UD continues its homestand on Wednesday when the Blue Hens host VCU at 7 p.m. Delaware then welcomes Hofstra to the Carpenter Center next Saturday at 2 p.m.

Last Time Out

Utilizing just a seven-man rotation, Delaware battled all night Wednesday against Old Dominion on the Monarchs' home floor. But ODU junior Kent Bazemore took over late as the Monarchs held off the Blue Hens, 67-59, at the Constant Convocation Center.

Delaware (11-11, 6-6 CAA) erased an early 12-point second half deficit to take a six-point advantage with eight minutes remaining and still led by a point following a Kelvin McNeil free throw at the 1:43 mark.

However Bazemore found himself open on the left wing and buried a three-pointer to give the Monarchs (18-5, 9-3 CAA) a 59-57 advantage with 1:25 to play. Jawan Carter tried to respond with a 19-foot jumper near the top of the key, but his shot was just long and Ben Finney grabbed the rebound.

Chris Cooper then hit two free throws to make it a four-point game and then blocked a three-point attempt by Carter at the other end with 23 seconds to go. Finney corralled the loose ball and found Bazemore for a fast break dunk, putting the game away.

Devon Saddler played all 40 minutes during the contest, leading the Blue Hens while tying his season-highs with 19 points and six rebounds.

McNeil, making his first start of the season, matched his career-best with 13 points while playing all but four minutes, while Carter added 11 points and a team-high five assists in 38 minutes on the floor. Hakim McCullar, playing in just his second game since returning from a broken leg injury, reached double figures for the first time this season by scoring 10 points.

Bazemore finished with 20 points, five assists and four steals while connecting on 8 of 10 field goal attempts for the Monarchs. Frank Hassell added his eighth double-double of the year with 14 points and a game-high 11 rebounds, while Darius James was the third ODU player in double figures with 10 points.

Delaware, which was looking for its fourth consecutive road victory, trailed 30-20 at the half and quickly allowed an early basket by Bazemore to fall behind by 12 points. But UD would counter with eight consecutive points, including four each by Saddler and McNeil, as the Blue Hens pulled to within 32-28 and force an Old Dominion timeout with 16:16 remaining.

A three-point play by James later put the Monarchs back up six, but Delaware kept coming. The Blue Hens scored eight of the next 10 points, and a three-pointer by Carter knotted the contest at 40-40 with 11:50 to play. D.J. Boney then put UD ahead for the first time in the game by following his own miss, and after James tied the game, Delaware scored six straight points to go up 48-42 on a Saddler layup.

Ben Finney answered with a three-pointer for the Monarchs, but Carter responded on UD's next possession with a triple of his own to make it a 51-45 game with eight minutes to go.

However Old Dominion would come right back, as a Bazemore three-pointer capped a 7-0 Monarchs run that put them back on top, 52-51, at the 6:44 mark.

Two free throws by McCullar gave Delaware the lead back, but Bazemore answered with a pair of foul shots and a driving layup to give the Monarchs a 56-53 edge with 3:14 on the clock.

Delaware would not go away, however, and following a UD timeout Carter drilled a three-pointer to tie the game at 56-56 with two minutes to play.

McNeil then blocked a shot by Hassell and was fouled while grabbing a rebound, and he hit one of two free throws at the other end to give Delaware a 57-56 advantage with 1:43 to play. But Bazemore would answer with hit clutch three-pointer to give Old Dominion the lead for good.

Delaware shot a respectable 42.9 percent from the floor, but the Blue Hens hurt themselves by going just 7 of 15 from the free throw line.

After the Monarchs jumped out to an early 12-6 lead, Saddler scored six consecutive points to knot the game at the midway point of the first half. But the Blue Hens would go scoreless for the next five minutes, and Old Dominion took advantage by scoring 10 straight points before a baseline jumper by Carter made it a 22-14 game with five minutes to play.

