15 double-doubles, she has nine despite missing five games with a fractured finger. She has achieved the feat six times since returning from the injury. Rible now has 35 double-doubles for her career.

300 for Free

After netting her fourth of nine free throws against VCU on January 6, Megan Dellegrotti became only the fourth Blue Hen to score 300 points in a career from the foul line. The guard is the fastest Blue Hen to reach the mark, netting 300 FTs of her first 355 attempts. Prior to Dellegrotti, Danielle Leyfert had reached the mark in the fewest attempts when she scored 300 in 409 attempts.

1,000 Point Club

The University of Delaware added two new members to its 1,000 point club this season. Seniors Christina Rible and Megan Dellegrotti became just the fourth duo in Delaware history to reach the 1,000-point milestone while playing at the same time. Before they reached the mark, the last two players to do so were Cindy Johnson and Danielle Leyfert two seasons ago.

Rible reached the milestone against William & Mary on January 27 midway through the first half. She became just the 16th Blue Hen to record 1,000 career points.

Dellegrotti's milestone night came against Towson on February 7. Needing only two points, the guard hit a jumper just inside the three-point arc on the base-line to join Rible at 1,000. She finished with eight points.

Making the Grade

Delaware seniors Christina Rible, Lindsay Davis and Megan Dellegrotti were selected as nominees for CoSIDA Academic All-American on January 29. Players nominated must excel both on the court and in the classroom, posting at least a 3.2 GPA. The nomination is the third for Rible, the second for Davis and Dellegrotti's first.

Dellegrotti and Rible were selected Verizon Academic All-American District 2 second team on February 21.

Upcoming Milestones

- Tina Martin needs one win to become the second UD women's basketball coach to win 100 career games.
- Lindsay Davis needs three assists to reach 200.
- Megan Dellegrotti needs six three-pointers to record her 150th career trey.
- Dellegrotti can also reach 100 career steals with four steals.
- In addition, Dellegrotti is 15 free throws shy of Shanda Piggott's school record of 164 free throws made in a season.
- Allison Trapp needs 17 points to record her 500th career point.

Changing His Game

Former University of Delaware men's basketball standout Tyrone Perry has joined the women's basketball coaching staff this season. He had spent the last two seasons as a member the men's coaching staff. Perry is the career games played leader for the men's basketball team as well as its first three-time captain. The former guard led the Hens to back-to-back America East titles his junior and senior seasons.

The Tina Martin Show

The Tina Martin Show is held each Wednesday throughout the season. The half-hour show is live from the newly-renovated Deer Park Tavern, in the heart of the UD campus at 5:30 p.m. Blue Hen play-by-play man Mike Corey is the host of the show that can be heard live on WJBR 1290-AM and also on the internet at www.am1290.com or www.udel.edu/sportsinfo/womens_basketball.

UD on the Internet

UD sports information is available on the internet at www.udel.edu/sportsinfo. Game notes are available in PDF format the day of the game (and sometimes earlier), while stats and game stories with box scores are usually posted within 60-90 minutes after the game's conclusion.

In addition, links to RealAudio simulcast links from the Blue Hen Sports Radio Network and WVU / WVUD2 (the University's student radio stations) are available on the UD Athletics web site at www.udel.edu/sportsinfo/womens_basketball
