Postgame Interviews

Delaware head coach Monté Ross holds a press conference in the BCC auditorium approximately 10 minutes after the game following a cooling off period and his postgame show with the Blue Hen Basketball Radio Network.

The visiting team will hold its press conference first in the auditorium.

Selected UD players will also be available in the auditorium as well as Coach Ross following the visiting team. The University of Delaware locker room is closed to members of the media during regular season competition.

Monté Ross will not be available immediately prior to games unless an interview is scheduled beforehand. Media wishing to conduct pregame interviews with him are encouraged to tape them prior to gameday or at a shootaround the day of the game. Pregame interview requests for players or assistant coaches should also be made prior to gameday. Approval is on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Gameday Interviews

All requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made through the Athletics Media Relations Office and at least one day in advance so that academic or athletic schedules are not disrupted.

CAA Media Teleconference

The CAA hosts a media teleconference each Monday beginning on January 3 (first call is Tuesday) and running through February 27. The teleconference, which features all 12 of the conference's coaches in 10-minute slots, is held on Monday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. This season Monté Ross is scheduled to take calls from 11:30 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. The phone number to take part in the call is (877) 805-0692. Members of the media should contact Rob Washburn (804-754-1616 x19) at the CAA office with any questions. Comments from the call will be available on www.caasports.com each Monday afternoon.

Delaware vs. VCU

VCU leads the all-time series with Delaware, 15-3, and has won 14 of the last 15 meetings including four straight. The Rams have taken five of the eight matchups in Newark, including last season's 84-74 double overtime triumph on Feb. 9, 2011.

Last Time Out

Delaware finally got Old Dominion's Kent Bazemore to miss a shot in overtime, but unfortunately for the Blue Hens that misfire was followed by the winning basket as the Monarchs picked up a 68-66 victory Wednesday night at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Bazemore scored a career-high 27 points, sent the game into overtime with two free throws with 2.4 seconds remaining, and exploded for nine points in the extra session, but it was his missed shot that set up the most important play of the game.

With the score tied at 66-66 in the closing seconds of overtime, Bazemore drove the lane but missed a short jumper. Fortunately for the Monarchs, Chris Cooper was there to grab the rebound and his follow-up just before the final buzzer gave the Monarchs the win.

Delaware (7-8, 3-2 CAA) rode the hot hand of Kyle Anderson and the inside play of Josh Brinkley throughout the game.

Anderson, who hit for a career-high tying 17 points for the third straight game, had given Delaware a 64-61 lead on a three-pointer with three minutes left in overtime and had tied the game at 66-66 on a jumper with 1:13 remaining.

Old Dominion (9-8, 4-1 CAA) got 14 points and 10 rebounds off the bench from Cooper while Richard Ross contributed 14 points. Bazemore also pulled down 12 rebounds as ODU, the league leader in rebounding, held a 51-37 advantage on the boards and pulled down 23 on the offensive side.

Brinkley posted his first career double-double as he scored 16 points and pulled down a career-high 11 rebounds. Devon Saddler added 16 points but Jamelle Hagins, who entered the game averaging 14.6 points per game, was held scoreless. Hagins, who was in foul trouble for much of the night, did add eight rebounds.

Delaware controlled the game early, leading for all but the first minutes of the opening stanza and vaulting out to a 33-23 lead at the break. The Hens made 7 of their first 9 shots from the field and led by at least five points over the final 12 minutes of the stanza.

Old Dominion came out strong in the second half, outscoring the Hens 13-3 over the first six minutes and eventually tied the game at 36-36 on a dunk by Ross with 14:35 left to play.

From there the game was tied four times and the lead changed hands on six occasions heading into the final minute. Old Dominion led by as much as seven points at 49-42 on a layup by Ross with 8:58 remaining before the Hens battled back to tie the score at 51-51 on a free throw by Brinkley with 5:25 left.

The Monarchs went back in front until Saddler knocked down three free throws with 2:35 left and Hens went ahead 57-55 on an Anderson trey with 40 seconds remaining. Old Dominion got one last possession in regulation and made it count.

After Saddler blocked a three-point attempt by ODU's Trian Iliadis with 15 seconds left, the Monarchs got the rebound and Bazemore was fouled by Hagins while shooting with 2.4 seconds left. Bazemore knocked down both shots from the stripe to send the game into overtime.

