Pregame interview requests for players or assistant coaches should also be made prior to gameday. Approval is on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Gameday Interviews

All requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made through the Athletics Media Relations Office and at least one day in advance so that academic or athletic schedules are not disrupted.

Up Next

Delaware travels to Georgia State on Saturday for a 2 p.m. tip-off with the Panthers. The Blue Hens are back home on Monday when UD hosts George Mason at 9 p.m.

Last Time Out

Devon Saddler drained a game-winning three-pointer from the right wing just before the final horn to give Delaware a dramatic 66-63 comeback victory over Towson Saturday afternoon at the Towson Center.

Saddler scored just two points through the first 33 minutes of the contest, but took over late as the Blue Hens rallied from nine down in the final six and a half minutes. He finished with 13 points and four assists, while Jawan Carter led the Blue Hens with 19 points to move into ninth place on the UD career scoring list with 1,313 points.

Josh Brinkley scored nine points and grabbed a career-high 11 rebounds for Delaware (8-8, 3-3), which snapped a 23-game CAA road losing streak. The Blue Hens won for the first time in the last five tries in the Towson Center and posted their first CAA road win since a 51-48 triumph at Georgia State on February 13, 2008.

Towson (4-12, 0-6) lost its fifth consecutive game and had its five-game winning streak against the Blue Hens snapped. Braxton Dupree recorded a double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds, but it wasn't enough as the Tigers dropped their fourth consecutive home game.

Josh Brown added 15 points for Towson, while Isaiah Philmore contributed 11 points and RaShawn Polk chipped in with 10.

Delaware shot a season-high 52.2 percent from the field by hitting 22 of 42 field goal attempts, and also knocked down 9 of 15 shots from behind the arc for a season-high 60.0 three-point field goal percentage. The Blue Hens also shot 10 of 18 from the field, connected on 13 of 17 foul shots, and committed just two turnovers during the second half. Towson shot just 39.3 percent from the field but stayed in the game by grabbing 14 offensive rebounds, which led to Towson posting 15 second chance points to the Blue Hens' none.

With the game knotted at 63-63 in the final minute a three-point attempt from the right wing by Polk rimmed out, and Brinkley grabbed the rebound to allow Delaware to hold for the final shot.

Following a UD timeout with 23.1 seconds left, Carter found himself double-teamed near the top of the key with the clock winding down. But Carter then found an open Saddler on the right wing, and the freshman's shot swished clean through the net as the buzzer sounded and the Blue Hen bench erupted.

Delaware took a 30-28 halftime lead after Kelvin McNeil hit the Blue Hens' first buzzer-beater of the game, a heave from the opposite foul line just before the halftime horn. Jamelle Hagins opened the second half with a reverse layup to put UD up four but Towson quickly responded with a 10-0 run, culminated with consecutive three-pointers by Polk and Brown, to go ahead 38-32 with 16:50 left.

Two free throws by Carter and a bucket by Saddler made it a one-point game, but Philmore drained a three-pointer in transition and Dupree added two free throws as the Tigers extended the margin back to six at 45-39 with 12:51 to play.

Carter drained a pair of foul shots as Delaware whittled the deficit to 51-46, but baskets by Brown and Dupree gave Towson its largest advantage of the contest at 55-46 with 7:20 left.

It was still a nine-point game a minute later when Saddler took over. He converted a three-point play to begin the comeback, and on the next possession drilled a step-back jumper to make it a five-point game. A basket inside by Dupree put Towson up 59-53 at the 5:25 mark, but Brinkley hit one free throw and Saddler connected on three to pull Delaware within 59-57 with 3:22 remaining.

Dupree scored on a putback for the Tigers but Carter hit one free throw, made a steal at the other end, and drilled a deep three-pointer to knot the game at 61-61 with 2:12 on the clock.

After both teams came up empty on their ensuing possessions Polk's misfired from behind the arc on the right wing, setting up Saddler's game-winner.

Towson used an early 6-0 run to take a 14-9 lead on a pair of free throws by Brown at the 12:23 mark, and the Tigers maintained their lead over the next four minutes. Delaware was still down four at 20-16, but D.J. Boney hit a three-pointer and Brian Johnson found McNeil for a dunk as the Blue Hens went up by a point with 8:30 remaining.

