Gameday Interviews

Delaware head coach Monté Ross holds a press conference in the BCC auditorium approximately 10 minutes after the game following a cooling off period and his postgame show with the Blue Hen Basketball Radio Network.

The visiting team will hold its press conference first in the auditorium.

Selected UD players will also be available in the auditorium as well as Coach Ross following the visiting team. The University of Delaware locker room is closed to members of the media during regular season competition.

Monté Ross will not be available immediately prior to games unless an interview is scheduled beforehand. Media wishing to conduct pregame interviews with him are encouraged to tape them prior to gameday or at a shootaround the day of the game. Pregame interview requests for players or assistant coaches should also be made prior to gameday. Approval is on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Gameday Interviews

All requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made through the Athletics Media Relations Office and at least one day in advance so that academic or athletic schedules are not disrupted.

CAA Media Teleconference

The CAA hosts a media teleconference each Monday beginning on January 3 and running through February 28. The teleconference, which features all 12 of the conference's coaches in 10-minute slots, is held on Monday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. This season Monté Ross is scheduled to take calls from 11:30 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. The phone number to take part in the call is (877) 805-0692. Members of the media should contact Rob Washburn (804-754-1616 x19) at the CAA office with any questions. Comments from the call will be available on www.caasports.com each Monday afternoon.

Delaware travels to Ithaca, N.Y. to face the Cornell Big Red on Wednesday at 7 p.m. The Blue Hens will play their home opener on Friday, November 19 against Howard at 8 p.m.

Delaware vs. Ohio University Last Meeting

Delaware could not overcome 21 turnovers and Ohio University's high-scoring tandem of forward DeV Vaughn Washington and guard Armon Bassett and dropped an 86-70 decision on December 12, 2009 at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Washington and Bassett combined to score 39 of Ohio University's 49 points in the second half as the Bobcats pulled away to snap a three-game losing streak. Bassett hit 8 of 12 shots from the field and finished with a career-high 27 points while Washington connected on 8 of 10 shots from the field and recorded a career-high 21 points.

Tommy Freeman also added 12 points for the Bobcats, while OU scoring leader D.J. Cooper (13.3 ppg) was held to just two points.

Delaware, which shot nearly 50 percent from the field (24 of 50) and held a 34-30 advantage on the boards, could not overcome the turnovers and 18 of 30 shooting from the foul line.

Alphonso Dawson hit on 9 of 16 shots from the field to finish with a team-high 20 points, while Jawan Carter added 12 points and five assists. Edwin Santiago came off the bench to score a season-high 11 points, and Kelvin McNeil scored nine points and pulled a game-high nine rebounds.

The Hens fell behind 37-28 at halftime and never could get closer than eight points in the second half as turnovers consistently foiled the offense.

Delaware went through a nearly four-minute scoreless stretch early in the first half and fell behind quickly by a 12-4 margin midway through the stanza. The Hens recovered and trailed just 29-24 with three minutes left but the Bobcats finished the period on an 8-4 run, including a lay-in on an inbounds play by Washington off a feed from Cooper just before the halftime horn.

The Bobcats extended their lead to 16 points at 47-31 just over three minutes into the second half as Washington scored eight points during a 10-3 run, including two dunks to open the half.

Ohio University held a double-digit lead for the first nine minutes before a 10-0 run by the Hens, highlighted by back-to-back three-pointers by Dawson, narrowed the gap to 54-46 with 10:55 remaining.

But Ohio University answered with a 12-4 run, which included eight straight free throws, to push the lead back up to 66-50 with 8:27 remaining. Delaware never got closer than 13 points the rest of the way as the Bobcats upped the margin to as many as 18 points in the final minute of action.

Delaware in Season Openers

Delaware is 51-54 in its 105 season openers, including a 76-56 home loss to Temple last season. The Blue Hens went 3-7 in season openers during the last decade. UD head coach Monté Ross will be looking for his first win in five tries during a season opener.

Blue Hens Face Tough Opening Stretch

Delaware opens its 2010-11 campaign with a pair of road games against teams that posted victories in last spring's NCAA Tournament. Ohio University used a pair of overtime victories during its run to the MAC Championship in March, and the 13th-seeded Bobcats toppled fourth-seeded Georgetown, 97-83, in the first round of the Big Dance. Ohio was picked to win the MAC East Division and the conference tournament in this year's preseason poll.

The Blue Hens then head to Cornell, the three-time Ivy League champions. The Big Red advanced to the Sweet 16 as a No. 12 seed with double figure wins over Temple and Wisconsin. Cornell ended the season ranked No. 17 in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and won an Ivy League record 29 games. The Big Red was picked third in this year's Ivy League Preseason Poll.

