Postgame Interviews

Delaware head coach Monté Ross holds a press conference in the BCC auditorium approximately 10 minutes after the game following a cooling off period and his postgame show with the Blue Hen Basketball Radio Network.

The visiting team will hold its press conference first in the auditorium.

Selected UD players will also be available in the auditorium as well as Coach Ross following the visiting team. The University of Delaware locker room is closed to members of the media during regular season competition.

Monté Ross will not be available immediately prior to games unless an interview is scheduled beforehand. Media wishing to conduct pregame interviews with him are encouraged to tape them prior to gameday or at a shootaround the day of the game. Pregame interview requests for players or assistant coaches should also be made prior to gameday. Approval is on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Gameday Interviews

All requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made through the Athletics Media Relations Office and at least one day in advance so that academic or athletic schedules are not disrupted.

CAA Media Teleconference

The CAA hosts a media teleconference each Monday beginning on January 3 (first call is Tuesday) and running through February 27. The teleconference, which features all 12 of the conference's coaches in 10-minute slots, is held on Monday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. This season Monté Ross is scheduled to take calls from 11:30 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. The phone number to take part in the call is (877) 805-0692. Members of the media should contact Rob Washburn (804-754-1616 x19) at the CAA office with any questions. Comments from the call will be available on www.caasports.com each Monday afternoon.

Delaware vs. William & Mary

Delaware leads the all-time series with William & Mary, 17-8, and the Blue Hens have won eight of the 12 meetings in Williamsburg. UD has won two straight in the series after sweeping the Tribe last season, posting a 61-48 victory in Newark and a 59-55 triumph at Kaplan Arena.

Last Time Out

Jamelle Hagins poured in a career-high 21 points and pulled down 18 boards, none bigger than his rebound off a Hofstra missed free throw with one second left to play with Delaware clinging to a one-point lead, as the Blue Hens held on for a 67-66 victory Wednesday night at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Delaware (6-7, 2-1 CAA), which improved to 5-1 at home this season, never trailed as the Hens snapped a three-game losing streak and ended a personal six-game losing streak to the Pride.

Hagins posted his eighth double-double of the season as he dominated the action inside, connecting on 9 of 14 shots from the field, pulling down 15 rebounds on the defensive end, and blocking five shots, including two in the final minute of play as Delaware held off the Pride.

Hofstra (6-9, 0-3 CAA) had the chance to put the game into overtime but leading scorer and 80 percent free throw shooter Mike Moore missed two free throws with 22 seconds left with the game knotted at 65-65 and Shemiye McLendon misfired on the back end of a two-shot foul with two seconds left that could have tied the game.

Hagins went high to grab McLendon's miss and was fouled by David Imes with 0.9 seconds left. Hagins misfired on the first free throw and then purposely missed the second. Hofstra got the rebound but Imes' length of the court heave was well off the mark.

Kyle Anderson scored a career-high 17 points thanks to three three-pointers while Devon Saddler, the Hens' leading scorer at 20.2 points per game, chipped in with 14 points and four assists.

Moore scored 24 points to lead the Hofstra attack while Nathaniel Lester added 15 points and 11 rebounds, McLendon contributed 11 points off the bench, and Stephen Nwaukoni pulled down 12 rebounds before fouling out in the final seconds.

Delaware overcame 16 turnovers for the game and 35 percent shooting from the field in the second half (9 of 26) by holding Hofstra to just 32.8 percent shooting from the field (22 of 67) for the game. Moore was just 8 of 25 from the field but did knock down three three-pointers on the night.

The Hens stormed out to a 19-4 lead in the first six minutes of the game but Hofstra recovered and used a surge to cut the Delaware lead to five. The Hens eventually took a 10-point lead at 39-29 into the break.

Delaware stayed in front by at least eight points for the first seven minutes of the second half but the Pride chipped away at the advantage and eventually gained its first share of the lead at 58-58 on a jumper by Lester with 5:14 to play.

The Hens regained the lead at 63-60 thanks to layups from Hagins and Khalid Lewis before Hofstra tied the game again at 63-63 on a three-pointer by Moore with 1:43 remaining. Delaware's Josh Brinkley and Moore traded baskets to knot the score once again and the Pride had the chance to take sole possession of the lead for the first time all night but Moore missed both ends of a two-shot foul with 22 seconds remaining.