The Monarchs' lead grew to as much as 12, and after a pair of long jumpers by McCullar, a driving layup by James in the final seconds gave Old Dominion a 10-point halftime advantage.

Delaware vs. Drexel Last Meeting

Drexel forwards Daryl McCoy and Sammie Givens each posted a double-double to lead the Dragons to a 68-55 victory over Delaware as the CAA squads renewed their men's basketball rivalry on January 8 at the Daskalakis Center.

McCoy posted 14 points and 15 rebounds while Givens contributed 12 points and 14 boards for the Dragons. Frantz Massenat also had a big game for Drexel with a season-high 16 points and seven assists as the Dragons defeated UD for the 10th time in 11 meetings in Philadelphia including each of the past three seasons.

Jawan Carter led all scorers with 24 points for the Blue Hens. Devon Saddler chipped in with 12 points while Jamelle Hagins posted seven points, a team-leading eight rebounds, and three blocked shots.

The game was decided during the final 10 minutes of the first half, when Drexel closed the period on a 19-4 run to break open a two-point game and take a 36-19 lead into halftime.

Drexel opened the game 6 of 9 from the field, and an early 5-0 Dragons run put them in front 13-7 five minutes into the contest. A jumper by Brian Johnson pulled Delaware within 17-15 at the 10:16 mark, but Drexel would dominate the rest of the half.

A 5-0 run extended the Dragons' margin to seven, and after Saddler scored inside, Drexel used an 11-0 spurt to extend its lead to 33-17 with 1:47 on the clock.

Hagins converted a basket to snap a UD five minute scoreless streak, but Dragons guard Chris Fouch responded with a three-pointer as Drexel took a 36-19 lead into halftime.

The Dragons shot 51.6 percent in the opening half and scored 22 points in the paint, while Delaware was just 7 of 27 from the field for a 25.9 shooting percentage and hit only 2 of its final 13 shots from the floor.

Delaware opened the second half by hitting six of its first eight field goal attempts, and after two free throws by Dartaye Ruffin put Drexel up 40-26, UD used an 8-0 run to get within 40-34 with 15:12 to play. Josh Brinkley opened the spurt with a tough shot off the glass, and following a Carter three-pointer, Saddler completed a three-point play in transition to make it a six-point game.

The lead would remain between six and nine points over the next eight minutes, and a free throw by Saddler cut Drexel's advantage to 51-43 with 7:47 on the clock.

However the Dragons then scored seven of the next nine points, including three straight baskets by Givens, to go ahead 58-45 with 4:48 remaining.

Delaware got within 10 on a three-point play by Carter with 1:01 remaining, but the Blue Hens would not threaten during the final minute.

Blue Hen Injury Report

Junior forward Hakim McCullar, who missed 10 games with a broken right leg, returned to the court against on January 29 against James Madison.

Sophomore forward Josh Brinkley has suffered a stress fracture in his right foot and is out for the season. Brinkley's condition is the same injury he suffered last season in his left foot.

Sophomore guard Malcolm Hawkins suffered a spinal cord contusion during the George Mason game on Monday, January 3. He was admitted to the Christiana Hospital the following day with weakness and altered sensation in his upper extremities.

Hawkins, who suffered no bony damage to his spine, was discharged from Christiana Hospital on January 7. He is doing well at his home in Virginia.

Hawkins' strength has improved significantly over the past three weeks and his spinal cord looked normal on his most recent MRI. He was back in Delaware on Friday to see a neurosurgeon.

McNeil, McCullar Step Up at Old Dominion

Delaware played its first game following Josh Brinkley's season-ending stress fracture Wednesday at Old Dominion, and forwards Kelvin McNeil and Hakim McCullar stepped up in his absence.

McNeil tied his career-high with 13 points on 6 of 11 shooting and also blocked his first two shots of the season in 36 minutes of action. He also recorded four rebounds, two assists and a steal while making his first start of the season.

