Gameday Interviews

Delaware head coach Monté Ross holds a press conference in the BCC auditorium approximately 10 minutes after the game following a cooling off period and his postgame show with the Blue Hen Basketball Radio Network.

The visiting team will hold its press conference first in the auditorium.

Selected UD players will also be available in the auditorium as well as Coach Ross following the visiting team. The University of Delaware locker room is closed to members of the media during regular season competition.

Monté Ross will not be available immediately prior to games unless an interview is scheduled beforehand. Media wishing to conduct pregame interviews with him are encouraged to tape them prior to gameday or at a shootaround the day of the game. Pregame interview requests for players or assistant coaches should also be made prior to gameday. Approval is on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Gameday Interviews

All requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made through the Athletics Media Relations Office and at least one day in advance so that academic or athletic schedules are not disrupted.

Up Next

The Blue Hens return home to host Northeastern on Wednesday at 7 p.m. Delaware travels to Georgia State next Saturday for a 2 p.m. tip-off with the Panthers.

Last Time Out

Chad Tomko scored 20 of his game-high 23 points in the second half while Keith Rendleman added a double-double with 15 points and 11 rebounds to lead UNC Wilmington to a 76-53 victory over Delaware Wednesday night at Trask Coliseum.

The Seahawks (9-7, 3-2) also got 11 points from Dante Morales as UNCW defeated Delaware for the seventh straight time in Wilmington. The Seahawks shot 49.1 percent from the field, including a blistering 14 of 24 (58.3 percent) in the second half while moving to 6-2 at home this year. UNCW, the CAA's top three-point shooting team, also connected on 10 of 17 shots from behind the arc against a Blue Hen squad that entered the game ranked eighth in Division I in three-point field goal percentage defense.

Devon Saddler equaled his season-high by scoring 19 points to pace the Blue Hens (7-8, 2-3), who dropped their second straight game. Jawan Carter was the only other UD player in double figures with 13 points, while Josh Brinkley chipped in with six. Jamelle Hagins and Alphonso Dawson each grabbed a team-leading seven boards, but Hagins was just 1 off 11 from the field as Dawson connected on only 1 of 5 field goal attempts.

Delaware went just 8 of 28 from the field in the opening half while falling behind big at the break for the second consecutive contest, and ended the game only 18 of 56 for a 32.1 shooting percentage.

Delaware opened the contest just 3 of 11 from the field, and two consecutive baskets by Matt Wilson gave UNC Wilmington a 13-6 lead with 12:13 left in the opening half. Carter answered with a pair of free throws for the Blue Hens, but Morales and Wilson each drained a three-pointer to put the Seahawks up 19-8 at the 10:12 mark.

Ahmad Grant and Tomko each connected from behind the arc to extend the margin to 27-10 before Kelvin McNeil scored inside for Delaware, ending the Blue Hens' seven minute field goal drought. Saddler then scored from just inside the top of the key and then nailed a three-pointer from the right corner to bring UD within 27-17 with 4:20 on the clock.

A Brinkley dunk made it an eight-point game, but Rendleman scored the final seven UNCW points as the Seahawks closed the period on a 7-2 run to go ahead 34-21 at the break.

The Seahawks continued to extend their lead in the second half, as Tomko found Rendleman for a dunk and then hit a three-pointer in transition to give UNCW a 44-25 margin with 17 minutes to play. Two free throws by Tomko later pushed the lead to 21, before consecutive three-pointers by Carter cut the UNCW advantage to 50-35 with 10 minutes left.

But Trevor Deloach answered with a triple of his own, and the Seahawks eventually took their largest lead of the night when Tomko hit three-pointers on consecutive possessions to make it a 65-39 game at the 5:49 mark.

Delaware vs. Towson Last Meeting

Josh Thornton celebrated his Senior Day by scoring a team-high 18 points as the Tigers defeated Delaware, 81-66, in the CAA rivals' regular season finale at the Towson Center on Feb. 27, 2010.

Troy Franklin added 14 points while RaShawn Polk chipped in 12 points, nine rebounds and five assists for the Tigers.

Jawan Carter scored a game-high 26 points for Delaware. Adam Pegg contributed 14 points while Hakim McCullar chipped in 12, as both players reached their season-highs.

The Tigers shot 49.1 percent from the field and connected on 11 of their 23 three-point attempts. Meanwhile Delaware connected on just 39.7 percent of its field goal attempts including a 2 of 14 performance from behind the arc.