Hagins was fouled after grabbing Moore's second miss and calmly sank two free throws with 20 seconds left to give the Hens the lead for good at 67-65. Hagins then blocked shots by Moore and Imes in a four-second span but eventually fouled McLendon with two seconds remaining. McLendon made the first free throw to cut the lead to 67-66 and Delaware called a timeout to ice the shooter.

The tactic worked as McLendon missed the back end of the two-shot foul and Hagins leapt high from the right side of the lane to secure the game-clinching rebound.

Delaware vs. William & Mary Last Meeting

Alphonso Dawson and Jawan Carter hit all six free throw attempts in the final 15 seconds as Delaware held off William & Mary, 59-55, on Jan. 26, 2011 at Kaplan Arena.

Devon Saddler led all scorers with 16 points on 8 of 12 shooting from the field while adding six rebounds and two assists. Carter scored nine second half points, while Kelvin McNeil chipped in with eight points and six rebounds.

Josh Brinkley grabbed a game-high eight rebounds to go with six points, while Dawson finished with seven points and five boards.

Marcus Kitts paced William & Mary with 12 points, while Quinn McDowell and Brandon Britt added 11 apiece. Julian Boatner chipped in with 10 points in a balanced Tribe effort, while JohnMark Ludwick grabbed a team-high seven rebounds.

Delaware rallied from a five-point deficit early in the second half and led by as many as eight points in the stanza.

The Tribe rallied to within a pair when Boatner converted a driving layup with 16.1 seconds to play, but Dawson then drilled two free throws with 14 seconds left to make it a 55-51 game. After Britt answered for William & Mary, Carter was fouled and calmly sank a pair of foul shots to again put the Blue Hens up four again.

Britt scored with 1.3 seconds on the clock to bring the Tribe within two once more, but Dawson put the game away with another two free throws to conclude the scoring.

After shooting just 9 of 29 in the opening half and missing all 10 of their three-point attempts the Blue Hens responded to go 14 of 24 in the second period, including 4 of 8 from three-point range, and went 8 of 9 from the foul line.

Meanwhile Delaware limited the Tribe to just 39.1 percent shooting for the game including only 4 of 24 from behind the arc.

The Tribe took a 22-19 halftime lead and Kitts quickly scored inside to open the second period but a 7-0 Blue Hen run, capped by a D.J. Boney three-pointer, put Delaware back in front at 30-27 with 17:18 remaining.

The Tribe responded and went back on top 35-32 following a basket by McDowell with 13 and a half minutes to go, but Saddler and Carter each answered for the Blue Hens to put Delaware back in front during the seasaw affair.

UD was still up just a point following another bucket by McDowell, but Carter and Brian Johnson each drilled three-pointers on consecutive possessions as the Blue Hens took a 46-39 lead with 9:29 to play.

A three-pointer by Dawson extended the UD margin to eight points, and following a pair of Tribe baskets by Boatner and Kitts, Saddler answered with a tough leaver in the lane to put the Blue Hens up 51-45 at the 3:50 mark.

Kendrix Brown hit one free throw for the Tribe, and following a driving layup by Saddler, Boatner drilled a three-pointer to pull William & Mary within 53-49 with 2:11 remaining.

The Tribe had the ball back still down four with a minute to play, but William & Mary missed twice before turning the ball over. But after Carter missed the front end of a 1-and-1, Britt converted a driving layup to make it a 53-51 game with 16.1 seconds on the clock.

However Dawson and Carter would take over from there, sealing the Blue Hen victory at the foul line.

Hagins Ties Career-High Twice this Week

Jamelle Hagins tied his career-high by scoring 21 points at UNCW on Monday. Hagins went 8 of 14 from the field and 5 of 8 from the free throw line, matching his career-best set at Delaware State on Dec. 10.

Hagins again scored a career-high 21 points Wednesday against Hofstra, going 9 of 14 from the field while grabbing a game-high 18 rebounds. He collected a defensive rebound while getting fouled with 20 seconds remaining, and calmly sank two free throws to put Delaware up two points. Hagins then blocked two shots on the Pride's final possession, and after a foul, collected a rebound with one second left on Shemiye McLendon's missed second free throw.

Hens Looking To Move To 3-1 in CAA Mark

With a win today, Delaware would start 3-1 or better in CAA play for just the fourth time in the Blue Hens' 11 years in the league. UD started 3-1 in the 2003-03 and 2004-05 seasons, and won its first five CAA games in 2007-08.