McCullar, who played just three minutes last Saturday against James Madison after missing 10 games with a broken right leg, reached double figures for the first time this season by contributing 10 points. McCullar went 4 of 5 from the field while grabbing four boards and blocking one shot in 19 minutes on the floor.

Delaware To Face Rider in BracketBusters

Delaware will travel to Rider on Saturday, February 19 as part of BracketBusters, it was announced Monday. The game will begin at 4 p.m. in Lawrenceville, N.J.

The Blue Hens and Broncs were conference rivals from 1974 through 1991, when they were both members of the East Coast Conference.

Dawson Suspended Indefinitely

On Saturday, January 29 Blue Hen head coach Monté Ross announced that senior guard Alphonso Dawson has been suspended indefinitely for a violation of team rules.

Delaware Keeps Tribe Off The Foul Line

During the win at William & Mary on January 26 the Tribe attempted just two free throws, as Kendrix Brown went 1 for 2 with 3:18 remaining in the game. The Blue Hens attempted only 11 free throws (making nine), including six in the final 15 seconds when William & Mary was fouling on purpose.

The Tribe's two free throw attempts are the fewest allowed by Delaware since Villanova was 0 for 1 during the Wildcats' 90-54 win over the Blue Hens at the Carpenter Center on December 30, 1994.

Carter Held Scoreless vs. Mason

Jawan Carter, who leads the Blue Hens with 15.1 points per game, was held scoreless on January 24 against George Mason for the only time in his now 85-game UD career. Carter went 0-3 against the Patriots, all from behind the arc. His previous low had been a one-point effort at Cornell on November 17, 2010.

Carter was again scoreless through the first half at William & Mary, but rebounded to score nine second-half points and added a team-high 20 last Saturday against James Madison.

Brinkley Posts Big Games vs. Towson, Mason

Josh Brinkley scored nine points at Towson and grabbed a then career-high 11 rebounds, three higher than his previous mark for boards. Brinkley, who entered the season with just one blocked shot, swatted four at Towson while narrowly missing his first career double-double.

Brinkley set his career-best in rebounds for the second time in four games by grabbing 13 boards against George Mason. During his final six games of the season from January 15-29 he led the team in rebounds three times, averaging 8.2 boards per game during that stretch.

Saddler Coming On Strong

During a 10-game stretch from November 19 through January 3, Devon Saddler reached double figures just twice. However since then, the freshman has scored in double digits during nine of the last 10 games, while he scored nine points against Northeastern in the other contest.

Saddler is averaging 14.6 points during the last 10 games, after averaging 6.5 points during the 10 contests prior to this stretch. He has led Delaware in scoring during four of the last five games.

Dawson Reaches 1,300-Point Mark

Alphonso Dawson scored six points during the home game against George Mason to reach the 1,300-point mark in his career. Dawson is the 11th player in UD history to score 1,300 points, and is currently tied for 10th place UD career scoring list with 1,307 points.

Dawson, who ranks 24th at Delaware with 551 rebounds, is just the sixth player in Blue Hen history to amass at least 1,300 career points and 500 career rebounds.

Cardiac Kids

Delaware won three straight games, all decided in the final seconds, prior to the home loss to George Mason. On January 15 the Blue Hens were tied at Towson, 63-63, when Devon Saddler drilled a three-pointer at the buzzer to give UD the victory.

UD was tied with Northeastern on January 19 when Brian Johnson found Janelle Hagins for the go-ahead dunk with 21 seconds left. Hagins then blocked a shot attempt by the Huskies' Alex Harris with nine seconds to go, while Chaison Allen's shot with one second on the clock was off the mark as Delaware hung on, 54-52.

Three days later the Blue Hens trailed Georgia State by a point in the final seconds, but Jawan Carter hit a three-pointer at the buzzer as Delaware pulled out a 64-62 victory in Atlanta.

