Postgame Interviews

Delaware head coach Monté Ross holds a press conference in the BCC auditorium approximately 10 minutes after the game following a cooling off period and his postgame show with the Blue Hen Basketball Radio Network.

The visiting team will hold its press conference first in the auditorium.

Selected UD players will also be available in the auditorium as well as Coach Ross following the visiting team. The University of Delaware locker room is closed to members of the media during regular season competition.

Monté Ross will not be available immediately prior to games unless an interview is scheduled beforehand. Media wishing to conduct pregame interviews with him are encouraged to tape them prior to gameday or at a shootaround the day of the game. Pregame interview requests for players or assistant coaches should also be made prior to gameday. Approval is on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Gameday Interviews

All requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made through the Athletics Media Relations Office and at least one day in advance so that academic or athletic schedules are not disrupted.

CAA Media Teleconference

The CAA hosts a media teleconference each Monday beginning on January 3 (first call is Tuesday) and running through February 27. The teleconference, which features all 12 of the conference's coaches in 10-minute slots, is held on Monday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. This season Monté Ross is scheduled to take calls from 11:30 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. The phone number to take part in the call is (877) 805-0692. Members of the media should contact Rob Washburn (804-754-1616 x19) at the CAA office with any questions. Comments from the call will be available on www.caasports.com each Monday afternoon.

Delaware vs. Howard

Delaware leads the all-time series with Howard, 3-2, and the Blue Hens have won the last three meetings with the Bison. Howard posted a 91-71 victory on Jan. 6, 1979 at the Fairfield Classic, and recorded an 87-73 triumph in Washington on Jan. 5, 1980.

Delaware earned a 93-74 victory at Howard on Nov. 25, 1998, and posed a 97-52 win over the Bison in Newark on Dec. 21, 1999. Last season the Blue Hens shut down Howard, 66-34, in their home opener on Nov. 19, 2010.

Last Time Out

Khalid Lewis scored all of his game-high 18 points in the second half and the Delaware defense shut down a vaunted La Salle three-point shooting attack to claim a thrilling 70-66 victory at the Bob Carpenter Center Monday night.

The Blue Hens (5-4), who won their second straight game and their third in the last four outings to remain unbeaten at home in four appearances this season, broke a 60-60 tie and grabbed the lead for good with just under four minutes left on back-to-back jumpers from Kyle Anderson. Delaware then hung on down the stretch to snap La Salle's five-game winning streak.

Lewis didn't even attempt a shot in 13 minutes of action in the opening half. But he saved it all for the second stanza as he knocked down 5 of 6 shots from the field including two three-pointers, connected on 6 of 8 free throws including two big ones with 20 seconds left that gave the Hens a three-point lead, and dished out a game-high four assists.

Devon Saddler matched Lewis with 18 points while pulling down 10 rebounds to offset a nine-turnover night and record his first career double-double along the way. Jamelle Hagins posted his sixth straight double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds to go with five blocked shots.

La Salle (7-4), which lost for the first time since a 51-44 setback against Robert Morris back on Nov. 25, had entered the game ranked 15th in the nation in three-point field goals made with nine per outing. But the Explorers were cold from the outset and knocked down just 2 of 16 shots from long range during the game.

La Salle's leading scorer, Ramon Galloway, was just 4 of 20 from the field and finished with 11 points and eight rebounds. A 52 percent shooter from long range entering the game, he connected on just 1 of 6 three-pointers.

Five La Salle players did reach double figures as Devon White came off the bench to score 15 points before fouling out in the final seconds, Earl Pettis added 12 points, Jerrell Wright contributed 11 points and eight rebounds, and Sam Mills chipped in with 11 points.

The Blue Hens also downed the Explorers for the third time in the last four meetings in a series that had previously been dominated by the Explorers.

Delaware trailed almost the entire opening half, going down by as many as 11 points at 29-18 with 4:44 left before a late rally pulled the Hens to within 33-27 at the break. The Hens outscored La Salle 9-4 to close the half, getting two baskets from Hagins and three points from backup Kelvin McNeil during the run.

Lewis took over immediately in the second half, knocking down Delaware's first three field goals of the stanza and scoring eight points in the first 2:27 to knot the score at 37-37.

La Salle answered with a 6-2 run to regain the lead and stayed in front until back-to-back three-pointers from Lewis and Saddler gave Delaware its first lead of the half at 50-47 with 12:23 left.