Anderson Erupts For Career-High vs. Hofstra

Kyle Anderson scored a career-high 17 points during Wednesday's win over Hofstra, eclipsing his previous best of 16 set against Lafayette. Anderson went 6 of 12 from the field against the Pride, including 3 of 8 from behind the arc.

Big Men Show Improvement at Foul Line

Jamelle Hagins entered this season shooting 60.3 percent from the foul line for his career, while Josh Brinkley shot just 56.2 percent from the line during his first two seasons.

However, both players have shown marked improvement from the charity stripe this year. Brinkley is shooting 72.2 percent from the line, 15th in the league, while Hagins is shooting 70.5 percent.

Hagins Dominant on Glass

Jamelle Hagins has grabbed at least seven rebounds during all 13 games this season, and had reached double figures in seven straight before collecting eight versus Temple. He currently leads the CAA with 11.8 rebounds per game and 8.8 defensive rebounds per game, and is sixth with 2.9 offensive boards per game.

Through Wednesday's games, Hagins was fifth in the nation with 11.8 rebounds per game.

Saddler 19th in Division I in Scoring

Through Wednesday's games, Blue Hen sophomore guard Devon Saddler ranked 19th in the nation with 19.7 points per game.

McNeil Ties Career-High vs. Temple

Junior forward Kelvin McNeil tied his career-high by scoring 13 points during the loss to Temple on Dec. 30. McNeil went 5 of 7 from the field and 3 of 4 from the free throw line to score 13 points for the third time in his career. He also grabbed four rebounds versus the Owls.

Threatt Hits Career-High at Howard

Freshman guard Jarvis Threatt erupted for a career-high 17 points during the overtime loss at Howard on Dec. 22. Threatt, whose previous season best was 11 at Villanova, went 5 of 10 from the field including 3 of 7 from behind the arc, and hit all four of his free throw attempts. He also grabbed six rebounds, dished out two assists, and blocked two shots.

Hagins Double-Double Streak Snapped vs. Owls

Jamelle Hagins had recorded double-doubles in seven consecutive games, averaging 14.9 points and 13.4 rebounds in that stretch, before posting six points and eight rebounds against Temple. He had not reached double digits in scoring in more than two straight games prior to the Cornell game, but scored in double figures in eight consecutive contests prior to the Temple game.

Hagins was the first Blue Hen to record double-doubles in seven consecutive games since Harding Nana had eight in a row from Dec. 21, 2004 through Jan. 15, 2005. The school record for consecutive double-doubles is 15, set by Spencer Dunkley during the 1992-93 season.

Lewis Lights Up Explorers

Khalid Lewis did not score during the first half of the win over La Salle, not attempting a shot from the field while missing his two free throw attempts.

However the freshman exploded for a career-high 18 points in the second half, going 5 of 6 from the field, 2 of 2 from behind the arc, and 6 of 8 from the foul line. He also dished out four assists and recorded three steals in the victory.

Delaware led by just a point with 30 seconds left, but Lewis stripped Explorers guard Tyreek Duren on a drive to the basket. He was then immediately fouled, and hit two free throws to put the Blue Hens up three.

Saddler Records First Career Double-Double

Devon Saddler scored 18 points and grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds against La Salle to record his first career double-double.

Hens Win First Four at Home

Delaware's win over La Salle gave the Blue Hens their first 4-0 start at home since the 1999-2000 team opened with nine straight home wins. Following a narrow 66-63 home loss to Temple, the Blue Hens won their fifth home game Wednesday against Hofstra. Conversely, UD is just 1-6 away from the Carpenter Center this season.

	Home (5-1)	Away (1-6)
Scoring	70.7	66.6
Field Goal %	46.2	40.2
3-Point %	33.7	29.6
Opp 3-Point %	27.9	36.0
Free Throw %	71.0	65.4
Opp Free Throw %	67.3	77.9

Delaware Shuts Down Hornets

Delaware limited Delaware State to just 42 points during the 58-42 win on December 10, its lowest point total allowed away from Newark since a 59-39 victory over Colgate on Dec. 27, 1985 at the Albright Invitational.

The Hornets' 42 points and 25.9 field goal percentage are the lowest allowed by UD since a 66-34 win over Howard on Nov. 19, 2010 when the Bison shot just 20.0 percent.