Delaware vs. the MAC

Delaware is 5-11 against Mid-American Conference teams, including 1-2 versus Ohio University. The Blue Hens are also 1-1 vs. Buffalo, 0-1 vs. Bowling Green, 1-0 vs. Central Michigan, 2-6 vs. Toledo, and 0-1 vs. Western Michigan. Monté Ross is 3-2 against the MAC, with the three games against the Bobcats and two wins over Toledo.

Johnson To Miss 2-3 Weeks With Torn Meniscus

Senior point guard Brian Johnson suffered a torn left meniscus during the Blue Hens' second practice of the season and will miss the first few games of the season. The injury occurred in the same knee as his ACL injury that forced Johnson to miss all of last season, but the injuries are not related.

Delaware hopes to have Johnson back in the lineup for the Lafayette (Nov. 27) or Old Dominion (Dec. 4) contests.

Johnson Brings Experience To PG Spot

UD senior Brian Johnson brings a wealth of experience to the point guard position for the Blue Hens. Johnson has started all 94 games of his first three seasons, the fourth most by a point guard in Division I.

Point Guard	School	Games Started
Taylor Battle	Penn State	97
Anthony Nelson	Niagara	96
Michael Thompson	Northwestern	95
Brian Johnson	Delaware	94
Rahmon Fletcher	Green Bay	92
Josh White	North Texas	91
Justin Robinson	Rider	91
Kyle Lewis	Denver	86
Chad Tomko	UNC Wilmington	86
Joe Jakubowski	Bowling Green	85
Kalin Lucas	Michigan State	85

A Grand Trio?

Delaware already has two members of its backcourt that have surpassed the 1,000-point mark in Alphonso Dawson (1,155 points) and Jawan Carter (1,046 points). Last year marked the ninth time in Blue Hen history that a UD team featured two 1,000-point scorers.

Fellow senior Brian Johnson enters the season with 911 points, just 89 shy of the 1,000-point milestone. Delaware has never featured a team containing three 1,000-point scorers.

UD Returns Majority of Scoring

Delaware returns its top seven scorers from a year ago and every player except Adam Pegg, who transferred to Stetson in the offseason after averaging 5.0 points and 2.6 rebounds per game.

The Blue Hens return 92.1 percent of their scoring from a year ago and 92.5 percent of their rebounding. Those numbers do not factor in the return of Brian Johnson, who averaged 10.0 points and 2.5 rebounds during the 2008-09 season.

Saddler Slated To Start in Blue Hen Debut

Guard Devon Saddler is expected to start in his Blue Hen debut, and would become the sixth UD freshman to start his first career game during Monté Ross' five years in Newark.

Brian Johnson and Darrell Johnson each started the 2006 season opener, while D.J. Boney and Alphonso Dawson both started the 2007 opener. Jamelle Hagins started last year's season-opener against Temple.

Carter Returns To Shooting Guard Spot For Hens

Pressed into duty as UD's point guard last season following the ACL injury to Brian Johnson, Carter returns to his familiar shooting guard spot this year.

Carter did it all for the Blue Hens in 2009-10, leading the team with 18.2 points, 151 assists, 74 three-pointers made, 171 free throws made, and 40 steals.

A second team All-CAA selection last season, Carter led all of Division I with 39.2 minutes played per game. He finished second in the CAA with 4.9 assists per game, third with 18.2 points per game, and fourth with an 80.7 free throw percentage and 2.4 three-pointers made per game.

Carter reached double figures in 23 consecutive games, the fifth longest streak in UD history, while he eclipsed the 20-point mark in five straight contests from January 23 through February 8.

A Senior-Laden Backcourt

Few teams will be able to match the Blue Hens' experience in the backcourt, as Jawan Carter and Brian Johnson are two of five seniors looking to challenge for playing time.

Alphonso Dawson will battle for a starting position after leading the Blue Hens with 180 rebounds and ranking second on the team with 12.1 points per game a year ago. He reached double figures in 21 games, including three games of over 20 points. Dawson tied his career-high by pouring in 28 points during the Blue Hens' double over time triumph over Penn on November 28.

Classmate D.J. Boney, who appeared in all 31 games while starting 23 a year ago, will be in the mix after contributing 5.7 points and 2.5 boards. The fifth senior, Edwin Santiago, chipped in 3.2 points while appearing in 25 games in 2009-10.

McCullar, Hagins To Lead UD Frontcourt

Junior Hakim McCullar and sophomore Jamelle Hagins are expected to start in the Blue Hen frontcourt this afternoon. McCullar appeared in all 31 games while starting 17 last year, averaging 5.1 points and 3.1 rebounds per game. He reached double figures in four games on the season, including a season-high 12 points in the regular season finale at Towson.

