Meet The Coach

Tina Martin
Head Coach
7th Season
(107-74)
Lock Haven '86
1-1 vs. VCU

Tina Martin's revival of the University of Delaware women's basketball program is one of the best success stories in the sport in the last five years.

In a span of five years, the 37-year old former Lock Haven (PA) standout has turned the Blue Hens from cellar-dwellers to conference champions. Hired on May 14, 1996 to replacing 18-year veteran Joyce Perry, Martin received a five-year contract extension prior to the 2000-2001 season.

Last season, Delaware's first in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA), the Blue Hens won 20 games for the third-consecutive season, posting a 23-7 record, and earned a spot in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT). In addition, Martin won her 100th game as coach of the Blue Hens, becoming the fastest coach in Delaware history to achieve that milestone.

After a 6-21 campaign in 1997-98, Martin led the Blue Hens to a 16-11 record in 1998-99 and 21-8 and a trip to the America East semifinals in 1999-2000. All but one starter returned in 2000-2001, as the Blue Hens posted a 26-5 record and captured the America East regular season title. Along with receiving votes in a National Top 25 poll for the first-time in school history, the team also earned their first-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Martin's experience with rebuilding programs extends back to her days as an assistant coach at Seton Hall. She played a big part in rebuilding a Lady Pirate program that went from three-straight losing seasons to one that made back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 1994 and 1995 under head coach Phyllis Mangina. The 1993-94 team went 27-5 and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16, the best season in Seton Hall history.

A native of Williamsport, PA, Martin was a two-time NCAA Division II All-American at Lock Haven and was a four-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference All-Star and Two-Time league Player of the Year. She finished as the PSAC's all-time leading scorer with 2,157 points and had her number (33) retired at Lock Haven.

Martin began her coaching career at Lock Haven in 1986-87, where she served as a graduate assistant. She moved onto Seton Hall the following season, assisting Mangina in building the Pirate program into a Big East powerhouse.

Martin is single and resides in Newark.

NEWARK, DE -- Delaware used a torrid first half shooting display to jump out to a 19-point halftime lead and held on for the victory...the Hens won their eighth straight game with a typical balanced effort as four Delaware players scored in double figures...Christina Rible led the way with 16 points while guards Allison Trapp and Megan Dellegrotti each chipped in with 14 points...Dellegrotti moved her career point total to 998 and both she and Trapp scored in double figures for the 15th time in the last 16 games...VCU, which had defeated the Hens 62-57 back on Jan. 6 in Richmond, VA, lost for just the second time in its last eight games...forwards Cyndy Wilks and Kristina Austgulen each led the Rams with 13 points...Delaware hit 20 of 40 shots from the field for the game and finished at 50 percent from the field for the first time this season...Hens used a 35-28 rebounding edge and 27 of 35 accuracy from the foul line to offset 24 turnovers...it was a hot start that propelled the Blue Hens to the victory as UD jumped out to leads of 10-1 and 24-9...UD went up by as much as 21 points in the first half thanks to 67 percent shooting from the field (14 of 21)...Virginia Commonwealth refused to give up in the second half, chipping away at the lead and pulling to within seven points at 55-48 with 8:30 left to play on a three-pointer by Wilks...but that was as close as they would get as Delaware followed with an 8-2 run of its own to go up 63-50 with 4:43 remaining.

DELAWARE 80, HOFSTRA 69:

Hens Continue to Roll in CAA: With Sunday's win, Delaware is now 41-4 over the last three seasons in league play, and has won six straight against the Pride.

Career Day for Trapp: Senior guard Allison Trapp scored a career-high 34 points on 14-16 shooting on Sunday afternoon, tying the Hofstra Arena record for points. Trapp scored 19 straight at one point, and her 34 points is the second highest single game scoring output in school history. She has also connected on her last 12 field goal attempts, a school record, and reached 20 points or more in four of the Blue Hens last five games and eight times in her career. For her efforts, she was named CAA Player of the Week for the first time in her career.

Straight Shooting: The Blue Hens shot a season-high 49.1 percent from the field on Sunday. Their 80 points was also a season-high.