Hagins Posts Career-High Blocks vs. Huskies

Jamelle Hagins blocked a career-high eight shots, one shy of the UD school record, during the 54-52 win over Northeastern. Hagins' final block came on an Alex Harris attempt with nine seconds left that would have tied the game. Hagins, who blocked seven shots in three previous games this season, entered Monday's action ranked fourth in Division I with 3.6 blocks per game.

Ndongo Nidaye holds the UD record with nine blocks against Colgate on December 2, 1999, while Hagins is now one of six players to post eight blocks in a game.

Taking Care of the Ball vs. Northeastern

Delaware committed just three turnovers against Northeastern on January 19, the lowest by the Blue Hens since prior to the 1983-84 season, when UD began keeping detailed boxscores.

Comeback Kids

Delaware trailed Towson 57-48 with 6:34 remaining on January 15, but the Blue Hens closed the game with an 18-6 run, culminated with Devon Saddler's three-pointer at the buzzer.

The following game UD was down 48-38 to Northeastern with 7:50 to play before coming back to post the 54-52 win. The Huskies still led 52-45 with 4:21 remaining following a Kauri Black layup, but Delaware would score the final nine points from there, including Jamelle Hagins' game-winning dunk with 21 seconds left.

Saddler Named CAA Co-Rookie of the Week

Devon Saddler earned CAA Rookie of the Week Honors on January 17, two days after his buzzer-beating three-pointer gave Delaware a dramatic victory at Towson.

Saddler averaged 13 points, three rebounds and three assists while shooting 54.5 percent from the field during the Blue Hens' two games on the week, a 76-53 setback at UNC Wilmington and the 66-63 triumph over the Tigers.

Saddler tied his season-high by leading the Blue Hens with 19 points against the Seahawks, going 8 of 15 from the field to go with four rebounds and two assists. Delaware then trailed Towson by nine points with six and a half minutes left but Saddler took over from there, scoring 11 of his 13 points the rest of the way.

Saddler began the comeback with a three-point play, and he hit a step-back jumper on UD's next possession to make it a 57-53 game with 5:50 remaining. Delaware still trailed 59-54 but Saddler went 3 of 4 from the free throw line after getting fouled on consecutive possessions to pull the Blue Hens within two at the 3:22 mark.

The game was tied at 63-63 in the final seconds when UD senior guard Jawan Carter was double teamed at the top of the key. Carter then found Saddler on the right wing, and his three-point attempt just before the final buzzer swished clean through the net, setting off the Blue Hens' celebration.

Delaware Shoots Well at Towson

Delaware posted its highest shooting percentage of the season by connecting on 52.4 percent of its field goal attempts at Towson. The Blue Hens went 10 of 18 from the field in the second half and hit a season-high nine three-pointers, while their 60.0 three-point field goal percentage was also a season-best.

Blue Hens Snap CAA Road Losing Streak

Delaware's last second win at Towson on January 15 snapped the Blue Hens' 23-game CAA road losing streak.

UD posted a 51-48 win at Georgia State on February 13, 2008, but dropped its final two CAA road games that season. The Blue Hens then went 0-9 on the road in the league during each of the last two seasons, before falling at George Mason, Drexel and UNCW this year.

Delaware extended its CAA road winning streak to three after also winning at Georgia State and William & Mary.

Hagins Takes Commanding CAA Blocks Lead

Jamelle Hagins has blocked a CAA-best 72 shots this season, an average of 3.3 blocked shots per game. Greg Washington of Hofstra ranks second in the CAA with 48 blocks for a 2.1 average.

Hagins' 72 blocks are more than five conference teams, ahead of UNC Wilmington (70), William & Mary (65), Towson (62), Drexel (59) and Northeastern (56).

Carter Moves Into 8th Place on UD Scoring List

By scoring nine points at William & Mary, Jawan Carter moved into eighth place on the Delaware career scoring list. Carter, who now has scored 1,379 points, passed Harding Nana to jump into eighth place on the chart. Carter is eight points behind Oscar Jones, who ranks seventh with 1,387 career points.