Bazemore continued his momentum into overtime as he scored 9 of ODU's 11 points in the extra session. He opened the stanza with a three-pointer before the Hens came back to take the lead at 61-60 as Brinkley drained two free throws and followed with a layup with 3:27 left.

Bazemore tied the score again on a free throw before Anderson answered with a three-pointer with 3:00 left for a 64-61 Delaware lead. Bazemore answered with another three-pointer to tie the score again and then added a jumper with 1:46 left to give ODU a 66-64 advantage. Anderson then gave Delaware its last share of the lead when his three-pointer with 1:13 left knotted the score at 66-66.

The Hens had the chance to take the lead after a Bazemore turnover gave Delaware possession with 44 seconds remaining, but they could not take advantage as Saddler's long three-point attempt from the left corner with 11 seconds left was off the mark, setting up the final play for the Monarchs.

Delaware vs. VCU Last Meeting

Delaware battled VCU through 40 minutes of regulation and two overtime periods, but in the end the Blue Hens could not withstand having four players foul out as the Rams escaped with an 84-74 victory at the Carpenter Center on Feb. 9, 2011.

Jamie Skeen led the Rams with a career-high 32 points and 11 rebounds, while Joey Rodriguez added 15 points including two big three-pointers during VCU's second half comeback. Bradford Burgess scored 14 points to go with nine rebounds, while Brandon Rozzell was the fourth Ram in double figures with 11 points.

Devon Saddler led the Blue Hens by pouring in 19 points, but was called for a pushoff foul early in the second overtime period to become disqualified. Jawan Carter added 15 points and a season-high eight assists while playing 48 minutes. Brian Johnson contributed 10 points off the bench, Kelvin McNeil posted nine points and eight boards, and Jamelle Hagins chipped in eight points and eight boards.

Delaware jumped out to an 11-point lead at 50-39 with 12:43 remaining on a three-pointer by Johnson, but VCU quickly rallied with 10 straight points to pull within one.

Saddler ended the spurt with a three-pointer and later hit another triple in transition to up the margin back to seven at 58-51 with 7:42 left. But Rodriguez countered with a pair of big three-pointers for the Rams, the second one cutting Delaware's lead to 60-57 at the 6:12 mark. Rodriguez then hit a jumper while being fouled, and his free throw knotted the contest at 60-60 with five minutes remaining.

Saddler answered with another three-pointer, and after Rozzell hit two free throws, Carter answered with a pair from the foul line to put Delaware up 65-62 with 3:37 to play. But after each team had an empty possession, Skeen converted a three-point play to knot the game again at 65-65 at the 2:35 mark.

Rodriguez then put the Rams in front for the first time in the half with a driving layup, but Saddler answered to tie the game again in the final minute. Hakim McCullar then blocked a layup attempt by Burgess, but Carter's last second attempt in the paint was short, sending the game to overtime.

Saddler scored to open the extra session, but McNeil then fouled out going for a rebound and Burgess connected twice from the line to tie the game at 69-69.

Skeen then grabbed a loose ball and scored to put the Rams up a pair, but after Carter missed a three-pointer in the final seconds, he grabbed a loose ball and found D.J. Boney wide open for the tying layup with 1.6 seconds left to force double overtime.

Skeen started the second overtime scoring with a basket, and on Delaware's first possession Saddler was called for an offensive foul, as he became the third Blue Hen to foul out of the game. On VCU's ensuing possession, McCullar was called for a foul defending Skeen, fouling him out of the contest. Skeen then hit one free throw, but Carter answered with a driving layup to make it a one-point game.

Johnson then hit one free throw to pull the Blue Hens even, but a three-pointer by Rozzell and two free throws by Rodriguez put VCU up 79-74 with 1:16 to play. Carter then stepped on the endline, and five VCU free throws down the stretch put the game away.

Delaware Hosts Final Four Participant

Today's game marks the fourth time in Delaware history that the Blue Hens will host a team coming off an appearance in the Final Four. Temple lost to Kentucky, 61-60, in the 1958 Final Four and defeated Delaware, 64-58, on Jan. 14, 1959. Saint Joseph's dropped a 95-69 decision to Ohio State in the 1961 Final Four and edged the Blue Hens, 72-71, on Feb. 10, 1962. Both of those games were held in the Carpenter Sports Building.

