◆ Quick Shots ◆

◆ Delaware enters its sixth meeting with Old Dominion trailing 5-1 in the all-time series. The Blue Hens and the Monarchs have already played once this season, with the Monarchs emerging victorious, 67-56. This contest is also a rematch of the 2003 CAA championship. Old Dominion dashed Delaware's hopes of its first-ever CAA title as the Monarchs downed the Blue Hens, 66-58 on March 15, 2003.

◆ The Blue Hens snapped their four-game conference losing streak with a decisive win over Hofstra, 67-41, in Hempstead, NY on Sunday. Delaware had not lost four consecutive conference games since February of 1998 when the Hens were still in America East. The Hens suffered their worst loss of the season to James Madison on 2/1 (84-57), followed by losses to Virginia Commonwealth on 2/5 (81-70), William & Mary on 2/8 (55-48) and James Madison on 2/12 (62-61).

◆ In the previous three seasons, Delaware has only lost seven total conference games (17-1 in 2000-01, 15-3 in 2001-02, 15-3 in 2002-03).

◆ With the loss to William & Mary on 2/8 and the loss to James Madison on 2/1, the Hens were swept by two different conference opponents for the first time since 1999, when they were swept by Drexel and Maine in America East play. Last year, the Hens were not swept by any conference opponent in the regular season.

◆ With Sunday's win over Hofstra, the Hens completed their first opponent sweep of the season. The Hens handled the Pride, 78-47, on January 15. Hofstra, the second-place team in the CAA, holds a 9-4 record in conference play. All four of the Pride's losses have been by 25 or more points and two of their losses are from the Hens.

Tonight's Game

WVUD-FM, Delaware's student station, will be broadcasting tonight's game from Norfolk, VA. For more info, see the WVUD website (www.wvud.org). Old Dominion will also be broadcasting tonight's game (<http://oduspports.ocsn.com/multimedia/oldd-multimedia.html>).

The Tina Martin Show

The Tina Martin Show airs each Monday from 6:30-7 p.m. on The Ticket 1290 AM and The River 94.7 FM (RealAudio links are available at www.udel.edu/sportsinfo/womens_basketball). Each Monday, the Tina Martin Show will be broadcast from the legendary Deer Park Tavern on Main Street in downtown Newark. Coach Martin is joined by the voice of the Blue Hens, Mike Corey, for a review of the past week's game, a preview of upcoming action, and a series of questions from the restaurant audience and listeners via call-in.

Radio Coverage

For the fifth straight year, the Blue Hen radio network's flagship station is The Ticket 1290 AM. Also on the network are WDOV-AM 1410 (Dover) and WTGM-AM 960 (Salisbury). The majority of the home Blue Hen women's basketball action will be available via the Blue Hen radio network. For more detailed listings, see the Delaware Women's Basketball home page (www.udel.edu/sportsinfo/womens_basketball). In addition, many UDbasketball games are also broadcast on the UD student station, WVUD-FM 91.3, and WVUD2, the station's internet radio network. Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through UD's athletics website.

All In a Week's Work

Junior forward Tiara Malcom was recognized on Tuesday, January 27 as the CAA Player of the Week after posting consecutive double-doubles against George Mason and Drexel. Against the Patriots, she scored a career-high 31 points and grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds. She became just the 10th Blue Hen player to break the 30 point marker in a single game. She continued her solid play this week with her third straight double-double against Towson on January 29, scoring 11 points and grabbing 11 rebounds in the Blue Hens' victory. Malcom has recorded 13 career double-doubles. Also, since her debut in the first game of the 2001-02 season, Malcom has played in 83 consecutive games, and the Blue Hens own a 59-24 record with Malcom in the game.

And She's Not Alone

Tiara Malcom is not the only Hen to have posted a double-double this season. Junior forward Tiffany Young & senior guard Tracey Howell both posted their first career double-doubles this year. Young has recorded two double-doubles, against William & Mary (1/9) and Virginia Commonwealth (1/18), while Howell tallied her first such performance against James Madison (2/1) with 12 points and 13 rebounds.