The score was tied five more times over the next six minutes, the last time at 60-60 with 6:58 remaining on a jumper by White. But after a nearly three-minute drought where neither team scored, Delaware got hot as Anderson hit a long jumper from the right side with 3:56 left to break the tie for good and followed with a three-pointer from almost the exact same spot just 40 seconds later for a 65-60 advantage.

Two Lewis free throws with 2:12 remaining kept the Delaware cushion at five points before La Salle's Mills knocked down a three-pointer with 1:23 left and hit one of two free throws 37 seconds later to narrow the gap to 67-66.

La Salle had a chance to take the lead following a Blue Hen turnover, but Lewis stripped Tyreek Duren on a drive to the basket and was immediately fouled.

Lewis hit two from the line with 20 seconds remaining to push the lead up to 69-66 and after Mills missed a three-pointer with nine seconds left, Hagins hit a free throw with seven seconds left to preserve the victory.

Delaware vs. Howard Last Meeting

Delaware broke out to a 17-point halftime lead and then used a 25-0 run in the second half to overwhelm Howard and run off with a 66-34 victory in the Blue Hens' 2010-11 home opener at the Bob Carpenter Center on Nov. 19, 2010.

Jawan Carter bombed away for a game-high 24 points on a school-record eight three pointers as the Blue Hens posted their most one-sided victory since a 75-40 win over James Madison on Jan. 15, 2005.

Jamelle Hagins scored six points, pulled 10 rebounds, and recorded six of the Blue Hens' 12 blocked shots on the night. Hakim McCullar added nine points and six rebounds while Devon Saddler contributed six points, four rebounds, and a team-high eight assists.

Howard, which shot just 20 percent from the field for the game including 2 of 13 from beyond the three-point line, got team-highs of 16 points and 10 rebounds from Mike Phillips but the forward was just 6 of 23 from the field. No other Bison player managed to score more than four points as Howard connected on just 6 of 34 second half shots from the field (17.6 percent).

The 34 points allowed was the lowest for a Delaware team since the Blue Hens defeated Ursinus 69-32 way back on Dec. 21, 1961.

Carter knocked down 8 of 14 three-pointers, tying the UD single game record of eight set by Billy Wells vs. Hartford on Feb. 24, 2000, while his 14 attempts set a new Delaware standard.

Delaware used a 9-1 run late in the first half to take control and went into the break up 33-16.

Phillips helped Howard cut the lead to 33-18 on a layup just 38 seconds into the second half, but the Bison would miss their next 17 shots from the field before finally scoring again on a free throw by Phillips. By that time the Hens had built the lead to 58-19 thanks to the 25-0 run. Howard did not convert a field goal again until Bryce Fluellen knocked down a three-pointer with 9:09 left to play.

Carter opened the run with a three-pointer and added four more treys, including one with 9:55 left that gave the Hens their biggest lead of the night at 40 points at 58-18. Hagins led the defense during the run as he swatted away five shots and pulled six rebounds in a stretch of 7:34.

Hens Shut Down La Salle 3-Point Attack

La Salle entered Monday's game ranked ninth in Division I with a 42.1 three-point field goal percentage and tied for 15th with 9.0 three-pointers made per game. However the Blue Hens limited the Explorers to just 2 of 16 (12.5%) shooting from behind the arc during Monday's 70-66 victory.

Lewis Lights Up Explorers

Khalid Lewis did not score during the first half of Monday's win over La Salle, not attempting a shot from the field while missing his two free throw attempts.

However the freshman exploded for a career-high 18 points in the second half, going 5 of 6 from the field, 2 of 2 from behind the arc, and 6 of 8 from the foul line. He also dished out four assists and recorded three steals in the victory.

Delaware led by just a point with 30 seconds left, but Lewis stripped Explorers guard Tyreek Duren on a drive to the basket. He was then immediately fouled, and hit two free throws to put the Blue Hens up three.

Hagins With Six Straight Double-Doubles

Jamelle Hagins has recorded double-doubles in each of his last six games, averaging 14.8 points and 13.2 rebounds in that stretch. He had not reached double digits in scoring in more than two straight games prior to the Cornell game, but he has scored in double figures in each of the last seven contests.

Hagins is the first Blue Hen to record double-doubles in six consecutive games since Harding Nana had eight in a row from Dec. 21, 2004 through Jan. 15, 2005.

Saddler Records First Career Double-Double

Devon Saddler scored 18 points and grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds against La Salle to record his first career double-double.