Hagins saw action in 30 games and started 25, while his 30 blocked shots set a UD single season freshman record. Hagins averaged 5.4 points and 5.3 rebounds per outing, and he posted double-doubles against Delaware State (18 points/13 rebounds) and Boston University (11 points/11 rebounds).

McNeil, Brinkley Bounce Back From Injuries

The Blue Hens' frontcourt depth last season was dealt a major blow when Kelvin McNeil and Josh Brinkley each missed the final month of the season with injuries.

McNeil underwent arthroscopic knee surgery, while Brinkley suffered a stress fracture in his left foot. Both are healthy entering the 2010-11 season.

McNeil, who appeared in the first 20 games of the season while starting 18, was the Blue Hens' leading rebounder with 6.2 boards per game. He ranked third on the squad by averaging 6.0 points per contest, and reached double figures in four games on the year.

Brinkley averaged 5.1 points and 3.1 rebounds while appearing in each of the first 22 games during his freshman campaign. He reached double figures three times on the year, and posted season-highs of 17 points and eight rebounds on January 16 against Towson, when he connected on 8 of 9 shots from the field.

Pegues Returns To Newark on UD Coaching Staff

Mike Pegues, the all-time leading scorer in Delaware history, returned to his alma mater in April and is currently serving in his first season as an assistant coach with the Blue Hens.

Pegues tallied 2,030 career points and became the first player to be named conference Player of the Year when he earned the honors in the 1999-2000 season for the America East Conference. He was inducted into the UD Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007.

The only three-time first team all-conference selection in school history, Pegues led the Blue Hens to America East titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1998 and 1999, and to the NIT in 2000.

Pegues went on to play professionally in Italy, New Zealand, England and Argentina, and spent one season in the Continental Basketball Association.

He served as an assistant coach for three seasons at Bishop O'Connell High School before spending last season at VCU as the Rams' video coordinator.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 596 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made one three-pointer in all but five games since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87.

Blue Hens Feature Home-Grown Talent

The Blue Hens have five players on their roster that played high school basketball in the state of Delaware: Jawan Carter (Tatnall), D.J. Boney (Tatnall), Edwin Santiago (Sanford), Samer Madarani (Sanford) and Will Townsville (Glasgow). In fact, Carter is the leading scorer in Delaware history with 2,464 career points.

The Blue Hens have now had five players from Delaware in three consecutive seasons; the previous time a UD team featured at least five players from the state of Delaware was during the 1954-55 season.

UD HEAD COACH MONTÉ ROSS

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his fourth season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2009-10. This is his first head coach position after an outstanding career as a Division I assistant coach for 13 seasons.

In May, 2009 the University announced that Ross received a contract extension through the 2014-15 season.

Taking over a program that had lost 20 games each of the previous two seasons, Ross had his struggles in his first season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2006-07 as a young and depleted squad posted a record of 5-26 and went 3-13 in Colonial Athletic Association play to finish in 12th place.

But Ross guided an impressive turnaround in Year Two and made a strong case for CAA Coach of the Year honors. Still guiding a young squad, the Blue Hens were the second most improved squad in the league, posting a mark of 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA standings with a record of 9-9.

The Hens improved nine games from the previous season, tripling their league win total and posting just as many overall wins as the previous two years combined. Ross also led his team to a first round CAA Tournament victory as the Blue Hens knocked off long-time rival Drexel 60-51. Leading the squad was third team All-CAA forwards Herb Courtney and Marc Egerson, CAA All-Rookie pick Alphonso Dawson, and one of the league's top point guards in Brian Johnson.

Delaware won its first five league games during the season and among its CAA wins were a home win over league champion and NCAA Tournament participant George Mason, a home win over regular season runner-up UNC Wilmington, and an early season road win over tournament runner-up William & Mary.

Delaware went 13-19 overall and 6-12 during the 2008-09 season, but the year included impressive home victories over VCU and George Mason. The Blue Hens also posted an overtime win over Drexel, while Egerson was named first team all-conference and all-district.

Ross, 39, served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University the previous 10 seasons before taking over at Delaware, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members when he was hired. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Things are going pretty fast now, but I am prepared to handle it. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. I want to make sure that our players' experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture.

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said then-UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson on his hiring. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players. We are confident that he will bring the University of Delaware men's basketball program to prominence in the CAA."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season.

Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West.

Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross and assistant coach Stephen Stewart visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, Pa. with their son Justin, 10, and daughter Lauren, 8.
