Records Watch

Senior Tiara Malcom ranks 12th with 1,129 points among the career scoring leaders at Delaware. She needs 52 points to move into the top 10 and 318 points to break into the top five. Malcom has recorded 13 double-doubles in her career (UD is 9-4 in those games). Fellow senior Julie Sailer needs 145 points to reach the 1,000 career point plateau. She would become the 20th Delaware women's basketball player to score 1,000 points in a career. Head coach Tina Martin needs four wins to reach 150 career wins all-time at Delaware.

Reaching for the Top

The Blue Hens were selected second in the CAAPre-season Media Poll while senior forward Tiara Malcom was selected the league's Pre-season Player of the Year. Malcom was joined on the first team by Shareese Grant of Old Dominion, Amaka Agugua of Hofstra, Lesley Dickinson of James Madison, and Kacy O'Brien of Towson. The second team consisted of Meredith Alexis of James Madison, Catherine Scanlon of Drexel, Kyra Kaylor and Kyle DeHaven of William & Mary, and Lauren Hogan of Virginia Commonwealth.

Going Deep

Sophomore Alena Koshansky is making the shots from behind the arc so far this season. Koshansky is 10-19 from three point range so far this season for a percentage of .526. She is third in the CAA in three point field goal percentage and tied for fifth in three point field goals made. Koshansky went 4-for-7 from three point range against Georgetown which was just one shy of her career best from that area.

Sophomore Studs

Sophomores Tyresa Smith and Alena Koshansky have been a large part of the Blue Hens success early on this season. Smith is the second leading scorer on the team with 10.3 ppg and 4.2 rpg. Smith has also dished out a team leading 21 assists, 6 blocks, and 22 steals. Smith established a new career high in points and rebounds with her double-double vs. Stony Brook (18 pts and 10 boards). Koshansky has been deadly both from three point range (10 of 19) and from the foul line (19 of 23). Koshansky's four three pointers vs. Georgetown were just one shy of her career best.

Seniors Stand Tall

It was the backcourt tandem of Tiara Malcom and Tiffany Young which led the Blue Hens to the 69-59 win over UNC Greensboro at the Arizona Tournament. Both seniors scored 17 points in the game with Malcom doing her damage from the foul line going 9-for-10 while Young led the way on the boards with eight.

If it's Free, I'll make it

Last year the Blue Hens shot 70% from the charity stripe. In the season opener, the Hens picked up where they left off, shooting 86% from the free throw line. The Blue Hens have three players ranked in the top 15 of the CAA in free throw percentage. Alena Koshansky is shooting .826 from the line while Tiara Malcom is shooting .816. Tiffany Young rounds out that group by shooting .808 from the line.

Topping the MAAC

The Blue Hens improved to 5-0 in the last two seasons vs. the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference with their win over Fairfield. Last year the Blue Hens registered a perfect 3-0 mark against the MAAC. This year Delaware has registered a 63-49 win over Loyola (MD) and the 76-54 victory over Fairfield.

Delaware Basketball Tradition

Delaware women's basketball has recorded six consecutive winning seasons, a seventh would be a program record. The program has recorded 20-win seasons in three of its last four campaigns and has made postseason tournament appearances three times in the last four years.

There's No Place Like Home

Having four home losses in a season is somewhat of an anomaly for the Blue Hens. The last time the Hens lost four games at home in the same season dates back to 1998-99 when they were still in the America East conference. Despite its four losses last season at home, Delaware's home record is nothing to scoff at. Since the 1999-00 season, the Blue Hens are 55-7 at the Bob Carpenter Center. Delaware has won over 88% of its home contests over the last four years (42-6) and over 72% in the last seven years (70-15).

The Maryland Connection

For the second time in three years, the Blue Hens will welcome a transfer from the University of Maryland to the Carpenter Center. Two years ago it was center Arek Deng joining the Blue Hen mix. This year its forward Chrissy Fisher joining the squad. Fisher will have to sit out this season due to NCAA transfer rules but should provide depth in the backcourt next year.