Hens Improve to 4-0 at Home

Delaware's win over La Salle on Monday gave the Blue Hens their first 4-0 start at home since the 1999-2000 team opened with nine straight home wins. Conversely, UD is 1-4 away from the Carpenter Center the season.

	Home (4-0)	Away (1-4)
Scoring	73.5	61.6
Field Goal %	46.8	39.8
3-Point %	34.9	28.3
Free Throw %	70.0	67.4

Delaware Shuts Down Hornets

Delaware limited Delaware State to just 42 points during the 58-42 win on December 10, its lowest point total allowed away from Newark since a 59-39 victory over Colgate on Dec. 27, 1985 at the Albright Invitational.

The Hornets' 42 points and 25.9 field goal percentage are the lowest allowed by UD since a 66-34 win over Howard on Nov. 19, 2010 when the Bison shot just 20.0 percent.

Hagins Enjoys Playing At Memorial Hall

Jamelle Hagins had the most productive game of his freshman season at Delaware State on Dec. 1, 2009, posting career-highs of 18 points and 13 rebounds. While he surpassed the rebounds total last season, his 18 points stood as a career-high...until this year's visit to DSU's Memorial Hall. Hagins again set career-bests of 21 points and 19 boards against the Hornets, while also blocking five shots.

Hagins Named CAA Co-Player of the Week

Following double-doubles at Penn and Delaware State, UD junior forward Jamelle Hagins was named the Colonial Athletic Association Men's Basketball Co-Player of the Week on Dec. 12.

Hagins averaged 15.5 points, 15.0 rebounds, and 3.5 blocks during the Blue Hens' two games on the week, shooting 68.4 percent (13 of 19) from the floor and hitting six of his seven free throw attempts.

Hagins scored 10 points and grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds during the 69-60 loss at Penn, going 4 of 7 from the field and adding a pair of blocked shots. He then produced a monster game during the win at Delaware State, reaching career-highs with 21 points and 19 rebounds. Hagins went 9 of 12 from the field and blocked five shots while also adding a pair of emphatic dunks as he controlled the point against the Hornets.

The award was the first CAA Player of the Week honor for Hagins, who shared honors with Keith Rendleman of UNCW.

UD Defeats CAA Favorite in Opener Again

Last season Delaware's only CAA game in December came at home against preseason favorite Old Dominion, and the Blue Hens took advantage of the opportunity with a 75-67 win over the Monarchs.

Delaware equaled that feat this season, defeating CAA preseason favorite Drexel, 71-60, on Dec. 3 at the Carpenter Center.

Hens Light Up Scoreboard vs. Drexel

Drexel entered the Dec. 3 game leading the CAA by allowing just 55.8 points per game, and the Dragons had not allowed more than 62 points through their first five games. However the Blue Hens scored 71 against Drexel, shooting 46.0 percent (23-50) from the field.

Saddler Leads UD in First Six Games

Devon Saddler led Delaware in scoring during each of the first six games of the season. Jawan Carter was the last Blue Hen to accomplish that feat, as he led UD in eight consecutive games from January 23 through February 16, 2010.

The last Blue Hen to lead UD in scoring in each of the first six games of a season was current assistant coach Mike Pegues, who paced Delaware in the first six games of the 1999-2000 campaign.

Saddler had also reached the 20-point mark in five consecutive games, the first Blue Hen to reach 20 points in five straight since Carter from Jan. 23 through Feb. 8, 2010.

However both streaks were snapped on Dec. 7 at Penn, as Saddler was limited to just six points.

Freshman Contributing For Delaware

Of the nine players who have seen action for the Blue Hens this season, four are freshmen.

	Points	Rebounds	Minutes
Freshmen (4)	30.9%	25.5%	44.5%
Sophomores (1)	31.2%	11.3%	17.3%
Juniors (3)	36.0%	59.4%	33.8%
Seniors (1)	1.8%	3.9%	4.4%

Hagins Dominant on Glass

Jamelle Hagins has grabbed at least seven rebounds during all nine games this season, and has reached double figures in the last six. He currently leads the CAA with 11.4 rebounds per game and 8.9 defensive rebounds per game, and is tied for eighth with 2.6 offensive boards per game.

Through Tuesday's games, Hagins was tied for fifth in the nation with 11.4 rebounds per game.

Saddler Tied For 14th in Division I in Scoring

Through Tuesday's games, Blue Hen sophomore guard Devon Saddler was tied for 14th in the nation with 20.9 points per game.

Hagins Holds Block Party

Jamelle Hagins blocked a season-high five shots against Boston University, Delaware State and La Salle, and currently ranks second in the CAA and 21st in Division I with 2.8 blocks per game.