Hagins Enjoys Playing At Memorial Hall

Jamelle Hagins had the most productive game of his freshman season at Delaware State on Dec. 1, 2009, posting career-highs of 18 points and 13 rebounds. While he surpassed the rebounds total last season, his 18 points stood as a career-high...until this year's visit to DSU's Memorial Hall. Hagins again set career-bests of 21 points and 19 boards against the Hornets, while also blocking five shots.

UD Defeats CAA Favorite in Opener Again

Last season Delaware's only CAA game in December came at home against preseason favorite Old Dominion, and the Blue Hens took advantage of the opportunity with a 75-67 win over the Monarchs.

Delaware equaled that feat this season, defeating CAA preseason favorite Drexel, 71-60, on Dec. 3 at the Carpenter Center.

Delaware Basketball on the Net

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through www.bluehens.com.

Box scores and game stories are usually posted within an hour of the conclusion of each UD basketball game, while cumulative statistics are also updated and posted after each contest. Media notes are available in a PDF format within 24 hours of the start of each game. In addition, livestats are available for all UD home games.

Delaware Basketball on the Radio

For the eighth straight season all University of Delaware men's basketball games will be carried on FM radio. All games will be carried on 94.7 WDSO. Mike Corey (play-by-play) and Glenn Frazer (color) will call the action.

Additionally, most Blue Hen men's basketball games are broadcast by the UD student radio station, WVUD 91.3 FM. Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through the UD athletics website.

Delaware Basketball on Television

The Blue Hens will have six games televised this season. The Comcast Network will televise the Delaware's home game against Drexel on December 3, while The Comcast Network and Comcast SportsNet-Mid Atlantic will broadcast the January 7 game at William & Mary.

The Comcast Network will show the Blue Hens' home contest versus VCU on January 14, as well as the road game at Drexel on January 28. TCN will also show the February 4 tilt at James Madison and the regular season finale against James Madison on February 25.

Additionally, road games at Villanova on November 18 and at George Mason on January 18 will be available online at ESPN3.com.

Additionally, The Comcast Network will televise all four CAA Tournament quarterfinal games and both semifinal games, while ESPN will broadcast the conference championship game.

Saddler Leads UD in First Six Games

Devon Saddler led Delaware in scoring during each of the first six games of the season. Jawan Carter was the last Blue Hen to accomplish that feat, as he led UD in eight consecutive games from January 23 through February 16, 2010.

The last Blue Hen to lead UD in scoring in each of the first six games of a season was current assistant coach Mike Pegues, who paced Delaware in the first six games of the 1999-2000 campaign.

Saddler had also reached the 20-point mark in five consecutive games, the first Blue Hen to reach 20 points in five straight since Carter from Jan. 23 through Feb. 8, 2010.

However both streaks were snapped on Dec. 7 at Penn, as Saddler was limited to just six points.

Freshmen Contributing For Delaware

Of the nine players who have seen action for the Blue Hens this season, four are freshmen.

Hagins Holds Block Party

Jamelle Hagins blocked a season-high five shots against Boston University, Delaware State, La Salle and Hofstra, and currently ranks second in the CAA and 19th in Division I with 2.8 blocks per game.

Hagins had blocked a shot in 19 consecutive games, the third longest streak in school history, through the Radford game but did not block a shot against either Villanova or Cornell. John Bennett blocked a shot in 32 straight games in 1998-99, while Spencer Dunkley had a block in 27 straight from 1991-93.

Lewis Coming On Strong

Blue Hen freshman point guard Khalid Lewis reached double figures for the first time in his career by scoring 10 points at Penn, and also handed out a season-best seven assists versus the Quakers. He then reached his season high with 18 points, all in the second half, during the win over La Salle. This season Lewis leads the Blue Hens with 40 assists and 14 steals, ranks second with 32.4 minutes played, and is fifth with 6.2 points per game.

Lewis currently ranks seventh in the CAA with a 1.4 assist/turnover ratio and ninth with 3.1 assists per game.

Saddler Sets Career-High vs. Lafayette

Devon Saddler scored a career-high 32 points during the 81-78 victory over Lafayette on Nov. 26. The sophomore guard went 11 of 22 from the field, hit three 3-pointers, and finished 7 of 8 from the free throw line.