George Mason advanced to the 2006 Final Four before losing to Florida, and posted a 66-46 win over Delaware on Feb. 14, 2007.

Anderson Scores 17 in Three Straight Games

Kyle Anderson scored a career-high 17 points during the win over Hofstra on Jan. 4, going 6 of 12 from the field including 3 of 8 from behind the arc. Anderson again scored a team-leading 17 points against William & Mary, while also grabbing a season-best five rebounds. Anderson again led the Blue Hens with 17 points during Wednesday's overtime loss to Old Dominion.

Brinkley Reaches Season-Highs Again vs. ODU

Junior forward Josh Brinkley reached then season-highs with 14 points and nine rebounds last Saturday at William & Mary. Brinkley then set new season-highs against Old Dominion on Wednesday, scoring 16 points while grabbing a team-best 11 rebounds. Brinkley is averaging 11.8 points and 7.8 over his last four games.

Old Dominion Dominates Boards vs. Hens

Old Dominion posted a 51-37 rebounding advantage over Delaware on Wednesday, as the Monarchs' 51 boards were the most allowed by Delaware since Drexel collected 53 rebounds on Feb. 4, 2009. ODU's 23 offensive boards were the most allowed by UD since the Monarchs grabbed 27 caroms during the teams' previous meeting in Newark on Dec. 4, 2010.

The rebounds led to Old Dominion taking 77 field goal attempts, the most by a Delaware opponent since Canisius attempted 78 on Nov. 21, 1999.

Hagins Held Scoreless vs. Old Dominion

Jamelle Hagins entered Wednesday's game ranked eighth in the CAA in scoring, but the Monarchs shut out the Blue Hen junior as Hagins went 0 of 4 from the field. Hagins had scored at least one point in 25 straight games, and was held scoreless for just the fifth time in his 74-game career.

Hens Limiting Opponents' Field Goal %

Delaware currently ranks third in the CAA and 36th in Division I by limiting its opponents to 38.6 percent shooting from the field this season. The Blue Hens have held 10 consecutive opponents under 42 percent shooting from the floor.

Blue Hen Put Five in Double Figures at W&M

All five Blue Hen starters reached double figures during last Saturday's win over William & Mary, the first time this season UD had five double digit scorers. The last time that happened was during an 80-70 win over Towson on Feb. 23, 2011.

Hagins Ties Career-High Twice Last Week

Jamelle Hagins tied his career-high by scoring 21 points at UNCW on Jan. 2. Hagins went 8 of 14 from the field and 5 of 8 from the free throw line, matching his career-best set at Delaware State on Dec. 10.

Hagins again scored a career-high 21 points two days later against Hofstra, going 9 of 14 from the field while grabbing a game-high 18 rebounds. He collected a defensive rebound while getting fouled with 20 seconds remaining, and calmly sank two free throws to put Delaware up two points. Hagins then blocked two shots on the Pride's final possession, and after a foul, collected a rebound with one second left on Shemiye McLendon's missed second free throw.

Big Men Show Improvement at Foul Line

Jamelle Hagins entered this season shooting 60.3 percent from the foul line for his career, while Josh Brinkley shot just 56.2 percent from the line during his first two seasons.

However, both players have shown marked improvement from the charity stripe this year. Hagins is shooting 71.6 percent from the line, while Brinkley is shooting 70.6 percent.

Hagins Dominant on Glass

Jamelle Hagins has grabbed at least seven rebounds during all 15 games this season, and had reached double figures in seven straight before collecting eight versus Temple. He currently leads the CAA with 11.5 rebounds per game and 8.8 defensive rebounds per game, and is eighth with 2.7 offensive boards per game.

Through Thursday's games, Hagins ranked fifth in the nation with 11.5 rebounds per game.

| 24. | Bil Wagamon (1958-62) | 549 |
| 25. | Jamelle Hagins (2009-Present) | 546 |

Saddler Tied For 25th in Division I in Scoring

Through Thursday's games, Blue Hen sophomore guard Devon Saddler was tied for 25th in the nation with 19.1 points per game.