The Defense Gets It Done

Delaware basketball is notorious for its defense. The Blue Hens have held six teams under 50 points this year and hold a 7-0 mark in those games. Last year, Delaware held opponents to 53.5 points a game to lead the CAA in scoring defense. The Hens kept teams under 50 points on 13 occasions in 2002-03 to posted a 12-1 record in those contests. This season, the Blue Hens are allowing an average of 56.7 points per game. In each of Delaware's 134 wins, the Hens have kept opponents under 60 points, with their opponents averaging 48.6 ppg.

Steppin' It Up

Sophomore guard Amanda Blackstone and freshman point guard Alena Koshansky stepped up their play to help the Hens break their four-game losing streak with the 67-41 win over Hofstra on Sunday.

•In her first career start against Hofstra on 2/15, Amanda Blackstone set a career-high in points with 14, including two three-pointers. Prior to earning her starting status, she came off the bench against VCU on 2/5 to score 10 points (then a career-high), shooting 3-4 from the floor and hitting 4-6 of her foul shots. She also scored eight points in the Blue Hens' 62-61 loss to JMU on 2/13.

•Alena Koshansky set a career-high in points with 12 against Hofstra on 1/15, connecting on all of her shots (3-3 FG, 4-4 FT). She also scored 11 points in the Hen's second meeting with the Pride on Sunday and added 10 points against VCU on 1/18, hitting 2-3 from long-range

Home Grown

Freshman guard Tyresa Smith, the 2003 Delaware High School Player of the Year, set a new career-high with 15 points against William & Mary on 1/9. Against the Tribe, Smith also had seven steals. She followed that performance by posting eight points, six rebounds, and eight steals to tie the UD program record for steals in a game against Hofstra on 1/15. Against La Salle, she came off the bench to add 10 points, nine rebounds, four steals, three assists, and two blocks. Smith also scored in double-figures (10 points) and pulled down seven rebounds in the Hens' win over Loyola. Against Hofstra on Sunday, Smith played all 40 minutes and posted nine points, seven rebounds, and four assists.

Spreading the Wealth

Delaware had four of its five starters score in double-figures against Towson on 1/29 (Hayes - 15, Young - 15, Malcom -11, Sailer - 11). Delaware has had four or more scorers with double-digit point totals on six occasions this season. Against Virginia Commonwealth on 1/18, Delaware had a season-high five players with 10 or more points (Hayes - 12, Young - 12, Malcom - 10, Koshansky - 10, Sailer - 10). It was the first time five Blue Hens had scored in double-figures since a win over Drexel on February 4, 2001.

More on the Delaware "D"

◆Delaware is tops in the CAA in scoring defense in 2003-04 with an average opponent scoring total of 56.7 ppg. The Blue Hens also rank 21th in the nation in scoring defense.

◆Following two back-to-back double-digit losses to William & Mary and Old Dominion, the Blue Hen defense made a statement versus Hofstra, holding the Pride to 15 points in the first half and without a field goal for the first 12 minutes of the contest.

◆The 25 points that Loyola scored against Delaware on December 14 is the lowest opponent point total in the CAA in the last five years. Delaware held the Greyhounds to just seven points in the first half, which was one of the lowest half-time scores in all of Division I women's basketball this season. As of December 20th, only Florida State and Vanderbilt have held teams to fewer points in a half. The Seminoles and the Commodores held Savannah State to three and six points in the first half, respectively.

◆Delaware's defense allowed Navy only four points in the first 12 minutes of the first half back on December 5. Delaware held the Mids scoreless for the first 2:30 of the game, as it began the game on a 9-2 run.

◆Against Manhattan, Delaware held the Jaspers to just three points in the final 7:04 of the second half.