Hagins had blocked a shot in 19 consecutive games, the third longest streak in school history, through the Radford game but did not block a shot against either Villanova or Cornell. John Bennett blocked a shot in 32 straight games in 1998-99, while Spencer Dunkley had a block in 27 straight from 1991-93.

Delaware Basketball on the Net

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through www.bluehens.com.

Box scores and game stories are usually posted within an hour of the conclusion of each UD basketball game, while cumulative statistics are also updated and posted after each contest. Media notes are available in a PDF format within 24 hours of the start of each game. In addition, livestats are available for all UD home games.

Delaware Basketball on the Radio

For the eighth straight season all University of Delaware men's basketball games will be carried on FM radio. All games will be carried on 94.7 WDSO. Mike Corey (play-by-play) and Glenn Frazer (color) will call the action.

Additionally, most Blue Hen men's basketball games are broadcast by the UD student radio station, WVUD 91.3 FM. Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through the UD athletics website.

Delaware Basketball on Television

The Blue Hens will have six games televised this season (five locally). The Comcast Network will televise the Delaware's home game against Drexel on December 3, while Comcast SportsNet-Mid Atlantic will broadcast the January 7 game at William & Mary.

The Comcast Network will show the Blue Hens' home contest versus VCU on January 14, as well as the road game at Drexel on January 28. TCN will also show the February 4 tilt at James Madison and the regular season finale against James Madison on February 25.

Additionally, road games at Villanova on November 18 and at George Mason on January 18 will be available online at ESPN3.com.

Additionally, The Comcast Network will televise all four CAA Tournament quarterfinal games and both semifinal games, while ESPN will broadcast the conference championship game.

Lewis Coming On Strong

Blue Hen freshman point guard Khalid Lewis reached double figures for the first time in his career by scoring 10 points at Penn, and also handed out a season-best seven assists versus the Quakers. He then reached his season high with 18 points, all in the second half, during the win over La Salle. Lewis leads the Blue Hens with 31 assists and seven steals, ranks second with 33.1 minutes played, and is fourth with 7.1 points per game.

Lewis currently ranks seventh in the CAA with a 1.4 assist/turnover ratio and eighth with 3.4 assists per game.

Saddler Sets Career-High vs. Lafayette

Devon Saddler scored a career-high 32 points during the 81-78 victory over Lafayette on Nov. 26. The sophomore guard went 11 of 22 from the field, hit three 3-pointers, and finished 7 of 8 from the free throw line.

Saddler's 32 points are the most by a Blue Hen since Jawan Carter scored 35 during a 97-94 double overtime win at Penn on November 21, 2009.

Anderson Immediately Produces For Hens

After sitting out the season opener at Radford, Kyle Anderson scored 12 points at Villanova and added 11 versus Cornell. He then scored a season-high 16 points during the 81-78 victory over Lafayette, and went 4 of 5 from three-point range. Anderson is believed to be the first true freshman in school history to reach double figures in each of his first three collegiate games.

Anderson Clutch From Long Distance

Delaware led Cornell by one point late in the contest, but Kyle Anderson buried a three-pointer to make it a 62-58 game with 1:23 remaining. In their next game the Blue Hens were tied with Lafayette, 75-75, but Anderson drilled a go-ahead three-pointer with 30 seconds on the clock. Both treys were assisted by Devon Saddler.

On Monday Delaware and La Salle were tied 60-60, but Anderson drained a jumper and a three-pointer on consecutive possessions to put the Blue Hens in front for good, 65-60, with 3:16 remaining.

Anderson currently ranks fourth in the CAA with 2.5 three-pointers made per game and is 11th with a 37.0 three-point percentage.

Saddler, Anderson Earn CAA Weekly Honors

Devon Saddler was named the CAA Co-Player of the Week while Kyle Anderson earned CAA Rookie of the Week honors on Nov. 28 after the backcourt duo led the Blue Hens to a pair of wins over Cornell and Lafayette.

Saddler averaged 26.5 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists on the week, and scored a career-high 32 points against Lafayette. Anderson added 13.5 points and went 7 of 12 from three-point range, and hit a crucial three-pointer late in each of the Blue Hen victories.

Hens Find Shooting Touch vs. Lafayette

Delaware shot a season-high 53.6 percent against Lafayette, going 30 of 56 from the field. That is the Blue Hens' highest percentage since shooting 57.4 percent at Delaware State on December 1, 2009.