Saddler's 32 points are the most by a Blue Hen since Jawan Carter scored 35 during a 97-94 double overtime win at Penn on November 21, 2009.

Anderson Immediately Produces For Hens

After sitting out the season opener at Radford, Kyle Anderson scored 12 points at Villanova and added 11 versus Cornell. He then scored a season-high 16 points during the 81-78 victory over Lafayette, and went 4 of 5 from three-point range. Anderson is believed to be the first true freshman in school history to reach double figures in each of his first three collegiate games.

Anderson Clutch From Long Distance

Delaware led Cornell by one point late in the contest, but Kyle Anderson buried a three-pointer to make it a 62-58 game with 1:23 remaining. In their next game the Blue Hens were tied with Lafayette, 75-75, but Anderson drilled a go-ahead three-pointer with 30 seconds on the clock. Both treys were assisted by Devon Saddler.

On Dec. 19 Delaware and La Salle were tied 60-60, but Anderson drained a jumper and a three-pointer on consecutive possessions to put the Blue Hens in front for good, 65-60, with 3:16 remaining.

Anderson hit another big three-pointer at Howard, as his triple with 45 seconds left snapped a 67-67 tie. However the Bison answered with a three-pointer of their own and went on to win in overtime.

He hit another clutch triple to put Delaware up 63-61 over Temple with 2:01 remaining, but the Owls scored the final five points of the game to claim the victory.

Anderson currently ranks fifth in the CAA with 2.4 three-pointers made per game and is 10th with a 36.7 three-point field goal percentage.

Clyburn Suspended Indefinitely

Prior to the season opener sophomore Kaleb Clyburn was suspended indefinitely due to a violation of team rules. Clyburn appeared in 17 games a year ago, contributing 13 points and seven assists.

King-Davis Likely To Redshirt Season

With four experienced players in the Delaware frontcourt, Blue Hen freshman forward Marvin King-Davis is expected to sit out this season as a redshirt. King-Davis was a first team All-District, first team All-Region, second team All-Metro, and second team All-State selection as a senior at Meadowbrook High School in Richmond, Va.

Maurice Jeffers Signs NLI With Blue Hens

Monté Ross announced on Dec. 22 that high school standout Maurice Jeffers has signed a National Letter of Intent with the Blue Hens and will enroll at UD in the fall of 2012.

Jeffers, a 6-8, 215-pound senior forward, is currently enrolled at Calvin Coolidge High School in Washington, D.C. He averaged eight points, 10 rebounds and five blocks per game as a junior at Coolidge, helping the squad to a 21-8 record and a spot in the D.C. Interscholastic Athletic Association semifinals.

Blue Hen Captains

Junior forwards Jamelle Hagins and Kelvin McNeil, along with sophomore guard Devon Saddler, have been named Blue Hen captains for the 2011-12 season. Saddler is the first sophomore to be named team captain since Mike Slattery in the 2002-03 season.

Jawan Carter Signs With Turkish Club

Former Delaware standout guard Jawan Carter signed with Darussafaka Cooper Tires of the Turkish basketball league's second division in early November. Carter was a third team All-CAA selection for the Blue Hens last season when he led the squad by averaging 16.0 points per game.

Long Distance Plan

Delaware has made at least one three-point field goal in each of the last 640 games dating back to November 28, 1990. In all, the Blue Hens have made at least one three-pointer in all but five games since the implementation of the three-point line throughout the NCAA in the 1986-87 season.

Hens Picked Seventh in CAA Preseason Poll

Head Coach Monté Ross

Sixth Season at Delaware • Winston-Salem State '92 • 59-110 Record

Monté Ross was formally introduced as the University of Delaware men's basketball program's new head coach on April 4, 2006 in a press conference held at the Bob Carpenter Center.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and begins his sixth season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2011-12. This is his first head coach position after an outstanding career as a Division I assistant coach for 13 seasons.

Taking over a program that had lost 20 games each of the previous two seasons, Ross had his struggles in his first season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2006-07 as a young and depleted squad posted a record of 5-26 and went 3-13 in Colonial Athletic Association play to finish in 12th place.

But Ross guided an impressive turnaround in Year Two and made a strong case for CAA Coach of the Year honors. Still guiding a young squad, the Blue Hens were the second most improved squad in the league, posting a mark of 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA standings with a record of 9-9.