Towson went just 16 of 31 from the foul line but did hold a 41-34 rebounding advantage over Delaware, which played the second half without Jamelle Hagins, who suffered a back injury.

The game began as a battle between Carter and Thornton, as Carter scored the first nine UD points while Thornton scored the opening eight for the Tigers.

Two free throws by McCullar cut the Towson lead to 17-15 at the 10:25 mark of the first half, but Towson scored the next seven points to go up nine on a layup by Robert Nwankwo with 7:12 remaining.

Pegg scored inside to stop the run, but a Franklin three-pointer put the Tigers up double figures at 29-19 with 5:26 on the clock. Carter knocked down a pair of free throws for the Blue Hens, but Polk converted a layup and Thornton hit again from downtown to make it a 13-point Tigers lead.

Delaware answered with a jumper by Edwin Santiago and two D.J. Boney free throws to pull within nine, and a pair of foul shots by Carter with four seconds on the clock cut the UD deficit to 40-32 at the half.

However the Blue Hens would go the first four minutes of the second half without a point, and a 6-0 Tigers spurt put Towson up 46-32 following two free throws by Calvin Lee.

Pegg scored inside for Delaware's first points of the period, but Polk scored on a fast break and Franklin buried a deep three-pointer to make it a 51-34 game with 14:15 remaining.

Towson's lead would grow to as much as 21 points, but an 8-1 run featuring a pair of buckets by both Carter and Pegg brought Delaware within 67-53 with 7:52 on the clock.

The Blue Hens closed the gap to 74-62 with three minutes to play, but consecutive three-point attempts by Carter were off the mark, and Delaware could never get the deficit under double digits.

Blue Hen Injury Report

Junior forward Hakim McCullar has missed the last five games with a broken bone in his right leg and is out indefinitely. He saw a specialist on Wednesday, January 12 and will be reevaluated next week.

Sophomore guard Malcolm Hawkins suffered a spinal cord contusion during the George Mason game on Monday, January 3. He was admitted to the Christiana Hospital the following day with weakness and altered sensation in his upper extremities.

Hawkins, who suffered no bony damage to his spine, was discharged from Christiana Hospital on January 7. He will wear a neck brace for the next 3-4 weeks.

Delaware Matches 2009-10 Win Total

By defeating William & Mary on January 5, Delaware improved to 7-6 and equaled its win total from the 2009-10 season when UD finished 7-24. The Blue Hens were the ninth Division I team to equal or surpass its win total from a year ago. The teams that achieved the feat prior to Delaware were Albany, Fordham, Marist, Rice, Tulane, Arkansas Little Rock, Tennessee-Martin, and Wagner.

Seahawks Bury Hens From Three-Point Line

Delaware entered Wednesday's game at UNC Wilmington ranked eighth in Division I by holding its opponents to a 27.1 three-point field goal percentage, but the Seahawks connected on 10 of 17 shots from behind the arc.

The 10 three-pointers were the most allowed by the Blue Hens on the season while UNCW, which shot 58.8 percent from behind the arc, is the only UD opponent to shoot higher than 43 percent from long range this year.

Hagins Takes Commanding CAA Blocks Lead

Jamelle Hagins has blocked a CAA-best 55 shots this season, an average of 3.7 blocked shots per game. Eric Buckner of Georgia State ranks second in the CAA with 32 blocks for a 2.1 average.

Hagins' 55 blocks are more than five conference teams, ahead of UNC Wilmington (47), Northeastern (46), William & Mary (43), Drexel (42) and Towson (42).

Carter Moves Into UD Scoring Top Ten

By scoring 13 points at UNC Wilmington, senior guard Jawan Carter moved into the top 10 on the Delaware career scoring list. Carter now has 1,294 points, and he passed Herb Courtney (1,291) to jump into 10th place on the chart. Carter is 13 points behind Mike Ames, who ranks ninth with 1,307 career points.

Blue Hens Starting Slow

Delaware has shot poorly from the field during the first half of the last two games, falling behind by double figures both times.

Last Saturday at Drexel the Blue Hens shot just 7 of 27 (25.9%) from the field in the opening half, while Drexel went 16 of 31 (51.6%) en route to taking a 36-19 halftime advantage.

Wednesday at UNC Wilmington Delaware went only 8 of 28 (28.6%) during the opening half, while the Seahawks were 13 of 31 (41.9%) as they took a 34-21 lead into the break.