Hagins Records Monster Game vs. Tribe

Jamelle Hagins was a force inside during the home game against William & Mary on January 5, grabbing a career-high 17 rebounds and tying his career-best with seven blocked shots. He also scored nine points for the Blue Hens, narrowly missing his second consecutive double-double.

Hagins' 17 boards were the most by a Blue Hen since Marc Egerson also grabbed 17 against Towson exactly two years prior on January 5, 2009.

Hagins Posts Second Double-Double at Mason

Sophomore Jamelle Hagins posted his second double-double of the season by notching 15 points and 10 rebounds at George Mason on January 3. Hagins recorded 13 points and 10 boards during the season opener at Ohio University.

Hagins also notched double-doubles last season against Delaware State (18 points/13 rebounds) and Boston University (11 points/11 rebounds).

Saddler Hands Out 10 Assists at Mason

Freshman Devon Saddler dished out a season-high 10 assists during UD's game at George Mason on January 3. The last time a Blue Hen reached double figures in assists was on January 5, 2008 when Brian Johnson handed out 11 assists at Drexel.

Carter Reaches 20-Point Mark vs. JMU

Jawan Carter scored a team-high 20 points against James Madison, the eighth time this season he has reached the 20-point mark. After scoring just seven total points in the first two games of the season, Carter has reached double figures in 18 of the last 20 contests. Alphonso Dawson, who scored 20 points at George Mason, is the only other Blue Hen to reach the 20-point mark in a game this year. (Devon Saddler has scored 19 points three times.)

Blue Hens Playing Well Defensively

Delaware currently ranks second in the CAA with 4.5 blocked shots per game and a 30.0 three-point percentage defense, and is fifth with a 41.2 field goal percentage defense.

Conversely, Delaware is last in the league with 62.0 points per game and a 41.7 field goal percentage, and ranks 11th with a 33.1 three-point field goal percentage.

Hagins, Hawkins Earn Cable Car Classic Honors

Jamelle Hagins was named to the Cable Car Classic All-Tournament Team, while Malcolm Hawkins earned the tournament's Sixth Man Award.

Hagins posted seven points and eight rebounds during the win over Santa Clara, and tied his season-high with 17 points to go with a team-leading eight boards against American.

Hawkins scored four points while grabbing a career-high 10 rebounds versus Santa Clara, while his blocked shot of the Broncos' Raymond Cowels III just before the final buzzer sealed the win for the Blue Hens.

Tale of Two Games in California

Delaware shot just 38.3 percent against Santa Clara, but the Blue Hens pulled out the victory by holding the Broncos to only 28.8 percent for the game.

However the following night's game against American was a different story. The Blue Hens shot 52.2 percent from the field but allowed the Eagles to shoot 57.1 percent, the highest by a UD opponent this season.

Delaware's field goal percentage against American was its highest since shooting 57.4 percent on December 1, 2009 at Delaware State - ironically, the Blue Hens lost both of those games.

Defense is the Key

When Delaware allows 67 points or fewer, the Blue Hens are 11-1 this season (UD allowed exactly 67 during Wednesday's loss at Old Dominion). Conversely when UD gives up 68 points or more, the Hens are 0-10. Delaware is allowing an average of 54.6 points in its 11 wins and 75.8 points during its 11 losses.

Hagins Holds His Own vs. Nova Frontline

Jamelle Hagins posted an impressive effort at Villanova by scoring 12 points, grabbing eight rebounds and blocking a career-high seven shots.

The last player to record at least 10 points, eight rebounds and seven blocks against Villanova was Georgetown's Jeff Green, a current starter for the Oklahoma City Thunder, on February 17, 2007.

Carter Named CAA Co-Player of the Week

Jawan Carter was named the Colonial Athletic Association Men's Basketball Co-Player of the Week on December 6 following his outstanding performance during the Blue Hens' win over Old Dominion on December 4.