The Hens improved nine games from the previous season, tripling their league win total and posting just as many overall wins as the previous two years combined. Ross also led his team to a first round CAA Tournament victory as the Blue Hens knocked off long-time rival Drexel 60-51. Leading the squad was third team All-CAA forwards Herb Courtney and Marc Egerson, CAA All-Rookie pick Alphonso Dawson, and one of the league's top point guards in Brian Johnson.

Delaware won its first five league games during the season and among its CAA wins were a home win over league champion and NCAA Tournament participant George Mason, a home win over regular season runner-up UNC Wilmington, and an early season road win over tournament runner-up William & Mary.

Delaware went 13-19 overall and 6-12 during the 2008-09 season, but the year included impressive home victories over VCU and George Mason. The Blue Hens also posted an overtime win over Drexel, while Egerson was named first team all-conference and all-district. The following season, the Blue Hens posted a record of 7-24, including wins over America East champion Vermont and Patriot League runner-up Lafayette.

Delaware posted a seven-win improvement during last year, going 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA with an 8-10 league mark. The Blue Hens won five straight games early in the campaign, including an impressive home victory over eventual league champion Old Dominion. Delaware advanced to the CAA Tournament Quarterfinals following a victory over Northeastern in the first round, while freshman Devon Saddler was named the league's Rookie of the Year.

Ross, 41, served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University for 10 seasons before taking over at Delaware, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

"This means a lot to me and my family," said Ross, who spoke to a full room that included family members, friends, Saint Joseph's University staff and supporters, and media members when he was hired. "This is such a great opportunity and I'm going to cherish it. I can promise that I will work hard and make all of you proud. I've been preparing for this opportunity for a very long time. Working with someone like Phil Martelli has prepared me well for this. I want to make sure that our players' experience here is memorable and that they get what they signed on for. We want to create a love affair with the community and the campus and have a positive impact in everything we do. We will play hard every night and bring a winning attitude and create a winning culture."

"We are excited to have Monté join the University of Delaware men's basketball program," said then UD Director of Athletics Edgar N. Johnson on his hiring. "During the interview process, we learned that Monté's contacts and success in recruiting young men from the Mid-Atlantic Region are truly superior. He knows the region and its players and coaches, our University, and the Colonial Athletic Association. Most important of all, Monté is a talented, personable, hard-working young man who has great rapport with his players."

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herrion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season.

Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West.

Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

In September, 2006, Ross visited Dakar, Senegal to conduct youth basketball clinics and a coaching seminar as part of a United States Department of State-funded International Basketball Initiative. They worked in conjunction with Basketball Without Borders Africa, a community relations outreach program of the NBA and also with the Senegalese Basketball Federation and the nonprofit organization Sports for Education and Economic Development in Senegal.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, Pa. with their son Justin, 12, and daughter, Lauren, 10.

RADFORD, VA. -- R.J. Price drained three-pointers on consecutive possessions down the stretch as Radford edged Delaware, 58-54, in the season opener for both squads at the Dedmon Center...In a back and forth second half Devon Saddler and Jamelle Hagins each hit two free throws, the second pair giving the Blue Hens a 53-51 advantage with 2:54 on the clock...However after each team came up empty during its next two possessions, Price connected from deep to put the Highlanders up a point with 1:11 remaining...Hagins then missed inside for UD, and after Radford ran down the shot clock, Price drained a three-pointer to make it a 57-53 game with 22 seconds to play...Khalid Lewis then grabbed an offensive rebound and was fouled, and he hit one of two from the line to bring Delaware within three...However Price was fouled with seven seconds left, and after missing his first attempt, hit his second to put the game out of reach...Saddler led the Blue Hens with 18 points but went just 5 of 22 from the field...Hagins narrowly missed a double-double with 17 points and a game-high nine rebounds, while also blocking a game-best three shots...Josh Brinkley contributed seven points and four rebounds for UD, while Larry Savage added six points and six boards in his Blue Hen debut...Price and Jareal Smith each scored 13 points to lead a balanced Radford attack, while Johnathan Edwards was the third Highlander in double figures with 10 points to go with a team-high eight rebounds...Delaware struggled all night from the field, connecting on just 28.8 percent (15 of 52) of its field goal attempts, including a 2 of 14 performance from behind the arc...However the Blue Hens stayed in the game by limiting Radford to only 32.8 percent shooting (19 of 58) from the floor...Both teams squandered opportunities at the foul line, as the Blue Hens went 22 of 36 from the charity stripe while Radford was just 12 of 21...Delaware, which dropped its sixth consecutive season opener, played without Kyle Anderson, who missed the game with a stress reaction in his left foot...Radford was victorious in the first game for first-year head coach Mike Jones.