Hagins Records Monster Game vs. Tribe

Jamelle Hagins was a force inside against William & Mary, grabbing a career-high 17 rebounds and tying his career-best with seven blocked shots. He also scored nine points for the Blue Hens, narrowly missing his second consecutive double-double.

Hagins' 17 boards were the most by a Blue Hen since Marc Egerson also grabbed 17 against Towson exactly two years prior on January 5, 2009.

Hagins Posts Second Double-Double at Mason

Sophomore Jamelle Hagins posted his second double-double of the season by notching 15 points and 10 rebounds at George Mason on January 3. Hagins recorded 13 points and 10 boards during the season opener at Ohio University.

Hagins also notched double-doubles last season against Delaware State (18 points/13 rebounds) and Boston University (11 points/11 rebounds).

Saddler Hands Out 10 Assists at Mason

Freshman Devon Saddler dished out a season-high 10 assists during UD's game at George Mason on January 3. The last time a Blue Hen reached double figures in assists was on January 5, 2008 when Brian Johnson handed out 11 assists at Drexel.

Blue Hens CAA Road Struggles Continue

Delaware's loss at UNC Wilmington on Wednesday was the Blue Hens' 23rd straight Colonial Athletic Association road loss.

UD posted a 51-48 win at Georgia State on February 13, 2008, but dropped its final two CAA road games that season. The Blue Hens then went 0-9 on the road in the league during each of the last two seasons, and have fallen at George Mason, Drexel and UNCW this year.

Carter Reaches 20-Point Mark Again

Jawan Carter scored a game-high 24 points at Drexel, the seventh time this season he has reached the 20-point mark. After scoring just seven total points in the first two games of the season, Carter has reached double figures in 12 of the last 13 contests. Alphonso Dawson, who scored 20 points at George Mason, is the only other Blue Hen to reach the 20-point mark in a game this year. (Devon Saddler has scored 19 points twice.)

Blue Hens Playing Well Defensively

Delaware currently leads the CAA with 4.6 blocked shots per game, ranks second with a 29.4 three-point percentage defense, and third with a 41.0 field goal percentage defense.

Through Sunday's games, UD ranked eighth in Division I in three-point field goal defense.

Conversely, Delaware is last in the CAA with a 41.5 field goal percentage and a 30.7 three-point percentage, and ranks 11th with 62.7 points per game.

Hagins, Hawkins Earn Cable Car Classic Honors

Jamelle Hagins was named to the Cable Car Classic All-Tournament Team, while Malcolm Hawkins earned the tournament's Sixth Man Award.

Hagins posted seven points and eight rebounds during the win over Santa Clara, and tied his season-high with 17 points to go with a team-leading eight boards against American.

Hawkins scored four points while grabbing a career-high 10 rebounds versus Santa Clara, while his blocked shot of the Broncos' Raymond Cowels III just before the final buzzer sealed the win for the Blue Hens.

Tale of Two Games in California

Delaware shot just 38.3 percent against Santa Clara, but the Blue Hens pulled out the victory by holding the Broncos to only 28.8 percent for the game.

However the following night's game against American was a different story. The Blue Hens shot 52.2 percent from the field but allowed the Eagles to shoot 57.1 percent, the highest by a UD opponent this season.

Delaware's field goal percentage against American was its highest since shooting 57.4 percent on December 1, 2009 at Delaware State - ironically, the Blue Hens lost both of those games.

Defense is the Key

When Delaware allows 67 points or fewer, the Blue Hens are 7-0 this season. Conversely when UD gives up 68 points or more, the Hens are 0-8. Delaware is allowing an average of 52.7 points in its seven wins and 77.6 points during its eight losses.

Hagins Holds His Own vs. Nova Frontline

Jamelle Hagins posted an impressive effort at Villanova by scoring 12 points, grabbing eight rebounds and blocking a career-high seven shots.

The last player to record at least 10 points, eight rebounds and seven blocks against Villanova was Georgetown's Jeff Green, a current starter for the Oklahoma City Thunder, on February 17, 2007.

Brinkley Sets Career-High at Hampton

Josh Brinkley set his career-high by scoring 18 points in the victory at Hampton. Brinkley, who went 6 of 10 from both the field and the foul line, added a season-high seven rebounds against the Pirates.

Brinkley scored four the Blue Hens' final five field goals, including a jumper in the paint with 52 seconds left that gave Delaware the lead for good.

Brinkley then added 13 points during the victory over Delaware State, marking the first time in his career that he reached double figures in consecutive games.

Brinkley reached double figures three times last season but has already scored in double digits four times this year.