◆The Hens held St. John's to 15 points at the half, which was the lowest opponent half-time score -- before the Loyola win on 12/14 -- since December 8, 2001 when the Blue Hens held Centenary to 14 points in the first half.

◆UNC Wilmington only scored 14 points in the first half vs.UD on January 4, which was then the Seahawks' season-low for points in a half.

◆Delaware held Hofstra to just 17 points in the second half (a UD season-low), including holding the scoreless for the final four minutes of the contest.

Big Shots

Freshman point guard Liz Hayes has been hitting the important shots this year for the Blue Hens. On two occasions (Richmond & Drexel), Hayes has hit a three-pointer at the end of regulation to send the contest to an extra session. Hayes has also scored in double-figures on seven occasions this season, including a career-high 17 points against St. John's, shooting 6-9 from the field and 3-4 from long-range. Hayes is averaging 7.1 ppg, fourth-best on the team. She also leads the team in made three-pointers with 27 (27-82, .329 pct.), which puts her 10th in made three-pointers in UD program history.

Young in 2003-04

Junior forward Tiffany Young's improvement as a player is obvious. After averaging just 1.8 ppg in 02-03, Young has stepped it up 2003-04. Before this season, Young had never scored in double-digits. Now, Young has had two twenty-point performances and two double-doubles with 12 points and a career-high 14 rebounds against William & Mary on January 9 and 12 points and 14 rebounds against Virginia Commonwealth on January 18. As Delaware's second-leading scorer (11.6 ppg), she tallied her first 20 point game against Fairfield in the championship game of the Coca-Cola Classic, earning her a spot on the all-tournament team. Against Manhattan, Young reached the 20 point mark for the second time, surpassing it with 21 points and 11-14 shooting from the foul line.

The DishFactor

In 2001-02 and 2002-03, the Blue Hens recorded a 27-1 record when they had more or equal the assist total of their opponent. The Hens are now 6-1 when they win the assist battle in 2003-04.

Hitting the Freebies

The Blue Hens are shooting 70.3 percent from the foul line this season, ranking second in the CAA. Liz Hayes, Julie Sailer, Tiffany Young, Tiara Malcom and Amanda Blackstone are all shooting over 73% from the charity stripe. Malcom, Sailer, and Young rank in the top 10 in the league in free throw percentage. Delaware has connected on 411 of 585 attempts and averages over 18 points from the foul line per game. Delaware has not shot lower than 57.7 percent from the foul line (vs. JMU on 2/12) this season. The solid shooting is no surprise as Delaware led the CAA in free throw percentage in 2002-03 with 73.4%.

There's No Place Like Home

Having four home-losses in a season is somewhat of an anomaly for the Blue Hens. The last time the Hens lost four games at home in the same season dates back to the 1998-99 when they were still in America East Conference. Despite its four losses this season at home, Delaware's home record is nothing to scoff at. Since the 1999-00 season, the Blue Hens are 52-7 at the Bob Carpenter Center. To put that into perspective, Delaware has won over 89% of its home contests over the last four years and over 74% of its home games in the past seven years.

Delaware Basketball Tradition

Over the past four years, the Delaware women's basketball team has recorded four consecutive 20-win seasons (21-8 in 1999-00, 26-5 in 2000-01, 23-7 2001-02, & 22-9 in 2002-03). Delaware has amassed 108 wins in the last five years, ranking 32nd among all Division I women's basketball programs for wins (entering the 2003-04 season). In addition to the numerical success, the Blue Hens have advanced to three consecutive post season tournaments, appearing in the NCAA Regionals in 2001 and in the WNIT in 2002 and 2003. The Hens need to win their remaining five regular-season games, and at least one game in the CAA tournament to secure a fifth 20-win season.

A December to Remember

Delaware completed the month of December with a perfect 5-0 record. The Blue Hens made it through the month of November with a 3-1 record, improving on last year's November record of 0-3. In the past two Decembers, Delaware has compiled a perfect 10-0 mark.

