LEWISBURG, PA -- Delaware rode a late scoring burst to top host Bucknell University 86-66...with the score knotted at 58-58 with 5:55 left in the game, senior Lindsay Davis hit the Blue Hens' first three-point basket of the night, putting the Blue Hens up for good in a torrid second-half run in which Delaware outscored the Bison, 28-8....Davis led the second half charge by scoring 24 of her team-high 26 points in the final half of play...the Hens connected on 22 of 23 second half free throws and scored 52 points for the half, six shy of the school record for a half...Christina Rible grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds to go along with her 20 points and five assists.... freshman Julie Sailer added 16 points, becoming the first Blue Hen freshman to score in double figures in her first three career games since Colleen McNamara achieved the feat in the 1991-92 season....Bucknell guard Molly Creamer led all scorers with 30 points and seven assists, but it wasn't enough as the Bison (3-1) dropped their first game of the season...Creamer was busy, hitting on 8 of 21 shots from the field and 12 of 13 from the foul line...fellow guard Kate Franks added 15 points for the Bison, who shot just .226 (7 of 31) from the field in the second stanza...Hens held a 43-33 advantage on the boards... Delaware freshman forward Tiara Malcom enjoyed her best career game to date, scoring 10 points and pulling nine rebounds in just 28 minutes of action.

Meet The Coach

Tina Martin
Head Coach
7th Season
(101-74)
Lock Haven '86
1-0 vs. Bucknell

Tina Martin's revival of the University of Delaware women's basketball program is one of the best success stories in the sport in the last five years.

In a span of five years, the 37-year old former Lock Haven (PA) standout has turned the Blue Hens from cellar-dwellers to conference champions. Hired on May 14, 1996 to replacing 18-year veteran Joyce Perry, Martin received a five-year contract extension prior to the 2000-2001 season.

Last season, Delaware's first in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA), the Blue Hens won 20 games for the third-consecutive season, posting a 23-7 record, and earned a spot in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT). In addition, Martin won her 100th game as coach of the Blue Hens, becoming the fastest coach in Delaware history to achieve that milestone.

After a 6-21 campaign in 1997-98, Martin led the Blue Hens to a 16-11 record in 1998-99 and 21-8 and a trip to the America East semifinals in 1999-2000. All but one starter returned in 2000-2001, as the Blue Hens posted a 26-5 record and captured the America East regular season title. Along with receiving votes in a National Top 25 poll for the first-time in school history, the team also earned their first-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Martin's experience with rebuilding programs extends back to her days as an assistant coach at Seton Hall. She played a big part in rebuilding a Lady Pirate program that went from three-straight losing seasons to one that made back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 1994 and 1995 under head coach Phyllis Mangina. The 1993-94 team went 27-5 and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16, the best season in Seton Hall history.

A native of Williamsport, PA, Martin was a two-time NCAA Division II All-American at Lock Haven and was a four-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference All-Star and Two-Time league Player of the Year. She finished as the PSAC's all-time leading scorer with 2,157 points and had her number (33) retired at Lock Haven.

Martin began her coaching career at Lock Haven in 1986-87, where she served as a graduate assistant. She moved onto Seton Hall the following season, assisting Mangina in building the Pirate program into a Big East powerhouse.

Martin is single and resides in Newark.

DELAWARE 63, ST. JOHN'S 47:

Blue Hens Snap Losing Skid: With the win, Delaware snapped a five-game losing streak, dating back to last season.

Winning at Home: Delaware has now won 16 straight non-league home games, dating back to 1997.

Season-High's All Around: The Blue Hens 63 points marked their season high, and the 36 points scored in the second half was their highest scoring half of the campaign. Delaware also pulled down a season-high 51 rebounds.

Sailer Returns: Sophomore and reigning CAA Rookie of the Year Julie Sailer returned to the lineup after missing the team's last contest against Manhattan. She scored a season-high 16 points and grabbed 11 rebounds in 36 minutes of action.

Timmins Finds Her Groove: Senior guard Carrie Timmins had a breakout game Wednesday night, establishing career-highs in assists (five) and minutes played (35) while pulling down six rebounds, which tied her career-high.

First for Malcom: Sophomore forward Tiara Malcom recorded the first 'double-double' of her career on Wednesday night, scoring 10 points and grabbing 10 rebounds.

DE-FENSE! DE-FENSE!: The Blue Hens held St. John's to 28.8% shooting and 47 total points, both season low's for the Red Storm.

2002-2003 SEASON NOTES:

Perfect After the Half: The Blue Hens loss against LaSalle snapped a streak of 19 consecutive wins 19-0 when leading entering halftime last season.