2002-2003 SEASON NOTES:

Blue Hens Win Dartmouth Tournament: With its 61-48 win over the Big Green of Dartmouth on December 30, Delaware captured its first regular season tournament title since defeating Montclair State and Northeastern to claim the Montclair (NJ) State Tournament in 1983-84.

Trapp Named MVP: Senior guard Allison Trapp captured tournament MVP honors, scoring 26 points to go with four rebounds and six steals against UAB, and posted 13 points, six boards and four steals in the championship game against Dartmouth.

Cole, Malcom Earn Honors: Senior Christine Cole and sophomore Tiara Malcom were each named to the All-Tournament team at Dartmouth. Cole pulled down a career-high 15 rebounds in the championship game against the Big Green, while Malcom notched 15 points and seven rebounds against UAB and 12 points against Dartmouth.

Blanketing Defense: Trailing 39-31 in the second half, the Blue Hens held Dartmouth scoreless for 8:16 and without a field goal for over eleven minutes, helping turn a five-point halftime deficit into a 46-43 lead, which they never relinquished.

Trapp Nearing 1,000: Senior guard Allison Trapp has 856 career points, 144 short of 1,000 for her career. Trapp, who has 666 points in two-plus seasons at Delaware, scored 190 in 22 games at East Carolina.

Walking on: Sophomore walk-on Jaclyn Gordon (Ambler, PA/Mt. St. Joseph's) has been cleared to play and dressed for her first game against Marist on December 23. Gordon was a four-year letterwinner at Mt. St. Joseph's high school in Amber, PA, leading her team to the state championship every season, winning twice.

Dish The Rock: The Blue Hens were a perfect 16-0 last season when they had more or equal the assist total of their opponent, but just 7-7 when they lost the assist battle. This season, Delaware is 2-1 when they win the assist battle.

Home Court Advantage: Last season, the Blue Hens posted an 11-1 mark at the Bob Carpenter Center, suffering their only loss at the hands of eventual Elite Eight participant, Old Dominion, ending a 22-game home winning streak. Delaware is 48-4 the past four seasons at the BCC, 56-19 under Martin and boast a 17-game home winning streak against non-conference opponents. Their last loss was back on February 17, 1998, when the Blue Hens dropped a 59-57 decision to Morgan State.

Pre-Season Accolades for Sailer: Sophomore Julie Sailer has been voted to the second team All-CAA by both the CAA coaches and media polls. Last season, Sailer averaged 9.4 ppg en route to earning CAA Rookie of the Year honors, the first University of Delaware basketball player (men's or women's) to earn such honors.

Trapp Named to Second Team: Senior guard and co-captain Allison Trapp has been named to the CAA All-Conference second team in this season's pre-season coaches poll. Trapp started 25 of the 27 games she played in last season, averaging 12.5 ppg. For her efforts, she was named to the CAA All-Defensive team.

Don't Hack the Hens: Delaware led the CAA in free throw percentage last season, shooting 77.4% from the stripe, and placed four players among the top seven: Sailer (1st, .869), Rible (3rd, .843), Dellegrotti (4th, .840) and Trapp (7th, .828) in 2001-02. This season, Delaware is second, shooting .691.

Hens on TV: Delaware's second and final matchup of the 2002-2003 season against the Hofstra Pride can be seen live on Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic. Game time is set for 4:00 p.m. at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Cole on the Boards: Senior forward Christine Cole has 476 career rebounds, which ranks her 19th on Delaware's all-time rebounds list. She needs 9 to pass former teammate, Lindsay Davis, and move into 18th all-time.

17. Molly Larkin (1989-93)	499
18. Lindsay Davis (1998-2002)	484

She will sit out the 2002-2003 season, as per NCAA transfer requirements, but will practice with the team throughout the season.

Magic Number 70: Before last season's loss to George Washington in the NIT, the Blue Hens had won 30 consecutive games when scoring 70+ points. The team was 12-1 last season and is 61-6 over the last three seasons when hitting the 70-point plateau.