Blue Hens Lock Down Opponents Late

Hampton's Mike Tuit hit a jumper with 10:43 remaining to put the Pirates ahead 44-37, but the Blue Hens would not allow a field goal the rest of the way.

Delaware limited Hampton to 0 of 4 shooting from the field and forced five turnovers in that stretch, while the Pirates hurt themselves by hitting just 9 of 17 free throw attempts.

The following game the Blue Hens trailed Delaware State by 11 points midway through the second half, but closed the game on a 27-5 run to pull away. The Hornets did not score a point during the final five minutes of the game and recorded only two field goals in 14 attempts over the final 13 minutes.

Carter Named CAA Co-Player of the Week

Jawan Carter was named the Colonial Athletic Association Men's Basketball Co-Player of the Week on December 6 following his outstanding performance during the Blue Hens' win over Old Dominion on December 4.

Carter scored a game-high 29 points to lead Delaware to the 75-67 triumph over the Monarchs, the CAA defending champion and this year's preseason favorite. He went 6 of 12 from the field, all from behind the arc, and dished out a game-best four assists as the Blue Hens won their conference opener. Carter also went 11 of 15 from the free throw line, including 7 of 8 in the final 52 seconds to hold off Old Dominion, which was receiving votes in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches Top 25 polls.

The Blue Hens, who led the entire second half, built an 11-point cushion with 8:35 to play, but the Monarchs rallied for nine consecutive points to pull within 56-54 with 5:24 remaining. But after Hakim McCullar hit one free throw, Carter found Devon Saddler for a jumper and on the Blue Hens' next possession drilled a deep three-pointer to extend UD's advantage to 62-54 with 3:31 to play. The Monarchs cut the deficit to five three times in the final minute, but Delaware went 9 of 10 from the line, all but two from Carter, to ice the victory.

Carter Clutch From Foul Line Late in Games

Jawan Carter went a perfect 12 of 12 from the free throw line at Lafayette, including hitting all six of his attempts in the final 32 seconds to seal the victory.

The last time a Blue Hen took that many free throw attempts without missing was when Kestutis Marciulionis went 13 of 13 during a 99-91 overtime victory over Drexel at the BCC on January 27, 1999.

Carter then went 11 of 15 from the charity stripe versus Old Dominion, including seven of eight in the final 52 seconds to hold off the Monarchs.

Brian Johnson Returns To UD Lineup

Brian Johnson, who missed all of last season with an ACL injury and the first three games of this year after suffering a torn meniscus in the preseason, finally returned to the court during Delaware's game at Lafayette.

Johnson came off the bench to snap his school-record streak of 94 consecutive starts - every game he had appeared in during his first three years. He contributed five points and a rebound in 16 minutes of action against the Leopards. Johnson recorded his best game of the year against Delaware State, contributing four points and four assists while not turning the ball over in 22 minutes. He added a season-high seven assists against Penn on December 22.

Carter, Hagins Among Nation's Leaders

Notes From the Howard Victory

- UD head coach Monté Ross won for the first time in his five home openers.
- Delaware's 34 points allowed was its fewest since a 69-32 victory over Ursinus on December 21, 1961.
- The 32-point victory was the Blue Hens' largest since a 75-40 win over James Madison on January 15, 2005.
- Delaware led 33-16 at the break, its largest halftime lead since taking a 33-15 cushion at Vermont on December 19, 2007.
- Jawan Carter made eight three-pointers, tying the school record set by Billy Wells against Hartford on February 24, 2000. Carter's 14 three-pointers attempted set a UD single game record.
- Howard's 12 field goals made and 20.0 percent shooting are both the lowest by a Blue Hen opponent since prior to the 1983-84 season, when UD began keeping detailed boxscores.
- Delaware blocked 12 shots, its most since also swatting 12 against Siena on December 23, 2003.

Saddler Shines in Blue Hen Debut

Blue Hen freshman guard Devon Saddler had an impressive debut against Ohio University for Delaware, posting team-highs of 19 points and seven assists while also grabbing six rebounds in 35 minutes of action.

Saddler, who went 8 of 13 from the field, scored the most points by a UD freshman in his debut since Zaire Taylor scored 22 against The Citadel on November 18, 2005.

Saddler led the Blue Hens in scoring for the second consecutive game at Cornell by scoring 15 points on 6 of 10 shooting from the field, and he added a season-high eight assists versus Howard.

Saddler scored 13 points and grabbed five rebounds while playing a game-high 37 minutes during his first CAA game against Old Dominion, while he added a season-high 10 assists during his second conference game at George Mason.