Carter scored a game-high 29 points to lead Delaware to the 75-67 triumph over the Monarchs, the CAA defending champion and this year's preseason favorite. He went 6 of 12 from the field, all from behind the arc, and dished out a game-best four assists as the Blue Hens won their conference opener. Carter also went 11 of 15 from the free throw line, including 7 of 8 in the final 52 seconds to hold off Old Dominion, which was receiving votes in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches Top 25 polls.

The Blue Hens, who led the entire second half, built an 11-point cushion with 8:35 to play, but the Monarchs rallied for nine consecutive points to pull within 56-54 with 5:24 remaining. But after Hakim McCullar hit one free throw, Carter found Devon Saddler for a jumper and on the Blue Hens' next possession drilled a deep three-pointer to extend UD's advantage to 62-54 with 3:31 to play. The Monarchs cut the deficit to five three times in the final minute, but Delaware went 9 of 10 from the line, all but two from Carter, to ice the victory.

Brian Johnson Returns To UD Lineup

Brian Johnson, who missed all of last season with an ACL injury and the first three games of this year after suffering a torn meniscus in the preseason, finally returned to the court during Delaware's game at Lafayette.

Johnson came off the bench to snap his school-record streak of 94 consecutive starts - every game he had appeared in during his first three years.

Johnson has appeared in all 19 games since his return, averaging 3.0 points in 16.6 minutes per game.

Carter, Hagins Among Nation's Leaders

Through Sunday's games Jamelle Hagins ranked seventh in Division I with 3.3 blocked shots per game, while Jawan Carter was 37th with 2.7 three-pointers made per game and 48th with a 39.6 three-point percentage.

Notes From the Howard Victory

- UD head coach Monté Ross won for the first time in his five home openers.
- Delaware's 34 points allowed was its fewest since a 69-32 victory over Ursinus on December 21, 1961.
- The 32-point victory was the Blue Hens' largest since a 75-40 win over James Madison on January 15, 2005.
- Delaware led 33-16 at the break, its largest halftime lead since taking a 33-15 cushion at Vermont on December 19, 2007.
- Jawan Carter made eight three-pointers, tying the school record set by Billy Wells against Hartford on February 24, 2000. Carter's 14 three-pointers attempted set a UD single game record.
- Howard's 12 field goals made and 20.0 percent shooting are both the lowest by a Blue Hen opponent since prior to the 1983-84 season, when UD began keeping detailed boxscores.
- Delaware blocked 12 shots, its most since also swatting 12 against Siena on December 23, 2003.

Saddler Shines in Blue Hen Debut

Blue Hen freshman guard Devon Saddler had an impressive debut against Ohio University for Delaware, posting team-highs of 19 points and seven assists while also grabbing six rebounds in 35 minutes of action.

Saddler, who went 8 of 13 from the field, scored the most points by a UD freshman in his debut since Zaire Taylor scored 22 against The Citadel on November 18, 2005.

A Grand Trio?

Delaware already has two members of its backcourt that have surpassed the 1,000-point mark in Jawan Carter (1,379 points) and Alphonso Dawson (1,307 points). Last year marked the ninth time in Blue Hen history that a UD team featured two 1,000-point scorers.

Fellow senior Brian Johnson has scored 968 career points, just 32 shy of the 1,000-point milestone. Delaware has never featured a team containing three 1,000-point scorers.

Saddler Starts in Blue Hen Debut

Devon Saddler started at Ohio University in his Blue Hen debut, becoming the sixth UD freshman to start his first career game during Monté Ross's five years in Newark.

Brian Johnson and Darrell Johnson each started the 2006 season opener, while D.J. Boney and Alphonso Dawson both started the 2007 opener. Jamelle Hagins started last year's season opener against Temple.

UD Signs Five To NLI's in Early Signing Period

Kyle Anderson, Marvin King-Davis, Khalid Lewis-El, Larry Savage and Jarvis Threatt each signed during the early signing period in November and comprise the UD class of 2015.