Black is Golden for the Hens

Amanda Blackstone has made her impact felt in two games this season for the Blue Hens. In the first game against Loyola (MD), Blackstone scored six points and grabbed two rebounds. Against Georgetown, Blackstone provided a spark off the bench, pouring in 14 points and pulling down nine boards. She tied for the team lead in both of those categories on Saturday and her 14 points were just three shy of her career-best.

Impressive Resume

This year's freshman class brings an impressive resume to the Delaware basketball program. Melissa Czorniewy scored over 1,000 points at Holy Angels in New Jersey and was a McDonald's All-American finalist. Courtney Irving was the first player at Wilmington Charter here in Delaware to score 1,000 points in a career. Katie Kline was a McDonald's All-American nominee on her way to scoring 2,110 points and grabbing 1,100 rebounds at Pennsville High School in New Jersey.

Picking Up Where She Left Off

Senior forward Tiara Malcom has picked up right where she left off last season. Malcom leads the team with 15.5 ppg and 6.7 rpg so far this season. She has scored in double figures in all of the games this season. Malcom just missed recording the double-double in the game against Georgetown with 14 points and nine rebounds. She has played in 96 consecutive games and the Blue Hens own a 68-

28 mark with Malcom in those contests.

It Runs in the Family

Center Arek Deng is one of eight children and basketball must run in her family's genes. Her older brother, Ajou, played for the Fairfield basketball team while her younger brother, Luol, is a member of the Chicago Bulls who is averaging 16.7 points per game in six NBAcontests so far this season and was an All-American at Duke. Also, her cousin, Gai, plays for the Fairfield men's basketball team. Gai, a 6-9 center, is averaging 14 points per game and 7.5 rebounds per game in two games this season for Fairfield.

Will it be a December to Remember?

Finally, the calendar has reached December for the Blue Hens. While in the past two seasons Delaware has gone 5-0 in the month of December, this December did not start out so hot, with the Hens falling to Weber State. Delaware showed why it likes the month so much by bouncing back the next day for the win over UNCG. With the win over Fairfield, the Blue Hens are 2-1 in the month of December.

Keep it Below 70

The Blue Hens like to keep it below 70, and they are not talking about the temperature. Last year when the Hens could keep an opponent under 70 points in a game, the team boasted a record of 19-4. If Delaware scored less than 70 points in a game, the team recorded a mark of 17-8.

Night is Alright

After playing the first two games of the year during the day, the Blue Hens opened the night time part of their schedule with a huge 83-58 win over Stony Brook. In the past two seasons the Blue Hens have compiled a mark of 23-14 in night games. Delaware has a slightly better mark in games played during the day at 18-6 over the last two years.

Defense, Defense, and More Defense

The 25 points that Loyola scored against Delaware last year were the lowest opponent point total in the CAA in the last five years. The Blue Hens held the Greyhounds to just seven points in the first half, which was one of the lowest halftime scores in all of Division I women's basketball last season. Following back to back double digit losses to William & Mary and Old Dominion last year, the Blue Hen defense made a statement vs. Hofstra by holding the Pride to 15 points in the first half and without a field goal in the first 12 minutes of the contest.

Twin Factor

Experience and excellent credentials may not be the only requirement to be a coach at Delaware. Having a twin in the family may also be a prerequisite. Head coach Tina Martin and Associate head coach Jeanine Radice are both twins -- Martin is an identical twin, Teresa while Radice has a fraternal twin sister.

It's My Party

Sophomore Alena Koshansky is hoping to have something extra special to celebrate on her 20th birthday. Koshansky's birthday will fall the day after the CAA Championships March 13. Melissa Czorniewy (12/2), Geneva Livingston (1/1), Arek Deng (1/13), Aminata Dieye (1/21), and Tiara Malcom (1/24) also have birthdays during the season.