NEWARK, DEL. -- Delaware used a late 11-0 run to erase a one-point deficit and went on to defeat Cornell, 72-64, at the BCC in the Blue Hens' 2011-12 home opener...UD (1-2) trailed 58-57 with 3:39 remaining when Big Red guard Drew Ferry connected on hit fourth three-pointer of the night...However two free throws by Jamelle Hagins put the Blue Hens in front for good with 1:56 to play, and following a miss by Cornell's Chris Wroblewski, Devon Saddler found Kyle Anderson for a three-pointer from the right corner to make it a 62-58 game with 1:23 left...After Cornell guard Galal Cancer misfired from long distance, Saddler was fouled and drained two free throws to put UD up six with 1:06 on the clock...Saddler and Hagins then each went 2 of 2 from the charity stripe, closing the 11-0 run and increasing the margin to 68-58 with 38 seconds left...The Big Red scored six points the rest of the way, but Khalid Lewis and Saddler each hit a pair of foul shots for the Blue Hens to put the game away...Saddler led UD with 21 points to go with six rebounds and a game-high five assists, while Hagins posted 13 points and a team-best eight boards...Anderson reached double figures for the second straight game with 11 points, while Josh Brinkley contributed seven rebounds and six points...Cornell (2-3) got a team-best 16 points from Ferry, who went 4 of 9 from behind the arc. Cancer chipped in 13 points for the Big Red, while Eitan Chemerinski had 12 points...Shonn Miller narrowly missed a double-double as he finished with eight points and a game-high 10 rebounds...UD led 28-26 at the break before a 9-2 UD spurt extended the advantage to 45-37 with 12:44 to play...UD again went up eight at 50-42 on a Lewis jumper at the 8:39 mark, and it was still a five-point lead when Hagins hit a free throw with 5:01 to play...Cornell scored six straight points to take the lead, but Delaware immediately responded with the decisive 11-0 run to put the game out of reach.

BOSTON, MASS. -- Boston University guard Darryl Partin scored a game-high 27 points and converted four key baskets down the stretch to lead the Terriers to a 73-67 victory over Delaware at Case Gymnasium...Partin went 12 of 26 from the field and also tied for the team lead with seven rebounds... Travis Robinson, who entered the game averaging just 3.0 points per contest, erupted for a career-high 16 as he went 5 of 5 from the field while knocking down all four of his three-point attempts...D.J. Irving handed out a career-best 11 assists against just two turnovers while also grabbing seven boards for BU (3-4), which won its third straight game...UD (2-3) was again led by Devon Saddler, who poured in 20 points...Jamelie Hagins posted his second consecutive double-double with 17 points and 12 rebounds, while also blocking a season-high five shots and making a career-high four steals...Josh Brinkley had his most productive game of the young season as he scored 12 points and grabbed six rebounds...Khalid Lewis scored eight points while playing all 40 minutes, while Kyle Anderson also recorded eight points...Delaware played without Jarvis Threatt, who missed the game with a knee injury...The Blue Hens took a slim 38-37 halftime lead and still led 43-42 two and a half minutes into the second period, but a 6-0 Terriers spurt put the hosts in front 48-43 with 14:57 remaining...However UD quickly answered with a 10-0 run as a jumper by Saddler, three-pointers by Anderson and Lewis, and a dunk by Hagins put UD ahead 53-48 with 11:54 to play...UD still led by five at 57-52 at the 9:54 mark following another Hagins slam, but the Blue Hens would miss their next 14 field goal attempts before a tip-in by Hagins with 1:01 remaining...Meanwhile the Terriers erupted for a 15-3 spurt, taking a 67-60 advantage on a jumper by Partin with 2:08 on the clock...UD would not go away, as two free throws by Saddler and the tip-in by Hagins made it a 67-64 game with one minute left...However Partin drilled a contested 16-foot jumper with 30 seconds remaining, and the Blue Hens would not threaten the rest of the way...The Terriers shot 47.5 percent (28 of 59) for the game and hit 8 of 16 three-point attempts...UD shot a blistering 57.7 percent in the opening half but went just 10 of 35 from the field in the second period.