Anderson, a 6-2 shooting guard, averaged 20.8 points per game last season at Newark Community (Ill.) High School and entered his senior season ranked third on the school's career list with 1,615 points.

King-Davis, a 6-7 forward, was an All-District and All-Region selection as a junior in 2009-10. He averaged 13.6 points and 8.5 rebounds per game a year ago at Meadowbrook High School in Richmond, Va.

Lewis-El, a 6-3 guard, led Trenton Catholic to a 28-3 record and the New Jersey Tournament of Champions title last season. He posted 15 points and five rebounds during a 57-56 triple overtime win over nationally-ranked St. Anthony's in the New Jersey Non-Public B championship.

Savage, a 6-5 small forward, was an All-Washington Catholic Athletic Conference honoree a year ago for Bishop O'Connell (Va.) High School. He averaged 12 points and six rebounds per game for the Knights in 2009-10.

Threatt, a 6-1 guard, was also an All-District and All-Region honoree last season at Highland Springs High School in Richmond. He averaged 19.6 points, 2.6 assists and 3.0 steals during his junior year.

Pegues Returns To Newark on UD Coaching Staff

Mike Pegues, the all-time leading scorer in Delaware history, returned to his alma mater in April and is currently serving in his first season as an assistant coach with the Blue Hens.

Pegues tallied 2,030 career points and became the first player to be named conference Player of the Year when he earned the honors in the 1999-2000 season for the America East Conference. He was inducted into the UD Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007.

The only three-time first team all-conference selection in school history, Pegues led the Blue Hens to America East titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1998 and 1999, and to the NIT in 2000.

Pegues went on to play professionally in Italy, New Zealand, England and Argentina, and spent one season in the Continental Basketball Association.

He served as an assistant coach for three seasons at Bishop O'Connell High School before spending last season at VCU as the Rams' video coordinator.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 618 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made one three-pointer in all but five games since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87.

Blue Hens Feature Home-Grown Talent

The Blue Hens have five players on their roster that played high school basketball in the state of Delaware: Jawan Carter (Tatnall), D.J. Boney (Tatnall), Edwin Santiago (Sanford), Samer Madarani (Sanford) and Will Townsville (Glasgow). In fact, Carter is the leading scorer in Delaware history with 2,464 career points.

The Blue Hens have now had five players from Delaware in three consecutive seasons; the previous time a UD team featured at least five players from the state of Delaware was during the 1954-55 season.

UD HEAD COACH MONTÉ ROSS

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his fourth season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2009-10. This is his first head coach position after an outstanding career as a Division I assistant coach for 13 seasons.

In May, 2009 the University announced that Ross received a contract extension through the 2014-15 season.

Taking over a program that had lost 20 games each of the previous two seasons, Ross had his struggles in his first season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2006-07 as a young and depleted squad posted a record of 5-26 and went 3-13 in Colonial Athletic Association play to finish in 12th place.

But Ross guided an impressive turnaround in Year Two and made a strong case for CAA Coach of the Year honors. Still guiding a young squad, the Blue Hens were the second most improved squad in the league, posting a mark of 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA standings with a record of 9-9.

The Hens improved nine games from the previous season, tripling their league win total and posting just as many overall wins as the previous two years combined. Ross also led his team to a first round CAA Tournament victory as the Blue Hens knocked off long-time rival Drexel 60-51. Leading the squad was third team All-CAA forwards Herb Courtney and Marc Egerson, CAA All-Rookie pick Alphonso Dawson, and one of the league's top point guards in Brian Johnson.

Delaware won its first five league games during the season and among its CAA wins were a home win over league champion and NCAA Tournament participant George Mason, a home win over regular season runner-up UNC Wilmington, and an early season road win over tournament runner-up William & Mary.

Delaware went 13-19 overall and 6-12 during the 2008-09 season, but the year included impressive home victories over VCU and George Mason. The Blue Hens also posted an overtime win over Drexel, while Egerson was named first team all-conference and all-district.