A Johnson three-pointer broke a 24-24 deadlock at the 4:31 mark, and following two Towson baskets, McNeil connected from 79 feet just before the halftime buzzer to give the Blue Hens a two-point lead at the break.

Delaware vs. Northeastern Last Meeting

Jawan Carter dropped in 30 points but Northeastern held the rest of the Blue Hen lineup in check and posted an easy 67-51 win at the Bob Carpenter Center on February 2, 2010.

Matt Janning scored 15 of his team-high 17 points in the first half, Chaison Allen added 15 points, and Manny Adako chipped in with 10 more for Northeastern.

The Huskies shot 50 percent from the field for the game (22 of 44), including 52 percent in the second half (10 of 19) to pull away. Northeastern committed just 10 turnovers, knocked down 8 of 15 three-pointers, and was 15 of 19 from the foul line in the complete effort.

Carter sank six three-pointers and finished with 30 points but no other Blue Hen player managed to score more than five for Delaware.

Jamelle Hagins pulled a team-high seven rebounds for the Blue Hens, who committed just 11 turnovers but could not overcome a tough shooting night that saw them convert just 15 of 50 shots from the field. Carter connected on 8 of 15 shots, but the rest of the UD lineup was just 7 for 35 and Alphonso Dawson's five points was the next highest point total for the Hens.

Northeastern, which also got a game-high 12 rebounds and nine points from Nkem Ojougbo, continued its mastery of Delaware as the Huskies downed the Hens for the 11th straight time, including its fifth straight at the Bob Carpenter Center.

The Huskies led from wire to wire as they scored the first eight points of the game over the first three minutes and never looked back. Carter, who scored the Hens' first 12 points, hit a three-pointer with 13:47 left in the opening half to cut the lead to 11-9 and Adam Pegg hit two free throws with 5:37 left to narrow the deficit to 19-16, but Delaware could never grab the lead.

Northeastern took a 32-21 lead into intermission and never let the lead slip below double digits the entire second half.

The closest the Hens would get the rest of the night was within 10 points at 43-33 with 14:00 remaining on a layup by Hakim McCullar, but NU's Baptiste Bataille responded with consecutive three-point jumpers to push the lead back to 16. The Huskies increased the lead to as many as 21 points at 60-39 with 4:08 left to play.

Blue Hen Injury Report

Junior forward Hakim McCullar has missed the last six games with a broken bone in his right leg and is out indefinitely. He saw a specialist on Wednesday, January 12 and will be reevaluated on Wednesday.

Sophomore guard Malcolm Hawkins suffered a spinal cord contusion during the George Mason game on Monday, January 3. He was admitted to the Christiana Hospital the following day with weakness and altered sensation in his upper extremities.

Hawkins, who suffered no bony damage to his spine, was discharged from Christiana Hospital on January 7. He will wear a neck brace for the next 2-3 weeks.

Saddler Named CAA Co-Rookie of the Week

Devon Saddler earned CAA Rookie of the Week Honors on Monday, two days after his buzzer-beating three-pointer gave Delaware a dramatic victory at Towson.

Saddler averaged 13 points, three rebounds and three assists while shooting 54.5 percent from the field during the Blue Hens' two games last week, a 76-53 setback at UNC Wilmington and the 66-63 triumph over the Tigers.

Saddler tied his season-high by leading the Blue Hens with 19 points against the Seahawks, going 8 of 15 from the field to go with four rebounds and two assists. Delaware then trailed Towson by nine points with six and a half minutes left but Saddler took over from there, scoring 11 of his 13 points the rest of the way.

Saddler began the comeback with a three-point play, and he hit a step-back jumper on UD's next possession to make it a 57-53 game with 5:50 remaining. Delaware still trailed 59-54 but Saddler went 3 of 4 from the free throw line after getting fouled on consecutive possessions to pull the Blue Hens within two at the 3:22 mark.

The game was tied at 63-63 in the final seconds when UD senior guard Jawan Carter was double teamed at the top of the key. Carter then found Saddler on the right wing, and his three-point attempt just before the final buzzer swished clean through the net, setting off the Blue Hens' celebration.