Delaware Wins Home Opener

Following the victory over Cornell, Delaware is now 14-6 in home openers at the BCC. The Blue Hens had dropped four consecutive home openers, but defeated Howard, 66-34, last season before the win over the Big Red.

Hens Fire Away From Deep At Villanova

Delaware attempted 32 three-pointers at Villanova (making 10), tied for the sixth most attempts in a game in Delaware history. Kyle Anderson was 4 of 9 from behind the arc, while Devon Saddler finished 3 of 10 and Jarvis Threatt was 3 of 9.

Clyburn Suspended Indefinitely

Prior to the season opener sophomore Kaleb Clyburn was suspended indefinitely due to a violation of team rules. Clyburn appeared in 17 games a year ago, contributing 13 points and seven assists.

King-Davis Likely To Redshirt Season

With four experienced players in the Delaware frontcourt, Blue Hen freshman forward Marvin King-Davis is expected to sit out this season as a redshirt. King-Davis was a first team All-District, first team All-Region, second team All-Metro, and second team All-State selection as a senior at Meadowbrook High School in Richmond, Va.

Threatt, Lewis Start in Debuts

Freshmen Jarvis Threatt and Khalid Lewis each started their Blue Hen debuts, becoming the seventh and eighth true freshmen to start their first collegiate game under head coach Monté Ross.

Brian Johnson and Darrell Johnson each started the 2006 season opener, while D.J. Boney and Alphonso Dawson both started the 2007 opener. Jamelle Hagins started the 2009 opener, while Devon Saddler started last year's opener.

This year featured the fifth time in Monté Ross' six seasons that his season-opening starting lineup included a true freshman.

Blue Hen Captains

Junior forwards Jamelle Hagins and Kelvin McNeil, along with sophomore guard Devon Saddler, have been named Blue Hen captains for the 2011-12 season. Saddler is the first sophomore to be named team captain since Mike Slattery in the 2002-03 season.

Jawan Carter Signs With Turkish Club

Former Delaware standout guard Jawan Carter signed with Darussafaka Cooper Tires of the Turkish basketball league's second division in early November. Carter was a third team All-CAA selection for the Blue Hens last season when he led the squad by averaging 16.0 points per game.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 636 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made at least one three-pointer in all but five games since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in the 1986-87 season.

Hens Picked Seventh in CAA Preseason Poll

Delaware was picked seventh in the CAA Preseason Poll announced October 18 at the league's Media Day at Champps-Pentagon Row Restaurant in Arlington, Va.

Head Coach Monté Ross

Sixth Season at Delaware • Winston-Salem State '92 • 58-107 Record

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his sixth season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2011-12. This is his first head coach position after an outstanding career as a Division I assistant coach for 13 seasons.

Taking over a program that had lost 20 games each of the previous two seasons, Ross had his struggles in his first season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2006-07 as a young and depleted squad posted a record of 5-26 and went 3-13 in Colonial Athletic Association play to finish in 12th place.

But Ross guided an impressive turnaround in Year Two and made a strong case for CAA Coach of the Year honors. Still guiding a young squad, the Blue Hens were the second most improved squad in the league, posting a mark of 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA standings with a record of 9-9.

The Hens improved nine games from the previous season, tripling their league win total and posting just as many overall wins as the previous two years combined. Ross also led his team to a first round CAA Tournament victory as the Blue Hens knocked off long-time rival Drexel 60-51. Leading the squad was third team All-CAA forwards Herb Courtney and Marc Egerson, CAA All-Rookie pick Alphonso Dawson, and one of the league's top point guards in Brian Johnson.

Delaware won its first five league games during the season and among its CAA wins were a home win over league champion and NCAA Tournament participant George Mason, a home win over regular season runner-up UNC Wilmington, and an early season road win over tournament runner-up William & Mary.

Delaware went 13-19 overall and 6-12 during the 2008-09 season, but the year included impressive home victories over VCU and George Mason. The Blue Hens also posted an overtime win over Drexel, while Egerson was named first team all-conference and all-district. The following season, the Blue Hens posted a record of 7-24, including wins over America East champion Vermont and Patriot League runner-up Lafayette.

Delaware posted a seven-win improvement during last year, going 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA with an 8-10 league mark. The Blue Hens won five straight games early in the campaign, including an impressive home victory over eventual league champion Old Dominion. Delaware advanced to the CAA Tournament Quarterfinals following a victory over Northeastern in the first round, while freshman Devon Saddler was named the league's Rookie of the Year.