Hens Off the Mark: Delaware shot 27.6% against the Explorers, their lowest field goal percentage since shooting 27.0% against Drexel back on February 14, 2002.

Tobin Out: Freshman Karleena Tobin is out indefinitely after having her right knee scoped. Tobin has been experiencing problems rehabilitating a torn meniscus.

Opening Night: With a season-opening night loss to Richmond, Delaware is now 13-19 all-time in season opening games, including 4-3 under Martin. They had won two openers in a row entering the contest.

Moving on Up: Senior Guard Allison Trapp has 577 career points, which ranks her 31st on Delaware's all-time scoring list. Next up for Trapp is Ann Igo, who scored 592 points.

28. Lindsay Davis (1998-2002)	645
29. Bridget McCarthy (1987-91)	626
30. Ann Igo (1971-74)	592
31. Allison Trapp (2000-)	577
32. Jackie Porac (1995-98)	552

Dish The Rock: The Blue Hens were a perfect 16-0 last season when they had more or equal the assist total of their opponent, but just 7-7 when they lost the assist battle.

Home Court Advantage: Last season, the Blue Hens posted an 11-1 mark at the Bob Carpenter Center, suffering their only loss at the hands of eventual Elite Eight participant, Old Dominion, ending a 22-game home winning streak. Delaware is 47-4 the past four seasons at the BCC, 55-19 under Martin and boast a 16-game home winning streak against non-conference opponents. Their last loss was back on February 17, 1998, when the Blue Hens dropped a 59-57 decision to Morgan State.

Pre-Season Accolades for Sailer: Sophomore Julie Sailer has been voted to the second team All-CAA by both the CAA coaches and media polls. Last season, Sailer averaged 9.4 ppg en route to earning CAA Rookie of the Year honors, the first University of Delaware basketball player (men's or women's) to earn such honors.

Trapp Named to Second Team: Senior guard and co-captain Allison Trapp has been named to the CAA All-Conference second team in this season's pre-season coaches poll. Trapp started 25 of the 27 games she played in last season, averaging 12.5 ppg. For her efforts, she was named to the CAA All-Defensive team.

Don't Hack the Hens: Delaware led the CAA in free throw percentage last season, shooting 77.4% from the stripe, and placed four players among the top seven: Sailer (1st, .869), Rible (3rd, .843), Dellegrotti (4th, .840) and Trapp (7th, .828) in 2001-02. This season, Delaware is fourth in the CAA (.703).

Hens on TV: Delaware's second and final matchup of the 2002-2003 season against the Hofstra Pride can be seen live on Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic. Game time is set for 4:00 p.m. at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Scoring Loss: Head coach Tina Martin enters the 2002-03 season without her top two scorers from a season ago. Graduates Megan Dellegrotti (13.5 ppg) and Christina Rible (12.8 ppg) accounted for 36% of Delaware's total offense in 2001-02 (726 of 2018 points).

Promoted: Megan Dellegrotti, a four-year letter-winner at Delaware who stands 12th on the Blue Hens all-time scoring list with 1,112 points, has been appointed assistant coach for the 2002-2003 season. A standout both on and off the court, Dellegrotti earned second team All-CAA honors as a senior and also earned CoSIDA District II All-Academic honors during her stint as the floor general of the Hens offense. She will complete her work for her bachelor's degree in health and exercise science this academic year.

Three-Peat?: The Blue Hens have advanced to the post-season in each of the last two seasons. In 2000-2001, Delaware captured the America East Championship and earned an automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. Last season, the Blue Hens qualified for the National Invitational Tournament (NIT). In addition, Delaware is also seeking its fourth-straight 20-win season.

Cole on the Boards: Senior forward Christine Cole has 441 career rebounds, which ranks her 22nd on Delaware's all-time rebounds list. She needs 3 to pass Jackie Porac and move into 21st place.

18. Lindsay Davis (1998-2002)	484
19. Robin Stoffel (1986-90)	474
20. Lisa Cano (1984-88)	445
21. Jackie Porac (1995-98)	443
22. Christina Cole (1999-)	441

Trading Places: After suffering through an injury-plagued freshman campaign at the University of Maryland, forward Arek Deng decided a change was needed and transferred to the University of Delaware. She will sit out the 2002-2003 season, as per NCAA transfer requirements, but will practice with the team throughout the season.

Rejected by Cole!: Along with being a force on the glass, senior Christina Cole stands as one of Martin's best defenders. She is currently ranked sixth on Delaware's all-time blocks list.

4. Sarah Gause (1983-86)	115
5. Suzanne Street (1997-2000)	79
6. Christina Cole (1999-)	77