Hagins Double-Double Streak Snapped vs. Owls

Jamelle Hagins had recorded double-doubles in seven consecutive games, averaging 14.9 points and 13.4 rebounds in that stretch, before posting six points and eight rebounds against Temple. He had not reached double digits in scoring in more than two straight games prior to the Cornell game, but scored in double figures in eight consecutive contests prior to the Temple game.

Hagins was the first Blue Hen to record double-doubles in seven consecutive games since Harding Nana had eight in a row from Dec. 21, 2004 through Jan. 15, 2005. The school record for consecutive double-doubles is 15, set by Spencer Dunkley during the 1992-93 season.

Through Sunday's games, Hagins was tied for eighth in Division I with nine double-doubles this season.

Hens Playing Tight Games at Home

Delaware's last four home games have been decided by a total of 10 points. Delaware defeated La Salle, 70-66, on Dec. 19 before falling to Temple, 66-63, on Dec. 30.

The Blue Hens edged Hofstra, 67-66, on Jan. 3 but dropped a 68-66 overtime decision to Old Dominion on Wednesday on Chris Cooper's putback at the buzzer.

Delaware Shuts Down Hornets

Delaware limited Delaware State to just 42 points during the 58-42 win on December 10, its lowest point total allowed away from Newark since a 59-39 victory over Colgate on Dec. 27, 1985 at the Albright Invitational.

The Hornets' 42 points and 25.9 field goal percentage are the lowest allowed by UD since a 66-34 win over Howard on Nov. 19, 2010 when the Bison shot just 20.0 percent.

UD Defeats CAA Favorite in Opener Again

Last season Delaware's only CAA game in December came at home against preseason favorite Old Dominion, and the Blue Hens took advantage of the opportunity with a 75-67 win over the Monarchs.

Delaware equaled that feat this season, defeating CAA preseason favorite Drexel, 71-60, on Dec. 3 at the Carpenter Center.

Delaware Basketball on the Net

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through www.bluehens.com.

Box scores and game stories are usually posted within an hour of the conclusion of each UD basketball game, while cumulative statistics are also updated and posted after each contest. Media notes are available in a PDF format within 24 hours of the start of each game. In addition, livestats are available for all UD home games.

Delaware Basketball on the Radio

For the eighth straight season all University of Delaware men's basketball games will be carried on FM radio. All games will be carried on 94.7 WDSB. Mike Corey (play-by-play) and Glenn Frazer (color) will call the action.

Additionally, most Blue Hen men's basketball games are broadcast by the UD student radio station, WVUD 91.3 FM. Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through the UD athletics website.

Delaware Basketball on Television

The Blue Hens will have six games televised this season. The Comcast Network will televise the Delaware's home game against Drexel on December 3, while The Comcast Network and Comcast SportsNet-Mid Atlantic will broadcast the January 7 game at William & Mary.

The Comcast Network will show the Blue Hens' home contest versus VCU on January 14, as well as the road game at Drexel on January 28. TCN will also show the February 4 tilt at James Madison and the regular season finale against James Madison on February 25.

Additionally, road games at Villanova on November 18 and at George Mason on January 18, as well as both Towson games, will be available online at ESPN3.com.

Additionally, The Comcast Network will televise all four CAA Tournament quarterfinal games and both semifinal games, while ESPN will broadcast the conference championship game.

Saddler Leads UD in First Six Games

Devon Saddler led Delaware in scoring during each of the first six games of the season. Jawan Carter was the last Blue Hen to accomplish that feat, as he led UD in eight consecutive games from January 23 through February 16, 2010.

The last Blue Hen to lead UD in scoring in each of the first six games of a season was current assistant coach Mike Pegues, who paced Delaware in the first six games of the 1999-2000 campaign.

Saddler had also reached the 20-point mark in five consecutive games, the first Blue Hen to reach 20 points in five straight since Carter from Jan. 23 through Feb. 8, 2010.

However both streaks were snapped on Dec. 7 at Penn, as Saddler was limited to just six points.

Freshmen Contributing For Delaware

Of the nine players who have seen action for the Blue Hens this season, four are freshmen.