Ross, 41, served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University for 10 seasons before taking over at Delaware, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members when he was hired. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. I want to make sure that our players' experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture."

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said then UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson on his hiring. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herrion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season.

Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West.

Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, Pa. with their son Justin, 12, and daughter, Lauren, 10.

RADFORD, VA. -- R.J. Price drained three-pointers on consecutive possessions down the stretch as Radford edged Delaware, 58-54, in the season opener for both squads at the Dedmon Center...In a back and forth second half Devon Saddler and Jamelle Hagins each hit two free throws, the second pair giving the Blue Hens a 53-51 advantage with 2:54 on the clock...However after each team came up empty during its next two possessions, Price connected from deep to put the Highlanders up a point with 1:11 remaining...Hagins then missed inside for UD, and after Radford ran down the shot clock, Price drained a three-pointer to make it a 57-53 game with 22 seconds to play...Khalid Lewis then grabbed an offensive rebound and was fouled, and he hit one of two from the line to bring Delaware within three...However Price was fouled with seven seconds left, and after missing his first attempt, hit his second to put the game out of reach...Saddler led the Blue Hens with 18 points but went just 5 of 22 from the field...Hagins narrowly missed a double-double with 17 points and a game-high nine rebounds, while also blocking a game-best three shots...Josh Brinkley contributed seven points and four rebounds for UD, while Larry Savage added six points and six boards in his Blue Hen debut...Price and Jareal Smith each scored 13 points to lead a balanced Radford attack, while Johnathan Edwards was the third Highlander in double figures with 10 points to go with a team-high eight rebounds...Delaware struggled all night from the field, connecting on just 28.8 percent (15 of 52) of its field goal attempts, including a 2 of 14 performance from behind the arc...However the Blue Hens stayed in the game by limiting Radford to only 32.8 percent shooting (19 of 58) from the floor...Both teams squandered opportunities at the foul line, as the Blue Hens went 22 of 36 from the charity stripe while Radford was just 12 of 21...Delaware, which dropped its sixth consecutive season opener, played without Kyle Anderson, who missed the game with a stress reaction in his left foot...Radford was victorious in the first game for first-year head coach Mike Jones.

NEWARK, DEL. -- Delaware used a late 11-0 run to erase a one-point deficit and went on to defeat Cornell, 72-64, at the BCC in the Blue Hens' 2011-12 home opener...UD (1-2) trailed 58-57 with 3:39 remaining when Big Red guard Drew Ferry connected on hit fourth three-pointer of the night...However two free throws by Jamelle Hagins put the Blue Hens in front for good with 1:56 to play, and following a miss by Cornell's Chris Wroblewski, Devon Saddler found Kyle Anderson for a three-pointer from the right corner to make it a 62-58 game with 1:23 left...After Cornell guard Galal Cancer misfired from long distance, Saddler was fouled and drained two free throws to put UD up six with 1:06 on the clock...Saddler and Hagins then each went 2 of 2 from the charity stripe, closing the 11-0 run and increasing the margin to 68-58 with 38 seconds left...The Big Red scored six points the rest of the way, but Khalid Lewis and Saddler each hit a pair of foul shots for the Blue Hens to put the game away...Saddler led UD with 21 points to go with six rebounds and a game-high five assists, while Hagins posted 13 points and a team-best eight boards...Anderson reached double figures for the second straight game with 11 points, while Josh Brinkley contributed seven rebounds and six points...Cornell (2-3) got a team-best 16 points from Ferry, who went 4 of 9 from behind the arc. Cancer chipped in 13 points for the Big Red, while Eitan Chemerinski had 12 points...Shonn Miller narrowly missed a double-double as he finished with eight points and a game-high 10 rebounds...UD led 28-26 at the break before a 9-2 UD spurt extended the advantage to 45-37 with 12:44 to play...UD again went up eight at 50-42 on a Lewis jumper at the 8:39 mark, and it was still a five-point lead when Hagins hit a free throw with 5:01 to play...Cornell scored six straight points to take the lead, but Delaware immediately responded with the decisive 11-0 run to put the game out of reach.