Blue Hens Snap CAA Road Losing Streak

Delaware's last second win at Towson snapped the Blue Hens' 23-game CAA road losing streak.

UD posted a 51-48 win at Georgia State on February 13, 2008, but dropped its final two CAA road games that season. The Blue Hens then went 0-9 on the road in the league during each of the last two seasons, before falling at George Mason, Drexel and UNCW this year.

Delaware Shoots Well at Towson

Delaware posted its highest shooting percentage of the season by connecting on 52.4 percent of its field goal attempts Saturday at Towson. The Blue Hens went 10 of 18 from the field in the second half and hit a season-high nine three-pointers, while their 60.0 three-point field goal percentage was also a season-best.

Brinkley Posts Big Game at Towson

Josh Brinkley scored nine points at Towson and grabbed a career-high 11 rebounds, three higher than his previous mark for boards. Brinkley, who entered the season with just one blocked shot, swatted four at Towson while narrowly missing his first career double-double.

Saddler Among CAA Freshman Leaders

Devon Saddler leads all CAA freshmen with 9.8 points per game and 3.6 assists per game, while his 3.8 rebounds are fourth among conference rookies.

Seahawks Bury Hens From Three-Point Line

Delaware entered last Wednesday at UNC Wilmington ranked eighth in Division I by holding its opponents to a 27.1 three-point field goal percentage, but the Seahawks connected on 10 of 17 shots from behind the arc.

The 10 three-pointers were the most allowed by the Blue Hens on the season while UNCW, which shot 58.8 percent from behind the arc, is the only UD opponent to shoot higher than 43 percent from long range this year.

Hagins Takes Commanding CAA Blocks Lead

Jamelle Hagins has blocked a CAA-best 56 shots this season, an average of 3.5 blocked shots per game. Greg Washington of Hofstra ranks second in the CAA with 36 blocks for a 2.1 average.

Hagins' 56 blocks are more than five conference teams, ahead of William & Mary (48), UNC Wilmington (47), Northeastern (47), Drexel (44) and Towson (44).

Carter Moves Into Ninth Place on UD Scoring List

By scoring 19 points at Towson, senior guard Jawan Carter moved into ninth place on the Delaware career scoring list. Carter now has scored 1,313 points, and he passed Mike Ames to jump into ninth place on the chart. Carter is 32 points behind Harding Nana, who ranks eighth with 1,345 career points.

Hagins Records Monster Game vs. Tribe

Jamelle Hagins was a force inside against William & Mary, grabbing a career-high 17 rebounds and tying his career-best with seven blocked shots. He also scored nine points for the Blue Hens, narrowly missing his second consecutive double-double.

Hagins' 17 boards were the most by a Blue Hen since Marc Egerson also grabbed 17 against Towson exactly two years prior on January 5, 2009.

Hagins Posts Second Double-Double at Mason

Sophomore Jamelle Hagins posted his second double-double of the season by notching 15 points and 10 rebounds at George Mason on January 3. Hagins recorded 13 points and 10 boards during the season opener at Ohio University.

Hagins also notched double-doubles last season against Delaware State (18 points/13 rebounds) and Boston University (11 points/11 rebounds).

Saddler Hands Out 10 Assists at Mason

Freshman Devon Saddler dished out a season-high 10 assists during UD's game at George Mason on January 3. The last time a Blue Hen reached double figures in assists was on January 5, 2008 when Brian Johnson handed out 11 assists at Drexel.

Carter Reaches 20-Point Mark Again

Jawan Carter scored a game-high 24 points at Drexel, the seventh time this season he has reached the 20-point mark. After scoring just seven total points in the first two games of the season, Carter has reached double figures in 13 of the last 14 contests. Alphonso Dawson, who scored 20 points at George Mason, is the only other Blue Hen to reach the 20-point mark in a game this year. (Devon Saddler has scored 19 points twice.)

Blue Hens Playing Well Defensively

Delaware currently leads the CAA with 4.6 blocked shots per game and ranks third with a 30.0 three-point percentage defense and a 40.9 field goal percentage defense.

Through Sunday's games, UD ranked 40th in Division I in three-point field goal defense and 51st in blocked shots per game.

Conversely, Delaware is last in the CAA with a 42.0 field goal percentage and a 32.3 three-point percentage, and ranks 11th with 62.9 points per game.