Hagins Holds Block Party

Jamelle Hagins blocked a season-high five shots against Boston University, Delaware State, La Salle and Hofstra, and currently ranks second in the CAA and 29th in Division I with 2.5 blocks per game.

Hagins had blocked a shot in 19 consecutive games, the third longest streak in school history, through the Radford game but did not block a shot against either Villanova or Cornell. John Bennett blocked a shot in 32 straight games in 1998-99, while Spencer Dunkley had a block in 27 straight from 1991-93.

Lewis Coming On Strong

Blue Hen freshman point guard Khalid Lewis reached double figures for the first time in his career by scoring 10 points at Penn, and also handed out a season-best seven assists versus the Quakers. He then reached his season high with 18 points, all in the second half, during the win over La Salle. This season Lewis leads the Blue Hens with 54 assists and 16 steals, ranks second with 32.7 minutes played, and is fifth with 6.5 points per game.

Lewis currently ranks fourth in the CAA with a 1.6 assist/turnover ratio and tied for 11th with 3.0 assists per game.

Saddler Sets Career-High vs. Lafayette

Devon Saddler scored a career-high 32 points during the 81-78 victory over Lafayette on Nov. 26. The sophomore guard went 11 of 22 from the field, hit three 3-pointers, and finished 7 of 8 from the free throw line.

Saddler's 32 points are the most by a Blue Hen since Jawan Carter scored 35 during a 97-94 double overtime win at Penn on November 21, 2009.

Anderson Immediately Produces For Hens

After sitting out the season opener at Radford, Kyle Anderson scored 12 points at Villanova and added 11 versus Cornell. He then scored a season-high 16 points during the 81-78 victory over Lafayette, and went 4 of 5 from three-point range. Anderson is believed to be the first true freshman in school history to reach double figures in each of his first three collegiate games.

Anderson Clutch From Long Distance

Delaware led Cornell by one point late in the contest, but Kyle Anderson buried a three-pointer to make it a 62-58 game with 1:23 remaining. In their next game the Blue Hens were tied with Lafayette, 75-75, but Anderson drilled a go-ahead three-pointer with 30 seconds on the clock. Both treys were assisted by Devon Saddler.

On Dec. 19 Delaware and La Salle were tied 60-60, but Anderson drained a jumper and a three-pointer on consecutive possessions to put the Blue Hens in front for good, 65-60, with 3:16 remaining.

Anderson hit another big three-pointer at Howard, as his triple with 45 seconds left snapped a 67-67 tie. However the Bison answered with a three-pointer of their own and went on to win in overtime.

He hit another clutch triple to put Delaware up 63-61 over Temple with 2:01 remaining, but the Owls scored the final five points of the game to claim the victory.

Anderson hit a go-ahead three-pointer against Old Dominion to put UD up 64-61 with three minutes left in overtime, and added a tough jumper to knot the contest at 66-66 with 1:13 to play.

Anderson currently ranks fifth in the CAA with 2.5 three-pointers made per game and is 10th with a 36.0 three-point field goal percentage.

King-Davis Likely To Redshirt Season

With four experienced players in the Delaware frontcourt, Blue Hen freshman forward Marvin King-Davis is expected to sit out this season as a redshirt. King-Davis was a first team All-District, first team All-Region, second team All-Metro, and second team All-State selection as a senior at Meadowbrook High School in Richmond, Va.

Maurice Jeffers Signs NLI With Blue Hens

Monté Ross announced on Dec. 22 that high school standout Maurice Jeffers has signed a National Letter of Intent with the Blue Hens and will enroll at UD in the fall of 2012.

Jeffers, a 6-8, 215-pound senior forward, is currently enrolled at Calvin Coolidge High School in Washington, D.C. He averaged eight points, 10 rebounds and five blocks per game as a junior at Coolidge, helping the squad to a 21-8 record and a spot in the D.C. Interscholastic Athletic Association semifinals.

Jawan Carter Signs With Turkish Club

Former Delaware standout guard Jawan Carter signed with Darussafaka Cooper Tires of the Turkish basketball league's second division in early November. Carter was a third team All-CAA selection for the Blue Hens last season when he led the squad by averaging 16.0 points per game.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 642 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made at least one three-pointer in all but five games since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in the 1986-87 season.