NEWARK, DEL. -- Delaware got a career-high 32 points from Devon Saddler and 13 points and 14 rebounds from Jamelle Hagins, but a big tie-breaking three-pointer from Kyle Anderson in the final minute was the key play as it helped the Blue Hens hold off Lafayette for an 81-78 victory at the BCC...UD (2-2) built a 14-point second half lead but had to hold off the Leopards down the stretch...Anderson contributed 16 points and nailed his biggest shot of the game with 30 seconds left when his three-pointer broke a 75-75 tie...A free throw by Saddler with 10 seconds left and two more from Khalid Lewis with three seconds remaining preserved the victory...Lafayette (3-3) rallied back thanks to some precise three-point shooting as the Leopards knocked down 9 of 13 from long range in the second half and 11 of 29 for the game...Jim Mower led Lafayette with 19 points while Rob Del

BOSTON, MASS. -- Boston University guard Darryl Partin scored a game-high 27 points and converted four key baskets down the stretch to lead the Terriers to a 73-67 victory over Delaware at Case Gymnasium...Partin went 12 of 26 from the field and also tied for the team lead with seven rebounds... Travis Robinson, who entered the game averaging just 3.0 points per contest, erupted for a career-high 16 as he went 5 of 5 from the field while knocking down all four of his three-point attempts...D.J. Irving handed out a career-best 11 assists against just two turnovers while also grabbing seven boards for BU (3-4), which won its third straight game...UD (2-3) was again led by Devon Saddler, who poured in 20 points...Jamelie Hagins posted his second consecutive double-double with 17 points and 12 rebounds, while also blocking a season-high five shots and making a career-high four steals...Josh Brinkley had his most productive game of the young season as he scored 12 points and grabbed six rebounds...Khalid Lewis scored eight points while playing all 40 minutes, while Kyle Anderson also recorded eight points...Delaware played without Jarvis Threatt, who missed the game with a knee injury...The Blue Hens took a slim 38-37 halftime lead and still led 43-42 two and a half minutes into the second period, but a 6-0 Terriers spurt put the hosts in front 48-43 with 14:57 remaining...However UD quickly answered with a 10-0 run as a jumper by Saddler, three-pointers by Anderson and Lewis, and a dunk by Hagins put UD ahead 53-48 with 11:54 to play...UD still led by five at 57-52 at the 9:54 mark following another Hagins slam, but the Blue Hens would miss their next 14 field goal attempts before a tip-in by Hagins with 1:01 remaining...Meanwhile the Terriers erupted for a 15-3 spurt, taking a 67-60 advantage on a jumper by Partin with 2:08 on the clock...UD would not go away, as two free throws by Saddler and the tip-in by Hagins made it a 67-64 game with one minute left...However Partin drilled a contested 16-foot jumper with 30 seconds remaining, and the Blue Hens would not threaten the rest of the way...The Terriers shot 47.5 percent (28 of 59) for the game and hit 8 of 16 three-point attempts...UD shot a blistering 57.7 percent in the opening half but went just 10 of 35 from the field in the second period.

NEWARK, DEL. -- Devon Saddler connected on four three-pointers and finished with 30 points while Jamelle Hagins added 17 points and a team-high 12 rebounds as Delaware (3-2, 1-0 CAA) opened league play with a convincing 71-60 victory over Drexel at the BCC...UD grabbed the lead four minutes into the game and stayed in front the rest of the way to snap a personal three-game losing streak against the Dragons...Drexel (2-4, 0-1 CAA), the CAA preseason favorite, got 18 points from Frantz Massenet, 14 points from Derrick Thomas, and eight points and 15 rebounds off the bench from Darryl McCoy...But three of the Dragons' top point-producers - Sammie Givens, Chris Fouch, and Damian Lee - were each held way below their season scoring averages and combined for just nine points on 2 of 17 shooting...Drexel was also just 3 for 15 from beyond the three-point range...Josh Brinkley added nine points and four rebounds and Jarvis Threatt pulled down nine rebounds for the Hens, who held a 40-32 edge on the boards...UD shot 46 percent from the field and drained 5 of 14 three-pointers...The Dragons shot 37 percent from the field for the game, hitting just 20 of 54 shots...Saddler posted his second 30-point effort of the season and surpassed the 20-point mark for the fifth straight game while Hagins posted his third straight double-double...Saddler finished 10 of 16 from the field and hit 6 of 8 free throw attempts...UD used an early six-point run to go up 12-9, and would not trail again, going up by as many as 10 points in the first half and taking a 30-25 advantage into halftime...Drexel stayed within striking distance almost the entire second half, pulling to within two points twice, and trailed just 49-46 with 6:52 left after a Massenet three-pointer...But Delaware's Hakim McCollar answered with a jumper to start a 7-1 run that pushed the Blue Hen lead to 56-47 with 4:34 remaining...The Dragons pulled to within six points at 57-51 on a pair of Massenet free throws with 3:26 remaining, but Saddler took over for the Hens, draining a long three-pointer, finishing a conventional three-point play, and adding a layup in a span of just 62 seconds to give Delaware its largest lead of the game to that point at 65-53...The Hens then tied the win with six free throws the rest of the way.