Hagins, Hawkins Earn Cable Car Classic Honors

Jamelle Hagins was named to the Cable Car Classic All-Tournament Team, while Malcolm Hawkins earned the tournament's Sixth Man Award.

Hagins posted seven points and eight rebounds during the win over Santa Clara, and tied his season-high with 17 points to go with a team-leading eight boards against American.

Hawkins scored four points while grabbing a career-high 10 rebounds versus Santa Clara, while his blocked shot of the Broncos' Raymond Cowels III just before the final buzzer sealed the win for the Blue Hens.

Tale of Two Games in California

Delaware shot just 38.3 percent against Santa Clara, but the Blue Hens pulled out the victory by holding the Broncos to only 28.8 percent for the game.

However the following night's game against American was a different story. The Blue Hens shot 52.2 percent from the field but allowed the Eagles to shoot 57.1 percent, the highest by a UD opponent this season.

Delaware's field goal percentage against American was its highest since shooting 57.4 percent on December 1, 2009 at Delaware State - ironically, the Blue Hens lost both of those games.

Defense is the Key

When Delaware allows 67 points or fewer, the Blue Hens are 8-0 this season. Conversely when UD gives up 68 points or more, the Hens are 0-8. Delaware is allowing an average of 54.0 points in its eight wins and 77.6 points during its eight losses.

Hagins Holds His Own vs. Nova Frontline

Jamelle Hagins posted an impressive effort at Villanova by scoring 12 points, grabbing eight rebounds and blocking a career-high seven shots.

The last player to record at least 10 points, eight rebounds and seven blocks against Villanova was Georgetown's Jeff Green, a current starter for the Oklahoma City Thunder, on February 17, 2007.

Brinkley Sets Career-High at Hampton

Josh Brinkley set his career-high by scoring 18 points in the victory at Hampton. Brinkley, who went 6 of 10 from both the field and the foul line, added seven rebounds against the Pirates.

Brinkley scored four the Blue Hens' final five field goals, including a jumper in the point with 52 seconds left that gave Delaware the lead for good.

Brinkley then added 13 points during the victory over Delaware State, marking the first time in his career that he reached double figures in consecutive games.

Brinkley reached double figures three times last season but has already scored in double digits four times this year.

Carter Named CAA Co-Player of the Week

Jawan Carter was named the Colonial Athletic Association Men's Basketball Co-Player of the Week on December 6 following his outstanding performance during the Blue Hens' win over Old Dominion on December 4.

Carter scored a game-high 29 points to lead Delaware to the 75-67 triumph over the Monarchs, the CAA defending champion and this year's preseason favorite. He went 6 of 12 from the field, all from behind the arc, and dished out a game-best four assists as the Blue Hens won their conference opener. Carter also went 11 of 15 from the free throw line, including 7 of 8 in the final 52 seconds to hold off Old Dominion, which was receiving votes in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches Top 25 polls.

The Blue Hens, who led the entire second half, built an 11-point cushion with 8:35 to play, but the Monarchs rallied for nine consecutive points to pull within 56-54 with 5:24 remaining. But after Hakim McCullar hit one free throw, Carter found Devon Saddler for a jumper and on the Blue Hens' next possession drilled a deep three-pointer to extend UD's advantage to 62-54 with 3:31 to play. The Monarchs cut the deficit to five three times in the final minute, but Delaware went 9 of 10 from the line, all but two from Carter, to ice the victory.

Carter Clutch From Foul Line Late in Games

Jawan Carter went a perfect 12 of 12 from the free throw line at Lafayette, including hitting all six of his attempts in the final 32 seconds to seal the victory.

The last time a Blue Hen took that many free throw attempts without missing was when Kestutis Marciulionis went 13 of 13 during a 99-91 overtime victory over Drexel at the BCC on January 27, 1999.

Carter then went 11 of 15 from the charity stripe versus Old Dominion, including seven of eight in the final 52 seconds to hold off the Monarchs.

Brian Johnson Returns To UD Lineup

Brian Johnson, who missed all of last season with an ACL injury and the first three games of this year after suffering a torn meniscus in the preseason, finally returned to the court during Delaware's game at Lafayette.