Head Coach Monté Ross

Sixth Season at Delaware • Winston-Salem State '92 • 60-111 Record

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his sixth season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2011-12. This is his first head coach position after an outstanding career as a Division I assistant coach for 13 seasons.

Taking over a program that had lost 20 games each of the previous two seasons, Ross had his struggles in his first season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2006-07 as a young and depleted squad posted a record of 5-26 and went 3-13 in Colonial Athletic Association play to finish in 12th place.

But Ross guided an impressive turnaround in Year Two and made a strong case for CAA Coach of the Year honors. Still guiding a young squad, the Blue Hens were the second most improved squad in the league, posting a mark of 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA standings with a record of 9-9.

The Hens improved nine games from the previous season, tripling their league win total and posting just as many overall wins as the previous two years combined. Ross also led his team to a first round CAA Tournament victory as the Blue Hens knocked off long-time rival Drexel 60-51. Leading the squad was third team All-CAA forwards Herb Courtney and Marc Egerson, CAA All-Rookie pick Alphonso Dawson, and one of the league's top point guards in Brian Johnson.

Delaware won its first five league games during the season and among its CAA wins were a home win over league champion and NCAA Tournament participant George Mason, a home win over regular season runner-up UNC Wilmington, and an early season road win over tournament runner-up William & Mary.

Delaware went 13-19 overall and 6-12 during the 2008-09 season, but the year included impressive home victories over VCU and George Mason. The Blue Hens also posted an overtime win over Drexel, while Egerson was named first team all-conference and all-district. The following season, the Blue Hens posted a record of 7-24, including wins over America East champion Vermont and Patriot League runner-up Lafayette.

Delaware posted a seven-win improvement during last year, going 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA with an 8-10 league mark. The Blue Hens won five straight games early in the campaign, including an impressive home victory over eventual league champion Old Dominion. Delaware advanced to the CAA Tournament Quarterfinals following a victory over Northeastern in the first round, while freshman Devon Saddler was named the league's Rookie of the Year.

Ross, 41, served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University for 10 seasons before taking over at Delaware, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members when he was hired. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. I want to make sure that our players' experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture."

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said then UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson on his hiring. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herrion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season.

Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West.

Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, Pa. with their son Justin, 12, and daughter, Lauren, 10.

NEWARK, DEL. -- Delaware used a late 11-0 run to erase a one-point deficit and went on to defeat Cornell, 72-64, at the BCC in the Blue Hens' 2011-12 home opener...UD (1-2) trailed 58-57 with 3:39 remaining when Big Red guard Drew Ferry connected on hit fourth three-pointer of the night...However two free throws by Jamelle Hagins put the Blue Hens in front for good with 1:56 to play, and following a miss by Cornell's Chris Wroblewski, Devon Saddler found Kyle Anderson for a three-pointer from the right corner to make it a 62-58 game with 1:23 left...After Cornell guard Galal Cancer misfired from long distance, Saddler was fouled and drained two free throws to put UD up six with 1:06 on the clock...Saddler and Hagins then each went 2 of 2 from the charity stripe, closing the 11-0 run and increasing the margin to 68-58 with 38 seconds left...The Big Red scored six points the rest of the way, but Khalid Lewis and Saddler each hit a pair of foul shots for the Blue Hens to put the game away...Saddler led UD with 21 points to go with six rebounds and a game-high five assists, while Hagins posted 13 points and a team-best eight boards...Anderson reached double figures for the second straight game with 11 points, while Josh Brinkley contributed seven rebounds and six points...Cornell (2-3) got a team-best 16 points from Ferry, who went 4 of 9 from behind the arc. Cancer chipped in 13 points for the Big Red, while Eitan Chemerinski had 12 points...Shonn Miller narrowly missed a double-double as he finished with eight points and a game-high 10 rebounds...UD led 28-26 at the break before a 9-2 UD spurt extended the advantage to 45-37 with 12:44 to play...UD again went up eight at 50-42 on a Lewis jumper at the 8:39 mark, and it was still a five-point lead when Hagins hit a free throw with 5:01 to play...Cornell scored six straight points to take the lead, but Delaware immediately responded with the decisive 11-0 run to put the game out of reach.