PHILADELPHIA, PA. -- Zack Rosen scored 29 points and Penn used a 17-2 run early in the second half to defeat Delaware, 69-60, at The Palestra...Rosen also dished out a game-high eight assists and hit all 12 of his free throw attempts for Penn (5-5)...Tyler Bernardini contributed 16 points, six rebounds and four steals for the Quakers, while Rob Belcore added a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds... Delaware (3-4) was led by Kyle Anderson who poured in 13 points...Jamelie Hagins recorded his fourth consecutive double-double with 11 points and 10 boards, while Khalid Lewis reached season-highs with 10 points and seven assists...Josh Brinkley was the fourth Blue Hen in double figures as he chipped in with 10 points, but Devon Saddler was held to just six points and sat out the final 13:19 of the contest...Saddler had his streak of 20-point games snapped at five...UD shot 44.2 percent from the field but went just 4 of 14 from behind the arc and only 10 of 17 from the free throw line. Penn shot 36.8 percent, but knocked down 5 of 9 three-pointers in the second half and finished the contest 20 of 23 from the charity stripe...Penn jumped out to 9-2 lead and led the rest of the half, going up 26-20 on a three-pointer by Rosen...But Jarvis Threatt drained a three-pointer and Lewis converted a dunk in transition as the Hens pulled to within 26-25 at the break...UD took its first lead of the game when Saddler opened the second half with a bucket but Penn quickly answered with a 9-0 run, taking a 35-27 lead on a Bernardini three-pointer with 17:06 remaining...Anderson hit a jumper to make it a six-point game but the Quakers countered with eight consecutive points to take a 43-29 advantage at the 12:53 mark...UD used an 8-0 spurt to get within 48-42 with 7:27 remaining...However Penn countered with a 7-2 run to go back up double digits at 55-44 with 5:12 to play...Inside baskets by Hagins and Brinkley cut the Quaker lead to 55-48 with 4:26 on the clock...UD again got within seven at 60-53 and would still down six with 51 seconds left, but Delaware would get no closer as Penn went 16 of 17 from the line in the second half to put the game away.

NEWARK, DEL. -- Temple guard Khalif Wyatt knocked down a straight away three-pointer from 25 feet out with 35 seconds left and then hit two free throws with six seconds remaining as Temple spoiled Delaware's upset bid with a 66-63 win at the BCC...Delaware (5-6) had taken a 63-61 lead on a three-pointer by Kyle Anderson with 2:01 left, but the Hens did not score again...Temple (9-3) got double-figure scoring from every starter except Wyatt, who made just 2 of 11 shots from the field and had missed five straight attempts before hitting the biggest field goal of the game...Rahli Jefferson-Hollis led the Hens with 13 points and eight rebounds, Anthony Lee added a career-high 12 points, Juan Fernandez contributed 11 points, and Ramone Moore chipped in with 10 points and a game-high six assists...Devon Saddler led the Hens with 18 points and five rebounds while Kevin McNeil tied his career-high with 13 points...Jamelie Hagins added six points and a team-high eight rebounds but saw his streak of seven straight double-doubles snapped...The Owls upended the Hens for the 17th straight time since January, 1963...UD led by as many as eight points in the opening half, and was still up 31-26 with 1:37 left before Temple scored the last five points of the stanza to cut the half-time margin to one...The Hens still led 40-39 before Temple scored seven straight points to regain and lead...The Owls maintained that lead until an Anderson jumper knotted the score at 49-49 with 8:43 left...The Owls followed with a 7-2 run to take their biggest lead since the opening minutes at 56-51 with 6:10 remaining and stayed in front until a three-point play by Jarvis Threath and a layup from Khalid Lewis put the Hens back on top at 60-59 at the 2:45 mark...Hollis-Jefferson answered with a jumper 17 seconds later to put the Owls back in the lead but the Hens took it right back on Anderson's key three-pointer...Neither team scored again until Wyatt's big three-pointer...After Saddler missed a jumper for Delaware, Temple's Moore grabbed the rebound, sprinted down the right side of the court, and found Wyatt alone behind the top of the key for the game-winner...After Anderson missed a three-pointer, Wyatt hit two free throws...UD had a final chance, but an off-balance three-point attempt by Saddler at the buzzer hit the back of the rim.