Johnson came off the bench to snap his school-record streak of 94 consecutive starts - every game he had appeared in during his first three years. He contributed five points and a rebound in 16 minutes of action against the Leopards. Johnson recorded his best game of the year against Delaware State, contributing four points and four assists while not turning the ball over in 22 minutes. He added a season-high seven assists against Penn on December 22.

Carter, Hagins Among Nation's Leaders

Through Sunday's games, Jamelle Hagins ranked fifth in Division I with 3.5 blocked shots per game while Jawan Carter was 20th with 3.1 three-pointers made per game.

Notes From the Howard Victory

- UD head coach Monté Ross won for the first time in his five home openers.
- Delaware's 34 points allowed was its fewest since a 69-32 victory over Ursinus on December 21, 1961.
- The 32-point victory was the Blue Hens' largest since a 75-40 win over James Madison on January 15, 2005.
- Delaware led 33-16 at the break, its largest halftime lead since taking a 33-15 cushion at Vermont on December 19, 2007.
- Jawan Carter made eight three-pointers, tying the school record set by Billy Wells against Hartford on February 24, 2000. Carter's 14 three-pointers attempted set a UD single game record.
- Howard's 12 field goals made and 20.0 percent shooting are both the lowest by a Blue Hen opponent since prior to the 1983-84 season, when UD began keeping detailed boxscores.
- Delaware blocked 12 shots, its most since also swatting 12 against Siena on December 23, 2003.

Saddler Shines in Blue Hen Debut

Blue Hen freshman guard Devon Saddler had an impressive debut against Ohio University for Delaware, posting team-highs of 19 points and seven assists while also grabbing six rebounds in 35 minutes of action.

Saddler, who went 8 of 13 from the field, scored the most points by a UD freshman in his debut since Zaire Taylor scored 22 against The Citadel on November 18, 2005.

Saddler led the Blue Hens in scoring for the second consecutive game at Cornell by scoring 15 points on 6 of 10 shooting from the field, and he added a season-high eight assists versus Howard.

Saddler scored 13 points and grabbed five rebounds while playing a game-high 37 minutes during his first CAA game against Old Dominion, while he added a season-high 10 assists during his second conference game at George Mason.

Hagins A Force Inside For Delaware

Sophomore Jamelle Hagins is having an impressive season for the Blue Hens, leading the team with 9.7 rebounds per game and 56 blocks while ranking third with 9.7 points per game.

Hagins currently leads the CAA and ranks fifth in Division I with 3.5 blocks per game. He also ranks third in the conference with 6.4 defensive rebounds per game and sixth with 8.1 boards per contest.

Dawson Joins 1,200-Point, 500-Rebound Club

Senior Alphonso Dawson, who has scored 1,283 career points, grabbed five rebounds against Howard to reach the 500-rebound career mark. He is just the ninth player in Delaware history to amass at least 1,200 career points and 500 career rebounds.

The others are Mike Pegues, Greg Smith, Mark Murray, Alex Coles, Harding Nana, Herb Courtney, Dave Sysko, and Anthony Wright.

A Grand Trio?

Delaware already has two members of its backcourt that have surpassed the 1,000-point mark in Jawan Carter (1,313 points) and Alphonso Dawson (1,283 points). Last year marked the ninth time in Blue Hen history that a

UD team featured two 1,000-point scorers.

Fellow senior Brian Johnson has scored 948 career points, just 52 shy of the 1,000-point milestone. Delaware has never featured a team containing three 1,000-point scorers.

Saddler Starts in Blue Hen Debut

Devon Saddler started at Ohio University in his Blue Hen debut, becoming the sixth UD freshman to start his first career game during Monté Ross's five years in Newark.

Brian Johnson and Darrell Johnson each started the 2006 season opener, while D.J. Boney and Alphonso Dawson both started the 2007 opener. Jamelle Hagins started last year's season opener against Temple.

UD Signs Five To NLI's in Early Signing Period

Kyle Anderson, Marvin King-Davis, Khalid Lewis-El, Larry Savage and Jarvis Threatt each signed during the early signing period in November and comprise the Blue Hens' class of 2015.