It's My Party

Freshman Alena Koshansky's 19th birthday has the potential to be extra sweet. If the Hens advanced to the conference finals, Delaware could vie for the conference championship on Koshansky's 19th birthday (3/13). Geneva Livingston (1/1), Arek Deng (1/13), and Tiara Malcom (1/24) recently celebrated birthdays.

The Leftovers from 2002-03

Even though the numbers below do not seem very promising, the Blue Hens are used to picking up scoring slack when teammates have left the nest. In the last three seasons, Delaware has lost five 1,000 point scorers. Also, going into the 2002-03 season, the squad had lost over thirty percent of their scoring from 2001-02 and still managed to finish 22-9.

Homecoming

Who says you can't go home again? Well, Thomas Wolfe did, but clearly Carrie Timmins wasn't listening. The former standout point guard returns to Delaware this year in a new capacity--assistant coach. Timmins, who will earn her bachelor's degree in health and exercise sciences from Delaware in December, averaged 6.4 points last season and ranked among the CAA leaders in assists (91) and steals (28). She also played in 111 games as a Blue Hen (8th all-time). Timmins also joins another fellow Delaware grad and standout player turned assistant coach, Tyrone Perry. Perry, in his fifth year coaching at UD, was an assistant with the men's team for two years and is now entering his third season with the women's basketball team.

It Runs in the Family

Center Arek Deng is one of eight children, and basketball must run in her family's genes. Her older brother, Ajou, played for the Fairfield basketball team while her younger brother, Luol, a freshman at Duke, is considered one of the nation's best rookies -- if not the best -- in the class of 2003-04. Also, her cousin, Gai, plays for the Fairfield men's basketball team. Gai, a 6'9" center, averaged 12.9 points per game and finished fourth in the nation for blocked shots with 3.8 per game last year.

◆ Up and Coming ◆

◆ Junior Tiara Malcom is 86 points away from becoming the 19th player in Delaware history to score 1,000 points. Malcom, who has scored 914 points in her career, holds a career average of 11.0 ppg.

◆ Freshman Liz Hayes is one three-pointer away (27) from breaking the freshman record for made-threes in a season. Megan Dellegrotti ('02) hit 28 in her rookie season.

◆ Junior Tiara Malcom and senior Tracey Howell are both climbing the all-time blocked shot leaderboard at Delaware. Malcom ranks eighth with 76 career-blocks while Howell ranks ninth with 56 to her name.

◆ Senior Tracey Howell is one of two players to start all 22 games for the Hens in 2003-04 (Tiara Malcom is the other). She has played in 107 games in her career which places her tied for 17th in all-time games played in Delaware women's basketball history.

Twin Factor

Experience and excellent credentials may not be the only requirement to be a coach at Delaware. Having a twin in the family may also be a prerequisite. Three out of four members of the coaching staff have a twin connection in their family. Head coach Tina Martin and associate head coach Jeanine Radice are both twins -- Martin is an identical twin while Radice has a fraternal twin sister. Assistant coach Tyrone Perry also has twin fraternal siblings.

Transfer Tales--Part I, II & III

This year's squad carries three players with unique playing backgrounds in redshirt sophomore Arek Deng, junior Kristy Gaines and red-shirt junior Geneva Livingston.

◆ Deng, native of Sudan, is eligible this year after transferring from Maryland. As a Terp, Deng appeared in four games in 2001-02, before a broken ankle ended her season.

◆ Gaines also has a Maryland background in her collegiate career. Gaines' story is that of a journey-man. A native of Newman, GA, Gaines began her career at Southern Mississippi in 2000-01 before transferring to Maryland and taking a redshirt year. Gaines, who never saw action at Maryland, then transferred to Hagerstown (MD) Junior College and averaged 16.1 points and 7.8 rebounds per game last season.

◆ Livingston comes to Delaware from the University of New Hampshire where she averaged 10.4 ppg as the team's No. 2 scorer. She will sit out the 2003-04 season per NCAA transfer regulations.