PHILADELPHIA, PA. -- Zack Rosen scored 29 points and Penn used a 17-2 run early in the second half to defeat Delaware, 69-60, at The Palestra...Rosen also dished out a game-high eight assists and hit all 12 of his free throw attempts for Penn (5-5)...Tyler Bernardini contributed 16 points, six rebounds and four steals for the Quakers, while Rob Belcore added a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds... Delaware (3-4) was led by Kyle Anderson who poured in 13 points...Jamelie Hagins recorded his fourth consecutive double-double with 11 points and 10 boards, while Khalid Lewis reached season-highs with 10 points and seven assists...Josh Brinkley was the fourth Blue Hen in double figures as he chipped in with 10 points, but Devon Saddler was held to just six points and sat out the final 13:19 of the contest...Saddler had his streak of 20-point games snapped at five...UD shot 44.2 percent from the field but went just 4 of 14 from behind the arc and only 10 of 17 from the free throw line. Penn shot 36.8 percent, but knocked down 5 of 9 three-pointers in the second half and finished the contest 20 of 23 from the charity stripe...Penn jumped out to 9-2 lead and led the rest of the half, going up 26-20 on a three-pointer by Rosen...But Jarvis Threatt drained a three-pointer and Lewis converted a dunk in transition as the Hens pulled to within 26-25 at the break...UD took its first lead of the game when Saddler opened the second half with a bucket but Penn quickly answered with a 9-0 run, taking a 35-27 lead on a Bernardini three-pointer with 17:06 remaining...Anderson hit a jumper to make it a six-point game but the Quakers countered with eight consecutive points to take a 43-29 advantage at the 12:53 mark...UD used an 8-0 spurt to get within 48-42 with 7:27 remaining...However Penn countered with a 7-2 run to go back up double digits at 55-44 with 5:12 to play...Inside baskets by Hagins and Brinkley cut the Quaker lead to 55-48 with 4:26 on the clock...UD again got within seven at 60-53 and were still down six with 51 seconds left, but Delaware would get no closer as Penn went 16 of 17 from the line in the second half to put the game away.

NEWARK, DEL. -- Khalid Lewis scored all of his game-high 18 points in the second half and the Delaware defense shut down a vaunted La Salle three-point shooting attack to claim a thrilling 70-66 victory at the BCC...The Blue Hens (5-4) broke a 60-60 tie and grabbed the lead for good with just under four minutes left on back-to-back jumpers from Kyle Anderson... Lewis knocked down 5 of 6 shots from the field, connected on 6 of 8 free throws including two big ones with 20 seconds left that gave the Hens a three-point lead, and dished out a game-high four assists...Devon Saddler matched Lewis with 18 points and pulled down 10 rebounds to post his first career double-double while playing all 40 minutes...Janelle Hagins recorded his sixth straight double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds to go with five blocked shots...La Salle (7-4), which had a five-game winning streak snapped, entered the game ranked 15th in the nation in three-point field goals made with nine per outing but knocked down just 2 of 16 shots from long range... Ramon Galloway was just 4 of 20 from the field and finished with 11 points and eight rebounds...Five La Salle players reached double figures as Devon White came off the bench to score 15 points, Earl Pettis added 12 points, Jerrell Wright contributed 11 points and eight rebounds, and Sam Mills chipped in with 11 points...UD trailed by as many as 11 points in the first half before a late rally pulled the Hens to within 33-27 at the break...Lewis took over in the second half, knocking down UD's first three field goals of the stanza and scoring eight points in the first 2:27 to knot the score at 37-37...La Salle answered with a 6-2 run to regain the lead and stayed in front until back-to-back three-pointers from Lewis and Saddler gave UD its first lead of the half at 50-47 with 12:23 left...It was 60-60 when Anderson hit a long jumper and followed with a three-pointer at the 3:16 mark for a 65-60 advantage...Mills knocked down a three-pointer with 1:23 left and hit one of two free throws 37 seconds later to narrow the gap to 67-66...But Lewis made a clean steal on a Tyreek Duren drive to the basket and then hit two more from the line with 20 seconds remaining to push the lead up to 69-66...After Mills missed a three-pointer with nine seconds left, Hagins hit a free throw to preserve the victory.