Ross, 39, served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University the previous 10 seasons before taking over at Delaware, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members when he was hired. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Things are going pretty fast now, but I am prepared to handle it. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. I want to make sure that our players' experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture.

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said then-UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson on his hiring. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players. We are confident that he will bring the University of Delaware men's basketball program to prominence in the CAA."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season.

Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West.

Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross and assistant coach Stephen Stewart visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, Pa. with their son Justin, 10, and daughter Lauren, 8.

NEWARK, DEL. -- Delaware broke out to a 17-point halftime lead and then used a 25-0 run in the second half to overwhelm Howard with a 66-34 victory in the Blue Hens' home opener...Jawan Carter scored a game-high 24 points on a school-record eight three pointers as UD (1-2) posted its largest victory since a 75-40 win over James Madison on Jan. 15, 2005...Jamelie Hagins scored six points, pulled 10 rebounds, and recorded six of the Blue Hens' 12 blocked shots...Hakim McCullar added nine points and six rebounds while Devon Saddler contributed six points, four rebounds, and a team-high eight assists...Howard (1-2), which shot just 20 percent from the field including 2 of 13 from beyond the three-point line, got team-highs of 16 points and 10 rebounds from Mike Phillips...But no other Bison player scored more than four points as Howard connected on just 6 of 34 second half shots...The 34 points allowed was the lowest for UD since a 69-32 win over Ursinus on Dec. 21, 1961...Carter's eight three-pointers tied the UD single game record set by Billy Wells vs. Hartford on Feb. 24, 2000 while his 14 attempts set a new UD standard...Delaware used a 9-1 run late in the first half to take control and went into the break up 33-16...Phillips helped Howard cut the lead to 33-18 on a layup just 38 seconds into the second half, but the Bison would miss their next 17 shots from the field before finally scoring again on a free throw by Phillips...By that time the Hens had built the lead to 58-19 thanks to the 25-0 run...Carter opened the run with a three-pointer and added four more treys, including one with 9:55 left that gave the Hens their biggest lead of the night at 40 points at 58-18.

Jawan Carter scored a game-high 29 points, including several clutch free throws down the stretch and 6 of 12 shooting from beyond the three-point arc, as Delaware (3-2, 1-0 CAA) held off the Monarchs. Jamelle Hagins added 12 points, nine rebounds, and four blocks for the Blue Hens while Devon Saddler chipped in with 13 points as the Hens snapped a personal three-game losing streak to the Monarchs...ODU (5-2, 0-1 CAA) had a five-game win streak snapped...Frank Hassell led the Monarchs with 19 points and nine rebounds while Kent Bazemore had 17 points and 10 rebounds, Trian Iliadis added 11 points, and Ben Finney chipped in with nine points and 12 rebounds...Carter hit 6 of 12 three-pointers and was 11 of 15 from the foul line, including seven free throws in the final 51 seconds to keep the Monarchs at bay...After the teams traded leads and ties over the first 10 minutes of the game, the Hens grabbed the lead for good when Carter drained a three-point shot with 9:57 left in the first half to put the Hens up 11-8...UD went up by as much as nine points in the first half and settled for a 29-24 lead at the break...ODU pulled within 37-35 on an Iliadis three-point shot with 14:33 left, but Carter answered with a three of his own to increase the lead to five and then later hit a three-point shot and two more free throws to push the advantage to 47-37 with 11:28 to play...UD built its biggest lead of the game to 11 points twice over the next four minutes, going up 54-43 on a Saddler three-point play with 9:34 left and again at 56-45 on a Hagins layup with 8:35 remaining...ODU mounted another comeback, scoring nine straight points, including five by Hassell, to cut the margin to 56-54 with 5:24 left...But the Monarchs would never get closer as Hakim McCullar followed with a free throw, Saddler drained a jumper, and Carter struck again from beyond the three-point line to push the margin back to eight points.