Anderson, a 6-2 shooting guard, averaged 20.8 points per game last season at Newark Community (Ill.) High School and entered his senior season ranked third on the school's career list with 1,615 points.

King-Davis, a 6-7 forward, was an All-District and All-Region selection as a junior in 2009-10. He averaged 13.6 points and 8.5 rebounds per game a year ago at Meadowbrook High School in Richmond, Va.

Lewis-El, a 6-3 guard, led Trenton Catholic to a 28-3 record and the New Jersey Tournament of Champions title last season. He posted 15 points and five rebounds during a 57-56 triple overtime win over nationally-ranked St. Anthony's in the New Jersey Non-Public B championship.

Savage, a 6-5 small forward, was an All-Washington Catholic Athletic Conference honoree a year ago for Bishop O'Connell (Va.) High School. He averaged 12 points and six rebounds per game for the Knights in 2009-10.

Threatt, a 6-1 guard, was also an All-District and All-Region honoree last season at Highland Springs High School in Richmond. He averaged 19.6 points, 2.6 assists and 3.0 steals during his junior year.

Pegues Returns To Newark on UD Coaching Staff

Mike Pegues, the all-time leading scorer in Delaware history, returned to his alma mater in April and is currently serving in his first season as an assistant coach with the Blue Hens.

Pegues tallied 2,030 career points and became the first player to be named conference Player of the Year when he earned the honors in the 1999-2000 season for the America East Conference. He was inducted into the UD Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007.

The only three-time first team all-conference selection in school history, Pegues led the Blue Hens to America East titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1998 and 1999, and to the NIT in 2000.

Pegues went on to play professionally in Italy, New Zealand, England and Argentina, and spent one season in the Continental Basketball Association.

He served as an assistant coach for three seasons at Bishop O'Connell High School before spending last season at VCU as the Rams' video coordinator.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 612 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made one three-pointer in all but five games since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87.

Blue Hens Feature Home-Grown Talent

The Blue Hens have five players on their roster that played high school basketball in the state of Delaware: Jawan Carter (Tatnall), D.J. Boney (Tatnall), Edwin Santiago (Sanford), Samer Madarani (Sanford) and Will Townsville (Glasgow). In fact, Carter is the leading scorer in Delaware history with 2,464 career points.

The Blue Hens have now had five players from Delaware in three consecutive seasons; the previous time a UD team featured at least five players from the state of Delaware was during the 1954-55 season.

UD HEAD COACH MONTÉ ROSS

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his fourth season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2009-10. This is his first head coach position after an outstanding career as a Division I assistant coach for 13 seasons.

In May, 2009 the University announced that Ross received a contract extension through the 2014-15 season.

Taking over a program that had lost 20 games each of the previous two seasons, Ross had his struggles in his first season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2006-07 as a young and depleted squad posted a record of 5-26 and went 3-13 in Colonial Athletic Association play to finish in 12th place.

But Ross guided an impressive turnaround in Year Two and made a strong case for CAA Coach of the Year honors. Still guiding a young squad, the Blue Hens were the second most improved squad in the league, posting a mark of 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA standings with a record of 9-9.

The Hens improved nine games from the previous season, tripling their league win total and posting just as many overall wins as the previous two years combined. Ross also led his team to a first round CAA Tournament victory as the Blue Hens knocked off long-time rival Drexel 60-51. Leading the squad was third team All-CAA forwards Herb Courtney and Marc Egerson, CAA All-Rookie pick Alphonso Dawson, and one of the league's top point guards in Brian Johnson.

Delaware won its first five league games during the season and among its CAA wins were a home win over league champion and NCAA Tournament participant George Mason, a home win over regular season runner-up UNC Wilmington, and an early season road win over tournament runner-up William & Mary.

Delaware went 13-19 overall and 6-12 during the 2008-09 season, but the year included impressive home victories over VCU and George Mason. The Blue Hens also posted an overtime win over Drexel, while Egerson was named first team all-conference and all-district.

Ross, 39, served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University the previous 10 seasons before taking over at Delaware, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members when he was hired. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Things are going pretty fast now, but I am prepared to handle it. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. I want to make sure that our players' experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture.

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said then-UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson on his hiring. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players. We are confident that he will bring the University of Delaware men's basketball program to prominence in the CAA."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season.

Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West.

Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross and assistant coach Stephen Stewart visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, Pa. with their son Justin, 10, and daughter Lauren, 8.

EASTON, PA. -- Jawan Carter scored a game-high 24 points and hit six free throws in the final minute as Delaware held off Lafayette, 67-64, at the Kirby Sports Center...The Blue Hens (2-2) snapped an 11-game road losing streak and a 22-game skid at Lafayette (1-5), winning for the first time in Easton since 1968...Carter hit four three-pointers and was 12 of 12 from the free throw line...D.J. Boney contributed seven second half points, while Jamelle Hagins and Kelvin McNeil also scored seven apiece and Alfonso Dawson grabbed a team-best six rebounds...Brian Johnson, who missed all of last season with an ACL injury and the first three games this year after suffering a torn meniscus, scored five points in 16 minutes of action...The Hens, who did not trail the entire contest, led 59-51 with 4:44 remaining...But Jared Mintz, who finished with a team-high 22 points and was largely responsible for UD's top three big men all fouling out, ignited a Leopards spurt with two free throws and later added a layup...Jim Mower then intercepted a pass from Carter and converted at the other end to cut Delaware's lead to 59-57, while Mintz added two free throws at the 1:30 mark as Lafayette drew even for the first time since the opening tip...Carter then missed a jumper but Boney grabbed a key offensive rebound, and Devon Saddler hit one free throw after being fouled on a drive to the basket...Mower was then called for travelling, and Carter hit a pair of foul shots eight seconds later to put the Blue Hens in front, 62-59...Lafayette pulled within one at the 16-second mark on a Nick Petkovich layup, but Carter again was fouled and hit both free throws to extend the lead back to three...The Leopards' Tony Johnson was fouled but missed both free throws, while McNeil collected the board and hit one of two to make it a 65-61 game with 7.5 seconds to play...Johnson drained a three-pointer but Carter was fouled again and for the third straight trip went 2 for 2 as UD went ahead 67-64 with 2.3 on the clock...Les Smith's desperation heave from over half court was nowhere close to the basket, giving Delaware its fifth consecutive victory over Lafayette.

NEWARK, DEL. -- Delaware CAA play with a bang as the Blue Hens led the entire second half and knocked off defending CAA champion Old Dominion 75-67 at the BCC. Jawan Carter scored a game-high 29 points, including several clutch free throws down the stretch and 6 of 12 shooting from beyond the three-point arc, as Delaware (3-2, 1-0 CAA) held off the Monarchs. Jamelle Hagins added 12 points, nine rebounds, and four blocks for the Blue Hens while Devon Saddler chipped in with 13 points as the Hens snapped a personal three-game losing streak to the Monarchs...ODU (5-2, 0-1 CAA) had a five-game win streak snapped...Frank Hassell led the Monarchs with 19 points and nine rebounds while Kent Bazemore had 17 points and 10 rebounds, Trian Iliadis added 11 points, and Ben Finney chipped in with nine points and 12 rebounds...Carter hit 6 of 12 three-pointers and was 11 of 15 from the foul line, including seven free throws in the final 51 seconds to keep the Monarchs at bay...After the teams traded leads and ties over the first 10 minutes of the game, the Hens grabbed the lead for good when Carter drained a three-pointer with 9:57 left in the first half to put the Hens up 11-8...UD went up by as much nine points in the first half and settled for a 29-24 lead at the break...ODU pulled within 37-35 on an Iliadis three-pointer with 14:33 left, but Carter answered with a three of his own to increase the lead to five and then later hit a three-pointer and two more free throws to push the advantage to 47-37 with 11:28 to play...UD built its biggest lead of the game to 11 points twice over the next four minutes, going up 54-43 on a Saddler three-point play with 9:34 left and again at 56-45 on a Hagins layup with 8:35 remaining...ODU mounted another comeback, scoring nine straight points, including five by Hassell, to cut the margin to 56-54 with 5:24 left...But the Monarchs would never get closer as Hakim McCullar followed with a free throw, Saddler drained a jumper, and Carter struck again from beyond the three-point line to push the margin back to eight points. ODU pulled to within five points twice in the final minute but each time Carter responded with free throws to preserve the victory.