BOSTON, MASS. -- Boston University guard Darryl Partin scored a game-high 27 points and converted four key baskets down the stretch to lead the Terriers to a 73-67 victory over Delaware at Case Gymnasium...Partin went 12 of 26 from the field and also tied for the team lead with seven rebounds... Travis Robinson, who entered the game averaging just 3.0 points per contest, erupted for a career-high 16 as he went 5 of 5 from the field while knocking down all four of his three-point attempts...D.J. Irving handed out a career-best 11 assists against just two turnovers while also grabbing seven boards for BU (3-4), which won its third straight game...UD (2-3) was again led by Devon Saddler, who poured in 20 points...Jamelie Hagins posted his second consecutive double-double with 17 points and 12 rebounds, while also blocking a season-high five shots and making a career-high four steals...Josh Brinkley had his most productive game of the young season as he scored 12 points and grabbed six rebounds...Khalid Lewis scored eight points while playing all 40 minutes, while Kyle Anderson also recorded eight points...Delaware played without Jarvis Threatt, who missed the game with a knee injury...The Blue Hens took a slim 38-37 halftime lead and still led 43-42 two and a half minutes into the second period, but a 6-0 Terriers spurt put the hosts in front 48-43 with 14:57 remaining...However UD quickly answered with a 10-0 run as a jumper by Saddler, three-pointers by Anderson and Lewis, and a dunk by Hagins put UD ahead 53-48 with 11:54 to play...UD still led by five at 57-52 at the 9:54 mark following another Hagins slam, but the Blue Hens would miss their next 14 field goal attempts before a tip-in by Hagins with 1:01 remaining...Meanwhile the Terriers erupted for a 15-3 spurt, taking a 67-60 advantage on a jumper by Partin with 2:08 on the clock...UD would not go away, as two free throws by Saddler and the tip-in by Hagins made it a 67-64 game with one minute left...However Partin drilled a contested 16-foot jumper with 30 seconds remaining, and the Blue Hens would not threaten the rest of the way...The Terriers shot 47.5 percent (28 of 59) for the game and hit 8 of 16 three-point attempts...UD shot a blistering 57.7 percent in the opening half but went just 10 of 35 from the field in the second period.

PHILADELPHIA, PA. -- Zack Rosen scored 29 points and Penn used a 17-2 run early in the second half to defeat Delaware, 69-60, at The Palestra...Rosen also dished out a game-high eight assists and hit all 12 of his free throw attempts for Penn (5-5)...Tyler Bernardini contributed 16 points, six rebounds and four steals for the Quakers, while Rob Belcore added a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds... Delaware (3-4) was led by Kyle Anderson who poured in 13 points...Jamelie Hagins recorded his fourth consecutive double-double with 11 points and 10 boards, while Khalid Lewis reached season-highs with 10 points and seven assists...Josh Brinkley was the fourth Blue Hen in double figures as he chipped in with 10 points, but Devon Saddler was held to just six points and sat out the final 13:19 of the contest...Saddler had his streak of 20-point games snapped at five...UD shot 44.2 percent from the field but went just 4 of 14 from behind the arc and only 10 of 17 from the free throw line. Penn shot 36.8 percent, but knocked down 5 of 9 three-pointers in the second half and finished the contest 20 of 23 from the charity stripe...Penn jumped out to 9-2 lead and led the rest of the half, going up 26-20 on a three-pointer by Rosen...But Jarvis Threatt drained a three-pointer and Lewis converted a dunk in transition as the Hens pulled to within 26-25 at the break...UD took its first lead of the game when Saddler opened the second half with a bucket but Penn quickly answered with a 9-0 run, taking a 35-27 lead on a Bernardini three-pointer with 17:06 remaining...Anderson hit a jumper to make it a six-point game but the Quakers countered with eight consecutive points to take a 43-29 advantage at the 12:53 mark...UD used an 8-0 spurt to get within 48-42 with 7:27 remaining...However Penn countered with a 7-2 run to go back up double digits at 55-44 with 5:12 to play...Inside baskets by Hagins and Brinkley cut the Quaker lead to 55-48 with 4:26 on the clock...UD again got within seven at 60-53 and were still down six with 51 seconds left, but Delaware would get no closer as Penn went 16 of 17 from the line in the second half to put the game away.