Hagins A Force Inside For Delaware

Sophomore Jamelle Hagins is having an impressive season for the Blue Hens, leading the team with 8.5 rebounds per game and 55 blocks while ranking second with 9.9 points per game.

Hagins currently leads the CAA and ranks sixth in Division I with 3.7 blocks per game. He also ranks second in the conference with 6.7 defensive rebounds per game, sixth with 8.5 boards per contest, and 13th with a 47.7 field goal percentage.

Dawson Joins 1,200-Point, 500-Rebound Club

Senior Alphonso Dawson, who has scored 1,281 career points, grabbed five rebounds against Howard to reach the 500-rebound career mark. He is just the ninth player in Delaware history to amass at least 1,200 career points and 500 career rebounds.

The others are Mike Pegues, Greg Smith, Mark Murray, Alex Coles, Harding Nana, Herb Courtney, Dave Sysko, and Anthony Wright.

Johnson Brings Experience To PG Spot

UD senior Brian Johnson brings a wealth of experience to the point guard position for the Blue Hens. Johnson has started all 94 games of his first three seasons, the fourth most by a point guard in Division I entering the season.

Point Guard	School	Games Started
Talor Battle	Penn State	97
Anthony Nelson	Niagara	96
Michael Thompson	Northwestern	95
Brian Johnson	Delaware	94
Rahmon Fletcher	Green Bay	92
Josh White	North Texas	91

A Grand Trio?

Delaware already has two members of its backcourt that have surpassed the 1,000-point mark in Jawan Carter (1,294 points) and Alphonso Dawson (1,281 points). Last year marked the ninth time in Blue Hen history that a UD team featured two 1,000-point scorers.

Fellow senior Brian Johnson has scored 945 career points, just 55 shy of the 1,000-point milestone. Delaware has never featured a team containing three 1,000-point scorers.

Saddler Starts in Blue Hen Debut

Devon Saddler started at Ohio University in his Blue Hen debut, becoming the sixth UD freshman to start his first career game during Monté Ross's five years in Newark.

Brian Johnson and Darrell Johnson each started the 2006 season opener, while D.J. Boney and Alphonso Dawson both started the 2007 opener. Jamelle Hagins started last year's season opener against Temple.

UD Signs Five To NLI's in Early Signing Period

Kyle Anderson, Marvin King-Davis, Khalid Lewis-El, Larry Savage and Jarvis Threatt each signed during the early signing period in November and comprise the Blue Hens' class of 2015.

Anderson, a 6-2 shooting guard, averaged 20.8 points per game last season at Newark Community (Ill.) High School and entered his senior season ranked third on the school's career list with 1,615 points.

King-Davis, a 6-7 forward, was an All-District and All-Region selection as a junior in 2009-10. He averaged 13.6 points and 8.5 rebounds per game a year ago at Meadowbrook High School in Richmond, Va.

Lewis-El, a 6-3 guard, led Trenton Catholic to a 28-3 record and the New Jersey Tournament of Champions title last season. He posted 15 points and five rebounds during a 57-56 triple overtime win over nationally-ranked St. Anthony's in the New Jersey Non-Public B championship.

Savage, a 6-5 small forward, was an All-Washington Catholic Athletic Conference honoree a year ago for Bishop O'Connell (Va.) High School. He averaged 12 points and six rebounds per game for the Knights in 2009-10.

Threatt, a 6-1 guard, was also an All-District and All-Region honoree last season at Highland Springs High School in Richmond. He averaged 19.6 points, 2.6 assists and 3.0 steals during his junior year.

Pegues Returns To Newark on UD Coaching

Staff

Mike Pegues, the all-time leading scorer in Delaware history, returned to his alma mater in April and is currently serving in his first season as an assistant coach with the Blue Hens.

Pegues tallied 2,030 career points and became the first player to be named conference Player of the Year when he earned the honors in the 1999-2000 season for the America East Conference. He was inducted into the UD Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007.

The only three-time first team all-conference selection in school history, Pegues led the Blue Hens to America East titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1998 and 1999, and to the NIT in 2000.

Pegues went on to play professionally in Italy, New Zealand, England and Argentina, and spent one season in the Continental Basketball Association.

He served as an assistant coach for three seasons at Bishop O'Connell High School before spending last season at VCU as the Rams' video coordinator.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 611 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made one three-pointer in all but five games since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in 1986-87.

Blue Hens Feature Home-Grown Talent

The Blue Hens have five players on their roster that played high school basketball in the state of Delaware: Jawan Carter (Tatnall), D.J. Boney (Tatnall), Edwin Santiago (Sanford), Samer Madarani (Sanford) and Will Townsville (Glasgow). In fact, Carter is the leading scorer in Delaware history with 2,464 career points.

The Blue Hens have now had five players from Delaware in three consecutive seasons; the previous time a UD team featured at least five players from the state of Delaware was during the 1954-55 season.

UD HEAD COACH MONTÉ ROSS

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his fourth season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2009-10. This is his first head coach position after an outstanding career as a Division I assistant coach for 13 seasons.

In May, 2009 the University announced that Ross received a contract extension through the 2014-15 season.

Taking over a program that had lost 20 games each of the previous two seasons, Ross had his struggles in his first season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2006-07 as a young and depleted squad posted a record of 5-26 and went 3-13 in Colonial Athletic Association play to finish in 12th place.

But Ross guided an impressive turnaround in Year Two and made a strong case for CAA Coach of the Year honors. Still guiding a young squad, the Blue Hens were the second most improved squad in the league, posting a mark of 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA standings with a record of 9-9.

The Hens improved nine games from the previous season, tripling their league win total and posting just as many overall wins as the previous two years combined. Ross also led his team to a first round CAA Tournament victory as the Blue Hens knocked off long-time rival Drexel 60-51. Leading the squad was third team All-CAA forwards Herb Courtney and Marc Egerson, CAA All-Rookie pick Alphonso Dawson, and one of the league's top point guards in Brian Johnson.

Delaware won its first five league games during the season and among its CAA wins were a home win over league champion and NCAA Tournament participant George Mason, a home win over regular season runner-up UNC Wilmington, and an early season road win over tournament runner-up William & Mary.

Delaware went 13-19 overall and 6-12 during the 2008-09 season, but the year included impressive home victories over VCU and George Mason. The Blue Hens also posted an overtime win over Drexel, while Egerson was named first team all-conference and all-district.

Ross, 39, served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University the previous 10 seasons before taking over at Delaware, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members when he was hired. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Things are going pretty fast now, but I am prepared to handle it. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. I want to make sure that our players' experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture.

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said then-UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson on his hiring. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players. We are confident that he will bring the University of Delaware men's basketball program to prominence in the CAA."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season.

Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West.

Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross and assistant coach Stephen Stewart visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, Pa. with their son Justin, 10, and daughter Lauren, 8.

EASTON, PA. -- Jawan Carter scored a game-high 24 points and hit six free throws in the final minute as Delaware held off Lafayette, 67-64, at the Kirby Sports Center...The Blue Hens (2-2) snapped an 11-game road losing streak and a 22-game skid at Lafayette (1-5), winning for the first time in Easton since 1968...Carter hit four three-pointers and was 12 of 12 from the free throw line...D.J. Boney contributed seven second half points, while Jamelle Hagins and Kelvin McNeil also scored seven apiece and Alfonso Dawson grabbed a team-best six rebounds...Brian Johnson, who missed all of last season with an ACL injury and the first three games this year after suffering a torn meniscus, scored five points in 16 minutes of action...The Hens, who did not trail the entire contest, led 59-51 with 4:44 remaining...But Jared Mintz, who finished with a team-high 22 points and was largely responsible for UD's top three big men all fouling out, ignited a Leopards spurt with two free throws and later added a layup...Jim Mower then intercepted a pass from Carter and converted at the other end to cut Delaware's lead to 59-57, while Mintz added two free throws at the 1:30 mark as Lafayette drew even for the first time since the opening tip...Carter then missed a jumper but Boney grabbed a key offensive rebound, and Devon Saddler hit one free throw after being fouled on a drive to the basket...Mower was then called for travelling, and Carter hit a pair of foul shots eight seconds later to put the Blue Hens in front, 62-59...Lafayette pulled within one at the 16-second mark on a Nick Petkovich layup, but Carter again was fouled and hit both free throws to extend the lead back to three...The Leopards' Tony Johnson was fouled but missed both free throws, while McNeil collected the board and hit one of two to make it a 65-61 game with 7.5 seconds to play...Johnson drained a three-pointer but Carter was fouled again and for the third straight trip went 2 for 2 as UD went ahead 67-64 with 2.3 on the clock...Les Smith's desperation heave from over half court was nowhere close to the basket, giving Delaware its fifth consecutive victory over Lafayette.
